The Series vs. Tennessee

Tennessee and Virginia have been infrequent foes throughout the years with UVa leading the all-time series 6-3. The first game in the series was played in the 1916-17 season. The Cavaliers hold a 2-0 edge in games played at neutral sites.

The last four meetings in the series occurred during the postseason. In the most recent meeting, Virginia defeated the Volunteers 77-52 in the second round of the National Invitation Tournament on March 23, 1992 in University Hall. UVa defeated Tennessee 62-48 in the 1981 NCAA Tournament in Atlanta and 54-51 in the 1982 NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis. Tennessee won 61-54 in Knoxville in the 1985 NIT.

The first four games of the series were played in Charlottesville with the Volunteers winning the initial meeting 24-21 in the 1916-17 season. The Cavaliers earned their first win, 58-21, the following season (1917-18).

Virginia vs. the Southeastern Conference

Virginia is 13-21 (.382) against the SEC all-time dating back to that league's first season in 1932-33. In their last matchup against an SEC team, the Cavaliers lost to South Carolina 73-71 last season in the first round of the Puerto Rico Shootout.

Taking games played when a school was in the SEC only, the series looks like this (records listed for UVa): vs. Alabama 1-4, Arkansas 0-2, Florida 1-0, Georgia Tech 0-1, Georgia 2-1, Kentucky 0-4, Louisiana State 1-0, Mississippi 1-0, Mississippi State 1-1, South Carolina 1-1, Tennessee 4-2, and Vanderbilt 1-5. Virginia has never played Auburn, Sewanee or Tulane while those schools were member of the SEC. (Please note that Virginia has played all of these schools, but not while they were members of the SEC.)

In all games against the 12 current SEC members, Virginia is 49-53 (.480).

Best Start

Virginia's 6-0 start in the 2000-2001 season is its best since the 1992-93 campaign. The 1992-93 team started the season with an 11-0 record.

Winning Streaks

In the 96-year history of the men's basketball program, the Cavaliers have started out a season with a 6-0 record 20 times. A win against Tennessee would mark the 15th time Virginia has started a season with seven consecutive victories.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 16th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 313-156 record for a .667 winning percentage. Gillen is in his third season at Virginia and has posted a 39-28 record. Gillen won the 300th game of his career when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 12 times in 15 seasons (eight NCAA, four NIT). He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times - all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

The 1999-2000 Season

Virginia finished the 1999-2000 season with a 19-12 overall record and a 9-7 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Cavs advanced to postseason play for the first time since receiving a bid to the 1997 NCAA Tournament, but fell to Georgetown in the first round of the 2000 National Invitation Tournament 115-111 in triple overtime.

Moving Up in the AP and USA Today/ESPN Polls

The Cavaliers continue to climb in The Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 polls. In the polls released December 11, Virginia is ranked 14th in both the AP and USA Today/ESPN polls. The AP ranking of 14th is UVa's highest since being ranked 13th in the final poll on March 13, 1995. The Cavaliers' ranking of 14th in the USA Today/ESPN poll is their highest since earning the 14th spot in the preseason poll prior to the 1995-96 season. Virginia finished the 1994-95 season ranked eighth (April 4, 1995).

For the first time since the 1995-96 season, the Virginia men's basketball team opened a season ranked in both The Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Top 25 polls. Virginia was ranked 24th in the AP's preseason poll and 25th in the preseason USA Today/ESPN poll.

Before the 1995-1996 season Virginia was ranked 19th in the AP and 14th in the USA Today/ESPN polls. The last time the Cavs appeared in any poll prior to this season came during the 1996-97 season when they were ranked 25th in the AP poll (12/3/96).

Here's a look at Virginia's ranking in the AP and USA Today/ESPN polls this season:

Date	AP	USAToday/ESPN
Preseason	24	25
Nov. 13	25	No Poll
Nov. 20	25	NR
Nov. 27	21	22
Dec. 4	16	19

2 • Virginia vs. Tennessee, December 19, 2000

The Last Time

The Cavaliers have played their share of teams ranked in the top five of the AP poll in the last few years. In the last three seasons, UVa's 13 games against teams ranked in the top five of the AP poll have been conference opponents.

