OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia opened the 2002-2003 season with a 90-86 victory over Long Island University Friday (November 22) at University Hall. UVA finished the 2001-2002 season with a 17-12 overall record and a 7-9 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference in Pete Gillen's fourth year as Virginia's head coach. Chaminade University concluded the 2001-2002 season with a 16-11 overall record and an 8-7 mark in the Pacific West. The Silverswords opened their 2002-2003 season Friday night (November 22) with a 75-70 loss to St. Mary's (Texas).

Cavaliers Successfully Open Season for 78th Time

Virginia began the 2002-2003 season with a 90-86 win over Long Island University Friday evening (Nov. 22), marking the 78th season-opening victory for the Cavaliers in 98 opportunities. That is a .796 winning percentage. The Cavaliers have now won 14 of their last 16 season openers dating back to 1987-88. Virginia's last loss in a season opener was in 1997-98 when it dropped an 83-79 double overtime decision at Richmond.

Head coach Pete Gillen improved to 16-2 in season openers as a collegiate head coach and has now won 13 straight, including the last five at Virginia. He was 7-2 at Xavier (1986-94) and 4-0 at Providence (1995-98) in season openers.

The Series vs. Chaminade

Today's game is Virginia's fifth meeting with Chaminade University. The previous four games have been played in Hawaii. UVA leads the series 3-1, but the Cavaliers' lone loss in the series is considered by many to be one of the biggest upsets in collegiate basketball. Virginia won the first two meetings in the 1979-80 and 1981-82 seasons by scores of 79-54 and 75-59, respectively. The Silverswords upset the top-ranked Cavaliers 77-72 on December 23, 1982. In the last meeting, UVA registered a 66-58 victory on December 26, 1987.

'Hoos Next

The Cavaliers will play either Arizona State or Kentucky in their second game of the Maui Invitational on Tuesday, November 26. If UVA defeats Chaminade, the Cavaliers advance in the winner's bracket and will play Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. Eastern Time. If Virginia loses to the Silverswords, it will play Tuesday at 2:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

UVA is 1-0 all-time against Arizona State and 2-6 versus Kentucky.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 18th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 345-177 record for a .661 winning percentage. Gillen is in his fifth season at Virginia and has posted a 71-49 record (.592 winning percentage). Gillen won the 300th game of his career when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 14 times in 17 seasons (nine NCAA, five NIT), including the last three seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times - all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Cavalier Captains

Seniors Travis Watson and Jason Rogers, and junior Majestic Mapp are the captains of the 2002-03 Virginia basketball team.

Eighth Time to the Aloha State

This is the eighth time in school history the Cavaliers have traveled to Hawaii to play, including three trips during Ralph Sampson's career at Virginia. UVa has registered a 10-6 record in its seven previous trips to Hawaii. This is Virginia's third time participating in the Maui Invitational. UVa made its first appearance in the inaugural event in 1984 (then called the Hawaiian Airlines Silversword Invitational) and participated in the 1996 tournament, advancing to the championship game.

Virginia's first trip to Hawaii occurred during the 1979-80 season when the Cavaliers defeated BYU-Hawaii 82-64 and Chaminade 79-54 during Sampson's freshman year.

The Cavaliers returned two years later (December of 1981) just after the first semester exam period and defeated Chaminade 75-59 and BYU-Hawaii 118-84. Virginia suffered its first loss in Hawaii when the Cavaliers were upset by Chaminade 77-72 on December 24, 1982.

During the last three trips to Hawaii, Virginia has participated in several tournaments, starting with the Hawaiian Airlines Silversword Invitational to begin the 1984-85 season. UVa lost to Providence 75-71 in overtime in the first round and then defeated Davidson 69-65.

The Cavaliers returned to Hawaii to play in the Chaminade Christmas Classic in December 1987. They lost to Oklahoma in the opening round 109-61, but rebounded to defeat Georgia 87-54 and Chaminade 66-58.

The Cavaliers opened the 1996-97 season by advancing to the championship game of the Maui Invitational. They downed South Carolina 93-70 in the first round, and UMass 75-68 in the semifinals before losing to Kansas 80-63 in the finals.

