OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia stands at 10-3 overall and 1-1 in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2002-2003. In its last outing, UVa earned its first ACC win of the season with a 79-72 victory over North Carolina (Jan. 11) at University Hall. Duke, ranked number one in the nation in both the AP and USAToday/ESPN polls, stands at 11-0 overall and 2-0 in the ACC this season. In their last game, the Blue Devils defeated previously unbeaten Wake Forest 74-55 (Jan. 12) in Durham, N.C.

The Series vs. Duke

Duke leads the all-time series with the Cavaliers 98-47. UVa split the 2001-2002 season series with the Blue Devils. Virginia lost the first meeting last season 94-81 (Jan. 27) in Durham and won at home 87-84 (Feb. 28). The Cavaliers also split the 2000-2001 series with the Blue Devils with both teams winning at home. Duke won the first meeting 103-61 (Jan. 13) in Durham, while UVa posted a 91-89 victory (Feb. 14) in Charlottesville, which snapped a 12-game slide to the Blue Devils.

Duke has dominated the series in the last 19 years, winning 34 of the last 44 meetings since Ralph Sampson's graduation from Virginia in 1983.

In addition to snapping the 12-game losing streak to the Blue Devils with its win in 2001, Virginia broke a six-game streak in which Duke reached triple digits.

During Duke's 12-game winning streak over UVa, the Blue Devils won in convincing fashion, winning by an average of 25.3 points per game. Duke won by more than 40 points on four occasions. Only five of the last 13 games have been decided by fewer than 10 points.

Playing in front of the "Cameron crazies" has been difficult for UVa as the Wahoos are 8-42 against Duke at Cameron. All-time Virginia is 10-47 on Duke's various home courts through the years. The Cavaliers have lost their last seven games at Cameron Indoor Stadium. UVa's last win at Cameron was a 91-88 double overtime victory on January 14, 1995.

He's Back

After missing 70 consecutive games spanning 1,032 days, junior guard Majestic Mapp made his long anticipated return to the Cavalier lineup against North Carolina (Jan. 11). Mapp entered the game to a standing ovation with 7:23 remaining in the first half and played just over two minutes.

Mapp had been sidelined after tearing the ACL in his right knee on August 2, 2000. He missed the entire 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons. The last time Mapp had played for UVa was March 15, 2000 against Georgetown in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament.

Virginia vs. Ranked Duke Teams

Tonight's contest is the 14th consecutive game in which the Blue Devils have been ranked in the top 10 when playing the Cavaliers, dating back to the 1996-97 season. After dropping 10 consecutive meetings against ranked Duke teams, the Cavaliers have won two of the last three games, including last season's 87-84 victory at University Hall (Feb. 28).

The Blue Devils are currently ranked first in both The Associated Press and USAToday/ESPN Coaches polls.

In the past five seasons, Virginia has played Duke when the Blue Devils were ranked as the nation's top team six times. In 1997-98 Duke was ranked #1 at the time of all three meetings. (Virginia became the first team in NCAA history to play the nation's #1 team five times in one season when, in addition to three games vs. Duke, UVa also played North Carolina twice when it was atop the polls). In 1998-99, the Blue Devils were ranked #1 when they defeated UVa 100-54 in Charlottesville (Feb. 11) and 104-67 in the ACC Tournament (Mar. 4). Last season, Virginia lost to #1 Duke 94-81 (Jan. 27) in Durham.

Overall, Virginia hasn't fared well against a nationally-ranked Duke squad. The Cavaliers are 14-51 against a ranked Duke team, but are 4-5 vs. third-ranked Blue Devil squads. In its last three meetings vs. a #3 Duke team – UVa knocked off the Blue Devils 87-84 (Feb. 28) last season; defeated the Blue Devils 91-89 (Feb. 14) at home in the 2000-2001 season; and lost 106-86 (Feb. 5) in Durham during the 1999-2000 season.

The highest ranked team Virginia has defeated on the road is a third-ranked team, which UVa has accomplished three times. The Cavaliers have twice beaten #3 Duke teams on the road (90-84 - Jan. 23, 1980 and 77-69 - Jan. 17, 1993), as well as Georgetown (68-63 - Dec. 11, 1982). UVa was unranked at the time of the win in 1980, ranked 14th in 1993, and ranked first in 1982 vs. Georgetown.