Tonight's game against Tennessee marks the first time Virginia has played a non-conference game against a top-five ranked team since the 1996-97 season. In the 1996-97 season, UVa lost to second-ranked Kansas 80-63 in the championship game of the Maui Invitational on November 27.

The last time Virginia beat a team ranked in the top five of the AP poll was in the 1995 NCAA Tournament when the Cavaliers defeated Kansas 67-58 in the Sweet 16 in Kansas City, Mo. on March 24. The Jayhawks were ranked fourth in the AP poll and fifth in the USAToday/ESPN poll at the time.

The last time UVa played any team ranked in the top five was last season when it played third-ranked Duke on February 5 and lost 106-86.

(This note is based on the national polls released on December 11).

Only 48 Points

UVa limited Virginia Tech to 48 points in its 64-48 victory (Nov. 24), marking the fewest points the Cavaliers have allowed in a game under head coach Pete Gillen. The previous record for fewest points allowed in a game under Gillen was 50 by Dartmouth last season (Jan. 2, 2000) and Long Island University earlier this season (Nov. 17).

Prior to holding Virginia Tech to 48 points, UVa's opponents were averaging 75.8 points per game during Gillen's tenure. Virginia held the Hokies nearly 28 points below that average.

This season, UVa has limited its first six opponents to an average of 66.0 points per game. Last year, the Cavaliers gave up 75.4 points per game.

Scoring Lots of Points

The Cavaliers are off to an excellent start offensively in the 2000-2001 season. Through the first six games of the season, UVa is averaging 92.3 points per game which leads all Atlantic Coast Conference schools and is third in the nation. The school record for the highest scoring average is 89.8 points per game in the 1954-55 season.

UVa is also shooting 51.0 percent (199-390) from the floor this season, which is 16th in the country. The last time Virginia shot 50 percent from the field in a season was in the 1985-86 season when the Cavaliers connected on 50.1 percent (838-1672) from the floor.

Big Leads

One of the reasons for Virginia's early season success is its ability to build big leads. In five of the first six games this season, Virginia has built leads of 20 or more points. In the only game the Cavaliers failed to lead by 20 points (VMI - Dec. 4), they led by 19 points - on three occasions.

19

The Cavaliers last three victories have all been by the same margin - 19 points. UVa defeated Purdue 98-79 (Nov. 29), VMI 89-70 (Dec. 4) and Ohio 90-71 (Dec. 6).

117

Virginia's offense was rolling in its victory over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20). The Cavaliers lit up the scoreboard in the 117-78 victory with the 117 points tying for the fourth highest single game output in school history. UVa also scored 117 points against Baldwin-Wallace (117-83) in the 1972 season. The school record for points in a game is 128 vs. George Mason (128-98) in 1995. The second highest output is 124 points against Johns Hopkins (124-60) in the 1983 season, while the third highest point total is 118 vs. BYU-Hawaii (118-84) in the 1982 season.

The Cavaliers' 117 points are the most the team has scored since a 115-111 triple overtime loss to Georgetown in last season's NIT.

Virginia scored 70 points in the second half of its 117-78 victory over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20), which is believed to be a school record for points in a half. The previous known high for points in a half was 69 in the second half of UVa's 128-98 victory over George Mason on January 28, 1995. Virginia scored 67 points in the second half of a 124-60 win against Johns Hopkins on November 26, 1982.

NCAA Statistics

Virginia appears in several categories in the NCAA Division I statistics for games played through December 11.

Individually, guard Keith Friel is ninth in three-point field goal percentage at 56.7 percent (17-30). Guard Donald Hand is tied for 11th in assists with 7.2 per game.

As a team, the Cavaliers are tied for first in the country in winning percentage at 1.000 (6-0). UVa is third in scoring with an average of 92.3 points per game. Virginia is sixth in the nation in scoring margin at plus 26.3 points per game (92.3 ppg to 66.0 ppg). With a shooting percentage of 51.0 percent (199-390), the Cavaliers are 16th among all Division I teams.