In its last trip to the Aloha State in December of 1997, UVa won one of three games in the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu. The Cavaliers lost to Nebraska 80-65 (Dec. 27), defeated Brigham Young 72-54 (Dec. 29) and lost to New Mexico State in overtime 87-82 (Dec. 30).

Three Experimental Rules Being Used

Three experimental rules will be used in the Maui Invitational. The three experimental rules are:

* Widening the free-throw lane by two feet on each side (a repeat of this past season's experimental rule).

* Moving the three-point line nine inches behind the current three-point line to create a new experimental distance of 20 feet, 6 inches.

* Relocating the free throw lane block between the first free throw lane space adjacent to the end line and the next lane space on both sides of the lane.

Another Double-Double

Senior forward/center Travis Watson picked up where he left off last season as he recorded his first double-double of the season with 26 points and 13 rebounds in UVa's season-opening 90-86 win over Long Island (Nov. 22). Watson's double-double is the 39th of his career, the most of any active ACC player. Watson, who recorded an ACC-best 17 double-doubles last year, also had double-doubles in both of UVa's 2002-2003 exhibition games.

New Career High for Clark

Sophomore forward Jason Clark scored 12 points -all in the second half - in the Cavaliers' 90-86 win over Long Island (Nov. 22) to establish a new career high. Clark's former career-best was 11 points against Duke (Jan. 27, 2002). He made four of six shots from the field and four of five attempts from the free throw line.

Virginia Returns to Postseason Play

The University of Virginia men's basketball team received an invitation to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) following the 2001-02 regular season. UVa lost to South Carolina 74-67 in the first round of the tournament. It was the Cavaliers' ninth NIT appearance and the team's third consecutive postseason appearance. Following the 2000-2001 season, UVa received a bid to the 2001 NCAA Tournament. UVa lost to Gonzaga 86-85 in the first round of the 2001 NCAA South Region Tournament. The game marked the Cavaliers first NCAA Tournament appearance since 1997. Virginia made the first of three straight post-season appearances with a bid to the 2000 National Invitation Tournament (NIT). UVa lost to Georgetown 115-111 in triple overtime in the first round of the NIT.

50th Anniversary of the ACC

The Atlantic Coast Conference is celebrating its 50th anniversary this season. Former University of Virginia standouts Jeff Lamp, Barry Parkhill and Ralph Sampson were named to the 50th Anniversary ACC Men's Basketball Team.

Lamp lettered four times for Virginia from 1978-81, and was a first-team All-America selection in 1980 and 1981. He helped lead the Cavaliers to the 1980 NIT Championship and the 1981 NCAA Final Four. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1981 NCAA East Regional and was an All-Tournament selection at the 1981 Final Four. A team captain during his UVa career, Lamp ranks second on Virginia's all-time scoring list with 2,317 points. Lamp was a first-round selection by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 1981 NBA Draft.

Parkhill lettered for Virginia from 1971-73 and was a first-team All-America selection in 1972 and 1973. He was selected the ACC Basketball Player of the Year and the ACC Athlete of the Year in 1972. Parkhill earned first-team All-ACC honors in 1972 and was a second-team All-Conference selection in 1971 and 1973. He was also an All-ACC Tournament selection in 1971 and 1972. He holds Virginia's single-game scoring record with 51 points against Baldwin-Wallace on December 11, 1971. Parkhill was a first-round draft selection by both the Virginia

Squires (ABA) and Portland Trail Blazers (NBA) after his collegiate career.

Sampson lettered four times for Virginia from 1980-83, and was a three-time National and ACC Player of the Year. He was a four-time first-team All-America selection and a three-time first-team All-ACC selection. Sampson received three consecutive Rupp trophies, two consecutive Eastman Awards and two John R. Wooden Awards. He was the ACC Rookie of the Year in 1980. Sampson helped lead the Cavaliers to the 1980 NIT Championship and the 1981 NCAA Final Four. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 1980 NIT. Sampson holds Virginia career records for rebounds (1,511), field goals made (899) and blocked shots (462). He led the ACC in rebounding three times and ranks fourth on UVa's career scoring list with 2,228 points. Sampson was selected by the Houston Rockets as the NBA's number one draft choice in 1983 and went on to earn NBA Rookie of the Year honors.