Gillen Vs. #1

Head coach Pete Gillen is 0-4 lifetime coaching against number one-ranked Associated Press Poll teams. He is 0-3 vs. #1 ranked teams at UVa and was 0-1 while the head coach at Xavier. Gillen's first Virginia team lost twice to Duke in the 1998-99 season (100-54 - Feb. 11 and 104-67 - Mar. 4), and once to the Blue Devils last season (94-81 - Jan. 27). His Xavier team lost 73-70 to top-ranked Indiana in the second round of the 1993 NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis, Ind. (Mar. 21).

Virginia Vs. #1

This is the 25th time the Cavaliers have played the #1 team in the nation. They have not fared well against top-ranked teams, posting a 1-23 all-time record. Virginia's lone win over the #1 team was an 86-73 win over North Carolina in Charlottesville on January 30, 1986.

Virginia has faced Duke 11 times when the Blue Devils were ranked number one and has lost all 11 games.

Gillen Registers 350th Career Win

Virginia head coach Pete Gillen won his 350th career game on December 21 when his Cavaliers posted a 61-57 victory over Rutgers.

Gillen is in his 18th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 354-180 record for a .663 winning percentage. Gillen is in his fifth season at Virginia and has posted an 80-52 record (.606 winning percentage). Gillen won the 300th game of his career when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 14 times in 17 seasons (nine NCAA, five NIT), including the last three seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times – all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Billet Scores 1,000th Career Point

Junior guard Todd Billet reached the 1,000 point milestone in UVa's 79-72 win over North Carolina (Jan. 11). Billet scored his 1,000th career point with a three-point field goal with 4:15 remaining in the first half. Billet tallied 24 points in the game and has scored 1,011 points in his collegiate career. Billet scored 844 points in two seasons at Rutgers and has scored 167 points this season in a Virginia uniform.

The Cavaliers' 87-65 victory (Jan. 2) over Wofford marked their 200th victory over a non-conference opponent at University Hall since the building opened for the 1965-66 season. Virginia is 200-29 for an impressive .873 winning percentage all-time in University Hall against non-conference opponents.

Four Consecutive Double-Doubles

Senior forward/center Travis Watson has registered a double-double in each of his last four games and seven this season (see page 5 of the notes for a listing of those double-doubles). It marks the third time in his career Watson has recorded four consecutive double-doubles (he did it twice last season). The last player other than Watson to notch four consecutive double-doubles was in the 1997-98 season when Norman Nolan accomplished the feat. Nolan posted consecutive double-doubles against Clemson (Feb. 21) - 24 pts., 12 rebs., Maryland (Feb. 24) - 26 pts., 15 rebs., Florida State (Feb. 28) - 24 pts., 10 rebs., and Duke (Mar. 3) - 13 pts., 15 rebs.

Ralph Sampson is the last UVa player to have five consecutive double-doubles as he concluded his stellar career with five double-doubles in a row in the 1982-83 season. Sampson's career high for consecutive double-doubles is nine, but interestingly enough, that is not the school record. Norm Carmichael posted a school record 12 consecutive double-doubles in the 1967-68 season.

Watson has led UVa in rebounding in 10 of 13 games this season and is averaging an ACC-best 10.8 boards per game. He is also averaging a team-high 14.4 points per game.

'Hoos Starting

The Cavaliers have played 13 games this season and have used eight different starting lineups. UVa's latest starting lineup (vs. N.C. State - Jan. 5 and North Carolina - Jan. 11) featured freshman forward Derrick Byars, sophomore forward Elton Brown, senior forward/center Travis Watson, sophomore guard Keith Jenifer and junior guard Todd Billet. The same five started UVa's season-opener vs. Long Island (Nov. 22).

Billet, Watson and Jenifer lead the team with 11 starts apiece. Sophomore guard/forward Devin Smith has started nine games, while Byars has eight starts. Eight different players have started games this season for Virginia.

2002-2003 UVa ACC Players of the Week

Jan. 6 - Travis Watson

Jan. 13 - Todd Billet

Junior guard Todd Billet was named the Co-ACC Player of the Week after scoring 24 points in UVa's 79-72 home victory over North Carolina (Jan. 11). He also had three rebounds, two assists and two steals in the win. Billet was eight for 15 from the field, including six of 11 from three-point range. He also made both free throw attempts.

Billet reached a career milestone in the victory as he scored his 1,000th career point with a three-point field goal with 4:15 remaining in the first half.

He shared the award with Duke's Dahntay Jones.

Cavalier Captains

Seniors Travis Watson and Jason Rogers, and junior Majestic Mapp are the captains of the 2002-03 Virginia basketball team.