Joining the Millennium Club

Virginia junior forward Chris Williams became UVa's 34th player to score 1,000 career points when he drilled a three-point basket with 6:10 remaining in the first half against Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20). Williams finished the game with 15 points and currently has 1,069 in his career. He is now 32nd on UVa's all-time scoring list. Williams joins senior guard Donald Hand as current players reaching the 1,000-point plateau. Hand scored his 1,000th point on Feb. 5, 2000 versus Duke and currently has 1,199 points. Hand is 25th on Virginia's all-time scoring list.

Hand and Williams are the first pair of UVa teammates to both have recorded 1,000 career points since Curtis Staples (1,757 points) and Norman Nolan (1,321) played together during the 1997-98 season.

Shooting Accuracy

The trio of junior forward Chris Williams, junior forward/guard Adam Hall and sophomore forward/center Travis Watson have combined to shoot 58.8 percent (90-153) from the field this season. Williams leads the way at 59.6 percent (34-57), while Hall is shooting 58.5 percent (24-41). Watson has made 32 of 55 attempts from the floor for 58.2 percent.

Six Different Leading Scorers

Virginia has had six different players lead the team in scoring in games this season (in two of UVa's games, two players tied for team high honors in scoring). Senior forward Stephane Dondon led the team with 17 points in the season-opener against Long Island (Nov. 17). Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr., posted a career-high 28 points against Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20) and 23 points against VMI (Dec. 4) to lead the team in both of those games. Senior guard Keith Friel tallied 15 points against Virginia Tech (Nov. 24) to lead the Cavaliers, and then scored 16 points against Ohio (Dec. 6) to tie sophomore forward/center Travis Watson for team scoring honors. Senior guard Donald Hand and junior forward Chris Williams round out UVa's leading scorers in a game as they both poured in 24 points against Purdue (Nov. 29).

A Rare Feat

Senior guard Donald Hand has recorded 1,199 points, 326 rebounds, 398 assists and 147 steals in his career. With two more assists and three more steals, Hand will become just the third UVa player with at least 1,000 points, 300 rebounds, 400 assists and 150 steals in a career. The other two UVa players to accomplish the feat are Othell Wilson (1981-84) - 1,469 points, 375 rebounds, 493 assists and 222 steals, and Harold Deane (1994-97) - 1,763 points, 440 rebounds, 468 assists and 179 steals.

Shooting the Long Ball

Virginia's current roster features three of the top 10 career three-point field goal leaders in school history and a fourth player who is close to joining the trio during the 2000-2001 season. Senior guard Donald Hand currently ranks sixth with 127 three-pointers and needs just six threes to move into the top five. Juniors Chris Williams and Adam Hall are also on the top 10 list with 75 and 65 career three-pointers, respectively. Williams is currently eighth, while Hall is tenth all-time.

Guard Keith Friel is quickly approaching UVa's top 10 as he continues his sharp-shooting of the 1999-2000 season. Friel hit 45-109 (.413) three-pointers last season and is about to add his name to the all-time list in just his second season with Virginia. Friel's 41.3 percent accuracy from behind the line last season ranks as the fifth best performance by a Cavalier in that category.

Friel has opened the 2000-2001 season by making 17 of 30 (56.7 percent) three-point field goal attempts. Friel now has 62 career three-pointers while in a Virginia uniform and needs three to tie Adam Hall for 10th place with 65 threes. Friel also made 60 three-pointers in two seasons at Notre Dame and has a total of 122 career threes.

Mason Sets Career Highs

Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr. set career highs for points and assists in a game in UVa's 117-78 win over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20). Mason tallied 28 points on 10 of 14 shooting from the field, including a two-for-three effort from three-point range, and he also made six of seven free throws. His former career best was 22 points against Duke (Jan. 5, 2000). With seven assists against the Chanticleers, Mason surpassed his previous career best of four assists on three different occasions.

Taking Care of the Basketball

In six games this season, the Cavaliers have committed 76 turnovers for an average of 12.7 per game. UVa has committed more than 13 turnovers in a game only twice this season - 15 vs. VMI (Dec. 4) and 17 vs. Virginia Tech (Nov. 24). On the other hand, Virginia's opponents have committed 129 turnovers for an average of 21.5 per game. The fewest turnovers a UVa opponent has committed in a game this season is 19 by Virginia Tech (Nov. 24).

