OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia, ranked 22nd in the AP poll and 15th in the USAToday/ESPN poll, stands at 16-8 overall and 6-7 in the Atlantic Coast Conference this season. The Cavaliers have lost their last two games and are coming off a 66-59 loss to Florida State (Feb. 20) in Tallahassee, Fla. Georgia Tech stands at 12-15 overall and 4-9 in the ACC. The Yellow Jackets have won two consecutive contests and are coming off a 65-59 win over N.C. State (Feb. 20) in Atlanta, Ga.

The Series vs. Georgia Tech

Each team has had a stretch of dominating the series, which Georgia Tech now leads 30-26. The Cavaliers held the lead until the Yellow Jackets passed Virginia by winning 20 of the last 27 meetings, including nine of the last 11. Virginia snapped a four-game losing streak to Georgia Tech with a 69-65 victory (Jan. 22) over the Jackets in Atlanta. Last season, Georgia Tech swept the regular season series with a 73-68 win (Jan. 9) in Charlottesville (Georgia Tech was the only team to defeat UVa at University Hall last season) and a 62-56 triumph (Feb. 11) in Atlanta. The Yellow Jackets also posted a 74-69 victory (Mar. 9) over Virginia in the ACC Tournament in Atlanta. Prior to UVa's win in the first meeting this year, the Cavaliers' last victory in the series was an 83-65 triumph (Jan. 8) in the 1999-2000 season in Charlottesville.

The Cavaliers have only won one of the last four meetings against Georgia Tech in Charlottesville. Virginia's only home win in the last four meetings was an 83-65 victory (Jan. 8) in the 1999-2000 season. Despite losing three of the last four home games to Georgia Tech, UVa has won 15 of the 23 games played in Charlottesville during the series.

The Cavaliers have won three of five overtime contests in the series, but their 74-68 overtime loss to Georgia Tech in the 1998-99 season snapped a three-game extra session winning streak. The Jackets won the first overtime game in the series 72-71 in triple overtime in the 1983-84 season.

The Cavaliers opened the series with Georgia Tech by winning 10 of the first 13 games, including eight straight from 1981-1983.

These Games are Barn Burners

Even though 10 of the last 16 meetings between these two teams have been decided by at least nine points, people shouldn't be surprised if this one goes down to the wire.

Of the 43 games since the 1983-84 season, only 14 have been decided by 10 or more points. Seventeen of the games have been decided by a margin of four points or less with UVa winning 10 of them. The Cavaliers have won all three games (1987, 1990 twice) decided by two points. Five games have gone into overtime, including a triple overtime affair (1984) and a double overtime game (1995).

From 1985 to 1990 the teams played 15 consecutive games that were decided by fewer than 10 points with Virginia winning eight of those games.

A breakdown of the close games in the series since the 1983-84 season is below:

1 point - 3	4 points - 5	7 points - 4
2 points - 3	5 points - 3	8 points - 1
3 points - 6	6 points - 2	9 points - 2

Jackets Shoot Well vs. UVa

The Yellow Jackets have won 11 of the last 14 meetings vs. Virginia in the past seven seasons and a big part of those wins has been Georgia Tech's ability to shoot the basketball. In the 11 wins, the Jackets shot 47.5 percent (292-615) from the field. In the three games Georgia Tech lost to Virginia in the last seven seasons, the Yellow Jackets made only 40.1 percent (69-172) of their attempts from the field. In its last 11 wins over the Cavaliers, Georgia Tech averaged 77.8 points per game compared to 64.7 points per game in its last three losses to UVa (the Jackets have scored 65 points twice and 64 once).

In Georgia Tech's last 20 wins over Virginia dating back to the championship game of the 1990 ACC Tournament, the Yellow Jackets are shooting 47.2 percent from the field, while averaging 74.7 points.

That is in contrast to Georgia Tech's performance when Virginia wins. In Virginia's nine wins over Georgia Tech dating back to the beginning of the 1990s, the Yellow Jackets have shot 40.2 percent from the floor and scored an average of 69.8 points.

In Virginia's last nine wins against Georgia Tech, the Yellow Jackets have not shot better than 42.6 percent from the field (29 of 68 in the 1994-95 season).

Earlier This Season vs. Georgia Tech

Freshman forward Elton Brown recorded his first career double-double in leading UVa to a 69-65 victory over Georgia Tech (Jan. 22) at Alexander Memorial Coliseum in Atlanta. With the victory, Virginia snapped a four-game losing streak to the Jackets and won for the first time in Atlanta since the 1994-95 season.

Brown tallied career highs of 20 points and 10 rebounds to lead UVa. Junior forward/center Travis Watson notched his 10th double-double of the season with 10 points and 10 rebounds. He equaled his career high with four steals and three assists, and blocked a pair of shots. Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., added 12 points, while senior forward Chris Williams registered 10 points, nine rebounds and five assists. Freshman guard Jermaine Harper added nine points, including five critical second half points.

