The Series vs. N.C. State

N.C. State leads the overall series with Virginia 69-48, but the Cavaliers have won 14 of 19 contests in the last nine seasons. Since 1980, the Cavaliers are 31-15 in all games against the Wolfpack.

The two teams have split the regular season series the last three seasons. N.C. State hasn't swept the season series in more than a decade—since winning both match-ups (by a combined seven points) in 1988. Virginia has swept the season series six times since then.

Last season, N.C. State won the first meeting 65-62, in Raleigh (Jan. 12), while UVa won in Charlottesville 88-82 (Feb. 12). In the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament, N.C. State earned a 76-65 win (Mar. 10) in the last meeting between the two teams.

The Cavaliers have won 21 of the last 23 games between the two teams at University Hall, including the last 12. State's only two wins in Charlottesville during that stretch came in 1985 and 1988 by a combined margin of three points.

Virginia is 23-11 against the Wolfpack at University Hall and 29-20 in Charlottesville. State's last win at University Hall was a 64-63 victory on February 27, 1988.

Cavaliers and Wolfpack Battle to the Wire

The history of the series between these two schools since the late 1970s has been one marked by many closely contested games. Since 1978, 36 of the 51 games have been decided by less than 10 points. UVa is 25-11 (.694) in those games.

Virginia's last seven wins (going back five seasons) over the Wolfpack have been by a combined 33 points (4.7/g).

Since 1978, four games have been decided by one point, five by two points, six by three points, three by four points and three by five points.

It's curious to note in the long history of the series going back to the first meeting 88 years ago that only three games have gone to overtime. Virginia has been victorious in all three overtime contests. UVa won the first overtime game 81-73 in 1977-78 and won 84-82 in double overtime in 1995-96. In the most recent overtime affair, the Cavaliers won 82-79 in 1998-99. During one stretch (1985-1988) nine consecutive games were decided by nine points or less.

In a bit of an aberration, four of the last five N.C. State wins in the series have been by double digits—67-54 in 1994, 74-55 in 1998, 82-72 in 1999 and 76-65 in 2000. The exception was a 65-62 Wolfpack win last season (Jan. 12, 2000).

Field Goal Percentage is Key to Wins Over 'Pack

Virginia has had the upper hand in the series versus N.C. State over the last decade and one of the keys to the Cavaliers' success is field goal percentage defense. Since the 1989-90 season, Virginia has won 16 of 23 contests. In the 16 wins, UVa has held N.C. State below 45 percent field goal shooting 13 times and under 40 percent nine times. In the Wolfpack's seven victories, they have shot 51.9 percent from the floor, including 61.0 percent (25-41) in last season's ACC Tournament (Mar. 10). The lowest NCSU has shot in a victory over the Cavaliers since 1989-90 was 47.2 percent (25-53) in a 67-54 win in the 1993-94 season.

The Wolfpack shot 42.3 percent from the field, and averaged 68.5 points per game against Virginia over the last 11 seasons. In wins over UVa, N.C. State has shot 51.9 percent from the floor and averaged 75.9 points, compared to 38.7 percent shooting and 65.3 points per game in losses to Virginia.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 16th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 317-157 record for a .669 winning percentage. Gillen is in his third season at Virginia and has posted a 43-29 record (.597 winning percentage). Gillen won the 300th game of his career when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 12 times in 15 seasons (eight NCAA, four NIT). He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times - all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Good Start

Virginia began the 2000-2001 season with 10 consecutive wins before falling to Wake Forest (Jan. 2), marking its best start since the 1992-93 campaign. The 1992-93 team started the season with an 11-0 record. The 10 straight wins to start the season marked the eighth time in the 96-year history of the men's basketball program UVa won 10 games to start a season.

Moving Up in the AP and USA Today/ESPN Polls

The Cavaliers continue to climb in The Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 polls. In the AP poll released January 2 Virginia is ranked eighth and the Cavaliers are ranked ninth in the USA Today/ESPN poll released December 26. The AP ranking of eighth is UVa's highest since being ranked seventh in the poll on January 18, 1993. The Cavaliers' ranking of ninth in the USA Today/ESPN poll is their highest since earning the eighth spot in the final poll of the 1994-95 season (April 4, 1995).

