OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia stands at 11-4 overall and 1-3 in the Atlantic Coast Conference in the 2003-2004 season. The Cavaliers are coming off a 76-67 overtime victory over Florida State (Jan. 18) in Charlottesville, Va. Clemson stands at 8-7 overall and 1-3 in the ACC. The Tigers are coming off an 86-69 loss to N.C. State (Jan. 17) in Raleigh, N.C.

The Series vs. Clemson

Virginia leads the all-time series with Clemson 59-46. The Tigers swept the 2002-2003 season series from UVa, winning 78-77 (Jan. 18) in Clemson, S.C., and 73-64 (Feb. 18) in Charlottesville. It marked Clemson's first season sweep since the 1996-97 campaign. The Tigers have won three of the last four meetings.

Virginia had its four-game winning streak against the Tigers snapped with a 68-52 loss (Jan. 8) in the first meeting in the 2001-2002 season in Clemson, S.C. Virginia earned a split in the 2001-2002 series with an 85-71 win (Feb. 10) in University Hall. Despite losing three of the last four, UVa has won seven of the last 11 games against the Tigers.

The Cavaliers swept the 2000-2001 season series versus Clemson, winning 104-76 (Jan. 27) at Littlejohn Coliseum and 84-65 (Feb. 28) at University Hall. Virginia also swept the 1999-2000 season series from Clemson. The Cavaliers swept the season series five times in the last 11 seasons (since 1992-93) and are 14-8 vs. the Tigers during that span.

Virginia had won the last five contests against Clemson at University Hall before last season's 73-64 loss to the Tigers. The Cavaliers are 35-15 all-time at home against the Tigers, including 29-9 at U-Hall. Prior to last season, the last UVa loss to the Tigers at University Hall was a 62-52 setback on December 7, 1996 (Clemson was ranked 12th in the nation).

Overall the Cavaliers have won 18 of the last 27 games in the series dating back to the 1989-90 season.

Sometimes Change is Good

After using the same starting lineup for 11 consecutive games, head coach Pete Gillen changed UVa's starting lineup against Florida State (Jan. 18) and it resulted in a 76-67 overtime win, the Cavaliers first ACC win of the season. Derrick Byars, Devin Smith, Elton Brown, Todd Billet and Gary Forbes had comprised UVa's starting lineup 11 consecutive games. Donte Minter and Jason Clark replaced Smith and Brown in the starting lineup against the Seminoles. It was Minter's first career start and the first start of the season for Clark.

Redd Joins Blue and Orange

Freshman football player Vince Redd has joined the Virginia basketball team. Redd, a 6-6 linebacker from Elizabethton, Tenn., red-shirted the 2003 football season. He practiced with the basketball team for the first time on Friday (Jan. 16) and was in uniform for the Florida State (Jan. 18) game.

As a senior at Elizabethton High School, Redd averaged 15 points and 12 rebounds per game and was a first-team All-State pick.

Jason Clark Rejoins Team

Jason Clark, a 6-8 junior forward from Virginia Beach, Va., has rejoined the University of Virginia men's basketball team. Clark practiced with the Cavaliers for the first time this season on January 4. He was on the bench, but not in uniform for Virginia's game with Providence College (Jan. 3) and did not play in UVa's game against William & Mary (Jan. 5) at University Hall. Clark saw his first game action of the season against Duke (Jan. 11), playing five minutes with two rebounds and two blocked shots. In 15 minutes against Georgia Tech (Jan. 15), he had two points, three rebounds, two blocked shots, one assist and one steal.

Clark turned in an impressive performance against Florida State (Jan. 18). He played a career-best 34 minutes, had five points, tied a career high with nine rebounds, and blocked a pair of shots while receiving a starting assignment.

A two-year letterman, he averaged 4.7 points and 2.5 rebounds a game for Virginia during the 2002-03 season. He shot 70.7 percent (58-82) from the floor and blocked 25 shots.

The Band is Back

Virginia's new band – the Virginia Basketball Band – is making its debut at tonight's game. The band director is Bill Pease.

Cavalier Captains

Graduate students Todd Billet and Majestic Mapp, along with junior Devin Smith, are the captains of the 2003-04 Virginia basketball team. It is the second consecutive year Mapp is serving as a team captain.

Non-Conference Play

The Cavaliers concluded regular season non-conference play with a 10-1 record. The only non-conference blemish on Virginia's record is an 84-69 setback to Providence College (Jan. 3). Some of UVA's most notable wins included: Minnesota 86-78 (Dec. 3) in the ACC/Big 10 Challenge at University Hall; Loyola Marymount 76-68 (Dec. 19) in Los Angeles; and Iowa State 85-74 (Dec. 31) in U-Hall. The Cavaliers also won all four contests against in-state foes.