No Turnovers

In UVa's 98-79 win over Purdue (Nov. 29), senior guard Donald Hand handed out eight assists and did not commit a turnover. It marked the third time in his career that he did not commit a turnover in a game. The other no turnover games came last season against Clemson (Jan. 15) - 5 assists, 0 turnovers, and Florida State (Jan. 26) - 3 assists, 0 turnovers.

Hand Equals Career High in Assists

Senior guard Donald Hand dished out 11 assists in the Cavaliers' 117-78 win over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20) to tie his career high. He also recorded 11 assists last season against Hampton (Dec. 10, 1999).

Great Ratio

On the season, senior guard Donald Hand has recorded 43 assists (7.2 assists per game) while committing only 13 turnovers for an impressive 3.3 to 1 assist to turnover ratio. Hand has committed only eight turnovers in his last four games and 10 turnovers in the previous five games.

Hand leads all ACC players with 7.2 assists per game and is tied for 11th in the nation. He is third in assist to turnover ratio (3.3 to 1). Hand is fourth on the team in scoring with an average of 12.8 points per game. He also leads the team with 15 steals.

Hand Among Assists and Steals Leaders

In addition to holding the sixth spot on UVa's career three-point field goal list (127 three-pointers), senior guard Donald Hand ranks in Virginia's top 10 in both career assists and steals. Hand is seventh on the Cavaliers' all-time assists list with 398. He needs four assists to move past Cory Alexander's (1992-95) sixth place total of 401. Hand also stands seventh in career steals with 147 and needs seven more to tie Bobby Stokes (1976-79) for sixth place. In addition, Hand is in 25th place on UVa's career scoring list with 1,199 points. With 20 more points, Hand will move past Jim Miller (1982-85) into 24th place all-time.

4 • Virginia vs. Tennessee, December 19, 2000

Friel on Fire

Guard Keith Friel is off to a great shooting start this season. Friel has made 17 of 30 three-point attempts for an impressive .567 shooting percentage. He made a UVa career-high five three-pointers on eight attempts against Virginia Tech (Nov. 24) and scored 15 points. Friel made four of five three-point attempts in scoring a UVa career-high 16 points against Ohio (Dec. 6). His overall career best effort from beyond the arc is eight threes against Syracuse (Jan. 21, 1998) while playing for Notre Dame.

Here's a look at Friel's game-by-game three-point field goal shooting in the 2000-2001 season:

Long Island University (Nov. 17)	3-4	.750
Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20)	2-5	.400
Virginia Tech (Nov. 24)	5-8	.625
Purdue (Nov. 29)	3-6	.500
VMI (Dec. 4)	0-2	.000
Ohio (Dec. 6)	4-5	.800

12 Different Scorers Times Two

In the first two games of the 2000-2001 season, Virginia had 12 players score. That streak stopped in UVa's win over Virginia Tech (Nov. 24) as seven players were able to put points on the board. In their season-opening 96-50 victory over Long Island University (Nov. 17), the Cavaliers had 12 different players score with eight players tallying seven or more points. In UVa's 117-78 win over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20), nine players scored six or more points.

Last season, Virginia had 12 players score in a game four times. UVa had 12 players score in wins over VMI (11/21/99), Loyola (12/8/99), Hampton (12/10/99), and Dartmouth (1/2/00).

Seven Players Drain Threes

In addition to the 12 players scoring in the season-opening win against Long Island (Nov. 17), seven of those players connected on three-point field goals. Last season, UVa also had seven different players make threes in a win over Loyola (12/8/99).

In six games this season, nine different players have connected from beyond the three-point arc. Last season, 11 different UVa players made three-point baskets.

Young Named ACC Rookie of the Week

Freshman forward/guard Maurice Young was selected as the ACC Co-Rookie of the Week for his play in UVa's 96-50 win over Long Island University (Nov. 17). He shared the award with Duke's Chris Duhon. In his collegiate debut, Young scored eight points and grabbed four rebounds. Young was four of six from the field and also added an assist in 11 minutes of action.