For the first time since the 1995-96 season, the Virginia men's basketball team opened a season ranked in both The Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 polls. Virginia was ranked 24th in the AP's preseason poll and 25th in the preseason USA Today/ESPN poll.

Before the 1995-1996 season Virginia was ranked 19th in the AP and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN polls. The last time the Cavs appeared in any poll prior to this season came during the 1996-97 season when they were ranked 25th in the AP poll (12/3/96).

The 1999-2000 Season

Virginia finished the 1999-2000 season with a 19-12 overall record and a 9-7 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Cavs advanced to postseason play for the first time since receiving a bid to the 1997 NCAA Tournament, but fell to Georgetown in the first round of the 2000 National Invitation Tournament 115-111 in triple overtime.

A Top Five Win

The Cavaliers' 107-89 win over fourth-ranked Tennessee (Dec. 19) at the Jimmy V Classic marked the first time since the 1995 season that Virginia defeated a top-five ranked team. UVa's last win against a top five team prior to the Tennessee victory was a 67-58 win over Kansas in the Sweet 16 of the 1995 NCAA Tournament on March 24 in Kansas City, Mo. The Jayhawks were ranked fourth in the AP poll and fifth in the USA Today/ESPN poll at the time.

Getting the Lead...And Keeping it

Through 11 games and 440 minutes of the 2000-2001 season, the Cavaliers have trailed for just 45:02 - and 37:28 of that came in a loss against Wake Forest (Jan. 2). Prior to trailing Wake Forest for most of the game, the Cavaliers had trailed for only 7:34 and the most time UVa trailed in a single game was 2:43 against Virginia Tech (Nov. 24). In that game, the Cavaliers took the lead for good at the 15:49 mark of the first half which was also the latest point UVa trailed in a game this season prior to Wake Forest. Virginia has not fallen behind in four of its 11 games this season.

A Rare Feat

Senior guard Donald Hand has recorded 1,256 points, 335 rebounds, 431 assists and 154 steals in his career. Hand is just the third UVa player with at least 1,000 points, 300 rebounds, 400 assists and 150 steals in a career. The other two UVa players to accomplish the feat are Othell Wilson (1981-84) - 1,469 points, 375 rebounds, 493 assists and 222 steals, and Harold Deane (1994-97) - 1,763 points, 440 rebounds, 468 assists and 179 steals.

Scoring Lots of Points

The Cavaliers are off to an excellent start offensively in the 2000-2001 season. Through the first 11 games of the season, UVa is averaging 92.7 points per game which is second among all Atlantic Coast Conference schools. The school record for the highest scoring average is 89.8 points per game in the 1954-55 season.

UVa is also shooting 48.8 percent (356-730) from the floor this season. The last time Virginia shot 50 percent from the field in a season was in the 1985-86 season when the Cavaliers connected on 50.1 percent (838-1672) from the floor.

Big Wins

Each of the Cavaliers 10 wins this season have been by 16 points or more. Eight of the 10 wins have been by 19 or more points. Virginia is also outscoring its opponents by 24.1 points per game (92.7 to 68.6).

Big Leads

One of the reasons for Virginia's early season success is its ability to build big leads. In eight of Virginia's wins this season, it built leads of 20 or more points. In the Cavaliers' other two victories (VMI - Dec. 4 and UMBC - Dec. 23), they led by at least 18 points.

Only One Steal

The Cavaliers had just one steal in their 96-73 loss at Wake Forest (Jan. 2). The last time UVa had only one steal in a game was against Duke on March 5, 1998. It wasn't the fewest steals ever in a game against the Deacs, as UVa went without a steal against Wake Forest on January 4, 1998.

50 Points

Virginia has held three of its opponents to 50 points or less this season. UVa limited Virginia Tech to 48 points in its 64-48 victory (Nov. 24) for its season low. Virginia held Bucknell to 49 points in a 99-49 victory (Dec. 28) and Long Island University to 50 points in a 96-50 triumph (Nov. 17).

When UVa limited Virginia Tech to 48 points, it marked the fewest points the Cavaliers have allowed in a game under head coach Pete Gillen. The previous record for fewest points allowed in a game under Gillen was 50 by Dartmouth last season (Jan. 2, 2000) and Long Island University earlier this season (Nov. 17).