Rod Jensen Joins Coaching Staff

Transfers Ready to Play

Guard Todd Billet (Rutgers) and center Nick Vander Laan (California-Berkeley) are eligible to play for the Cavaliers during the 2002-03 season after transferring to Virginia prior to the 2001-02 academic year.

Billet is a 6-0 guard from Middletown, N.J. He started all 58 games and averaged 14.6 points per game in his two seasons at Rutgers. He is a three-point specialist who established the Rutgers' school record for three-pointers in a season with 82 and tied the school's single-game record when he made eight three-pointers against Lafayette during the 2000-01 season.

Vander Laan is a 6-10 center from Sacramento, Calif. He transferred to Virginia from California-Berkeley where he averaged 7.5 points and 6.1 rebounds a game in two seasons. He was voted honorable mention Pac-10 All-Freshman following the 1999-2000 season.

Cavaliers Welcome Six Newcomers

Joining the Cavaliers this season are 6-7 freshman forward Derrick Byars and 6-5 sophomore guard/forward Devin Smith.

Byars, a three-year letterman at Ridgeway High School in Memphis, Tenn., averaged 23.2 points, 10 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game as a high school senior during the 2001-02 season. He shot 37 percent from three-point range and 77 percent from the free throw line. He was a fourth-team Parade All-America selection and the Gatorade Player of the Year in Tennessee as a high school senior.

Smith earned first-team Junior College All-America honors as a freshman at Coffeyville Community College in Coffeyville, Kan., last season. During the 2001-02 season he averaged 19.4 points and 6.6 rebounds a game, shot 51.8 percent (251-485) from the field, including 45.8 percent (108-236) from three-point range, and made 90.2 percent (129-143) of his free throw attempts.

Four additional players joined the Virginia team after participating in open tryouts October 7-8. The players are guard Billy Campbell (6-0, Fr., Atlanta, Ga.), forward Greg Harrell-Edge (6-8, Sr., Vienna, Va.), guard Robert Lodge (6-4, Fr., Raleigh, N.C.) and forward Rob Williams (6-7, So., Martinsville, Va.). See page six of the notes for bios on the four walk-ons.

Watson Named Candidate for CLASS Award

Senior All-America candidate Travis Watson is one of 36 candidates for the second annual Senior CLASS Award as announced by the award's organizing committee. The Senior CLASS Award – an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School – is presented annually to the nation's senior player-of-the-year for NCAA Division I men's and women's basketball. The award was developed in response to the recent trend of college basketball players leaving college early to turn professional.

Selection criteria is based on a number of factors, the most important being that the recipient must have exhausted his four years of eligibility and have fulfilled his commitment to his respective university. In addition, the recipient must be working toward his degree, be in good academic standing and be of sound moral character.

Ten finalists will appear on the official ballot during the national voting process in March. The winners will be announced during the respective NCAA Final Four events.

Watson Moves Up to Fourth in Rebounds

Senior forward/center Travis Watson opened the 2002-2003 season by grabbing 13 rebounds to move up to fourth on Virginia's career rebounding list with 807. Watson needs 53 rebounds to move past Bryant Stith (1989-92) into third place.

Here's a look at Virginia's all-time rebounding leaders:

1. Ralph Sampson (1980-83)	1,511
2. Junior Burrough (1992-95)	929
3. Bryant Stith (1989-92)	859
4. Travis Watson (2000-pres.)	807
5. Steve Castellan (1976-79)	799
6. Ted Jeffries (1990-93)	787
7. Chris Williams (1999-02)	786

All-Time Blocked Shot Leaders

Senior Travis Watson ranks among Virginia's all-time leaders in blocked shots. Watson has 94 career blocked shots and ranks seventh all-time. He needs two blocked shots to tie Junior Burrough (1992-95) for sixth place and three to tie former teammate Chris Williams (1999-02) for fifth.