The Cavaliers fell behind 8-0 1:26 into the game, but came back to tie the game at 15-15. With the score tied at 23-23, Georgia Tech went on a 10-0 run to take its biggest lead of the game, 33-23, with 4:08 remaining in the first half. UVa pulled within four, 35-31, at the half.

In the second half, Virginia tied the game three times and finally took its first lead of the game (62-61) with 3:12 to play on Harper's three-pointer. After a Yellow Jacket basket, the Cavaliers took the lead for good, 64-63, on a layup by Watson. A layup by Harper extended UVa's lead to three, 66-63. UVa made three of four free throws in the final 15 seconds to seal the victory.

Virginia shot 47.4 percent (27-57) in the game, including 55.6 percent (15-27) in the second stanza. Georgia Tech shot only 38.2 percent (26-68) in the game. The Cavaliers also held a 43-31 edge in rebounds.

Ed Nelson and Clarence Moore led the Jackets with 15 points apiece with Moore adding nine rebounds, five assists, four steals and two blocked shots.

Mason One of 30 Midseason Wooden Candidates

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., has been selected as one of 30 Midseason Candidates for the 2001-2002 Wooden Award Player of the Year and All-American Team in a national poll of The John R. Wooden Award Midseason Committee. The top 30 candidates were selected based on individual performance and team records thus far in the 2001-2002 season.

The 10-member Wooden Award All-American Team will be announced on March 26, 2002. The Wooden Award Trophy, given to the nation's Most Outstanding Collegiate Basketball Player of the Year, will be presented on April 7, 2002.

Mason and Watson Earn All-District Honors From NABC

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., and junior forward/center Travis Watson are members of the 2002 Division I All-District 5 Team as selected by the members of the National Association of Basketball Coaches. Mason is a first-team selection and Watson a second-team selection. Members of the 15 All-District teams are now eligible for the NABC Division I All-America Team to be announced at the conclusion of the 2001-2002 season.

Carlos Boozer, Mike Dunleavy and Jason Williams of Duke and Maryland's Juan Dixon join Mason on the first-team. In addition to Watson, Lonny Baxter (Maryland), Anthony Grundy (N.C. State), Josh Howard (Wake Forest) and Darius Songalia (Wake Forest) were named to the second-team.

Cavalier Captains

Seniors Adam Hall and Chris Williams, and junior Roger Mason, Jr., have been elected captains of the 2001-02 Virginia basketball team by their teammates. Williams was one of the team's tri-captains last season.

Michigan State Game Cancelled

Virginia's game against Michigan State in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge November 28 at the Richmond Coliseum was halted with UVa leading 31-28 with 15:04 left in the contest due to wet floor conditions. The unseasonably warm temperature (70 degrees) combined with the ice surface under the playing court produced condensation on the court which caused slippery conditions and forced the game to be halted. The game will not be completed or replayed.

Hall Returns to Action Against Florida State

Senior guard/forward Adam Hall, who had missed 10 of the last 11 games, returned to action for Virginia February 20 against Florida State. Hall also played against Maryland January 31, but missed the Cavaliers' next five games before playing in the Florida State game. Hall missed a total of 10 games after injuring his right foot with 41 seconds left in UVa's game against North Carolina (Jan. 12). Hall's injury is a partial tear of the plantar fascia (dense tissue that supports the arch) on the bottom of his right foot.

Hall played 24 minutes against Florida State and had six points, four rebounds and three assists. He played five minutes against Maryland and was 0-2 from the field and had one rebound.

Prior to his injury, Hall was averaging 9.8 points and 5.1 rebounds per game this season, and was averaging 27.8 minutes per game. He started the first 11 games of the season, but came off the bench in UVa's victory at North Carolina. Hall played 24 minutes and scored eight points with four steals, three assists and one rebound against the Tar Heels.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 17th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 343-173 record for a .665 winning percentage. Gillen coached his 500th collegiate game against Rutgers on December 23 (a 76-68 win). Gillen is in his fourth season at Virginia and has posted a 69-45 record (.605 winning percentage). Gillen won the 300th game of his career when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 13 times in 16 seasons (nine NCAA, four NIT). He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times - all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Gillen is one of 20 finalists for the Naismith Men's College Basketball Coach of the Year Award for the 2001-2002 season.

Watson Named ACC Player of the Week

Junior forward/center Travis Watson was named the ACC Player of the Week on February 11 after scoring 49 points and grabbing 22 rebounds in the Cavaliers' games against N.C. State (Feb. 6) and Clemson (Feb. 10). He was 14-24 (.583) from the field, including 1-1 from three-point range, and 20-23 (.870) from the free throw line. Watson also had six assists, five steals and one block. He had a double-double in points and rebounds in both games. In the Cavaliers' 85-68 loss at N.C. State, Watson scored a career-high 29 points and had 12 rebounds. He was 7-12 from the field and 15-17 from the free throw line. He also had three assists and three steals in 35 minutes. In Virginia's 85-71 victory over Clemson, Watson scored 20 points and had 10 rebounds. He was 7-12 from the field, including 1-1 from three-point range, and 5-6 from the free throw line. Watson has 15 double-doubles on the season.