Against Wofford (Jan. 2), senior forward/center Travis Watson accomplished what no UVa player has been able to do in 20 years – register 20 or more points and rebounds in the same game. In the Cavaliers' 87-65 victory, Watson scored 21 points and pulled down a career-high 20 rebounds.

The last Virginia player to accomplish the feat was Ralph Sampson on Jan. 12, 1983 when he had 33 points and 21 rebounds against N.C. State.

Billet and Watson Among NCAA Leaders

Junior guard Todd Billet and senior forward/center Travis Watson are ranked among the NCAA Division I leaders in free throw percentage and rebounding, respectively, for games played through Jan. 6. Billet is tied with Ron Williamson of Howard for fourth in free throw percentage at 93.0 percent as both players have made 40 of 43 attempts. Billet is currently 42-45 (93.3 percent) from the free throw line. Watson is tied with Ryan Gomes of Providence College for ninth in rebounds per game with an average of 10.6. Watson is now averaging 10.8 rebounds (129 rebounds in 12 games).

Harper Reinstated

Sophomore guard Jermaine Harper has been reinstated to the team after being suspended for a violation of team rules. Harper missed the Cavaliers' first five games of the season. He did not practice during the suspension.

In the eight games Harper has played he is averaging 6.0 points and 1.9 rebounds per game. He is averaging 15.6 minutes of playing time per game.

Tough Early Season Schedule

The Cavaliers played three nationally-ranked teams (Kentucky, Indiana and Michigan State) in their first five games of the season. It is the first time in school history the Cavaliers played three of their first five games of a season against ranked teams. In the 1963-64, 1968-69, 1991-92 and 1996-97 seasons, UVa played two ranked teams in the first five games of the season.

Two Busy Weeks After Final Exams

After a 13-day break for final exams, the Cavaliers won three games in a span of five days. UVa won the first two games of the stretch – 84-76 over East Tennessee State (Dec. 17) and 72-65 over Gardner-Webb (Dec. 19) – at home in University Hall. UVa closed out the stretch with a 61-57 victory at Rutgers (Dec. 21).

Virginia then won three home games in a span of six days. UVa began its homestand with a 79-75 victory over Georgetown (Dec. 28) and posted a 77-58 win over Liberty (Dec. 30). The Cavaliers closed their homestand with an 87-65 victory over Wofford (Jan. 2).

Jenifer Finds the Range

Sophomore guard Keith Jenifer started off the season making only nine of 34 (26.5 percent) attempts from the field. In his last eight games, Jenifer has made 43.2 percent (19-44) of his field goal attempts – admittedly, not a great percentage. However, when Jenifer has stepped behind the three-point line, he has been deadly accurate.

Jenifer has made nine of his last 12 three-point attempts (75.0 percent) over the last seven games after missing his first six threes of the season. His nine three-pointers this season are seven more than he had during the entire 2001-2002 season.

Jenifer is averaging 6.8 points, 5.5 assists and 3.6 rebounds per game this season.

Making Free Throws Down The Stretch

The Cavaliers have struggled from the free throw line this season, making just 68.1 percent (201-295) of their attempts from the charity stripe. However, UVa has been extremely reliable from the charity stripe in the final five minutes of games.

In the first half of games, Virginia is shooting 68.0 percent (66-97) from the line. UVa has made 68.2 percent (135-198) of its attempts in the second half of games. In the final five minutes of games, the Cavaliers have made 81 of 112 attempts for 72.3 percent. (UVa is only 54-86 for 62.8 percent in the first 15 minutes of the second half.) In its last 10 games, UVa has made 70 of 90 attempts from the foul line in the final five minutes of games for 77.8 percent.

Cavaliers Finish Second in Maui Invitational

Virginia won two of three games to finish second in the 2002 EA Sports Maui Invitational (Nov. 25-27) at the Lahaina Civic Center in Maui, Hawaii. The Cavaliers defeated Chaminade 86-72 (Nov. 25) and 15th-ranked Kentucky 75-61 (Nov. 26) before falling to 19th-ranked Indiana 70-63 (Nov. 27) in the championship game.

Senior forward/center Travis Watson was named to the All-Tournament team. Watson registered two double-doubles and averaged 12.7 points and 11.0 rebounds in the three games. He also blocked nine shots and added seven assists and five steals.