Virginia Splits a Pair of Exhibition Games

The Cavaliers were 1-1 in their two exhibition games during the preseason. Virginia lost to the London Leopards 89-88 on November 4, but bounced back with a 95-80 win over the Nantucket Nectars Naturals on November 12.

UVa Improves to 6-0 With 90-71 Win over Ohio

The Cavaliers had five players score in double figures for their second consecutive game in their 90-71 victory over Ohio University (Dec. 6) at University Hall. Virginia broke open a close game with a 16-2 run early in the second half.

Graduate student guard Keith Friel and sophomore forward/center Travis Watson led Virginia's balanced scoring attack with 16 points apiece. Friel made his mark from long range as he made four of five three-point attempts en route to setting his UVa career high for points. In addition to his 16 points, Watson pulled down a game-high eight rebounds and added two blocked shots, two steals and two assists. Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr. tallied 15 points, four rebounds, two assists and two steals. Senior guard Donald Hand and junior forward Chris Williams rounded out Virginia's double figure scorers with 13 and 12 points, respectively. Hand also contributed six rebounds, four assists and two steals, while Williams added seven rebounds and three assists.

UVa held a single digit lead throughout much of the first half and took a 40-33 advantage into the lockerroom. The Bobcats closed to within five, 43-38, with 17:34 to play, but the Cavaliers responded with a 16-2 run to take a 59-40 lead with 13:15 to play. Watson began the spurt with a pair of slam dunks, while Friel contributed a pair of three-pointers. The Cavaliers extended their lead to as many as 25 points on two occasions before earning the 90-71 victory.

Anthony Jones and Steve Esterkamp paced Ohio with 18 and 17 points, respectively.

Cavaliers Post 89-70 Win Over Determined VMI Squad

Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr. scored a game-high 23 points to lead Virginia to an 89-70 win over VMI (Dec. 4) at Cameron Hall in Lexington, Va. Mason made 10 of 16 attempts from the floor, including one three-pointer, and drained a pair of free throws for his 23 points. He also added four rebounds, four assists and four steals.

Junior forward/guard Adam Hall tallied 17 points, while junior forward Chris Williams added 16 points. Hall was seven of eight from the floor, while Williams made seven of 10 attempts from the field. Senior guard Donald Hand contributed 12 points, nine assists, four rebounds and four steals. Sophomore forward/center Travis Watson registered his second double-double of the season with 10 points and 11 rebounds. He also blocked three shots. Eric Mann paced VMI with 16 points and 10 rebounds.

The Cavaliers built their lead to as many as 19 points, 41-22, with 2:32 remaining in the first half. The determined Keydets cut the deficit to 12, 46-34, at halftime. VMI scored the first five points of the second half to trim UVa's advantage to seven, 46-39. The Cavaliers responded with an 8-0 run to push their lead back up to 15, 54-39, with 17:03 to play. VMI again closed to within seven, 72-65, with 9:23 to go, but three-pointers by Hand and Williams, a Hall free throw and layup, and a Mason layup, sandwiched around a Keydet free throw, gave UVa an 83-66 lead with 5:21 to play.

As a team, Virginia shot 52.9 percent (37-70) from the floor, including 56.7 percent (17-30) in the second half.

Virginia Tops Purdue in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

The Cavaliers improved to 4-0 on the season with a 98-79 victory over Purdue (Nov. 29) in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge at University Hall. Senior guard Donald Hand led UVa to the victory with season-highs of 24 points and nine rebounds. Hand also dished out eight assists and had four steals, and did not commit a turnover in 33 minutes of action.

Junior forward Chris Williams also recorded a season-high 24 points and added nine rebounds, four assists and three steals. Junior forward/guard Adam Hall scored a then season-high 14 points on seven of 10 shooting from the field and contributed six rebounds, two assists and a pair of steals. Graduate student guard Keith Friel added 11 points, including three three-point field goals.

The Boilermakers took a quick lead, 5-2, two minutes into the game. A layup by Hand at the 16:32 mark gave Virginia the lead for good, 6-5. The layup by Hand was part of a 13-0 run that gave UVa a 15-5 edge with 14:24 to play in the first half. Purdue closed within 17-10 at the 13:16 mark, but the Cavaliers then embarked on a 15-3 run to take a 32-13 advantage with 7:28 left in the opening half.