Prior to holding Virginia Tech to 48 points, UVa's opponents were averaging 75.8 points per game during Gillen's tenure. Virginia held the Hokies nearly 28 points below that average.

This season, UVa has limited its first 11 opponents to an average of 68.6 points per game. Last year, the Cavaliers gave up 75.4 points per game.

Virginia's offense was rolling in its victory over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20). The Cavaliers lit up the scoreboard in the 117-78 victory with the 117 points tying for the fourth highest single game output in school history. UVa also scored 117 points against Baldwin-Wallace (117-83) in the 1972 season. The school record for points in a game is 128 vs. George Mason (128-98) in 1995. The second highest output is 124 points against Johns Hopkins (124-60) in the 1983 season, while the third highest point total is 118 vs. BYU-Hawaii (118-84) in the 1982 season.

The Cavaliers' 117 points are the most the team has scored since a 115-111 triple overtime loss to Georgetown in last season's NIT.

Virginia scored 70 points in the second half of its 117-78 victory over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20), which is believed to be a school record for points in a half. The previous known high for points in a half was 69 in the second half of UVa's 128-98 victory over George Mason on January 28, 1995. Virginia scored 67 points in the second half of a 124-60 win against Johns Hopkins on November 26, 1982.

Joining the Millennium Club

Virginia junior forward Chris Williams became UVa's 34th player to score 1,000 career points when he drilled a three-point basket with 6:10 remaining in the first half against Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20). Williams finished the game with 15 points and currently has 1,145 in his career. He is now 31st on UVa's all-time scoring list. He needs 13 points to move into 29th place ahead of Olden Polynice (1984-86). Williams joins senior guard Donald Hand as current players reaching the 1,000-point plateau. Hand scored his 1,000th point on Feb. 5, 2000 versus Duke and currently has 1,256 points. Hand is 20th on Virginia's all-time scoring list and needs eight points to move into 19th place a head of Tony Laquintano (1960-62).

Hand and Williams are the first pair of UVa teammates to both have recorded 1,000 career points since Curtis Staples (1,757 points) and Norman Nolan (1,321) played together during the 1997-98 season.

Hand Equals Career High in Assists

Senior guard Donald Hand dished out 11 assists in the Cavaliers' 117-78 win over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20) to tie his career high. He also recorded 11 assists last season against Hampton (Dec. 10, 1999).

Eight Double Digit Scorers

In the first 11 games of the 2000-2001 season, the Cavaliers have had eight different players score in double figures in a game. UVa had 11 players reach double figures in scoring last season.

Virginia double figure scorers this season are: (only first double digit performance is listed)

Stephane Dondon	17 vs. Long Island Univ. (Nov. 17)

Shooting the Long Ball

Virginia's current roster features four of the top 11 career three-point field goal leaders in school history. Senior guard Donald Hand currently ranks sixth with 131 three-pointers and needs just two threes to move into the top five. Junior Chris Williams, graduate student Keith Friel and junior Adam Hall are also ranked in the top 11 of UVa's three-point field goal list. Williams is currently eighth with 78, while Friel has surpassed Hall for 10th place with 73 career threes in just two seasons. Hall is 11th all-time with 67 three-pointers.

Friel has opened the 2000-2001 season by making 28 of 56 (50.0 percent) three-point field goal attempts. In the 1999-2000 season, Friel's first at UVa, he hit 45-109 (.413) three-pointers. Friel's 41.3 percent accuracy from behind the line last season ranks as the fifth best performance by a Cavalier in that category. In addition to his 73 career threes at Virginia, Friel also made 60 three-pointers in two seasons at Notre Dame and has a total of 133 career threes.

No Turnovers

In UVa's 98-79 win over Purdue (Nov. 29), senior guard Donald Hand handed out eight assists and did not commit a turnover. It marked the third time in his career that he did not commit a turnover in a game. The other no turnover games came last season against Clemson (Jan. 15) - 5 assists, 0 turnovers, and Florida State (Jan. 26) - 3 assists, 0 turnovers.

Mason Sets Career Highs

Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr., set career highs for points and assists in a game in UVa's 117-78 win over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20). Mason tallied 28 points on 10 of 14 shooting from the field, including a two-for-three effort from three-point range, and he also made six of seven free throws. His former career best was 22 points against Duke (Jan. 5, 2000). With seven assists against the Chanticleers, Mason surpassed his previous career best of four assists on three different occasions.