Non-Conference Regular Season Winning Streak Stopped

Virginia had won a school record 27 consecutive regular season games against non-conference opponents before having the streak snapped with an 81-77 loss at Missouri (Feb. 3). The previous record for consecutive non-conference regular season victories was 22. During its record streak, UVa won three games against ranked non-ACC teams before falling to Missouri. Virginia beat fourth-ranked Tennessee 107-89 (Dec. 19) and 20th-ranked Missouri 85-72 (Jan. 20) during the 2000-01 season, and defeated 16th-ranked Georgetown 61-55 this season (Dec. 20) at MCI Center in Washington, D.C. The streak began with a 98-67 win against Loyola (Md.) at University Hall on December 8, 1999. The previous time the Cavaliers lost to a non-conference opponent during the regular season was on December 4, 1999 when they lost 85-63 to St. John's University at Madison Square Garden. Since joining the Atlantic Coast Conference, Virginia won 22 consecutive non-conference regular season games from November 21, 1981 to December 19, 1982. UVa began the streak with a 63-61 win over Brigham Young (Nov. 21) to start the 1981-82 season. The streak ended the next season when Virginia lost to Chaminade 77-72 (Dec. 23).

Virginia has made at least one three-point field goal in each of its last 300 games. It is believed to be the seventh longest active streak in Division I (the NCAA does not track consecutive games with a three-point field goal). UNLV and Vanderbilt have a current streak of 498 consecutive games with three-pointers, while Georgia Tech is third with a 467 game streak.

Four Freshmen Earn First Starts

Virginia's four scholarship freshmen have all earned starts this season. Guard Keith Jenifer leads the way with 10 starts, while forward Elton Brown has started four games. Forward Jason Clark and guard Jermaine Harper have started three games apiece. The foursome have combined to start 20 games this season. UVa freshmen did not have a single start last season.

Jenifer received his first start against North Carolina (Jan. 12) and Brown earned his first collegiate start against Clemson (Jan. 8). Clark and Harper received their first starts against Clemson (Feb. 10).

Brown made his first three starts in place of junior Travis Watson. Watson did not practice the two days before the Clemson game after experiencing cramping in his legs against N.C. State (Jan. 5). Brown started against VMI (Jan. 24) because Watson was sidelined with a hip pointer and earned his third start vs. Missouri (Feb. 3) with Watson slowed with an injury to his left foot. Brown's last start was against Florida State (Feb. 20). Jenifer started in place of senior forward/guard Adam Hall against North Carolina and remained in the starting lineup for the next eight games as Hall recovered from a partial tear of the plantar fascia in his right foot. Jenifer started for the 10th time this season against Wake Forest (Feb. 17).

AP Ranking

Virginia's ranking of 11th in the preseason Associated Press poll is its highest preseason AP ranking since the 1982-83 season when the Cavaliers were ranked number one in the nation. It is just the seventh time since the 1982-83 season UVa has been ranked in the AP's preseason poll. Prior to the 1995-96 season, the Cavaliers were ranked 19th and were 14th in 1994-95. Virginia was 16th in the 1993-94 season, 18th in 1990-91, and 24th prior to last season.

Virginia is ranked 22nd in the February 18 Associated Press poll and 15th in the USAToday/ESPN poll. It is the 34th consecutive time UVa has appeared in the AP poll. The ranking of fourth in the December 24 and December 31 AP polls was the Cavaliers' highest ranking in the AP poll since the 1982-83 season. UVa was ranked second in the March 8, 1983 AP poll. UVa was ranked fourth in the final AP poll (Mar. 15) of the 1982-83 season.

Only One Three

UVa entered the N.C. State (Feb. 6) game averaging 5.4 three-point field goals per game, but managed to make just one three against the Wolfpack. Freshman guard Jermaine Harper made UVa's lone three in the game with 3:20 left to go.

The last time the Cavaliers made only one three-pointer was against UMBC (Dec. 23) last season.

Offensive Brownout

In its last three games and six halves, UVa has failed to score at least 40 points in a half. The most points Virginia has scored in a half in the last three games is 39 in the first half vs. North Carolina (Feb. 12). The Cavaliers are averaging 67.3 points per game in the last three games compared to 79.6 points per game on the year.

Losing Despite Shooting Well

The Cavaliers shot 55.2 percent (32-58) from the field against Missouri (Feb. 3) and lost 81-77. The previous time UVa shot better than 55 percent from the floor and lost was December 18, 1987 when Virginia shot 56.2 percent (27-48) from the field and lost to Old Dominion 74-72 at the Richmond Times-Dispatch Invitational in Richmond, Va.

Watson Scores 1,000th Career Point

Junior forward/center Travis Watson became the 37th Cavalier and third this season to score 1,000 career points. Watson reached the milestone with a dunk with 33.8 seconds left in UVa's win over North Carolina (Feb. 12) at University Hall. He concluded the game with 1,001 points. Watson currently has 1,019 points.