Here's a look at UVa's all-time blocked shots leaders:

1. Ralph Sampson (1980-83)	462
2. Chris Alexander (1993-96)	148
3. Kris Hunter (1997-99)	126
4. Steve Castellan (1976-79)	108
5. Chris Williams (1999-02)	97
6. Junior Burrough (1992-95)	96
7. Travis Watson (2000-pres.)	94
8. Colin Ducharme (1997-00)	88

Virginia Downs Long Island in Season-opener

Senior forward/center Travis Watson registered a double-double with 26 points and 13 rebounds in leading UVa to a 90-86 season-opening win over Long Island University Friday (Nov. 22) at University Hall.

Watson made 11 of 13 attempts from the field en route to his game-high 26 points. In addition to his game-best 13 rebounds, Watson led all players with four blocked shots and four steals.

Junior guard Todd Billet also turned in an outstanding performance with 20 points, four rebounds, three assists and a key blocked shot of a three-point attempt with the Cavaliers leading by three points late in the game. Billet made five of 10 three-point attempts. Sophomore forward Jason Clark came off the bench to score a career-high 12 points, all of which came in the second half. Sophomore guard Keith Jenifer chipped in with a career-high seven assists, four points and two steals.

The Cavaliers shot a blistering 66.7 percent (18-27) in the first half, but the Blackbirds' trailed by only four points (44-40) at the intermission, thanks in part to six three-pointers.

Virginia trailed just once in the second half (47-46 with 16:47 to play), but could never put Long Island away. UVa built a 10-point lead, 78-68, with 4:40 to play, only to see Long Island go on an 11-2 run to pull within a point, 80-79, with 3:21 left. With the Cavaliers leading 86-83 with 12 seconds to go, Billet blocked Antawn Dobie's three-point attempt to help seal the victory.

UVa shot 50 percent (33-66) in the game, while LIU connected on 33-68 attempts from the floor (48.5 percent), including 10 three-pointers. The Blackbirds held a 41-30 edge in rebounds. UVa committed only nine turnovers in the game while forcing 15 Blackbird miscues.

JaJa Bey had four three-pointers and led Long Island with 21 points, while Maurice Yearwood drained five three-point field goals and finished with 17 points. Derek Bell and Dobie added 16 and 15 points, respectively.

UVa Closes Exhibition Season with 73-57 Victory

Senior forward/center Travis Watson registered a double-double with 16 points and 16 rebounds to lead the Cavaliers to a 73-57 exhibition win over One World All-Stars Sunday (Nov. 17) at University Hall.

In addition to his 16 points and game-high 16 rebounds, Watson blocked a pair of shots. Junior guard Todd Billet led all scorers in the game with 17 points while playing 39 minutes. He also recorded a game-high seven assists. Junior center Nick Vander Laan and sophomore guard Devin Smith rounded out UVa's double figure scorers. Vander Laan scored 12 points and added seven rebounds, two blocked shots and two assists. In his first game for the Cavaliers, Smith tallied 11 points.

Virginia trailed for most of the first half, but a layup by Watson with 22 seconds remaining gave UVa a 35-34 half-time advantage. One World All-Stars built a five-point lead (40-35) early in the second half, only to see the Cavaliers quickly respond with baskets by Watson, Billet and Vander Laan. UVa took the lead for good midway through the second half when sophomore forward Elton Brown converted a layup off an offensive rebound to give the Cavaliers a 51-50 lead.

Gordon Malone led One World All-Stars with 15 points, 13 rebounds and two blocked shots, while Kareem Reid tallied 14 points.

UVa shot 44.6 percent (29-65) from the field in the game while limiting One World All-Stars to 31.1 percent (19-61) accuracy. The Cavaliers also held a 45-38 edge in rebounds.

Cavaliers Ink Two

University of Virginia men's head basketball coach Pete Gillen has announced the signing of two individuals to national letters of intent with Virginia. The two individuals are 6-6 Gary Forbes of Brooklyn, N.Y., and 6-3 J. R. Reynolds of Roanoke, Va.

Forbes, a guard, averaged 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists a game as a junior during the 2001-02 season at Benjamin Banneker Academy.