Mason currently leads the Cavaliers in scoring with an average of 15.2 points per game and is shooting 92.3 percent (60-65) from the free throw line.

Truly a Charity Stripe

Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr., has made the most of his free throw attempts this season. Mason has made his last 43 free throw attempts and 60-65 (92.3 percent) attempts this season, which leads the ACC. The Virginia record for consecutive free throws made is 48 by Jeff Lamp in the 1979-80 season.

Against UMBC (Dec. 23), Mason made all 14 of his free throw attempts and his perfect effort tied the second best free throw performance by a UVa player in a game. Bryant Stith made all 14 of his free throws against Georgia Tech on January 21, 1990. Buzzy Wilkinson holds the school record with a perfect 17 for 17 effort against Washington & Lee on January 14, 1955.

With his 92.3 percent (60-65) accuracy from the free throw line this season, Mason is ahead of Jeff Lamp's school record for free throw percentage in a single season. Lamp made 154-178 free throws for 86.5 percent in the 1980-81 season. Mason has made 123-142 free throws in his career for a mark of 86.6 percent, which surpasses Lamp's UVa career free throw percentage of 84.9 percent (635-748).

Mason's current streak began against Purdue (Nov. 29) when he made his last four free throws (he was five for six in the game). Mason was two for two against VMI (Dec. 4), four for four versus Ohio (Dec. 6), and nine for nine against Tennessee (Dec. 19). He was 14-14 against UMBC (Dec. 23), before going three for three against Bucknell (Dec. 28). Against Dartmouth (Dec. 30), Mason was four for four from the line and in his last game versus Wake Forest (Jan. 2), he made all three free throw attempts.

Hand's Free Throw Streak Ends at 33

Senior guard Donald Hand had his impressive streak of consecutive made free throws end at 33 against Wake Forest (Jan. 2). Hand converted his first eight attempts from the line in the game before missing his next two free throws with 5:53 remaining in the contest. Hand's streak dated back to the Purdue game (Nov. 29) when he made his final six attempts (he was nine of 11 in the game).

On the season, Hand has made 44 of 50 free throw attempts for an impressive 88 percent.

Taking Care of the Basketball

In 11 games this season, the Cavaliers have committed 140 turnovers for an average of 12.7 per game. UVa has committed more than 13 turnovers in a game only three times this season - 17 vs. Tennessee (Dec. 19), 15 vs. VMI (Dec. 4) and 17 vs. Virginia Tech (Nov. 24). On the other hand, Virginia's opponents have committed 225 turnovers for an average of 20.5 per game. The fewest turnovers a UVa opponent has committed in a game this season is nine by Wake Forest (Jan. 2).

Great Ratio

On the season, senior guard Donald Hand has recorded 76 assists (6.9 assists per game) while committing only 28 turnovers for a 2.7 to 1 assist to turnover ratio.

Hand is second among all ACC players with 6.9 assists per game and is ninth in the nation (Dec. 18 NCAA stats). He is third in the ACC in assist to turnover ratio (2.7 to 1). Hand is fourth on the team in scoring with an average of 12.2 points per game. He also leads the team with 22 steals.

Hand Among Assists and Steals Leaders

In addition to holding the sixth spot on UVa's career three-point field goal list (131 three-pointers), senior guard Donald Hand ranks in Virginia's top 10 in both career assists and steals. Hand is fifth on the Cavaliers' all-time assists list with 431. He needs 38 assists to move past Harold Deane's (1994-97) fourth place total of 468. Hand is also tied with Bobby Stokes (1976-79) for sixth in career steals with 154. He needs six more to tie Richard Morgan (1986-89) for fifth place. In addition, Hand is 20th on UVa's career scoring list with 1,256 points. With eight more points, Hand will move up to 19th place all-time.

Watson Ties Career High in Rebounds

Sophomore forward/center Travis Watson tied his career high by pulling down 16 rebounds against UMBC (Dec. 23). His 16 rebounds equalled his career high set against Duke on January 5, 2000.

Watson also scored 19 points against the Retrievers (just one point shy of his career high) for his third double-double of the season and 11th of his career. Against Bucknell (Dec. 28), Watson posted 14 points and 11 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season and 12th of his career.