Watson Misses First Game of Career

Junior forward/center Travis Watson missed UVa's game against VMI (Jan. 24) with a hip pointer. Watson had played in 75 consecutive games with 72 starts.

UVa Snaps Four-Game Slide

The Cavaliers snapped a four-game losing streak with an 85-71 victory over Clemson (Feb. 10). The victory halted UVa's first four-game slide since the end of the 1998-99 season. UVa had lost its previous four games to Duke (94-81 - Jan. 27), Maryland (91-87 - Jan. 31), Missouri (81-77 - Feb. 3) and N.C. State (85-68 - Feb. 6). The previous four-game Cavalier losing streak was at the end of the 1998-99 season. Virginia lost its last four games of the season to Clemson, North Carolina, Georgia Tech and Duke.

Four Consecutive ACC Victories

Prior to its loss to Duke (Jan. 27), Virginia had won four consecutive ACC games (five games overall) which matched UVa's longest ACC winning streak last season. UVa had beaten North Carolina 71-67 (Jan. 12), Wake Forest 86-74 (Jan. 15), Florida State 91-74 (Jan. 20) and Georgia Tech 69-65 (Jan. 22) before losing to Duke.

Last year, UVa beat Duke 91-89 (Feb. 14), Florida State 69-66 (Feb. 17), North Carolina 86-66 (Feb. 25) and Clemson 84-65 (Feb. 28) for its four consecutive ACC wins.

In 1999-00, UVa posted consecutive ACC wins over Clemson (Jan. 15), North Carolina (Jan. 18), Florida State (Jan. 26) and Wake Forest (Jan. 30).

The last time Virginia won more than four consecutive ACC games was in the 1994-95 season when it won six consecutive conference contests. The streak started with a 76-63 overtime win over Florida State and continued with wins over N.C. State, Clemson, Duke, UNC and Georgia Tech. The winning streak was snapped with a 66-63 loss at Wake Forest.

A Top 10 Kind of Guy

Senior forward Chris Williams is ranked in Virginia's career top 10 of seven major statistical categories.

Here's a look at where Williams stands on UVa's career statistical lists:

Category	Rank	Total

Three-point field goals	8th	122
Rebounds	8th	760
Field goals	8th	620

Made Free Throws	9th	368

Williams is the only player in school history to be ranked in the top 10 of all the above categories.

Leading Free Throw Shooter in ACC History

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., is the most accurate free throw shooter in ACC history.

Mason retook the lead as the ACC's most accurate free throw shooter from Wake Forest's Charlie Davis (1969-71) with a six for six effort from the charity stripe against Duke (Jan. 27). Mason has made 295 of 337 for 87.54 percent, while Davis made 578 of 662 free throws for 87.31 percent.

Mason is currently the seventh most accurate career free throw shooter among active Division I players at 87.5 percent (thanks to STATS, Inc. for the note).

Mason originally passed Davis for the ACC's all-time lead with his four for four performance from the free throw line against Florida State (Jan. 20), but fell behind Davis when he went three for four from the line against Georgia Tech (Jan. 22). Mason temporarily passed Davis again when he made his first four free throws against VMI (Jan. 24), but finished the game five for six to slip back to second.

Mason Scores 1,000th Career Point

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., became the 36th Cavalier to score 1,000 career points when he made two free throws with 9:17 left in the first half against Maryland (Jan. 31). Mason ended the game with 29 points and 1,027 in his career. He currently stands 32nd on UVa's all-time scoring list with 1,143 points. Mason needs seven more points to tie Paul Adkins (1958-60) for 31st place and 15 points to move all the way up to 29th place ahead of Chip Conner (1962-64).

Watson Heating Up From Field

Junior forward/center Travis Watson has shot 50 percent or better from the field in seven of the last eight games. During that span, Watson has connected on 44 of 79 attempts for 55.7 percent. He has also made 23 of his last 27 free throws (85.2 percent).

Watson is shooting 51.1 percent (117-229) from the field this season and is sixth among all ACC players. In ACC games, he has connected on 70-133 field goal attempts for 52.6 percent which is fifth in the conference.

Four With 1,000 Points

The Cavaliers have four players on the team who have scored 1,000 career points at Virginia. It marks the first time in school history UVa has had four 1,000 point scorers on the same team. The Cavaliers have had three players reach the 1,000-point plateau this season which is another program first.

Senior forward Chris Williams has scored 1,730 career points (ninth at UVa). He scored his 1,000th career point during the 2000-01 season.

Senior forward Adam Hall followed Williams in joining the 1,000-point club when he reached the milestone earlier this season against Rutgers (Dec. 23). Hall has 1,043 career points (34th at UVa).

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., became UVa's 36th 1,000-point scorer on January 31 against Maryland. Mason now has scored 1,143 points (32nd at UVa).

Junior forward/center Travis Watson joined his trio of teammates in the Cavaliers' 1,000-point club when he reached the milestone against North Carolina (Feb. 12). Watson has 1,019 career points.