Reynolds, a combination guard, started for four seasons at Roanoke Catholic High School before transferring to Oak Hill Academy for his senior year. He scored 2,237 points, made 217 three-point field goals and had 570 assists during his career at Roanoke Catholic. He was named the Most Valuable Player in the Virginia Independent Schools Division II three times.

"We are thrilled to officially have these two young men join our Virginia basketball family," Gillen said. "They are both very talented guards who can play a couple of positions. I sincerely feel they will be impact players on our team next season."

Cavaliers Open Exhibition Season with 84-60 Win

Virginia began the exhibition portion of the 2002-03 season with an 84-60 victory over Big Apple Basketball November 10 at University Hall. The Cavaliers' starting front court of senior forward/center Travis Watson, junior center Nick Vander Laan and sophomore forward Elton Brown combined for 69 points and 47 rebounds.

Watson picked up where he left off last year and recorded a double-double with a game-high 32 points and 17 rebounds. Watson connected on 14 of 22 shots from the field, including three of six attempts from three-point range. He also added three assists, two steals and a blocked shot. In his first game as a Cavalier, Vander Laan grabbed a game-high 24 rebounds, including 13 offensive, and added 14 points for a double-double. Brown made 10 of 20 attempts from the field en route to 23 points. He also pulled down six rebounds. Junior guard Todd Billet rounded out UVa's double digit scorers with 13 points. He also contributed five rebounds and three assists. Watson, Brown, Vander Laan and Billet combined to score 82 of UVa's 84 points. Senior center/forward Jason Rogers was the only other Cavalier to score as he had two points.

Virginia shot 44.7 percent (34-76) from the field in the game while holding Big Apple Basketball to 34.3 percent (23-67) shooting from the floor. The Cavaliers also held a 63-37 advantage in rebounding, including a 29-14 edge on the offensive glass. UVa shot 52.6 percent (20-38) in the first half as it took a 47-28 lead at the intermission.

Forward Michael Tabb led Big Apple Basketball with 19 points, a game-high four blocked shots and five rebounds. Forward Roberto Gittens added 13 points and eight rebounds, while former Cavalier guard Harold Deane contributed 10 points and three assists.

The Cavaliers used just eight players in the game as sophomores Jason Clark, Jermaine Harper and Keith Jenifer were serving a one-game suspension for a violation of team rules. Junior Majestic Mapp, sophomore Devin Smith and freshman Derrick Byars missed the game with injuries.

Watson Looks Toward Senior Year

Senior forward/center Travis Watson has been named to the Wooden Award Preseason All-American Basketball Team and is also a preseason Naismith Award candidate. Watson is a third-team preseason All-America selection by Street & Smith's and is rated sixth nationally at center in Lindy's preseason basketball magazine. Watson added to his already impressive career at UVa by being named to the All-ACC second team after the 2001-02 season. He led the ACC in four statistical categories last season: double-doubles (17), rebounds (9.7 rpg), offensive rebounds (3.43 pg), and defensive rebounds (6.29 pg).

At the ACC's annual Operation Basketball, Watson was selected to the conference's 2002-03 Pre-Season First Team. He received 85 votes, the most of any player. Watson was also second to Duke's Chris Duhon in the Pre-Season ACC Player of the Year voting.

Eleven Games against Tournament Teams

Of Virginia's 29 regular-season games before the 2003 ACC Tournament, 11 are against seven teams that participated in either the 2002 NCAA Tournament or the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). Two of the games are against national champion Maryland. The Cavaliers also meet league foes Duke, N.C. State and Wake Forest twice. In addition to those games, Virginia plays Michigan State, an NCAA participant and Rutgers, which earned an NIT bid.

At the Maui Invitational (November 25-27), UVa will play either Kentucky (NCAA) or Arizona State (NIT) in the second round. Indiana, the national runners-up, as well as NCAA participants Utah and Gonzaga, are also possible opponents in the Maui Invitational which could bring Virginia's total number of games against teams making postseason appearances to 12.

Harper Suspended

Sophomore guard Jermaine Harper is suspended indefinitely from the team for a violation of team rules. He will not practice or play in games during the suspension.