The Cavaliers led 45-27 at halftime and never saw their lead shrink to less than 13 points the rest of the game. Joe Marshall led Purdue with 19 points.

Cavaliers Defeat In-State Rival Virginia Tech

Virginia improved to 3-0 on the season with a 64-48 victory over Virginia Tech (Nov. 24) at Cassell Coliseum in Blacksburg, Va. Guard Keith Friel led the Cavaliers with 15 points on five of eight shooting from three-point range (five of nine overall). Sophomore forward/center Travis Watson registered his first double-double of the season with 12 points and 11 rebounds, while sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr. added 10 points. Senior guard Donald Hand dished out nine assists to go along with seven points.

The Cavaliers used an 18-4 run to turn a 6-5 deficit into a 23-10 lead with just over nine minutes left in the first half. The Hokies closed to within 23-16 a few moments later, but UVa used a 9-0 run to take a 32-16 advantage. The Cavaliers led 38-23 at halftime. Virginia Tech pulled to within 12, 42-30, with 15:40 left in the game, but Virginia pushed its lead to 20, 50-30, over the next five minutes.

In the game, UVa made eight of 19 three-point field goal attempts (42.1 percent) and 16 of 20 free throws (80 percent) to help offset 37 percent shooting (20-54) from the field. Virginia Tech shot 40 percent (20-50) from the field, but only made six of 18 (33.3 percent) free throws. Carlos Dixon led the Hokies with 13 points.

UVa Rolls to Victory Over Coastal Carolina

Virginia scored 70 points in the second half and cruised to a 117-78 victory over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20) at University Hall. The Cavaliers' 117 points ties for the fourth highest single game point output in school history, while the 70 points scored in the second half is believed to be a school record for points in a half.

Sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr. led the Cavaliers with a team and career-high 28 points and also dished out a career-best seven assists. Sophomore forward/center Travis Watson added 17 points and seven rebounds, while junior forward Chris Williams added 15 points, including the 1,000th point of his career. Senior guard Donald Hand registered UVa's first double-double of the season with 12 points and a career-high tying 11 assists. For the second consecutive game, the Cavaliers had 12 different players score points.

Virginia shot 56.3 percent (40-71) in the game, including a sizzling 65.7 percent (23-35) in the second half. The Chanticleers shot a respectable 46.7 percent (28-60) in the game, but committed 24 turnovers to UVa's nine. Virginia also held a 41-29 edge in rebounds.

The Cavaliers, who never trailed in the game, jumped out to a 19-6 lead, but Coastal Carolina was able to pull within five points, 31-26, with 7:08 left in the first half. UVa pushed the lead back up to 13, 47-34, at intermission. Virginia broke the game open with a 23-2 run in the first 5:16 of the second half that gave the Cavaliers a 70-36 lead.

Cavaliers Impressive in Season-Opening Win

Virginia opened the 2000-2001 season with a 96-50 victory over Long Island University (Nov. 17) at University Hall. Senior forward Stephane Dondon led a balanced scoring effort with a career-high 17 points, while sophomore forward/center Travis Watson added 16 points. Dondon also contributed six rebounds, three assists, two steals and a blocked shot in the win. A total of 12 Cavaliers scored in the game with eight players scoring seven or more points. Senior guards Donald Hand and Keith Friel, junior forward Chris Williams, and sophomore guard Roger Mason, Jr., scored nine points apiece in the game.

The Cavaliers shot 61.0 percent (36-59) in the game, including a 10-for-20 effort from three-point range. UVa also played great defense in the game, forcing 20 turnovers while limiting the Blackbirds to 35.1 percent shooting from the field (20-57).

Hand, Friel and Williams Elected Captains

Senior guards Donald Hand and Keith Friel, and junior forward Chris Williams have been elected captains of the 2000-01 Virginia basketball team by their teammates.

Hand is the first UVa men's basketball player to serve as a team captain for three consecutive years. He served as a team co-captain last season and as a tri-captain in 1998-99.

Friel Competing as a Graduate Student

Guard Keith Friel received his bachelor's degree in anthropology from UVa in May of 2000 and is competing this season as a graduate student.