Brown Named ACC Rookie of the Week For Second Time

Freshman forward Elton Brown was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Week (Jan. 28) after scoring 47 points and grabbing 18 rebounds in Virginia's wins against Georgia Tech (Jan. 22) and VMI (Jan. 24) and its loss to Duke (Jan. 27). For the week, Brown was 21-37 (56.8 percent) from the field, including 3-8 (37.5 percent) from three-point range, and 2-4 from the free throw line in 73 minutes of action. Against Georgia Tech, Brown came off the bench to compile his first double-double with career highs of 20 points and 10 rebounds. He was 9-11 (81.8 percent) from the field and 2-4 (50 percent) from the free throw line against the Yellow Jackets. Brown got his second start of the season in place of an injured Travis Watson in UVa's win over VMI. He scored 15 points and grabbed four rebounds. Brown was 7-14 (50 percent) from the field, including 1-2 from three-point range. Against Duke, Brown tallied 12 points and four rebounds.

Brown was also named the ACC Rookie of the Week December 24 after scoring 19 points and grabbing seven rebounds in Cavalier victories over Charleston Southern (Dec. 17), Georgetown (Dec. 20) and Rutgers (Dec. 23). Brown was eight for 20 (40 percent) from the field, including two for two from three-point range, in 43 minutes of action. In UVa's 61-55 victory over 16th-ranked Georgetown, Brown had 10 points and three rebounds.

Rebounding

The Cavaliers are having an excellent season in the rebounding department. UVa has outrebounded its opponents by an average of 5.3 per game (40.1 to 34.8), which is second among all ACC teams. Virginia has outrebounded its opponent in 17 of 24 games. The Cavaliers have outrebounded their opponent by nine or more rebounds 11 times. UVa is 14-3 when it outrebounds its opponent and 2-4 when it is outrebounded by the opposition.

Virginia Tech (50-41), Charleston Southern (41-40), Duke (39-35), Maryland (45-34), Wake Forest - Feb. 17

(44-30) and Florida State - Feb. 20 (33-22) are the only teams to outrebound UVa in a game. In UVa's game at Clemson (Jan. 8), both teams had 43 rebounds.

The Cavaliers averaged 39.0 rebounds per game last season, while their opponents averaged 33.4 boards per game.

Taking Advantage of the Free Throw Line

The Cavaliers had struggled a bit from the free throw line this season, but turned things around in the last 13 games. In the past 13 games, the Cavaliers are 237 of 304 from the charity stripe for an outstanding 78.0 percent. Here's a breakdown of UVa's effort from the free throw line in the last 13 games:

Florida State (Feb. 20)	8-12	66.7 percent
Wake Forest (Feb. 17)	17-21	81.0 percent
North Carolina (Feb. 12)	14-19	73.7 percent
Clemson (Feb. 10)	26-33	78.8 percent
N.C. State (Feb. 6)	21-27	77.8 percent
Missouri (Feb. 3)	10-13	76.9 percent
Maryland (Jan. 31)	23-31	74.2 percent
Duke (Jan. 27)	16-24	66.7 percent
VMI (Jan. 24)	16-23	69.6 percent
Georgia Tech (Jan. 22)	13-16	81.3 percent
Florida State (Jan. 20)	37*-44*	84.1 percent
Wake Forest (Jan. 15)	20-22	90.9* percent
North Carolina (Jan. 12)	16-19	84.2 percent

*season highs

On the season, UVa is 432-595 (72.6 percent) from the free throw line. UVa is leading the ACC in free throw shooting in conference games, having connected on 76.9 percent (230-299) of its attempts.

Freshmen Stepping Up

Virginia's four scholarship freshmen, Elton Brown, Jason Clark, Jermaine Harper and Keith Jenifer, have been reliable members of the Cavaliers' playing rotation all season. With only six scholarship players returning from last season, Virginia needed the four freshmen to step up and they have. Injuries to two starters have made the freshmen's contributions even more critical.

Brown has made four starts (Clemson - Jan. 8, VMI - Jan. 24, Missouri - Feb. 3 and Florida State - Feb. 20) and is averaging 8.4 points and 3.5 rebounds per game. He has scored in double figures 11 times with a career-high 20 points against Georgia Tech (Jan. 22). He also grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds vs. the Jackets for his first double-double. Brown is averaging 16.0 minutes per game and is shooting 50.6 percent (80-158) from the field, including 38.7 percent (12-31) from three-point range, and 68.2 percent (30-44) from the free throw line. Brown was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on December 24 and January 28.

Clark leads the Cavaliers with 35 blocked shots, including a career-best eight blocks against VMI (Jan. 24). He blocked at least one shot in each of his first eight collegiate games. Clark is averaging 12.5 minutes, 3.6 points and 2.9 rebounds per game, and has played solid interior defense. He scored a career-high 11 points against Duke (Jan. 27) and is shooting 51.7 percent (30-58) from the field. Clark made his first career start against Clemson (Feb. 10) and also started against North Carolina (Feb. 12) and Wake Forest (Feb. 17).