Billet Unkind to Former Team

He was booed all game long, but it didn't faze junior guard Todd Billet, who was making his return to Louis Brown Athletic Center and Rutgers on December 21. Billet, who played for Rutgers for two seasons before transferring to Virginia, scored a game-high 22 points in leading his new team to a 61-57 victory over the Scarlet Knights. Among his 22 points were a pair of free throws with 14 seconds remaining that broke a 57-57 tie and gave the Cavaliers the lead for good.

In two seasons at Rutgers, Billet averaged 14.6 points per game, including 16.6 per game in 2000-01. He also established a school record for three-pointers in a season with 82 in 2000-01.

Billet is second on the team in scoring this season with 12.8 points per game. He tops the Cavaliers in three-point field goals (33) and also leads all ACC players in free throw shooting (42-45 for 93.3 percent).

4 • Virginia vs. Duke, January 15, 2003

More Double-Doubles

Senior forward/center Travis Watson has picked up where he left off last season as he has recorded an ACC-best seven double-doubles this season, including double-doubles in each of the last four games. With the seven double-doubles, Watson has 45 in his career which trails only Ralph Sampson's school record 84 career double-doubles.

Here's a list of Watson's double-doubles in 2002-03:

Travis Watson – 26 pts., 13 rebs. vs. Long Island (Nov. 22)
Travis Watson – 16 pts., 14 rebs. vs. Chaminade (Nov. 25)
Travis Watson – 14 pts., 11 rebs. vs. Indiana (Nov. 27)
Travis Watson – 20 pts., 15 rebs. vs. Liberty (Dec. 30)
Travis Watson – 21 pts., 20 rebs. vs. Wofford (Jan. 2)
Travis Watson – 10 pts., 12 rebs. vs. N.C. State (Jan. 5)
Travis Watson – 18 pts., 12 rebs. vs. North Carolina (Jan. 11)

Watson's 45 career double-doubles are the most of any active ACC player. Watson, who recorded an ACC-best 17 double-doubles last year, also had double-doubles in both of UVa's 2002-2003 exhibition games.

Vander Laan Joins Growing List

Junior center Nick Vander Laan became the latest Cavalier to set a UVa career-high in scoring (see notes to follow). Vander Laan poured in 17 points in Virginia's 72-65 win over Gardner-Webb (Dec. 19). His previous UVa best was 10 points against then 19th-ranked Indiana (Nov. 27). Vander Laan's overall career-high is 23 points against Oklahoma in the 1999-2000 season while playing for Cal-Berkeley.

Vander Laan also set a UVa career-best in rebounds with 11 vs. Rutgers (Dec. 21). His previous season-high was eight rebounds on two occasions. Vander Laan's overall career best rebounding game is 13 against Washington during the 1999-2000 season while playing for Cal-Berkeley.

Byars Joins Career High Club

Freshman forward Derrick Byars became another in a long line of Cavaliers to set a career high in scoring. Byars registered career-highs in back-to-back games. Byars scored 16 points, including 14 in the second half, in UVa's 84-76 win over East Tennessee State (Dec. 17). He then scored a game-high 20 points in the Cavaliers' 72-65 victory over Gardner-Webb (Dec. 19). His previous career high was 11 points against Indiana (Nov. 27).

Byars also registered a career-high five steals against Gardner-Webb. His previous career-best was two steals against Michigan State (Dec. 4).

Billet and Smith Net UVa Career Bests

Junior guard Todd Billet and sophomore forward/guard Devin Smith scored career-highs as Cavaliers in UVa's game against Michigan State (Dec. 4).

Billet poured in 28 points off the bench – including 26 in the second half. His career-high is 37 points against James Madison during the 2000-2001 season while playing at Rutgers University. He is averaging 12.8 points per game this season (second on the team).

Smith scored 24 points against the Spartans. He was 9-13 from the floor, including 4-6 from three-point range, and made both of his free throw attempts. Smith is third on the team in scoring at 11.2 points per game.

New Career High for Clark

Sophomore forward Jason Clark scored 12 points – all in the second half – in the Cavaliers' 90-86 win over Long Island (Nov. 22) to establish a new career high. Clark equaled his career high with 12 points against Rutgers (Dec. 21) in his first start of the season. He also blocked a season-high five shots and grabbed a season-best eight rebounds vs. Rutgers. Clark's former career-best was 11 points against Duke (Jan. 27, 2002).

Brown Nets New Career High for Points

Sophomore forward Elton Brown established a new career high for points in a game when he scored 22 in UVa's 86-72 victory over Chaminade (Nov. 25). Brown, who surpassed his old career best of 20 points against Georgia Tech (Jan. 22, 2002), made eight of 13 shots from the floor and five of seven attempts from the charity stripe.