Watson is third on the team in scoring with 13.2 points per game and leads the team with 9.4 rebounds per game. He is second in the ACC in rebounding.

The Farther the Better

Guard Keith Friel is shooting better from three-point range than he is from inside the arc. Friel has connected on 28 of 56 three-point attempts for 50.0 percent, while his two-point field goal percentage is just 26.7 percent (4-15).

Friel on Fire

Guard Keith Friel is off to a great shooting start this season. Friel has made 28 of 56 three-point attempts for an impressive .500 shooting percentage. He is second in the ACC in three-point field goal shooting. Friel made a UVa career-high five three-pointers on eight attempts against Virginia Tech (Nov. 24) and scored 15 points. Friel made four of five three-point attempts in scoring a UVa career-high 16 points against Ohio (Dec. 6). He made four of six threes in equaling his career high with 16 points against Tennessee (Dec. 19). His overall career best effort from beyond the arc is eight threes against Syracuse (Jan. 21, 1998) while playing for Notre Dame.

Here's a look at Friel's game-by-game three-point field goal shooting in the 2000-2001 season:

Long Island University (Nov. 17)	3-4	.750
Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20)	2-5	.400

A total of 11 lettermen (which does not include Greg Lyons) are back to take the hardwood in 2000-2001.

- 93.8 percent (255 of 272) of the steals
- 92.7 percent (2,341 of 2,526) of the points
- 91.0 percent (1,024 of 1,125) of the rebounds

Cavaliers Welcome Two Newcomers

The 2000-2001 Virginia men's basketball team features two new faces and one returning member from the 1998-99 squad. Joining the 11 returning lettermen from last season, including four returning starters, are first-years J.C. Mathis and Maurice Young, and senior Greg Lyons.

Mathis is a 6-8 forward from John F. Kennedy High School in Brooklyn, New York. He was a first-team All-City selection and led Kennedy to a 28-3 record, and both the Bronx championship and the Public Schools Athletic League (PSAL) title during his senior year.

Young, a 6-4 forward from Mitchellville, Md., started four years for Bishop McNamara High School. He was the team's Most Valuable Player three times and the team captain twice. He finished his high school career as Bishop McNamara's all-time leading scorer (2,125 points) and rebounder (772 rebounds), and was a McDonald's All-American nominee.

Lyons rejoins the Virginia team after not playing last year. He saw limited action during the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons. A two-year letterman, Lyons was a high school teammate of former UVa player Willie Dersch.

Mapp Out

Sophomore guard Majestic Mapp tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee and underwent surgery during the summer. Mapp injured the knee while playing basketball at St. Raymond's High School, his alma mater, on August 2. He is expected to be out of action four to six months.

Mapp was second on the team in assists last season (2.2 apg) and ranked fourth among all Atlantic Coast Conference freshmen in that category. He averaged 5.3 points a game and was named to the ACC Honor Roll for his academic work and athletic participation.

Studying Abroad

Last summer the Virginia men's basketball team traveled to Europe to compete against several club and professional teams in Germany, Belgium and France. The Cavaliers finished the trip with a 5-1 record and won their five games by an average of 35.4 points per game (527-350).

All 11 of Virginia's returning players from the 1999-2000 team made the trip, as did returning player Greg Lyons from the 1998-1999 squad. Incoming freshmen were not eligible to make the trip.

The trip was a homecoming of sorts for senior forward Stephane Dondon who is from Toulouse, France. Dondon was among several Cavaliers who turned in strong performances during the tour. In the team's win against TSV Breitengussbach, Dondon led the team with 21 points on 9-10 shooting and added nine rebounds.

Senior guard Keith Friel led the team in scoring in wins against Sceaux BBC and Lummen BBC with 23 points in each game.

Several Cavaliers recorded double-doubles during the trip, including sophomore Travis Watson who led the team with four double-doubles. Watson's performances were highlighted by a 22-point, 10-rebound effort in the win over Sceaux BBC. Also recording double-doubles on the trip were Donald Hand, Chris Williams, Adam Hall and Jason Rogers. Rogers had a 10-point, 10-rebound game in UVa's win over TSV Breitengussbach, and a 12-point, seven-rebound performance in a win against Lummen BBC.

The trip was Virginia's first since the Cavaliers compiled a 3-3 record during a 1996 European tour.