Harper, who earned his first career start vs. Clemson (Feb. 10) and also started vs. North Carolina (Feb. 12) and Florida State (Feb. 20), is evolving into an outside shooting threat for the Cavaliers. He is shooting 45.0 percent (49-109) from the field, including 14-50 (28.0 percent) from three-point range. Harper is 36-43 (83.7 percent) from the free throw line and is averaging 17.3 minutes, 6.2 points and 1.5 rebounds per game. Harper has reached double figures in scoring four times, including a career-best 13 points against VMI (Jan. 24).

Jenifer has started at point guard for UVa 10 times. He started nine consecutive times beginning with North Carolina (Jan. 12) before coming off the bench against Clemson (Feb. 10). He is averaging 20.5 minutes per game and has played a total of 263 minutes in his 10 starts (26.3 minutes per game). Jenifer is averaging 3.8 points, 2.6 assists and 2.1 rebounds per game. He is averaging 4.9 points per game in ACC play, including a career high nine points against both Clemson (Jan. 8) and North Carolina (Jan. 12).

Williams Now Ninth in Free Throws

Senior forward Chris Williams holds the ninth spot on UVa's all-time free throws made list. Williams has made 368 career free throws. He needs 46 more made free throws to move past John Crotty (1988-91) into eighth place.

Blocking Elite

Freshman forward Jason Clark blocked eight shots against VMI (Jan. 24), which ties for the sixth most blocked shots in a game in school history. He is only the third UVa player with eight or more blocked shots in a game. Clark's eight blocks are the most in a game since December 9, 1995 when Chris Alexander swatted eight Richmond shots.

Ralph Sampson is the only other Virginia player to block at least eight shots in a game and he did that eight times with a career best of 12 vs. Army on December 22, 1979.

In addition to his eight blocks, Clark added eight points and a career-high nine rebounds against the Keydets.

Clark has totaled a team-high 35 blocks this season and is averaging 1.5 blocks per game, which is fourth among all ACC players.

17 Rebounds

Junior forward/center Travis Watson pulled down 17 rebounds against Wake Forest (Jan. 15), establishing a new career high. Watson had eight offensive rebounds and nine defensive boards in surpassing his former career high of 16 rebounds vs. Duke (Jan. 5, 2000) and UMBC (Dec. 23, 2000). He scored 20 points for his eighth double-double of the season. He followed the 17-rebound performance with 15 rebounds against Florida State (Jan. 20) and had 14 points for his ninth double-double of the season and 30th of his career.

The last UVa player to grab 17 rebounds in a game was Adam Hall, who pulled down the 17 boards against Wake Forest (Feb. 3, 2001).

37 Free Throws Made

Virginia made 37 of 44 free throws against Florida State (Jan. 20), which ties for the third most made free throws in a game by the Cavaliers in school history. UVa also made 37 (of 51) free throws against VMI on Feb. 18, 1956. The school record is 40 made free throws (54 attempts) against Duke on Feb. 22, 1955. The Cavaliers also made 38 of 44 attempts from the charity stripe against Washington & Lee (Jan. 14, 1955). UVa's 44 attempts from the line against FSU ties for the 19th most in school history.

Seven Threes

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., had made just two of his last 16 three-point attempts in his previous two games, but exploded for a career-best seven trifectas against Wake Forest (Jan. 15). Mason was seven of 13 from beyond the three-point line and scored 25 points against the Demon Deacons.

Mason's seven threes are the most in a game by a UVa player since Curtis Staples made seven against North Carolina on February 1, 1998. Mason's previous career best for threes in a game was five on four occasions.

Hall Nets 1,000th Career Point

Senior forward/guard Adam Hall became the 35th Cavalier to score 1,000 career points when he eclipsed the milestone against Rutgers on December 23. Hall reached the 1,000 point plateau with a baseline jumper with 13:54 remaining in the second half that tied the game at 48-48.

Hall currently has 1,043 points and is 34th on UVa's all-time scoring list.

Hall is averaging 8.8 points and 4.7 rebounds per game this season.

Back-to-Back 9-0 Starts

By starting the 2001-2002 season with nine consecutive wins before falling to N.C. State (Jan. 5), Virginia posted back-to-back 9-0 starts for the first time since the 1980-81 and 1981-82 seasons. The Cavaliers won their first 10 games of the 2000-2001 season.

In 1980-81, UVa won its first 23 games to start the season. Virginia won its first 12 games in the 1981-82 season.

Fewest Points in a Win Under Gillen

The Cavaliers scored just 61 points in their win over Georgetown (Dec. 20), marking the fewest points UVa has scored in a victory during Pete Gillen's tenure as Virginia's head coach.

The previous lowest point total in a Virginia win under Gillen was 62 points in a 62-53 victory over Washington State (Nov. 22) in the 1998 Top of the World Classic in Fairbanks, Alaska.

The last time Virginia scored less than 61 points in a victory was back in the 1997-98 season. The Cavaliers scored 59 points in a 59-56 win over N.C. State at University Hall (Jan. 18) in the 1997-98 season.