Jenifer Sets Career Highs

Sophomore guard Keith Jenifer became the third returning player to establish a new career high in scoring this season. Jenifer tallied 13 points in UVa's 75-61 victory over Kentucky (Nov. 26). His previous career high was 10 points against Duke (Feb. 28) last season.

Jenifer has also set a new career high for assists. He handed out a career-best seven assists in the season-opener against Long Island (Nov. 22) and then increased his career high to eight against Indiana (Nov. 27). He equaled his career-best with eight assists against Wofford (Jan. 2).

With nine rebounds against Rutgers (Dec. 21), Jenifer set a new career high in that category. His previous career high for rebounds was five on two occasions.

Not Just a Scorer

Sophomore guard/forward Devin Smith came to Virginia with a reputation as a terrific scorer (19.4 ppg, at Coffeyville Community College), but he has also shown a knack for blocking shots. He has blocked 12 shots in the last five games, including a season-high four against Liberty (Dec. 30). With 18 blocks this season, Smith is averaging 1.4 per game, second to senior forward/center Travis Watson's 19 blocked shots.

Making the Most of His Opportunities

Sophomore forward Jason Clark has only taken 30 shots this season, but he's made 21 baskets for an impressive .700 field goal percentage. He has shot 50 percent or better in every game excluding the three games (Indiana – Nov. 27, East Tennessee State – Dec. 17, and Wofford – Jan. 2) he did not attempt a field goal. Clark has been perfect from the field four times this season. He is shooting 61.6 percent (61-99) from the field in his career.

Home Cookin'

Freshman forward Derrick Byars is averaging 8.5 points per game this season, however, he is averaging better than 10 points per contest in games played at University Hall. (His average was 12.3 points per game prior to not scoring against North Carolina. He injured his left shoulder early in the game against UNC and played only eight minutes). Byars is averaging 10.6 points per game in seven home games and is averaging only 6.0 points in six games away from home. To go one step further, Byars has only scored seven points in UVa's three games on opponents home courts.

Senior All-America candidate Travis Watson is one of 36 candidates for the second annual Senior CLASS Award as announced by the award's organizing committee. The Senior CLASS Award – an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School – is presented annually to the nation's senior player-of-the-year for NCAA Division I men's and women's basketball. The award was developed in response to the recent trend of college basketball players leaving college early to turn professional.

In addition, the recipient must be working toward his degree, be in good academic standing and be of sound moral character.

Ten finalists will appear on the official ballot during the national voting process in March. The winners will be announced during the respective NCAA Final Four events.

Cavaliers Ink Two

University of Virginia men's head basketball coach Pete Gillen has announced the signing of two individuals to national letters of intent with Virginia. The two individuals are 6-6 Gary Forbes of Brooklyn, N.Y., and 6-3 J. R. Reynolds of Roanoke, Va.

Forbes, a guard, averaged 25 points, 11 rebounds and five assists a game as a junior during the 2001-02 season at Benjamin Banneker Academy.

Watson Looks Toward Senior Year

Senior forward/center Travis Watson has been named to the Wooden Award Preseason All-American Basketball Team and is also a preseason Naismith Award candidate. Watson is a third-team preseason All-America selection by Street & Smith's and is rated sixth nationally at center in Lindy's preseason basketball magazine. Watson added to his already impressive career at UVa by being named to the All-ACC second team after the 2001-02 season. He led the ACC in four statistical categories last season: double-doubles (17), rebounds (9.7 rpg), offensive rebounds (3.43 pg), and defensive rebounds (6.29 pg).

At the ACC's annual Operation Basketball, Watson was selected to the conference's 2002-03 Pre-Season First Team. He received 85 votes, the most of any player. Watson was also second to Duke's Chris Duhon in the Pre-Season ACC Player of the Year voting.

Twelve Games against Tournament Teams

Of Virginia's 29 regular-season games before the 2003 ACC Tournament, 12 are against eight teams that participated in either the 2002 NCAA Tournament or the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). Two of the games are against national champion Maryland. The Cavaliers also meet league foes Duke, N.C. State and Wake Forest twice. Those teams all participated in last season's NCAA Tournament. In addition to those games, Virginia has played Michigan State, an NCAA participant and Rutgers, which earned an NIT bid.

At the Maui Invitational (November 25-27), UVa played Kentucky (NCAA) and Indiana (NCAA runners-up).

UVa is 2-3 in 2002-2003 against teams that competed in postseason play last season.