Cavaliers Welcome Two Newcomers

The 2000-2001 Virginia men's basketball team features two new faces and one returning member from the 1998-99 squad. Joining the 11 returning lettermen from last season, including four returning starters, are first-years J.C. Mathis and Maurice Young, and senior Greg Lyons.

Mathis is a 6-8 forward from John F. Kennedy High School in Brooklyn, New York. He was a first-team All-City selection and led Kennedy to a 28-3 record, and both the Bronx championship and the Public Schools Athletic League (PSAL) title during his senior year.

Young, a 6-4 forward from Mitchellville, Md., started four years for Bishop McNamara High School. He was the team's Most Valuable Player three times and the team captain twice. He finished his high school career as Bishop McNamara's all-time leading scorer (2,125 points) and rebounder (772 rebounds), and was a McDonald's All-American nominee.

Lyons rejoins the Virginia team after not playing last year. He saw limited action during the 1997-98 and 1998-99 seasons. A two-year letterman, Lyons was a high school teammate of former UVa player Willie Dersch.

Mapp Out

Sophomore guard Majestic Mapp tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right knee and underwent surgery during the summer. Mapp injured the knee while playing basketball at St. Raymond's High School, his alma mater, on August 2. He is expected to be out of action four to six months.

Mapp was second on the team in assists last season (2.2 apg) and ranked fourth among all Atlantic Coast Conference freshmen in that category. He averaged 5.3 points a game and was named to the ACC Honor Roll for his academic work and athletic participation.

Four Starters Return for 2000-2001

The Cavaliers return four starters from last season—Donald Hand, Chris Williams, Adam Hall, and Travis Watson. In addition, UVa also returns Roger Mason, who started 11 games, and all but three members of last year's squad. A total of 11 lettermen (which does not include Greg Lyons) are back to take the hardwood in 2000-2001.

With the return of the 11 letterwinners, it's not surprising that Virginia returns from last season:

93.8 percent (255 of 272) of the steals
92.7 percent (2,341 of 2,526) of the points
91.0 percent (1,024 of 1,125) of the rebounds
91.3 percent (5,800 of 6,350) of the minutes
90.5 percent (398 of 440) of the assists

Pre-Season Prognostications

In addition to being ranked in the AP and USA Today/ESPN polls, the Virginia men's basketball team was ranked among the top 30 teams in the nation in several other preseason rankings. Virginia was ranked 18th by

The Sporting News, 23rd by Basketball News and Dick Vitale's College Basketball 2000-2001 Preview, 24th by Street & Smith's, and 27th by the Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook.

Studying Abroad

Last summer the Virginia men's basketball team traveled to Europe to compete against several club and professional teams in Germany, Belgium and France. The Cavaliers finished the trip with a 5-1 record and won their five games by an average of 35.4 points per game (527-350).

All 11 of Virginia's returning players from the 1999-2000 team made the trip, as did returning player Greg Lyons from the 1998-1999 squad. Incoming freshmen were not eligible to make the trip.

The trip was a homecoming of sorts for senior forward Stephane Dondon who is from Toulouse, France. Dondon was among several Cavaliers who turned in strong performances during the tour. In the team's win against TSV Breitengussbach, Dondon led the team with 21 points on 9-10 shooting and added nine rebounds.

Senior guard Keith Friel led the team in scoring in wins against Sceaux BBC and Lummen BBC with 23 points in each game.

Several Cavaliers recorded double-doubles during the trip, including sophomore Travis Watson who led the team with four double-doubles. Watson's performances were highlighted by a 22-point, 10-rebound effort in the win over Sceaux BBC. Also recording double-doubles on the trip were Donald Hand, Chris Williams, Adam Hall and Jason Rogers. Rogers had a 10-point, 10-rebound game in UVA's win over TSV Breitengussbach, and a 12-point, seven-rebound performance in a win against Lummen BBC.

The trip was Virginia's first since the Cavaliers compiled a 3-3 record during a 1996 European tour.

Dartmouth Starting Time Finalized

Virginia's game at Dartmouth scheduled for December 30 will begin at 1:00 p.m. The game was previously listed as a 7:00 p.m. start.