Points in a Half

Virginia scored 68 points in the first half in its 112-67 win over Grambling (Dec. 30), which is believed to be a school record for points in the first half. UVa's 68 points is also the third most points scored in a half. Virginia scored 70 points in the second half of a 117-78 win over Coastal Carolina (Nov. 20) last season, which is believed to be the school record for points in a half. The second most points scored in a half is 69 points in the second half of UVa's 128-98 victory over George Mason (Jan. 28) in the 1994-95 season.

Only 52 Points

Virginia was held to 52 points in its 68-52 loss at Clemson (Jan. 8), marking the third fewest points the Cavaliers have scored in a game during Pete Gillen's tenure. The fewest points UVa has scored in a game under Gillen is 47 on two occasions. The Cavaliers managed just 47 points in a 68-47 loss at Georgia Tech (Feb. 9) in the 1999-2000 season. Virginia scored only 47 points in a 71-47 loss at North Carolina (Jan. 21) in the 1998-99 season.

Only One Player in Double Figures in Scoring

In the Cavaliers' loss to Clemson (Jan. 8), junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., was the only Virginia player to score in double figures as he had 19 points. It is the first time since the final game of the 1996-97 season UVa has had only one player score in double figures in a game. Harold Deane scored 24 points in UVa's 73-60 loss to Iowa (Mar. 13) in the first round of the 1997 NCAA Tournament in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Williams Among UVa's All-time Field Goal Leaders

Senior forward Chris Williams is in eighth place on Virginia's career field goals leaders list with 620. Williams needs 24 more field goals to pass Bob McCarty (1954-56) for seventh place.

This season, Williams is shooting 51.1 percent (112-219) from the field. He has also made 20 of 58 three-point attempts (34.5 percent). Williams made eight of nine attempts (he missed his first attempt) from the field against Howard (Nov. 21), including five of six threes. Ironically, Williams has made only 81 of 117 attempts for 69.2 percent from the free throw line. Williams entered the season as a 72.8 percent career free throw shooter.

In his career, Williams is shooting 50.9 percent (620-1,219) from the field.

Blocked Shot Record

The Cavaliers blocked 14 shots against Grambling (Dec. 30) to tie the school record for blocked shots in a game. UVa also blocked 14 shots against Army on December 22, 1979. Ralph Sampson blocked 12 of those shots which is a school record. The Cavaliers nearly matched that school record as they blocked 13 VMI (Jan. 24) shots. All 13 shots were blocked by players coming off the bench.

Against Grambling, junior center/forward Jason Rogers led the way with a career-high four blocked shots. Eight different Cavaliers registered blocked shots in the game. Versus VMI, freshman forward Jason Clark led the way with eight blocked shots, while Rogers had three and freshman guard Jermaine Harper set a career high with two.

Last season, UVa's highest single game blocked shot total was seven against Gonzaga in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

In 24 games in the 2001-2002 season, the Cavaliers have registered 114 blocked shots for an average of 4.8 per game. Virginia has blocked more shots this season than all of last year (98). Clark leads UVa with 35 blocks and junior forward/center Travis Watson has 22.

Watson Ties Offensive Rebound Record

Junior forward/center Travis Watson tied the school record with 10 offensive rebounds (he had 12 total rebounds in the game) against Maryland (Jan. 31). Watson now shares the record with Matt Blundin and Bryant Stith. Blundin had 10 offensive boards against Clemson on February 10, 1990 and Stith pulled down 10 offensive rebounds against Georgia Tech on March 13, 1992. Both players ended those games with 13 total rebounds.

Single Game Scoring List

The Cavaliers scored 115 points in their win over Howard (Nov. 21), marking the seventh highest single game point total by a UVa squad. Virginia's 49-point margin of victory (115-66) is the 11th widest margin of victory in school history. UVa also scored 112 points against Grambling (Dec. 30), which ties for the 12th highest single game point total.

Here's a list of the Cavaliers' highest single game point totals in school history:

1. George Mason	128	Jan. 28, 1995
2. Johns Hopkins	124	Nov. 26, 1982
3. BYU-Hawaii	118	Dec. 21, 1981
4. Baldwin Wallace	117	Dec. 11, 1971
Coastal Carolina	117	Nov. 20, 2000
6. Hampton	116	Nov. 25, 1998
7. Howard	115	Nov. 21, 2001

Williams Moves into Ninth Place on Scoring List

Senior forward Chris Williams has moved into ninth place on Virginia's all-time scoring list with 1,730 career points. Williams needs 28 points to move past Curtis Staples (1995-98) into eighth place.

Here's a look at where Williams stands on UVa's all-time scoring list:

1. Bryant Stith (1989-92)	2,516

Shooting the Long Ball

Virginia's current roster features two players who rank in the top 10 in career three-point field goals in school history and a third who stands 11th. Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., is seventh with 124 three-pointers and senior forward Chris Williams is right behind Mason in eighth place with 122 career threes. Mason need nine more three-pointers to move past Richard Morgan (1986-89) for sixth place. Senior forward/guard Adam Hall is 11th with 84 career threes.

Here's a look at Virginia's all-time three-point field goal leaders:

1. Curtis Staples (1995-98)	413 (NCAA record)
2. Harold Deane (1994-97)	237
3. John Crotty (1988-91)	179
4. Donald Hand (1998-2001)	156
5. Cory Alexander (1992-95)	142

11. Adam Hall (1999-pres.)	84

Mason on a Roll

Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., moved to point guard at the beginning of the season and started at that position the first 11 games, but it didn't slow his offensive production.

Dating back to last season, Mason has scored 15 or more points in 23 of his last 27 games, including a career-high 31 against Wake Forest (Feb. 17). His former career high was 30 points against Gonzaga in the first round of the 2001 NCAA Tournament. Mason's previous 2001-2002 season high was 29 points against Maryland (Jan. 31). He also scored his 1,000th career point versus the Terrapins. Mason has scored in double figures in 35 consecutive games (dating back to last season) which is second among all current ACC players.

Mason is averaging a career-best 18.8 points per game, which leads the team and is third among all ACC players. He is also third in scoring in ACC games at 19.6 points per game. He is second among all ACC players with a 90.2 free throw percentage (110-122). Mason tops UVa in assists with 102 (4.3 per game). He has also made 68 three-point field goals this year which is the seventh best single season total at Virginia. Mason needs one more to tie Harold Deane (1994-95) for sixth place on the Cavaliers' single season three-point field goal list.

Watson Sets New Career High in Scoring

Junior forward/center Travis Watson established a new career high for points with 29 against N.C. State (Feb. 6). His former career high was 20 points on four occasions. Watson made seven of 12 shots from the floor and 15 of 17 attempts from the free throw line against the Wolfpack. Watson's 15 made free throws is a career-best (11 was his previous high) while the 17 attempts equal his career best. Watson also grabbed 12 rebounds vs. N.C. State.

Dialing Long Distance

With the departure of Keith Friel and Donald Hand, the Cavaliers lost two of their three-point threats from last season. One of the questions for UVa this season was the ability to hit the outside jumper. The Cavaliers answered that question against Howard (Nov. 21) as they connected on 14 three-pointers, just one shy of the school record, in a 115-66 win. Virginia was 14 of 24 from beyond the arc for an impressive 58.3 percent, including 11 of 15 (73.3 percent) marksmanship in the first half. UVa's 14 threes ties for the third most in a game as the Cavaliers made 15 threes against North Carolina (Feb. 14, 1990) and Hampton (Nov. 25, 1998). In addition to the Howard game, Virginia made 14 threes against UNLV (Feb. 12, 1995), North Carolina (Feb. 17, 1996) and South Carolina (Nov. 25, 1996).

The Cavaliers' three-point percentage of 58.3 percent (14-24) is their second highest in a game when making at least 10 three-pointers. UVa's best percentage when making at least 10 threes in a game is 58.8 percent (10-17) versus VMI (Dec. 22, 1997).

Virginia shot a season-low 8.0 percent (2-25) from beyond the three-point arc in its loss to Clemson (Jan. 8). The Cavaliers were just 1-12 from beyond the three-point line against N.C. State (Feb. 6) for 8.3 percent.

On the season, Virginia is shooting 32.8 percent (130-396) from beyond the three-point arc and is averaging 5.4 three-pointers per game. Junior guard Roger Mason, Jr., is 68-184 for 37.0 percent, while senior forward Chris Williams has made 20 of 58 three-point attempts (34.5 percent).

Williams Eighth in Rebounds; Watson Ninth

Senior forward Chris Williams has 760 career rebounds and is eighth on UVa's career rebounding list. Williams needs two rebounds to move past Scott McCandlish (1970-72) and into seventh place.

Junior forward/center Travis Watson is ninth on the Cavaliers' rebounding list with 757. He is only three rebounds behind Williams and five shy of moving past McCandlish.

Here's a look at Virginia's all-time rebounding leaders:

1. Ralph Sampson (1980-83)	1,511
2. Junior Burrough (1992-95)	929
3. Bryant Stith (1989-92)	859
4. Steve Castellan (1976-79)	799
5. Ted Jeffries (1990-93)	787
6. Norman Nolan (1995-98)	765
7. Scott McCandlish (1970-72)	761
8. Chris Williams (1999-pres.)	760
9. Travis Watson (2000-pres.)	757
10. Marc Iavaroni (1975-78)	718

All-Time Steals Leaders

Seniors Chris Williams and Adam Hall rank among the Cavaliers' all-time leaders in steals. Williams is fifth on UVa's career steals list with 178 and needs one to tie Harold Deane (1994-97) and Donald Hand (1998-01) for third place. Hall has 147 career steals to his credit and ranks ninth all-time. He needs eight steals to move past Bobby Stokes (1976-79) for eighth place.

Here's a look at Virginia's all-time steals leaders:

1. Othell Wilson (1981-84)	222
2. Jeff Jones (1979-82)	189