Reynolds Back and Playing Well

After missing the Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19) and Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22) games because of illness, freshman guard J.R. Reynolds returned to action in UVA's game against N.C. State (Dec. 28). He had only one rebound in eight minutes. In the last six games, Reynolds has averaged 7.7 points per game, including a career-high 10 points against Providence (Jan. 3). He also handed out a career-high five assists against Florida State (Jan. 18).

3 • Virginia vs. Clemson, January 20, 2004

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 19th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 371-197 record for a .653 winning percentage. Gillen is in his sixth season at Virginia and has posted a 97-69 record (.584 winning percentage).

Gillen won his 350th career game on December 21, 2002 when his Cavaliers posted a 61-57 victory over Rutgers. His 300th career victory came when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 15 times in 18 seasons (nine NCAA, six NIT), including the last four seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times – all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Only Five Turnovers

The Cavaliers committed just five turnovers in an 85-74 win over Iowa State (Dec. 31). The five turnovers were just one shy of the school mark for fewest turnovers in a game. On five occasions, the Cavaliers had just four turnovers in a game.

Interestingly enough, the last time UVA had only five turnovers in a game was on March 13, 1997 against Iowa in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and Iowa committed only three turnovers which ties for the UVA opponent record for fewest turnovers in a game (UVA lost the game 73-60). The game prior to Iowa was against North Carolina (Mar. 7, 1997) and UVA tied the school record with only four turnovers in that contest (a 78-68 loss in the first round of the ACC Tournament).

...Then the Turnover Roller Coaster

After committing only five turnovers against Iowa State (Dec. 31), UVA had 20 miscues against Providence (Jan. 3). Providence had 24 turnovers in the contest. The roller coaster that is Virginia turnovers went back on the down tick against William & Mary (Jan. 5) when the Cavaliers had just six. UVA then equaled its very respectable season average at the time with 12 turnovers against Duke (Jan. 11). The turnover bug reappeared against Georgia Tech (Jan. 15) as the Cavaliers committed a season-high 21 turnovers. The 21 turnovers against the Yellow Jackets are the most in a game since UVA had 22 turnovers against St. John's (Mar. 24) in the second round of the 2003 National Invitation Tournament.

On the season, UVA is averaging a 13.2 turnovers per game. Virginia's opponents are averaging 15.6 turnovers per game.

The Cavaliers averaged 16.5 turnovers per game last season.

Only One Steal

In UVA's 85-74 win over Iowa State (Dec. 31), the Cyclones had only one steal. The last time a Virginia opponent only had one steal was Long Island on November 17, 2000. The last time UVA held an opponent without a steal was vs. New Orleans on November 30, 1990.

Starting Strong

For the third time in the last four years, Virginia started its season with eight consecutive victories. UVA had its unbeaten streak snapped with an 86-69 loss at N.C. State (Dec. 28).

The only time in the last four seasons the Cavaliers did not win their first eight games was last year (2002-2003) when the team lost its fourth and fifth games of the season after starting out 3-0.

In 2001-2002, UVA won its first nine games of the season and in 2000-2001, the Cavaliers reeled off 10 consecutive victories to begin the season. The 10 straight wins marked UVA's best start since the 1992-93 team started the season with an 11-0 mark.

Minter Makes Most of First Collegiate Start

Freshman forward/center Donte Minter earned his first collegiate start vs. Florida State (Jan. 18) and turned in an excellent performance. Minter played a career-high 24 minutes and tallied nine points, equaled his career best with seven rebounds, and set another career high with four blocked shots. Minter also had seven rebounds in his collegiate debut against Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23).

Bombs Away

The Cavaliers hoisted up a season-high 31 three-point attempts against Florida State (Jan. 18) and hit a season-best 13 of those long range attempts. The 31 three-point attempts ties for the fourth most in a game by the Cavaliers all-time. UVa also attempted 31 threes against North Carolina on January 21, 1999 (and made just four). The school record is 38 three-point attempts vs. Clemson on January 15, 2000 (UVa made 12 of the 38 three-point tries).

Virginia's 13 made three-pointers against Florida State ties for the seventh most in a game. The school record is 15 successful threes vs. North Carolina (February 14, 1990) and Hampton (November 25, 1998).

The Cavaliers 13 three-pointers vs. Florida State are the most in a game since the team made 14 against Howard on November 21, 2001.

Coincidentally, Florida State also attempted 31 threes in the game (and made 10) which ties for the third most three-pointers taken against UVa. VMI and Georgia Tech both attempted 34 three-pointers on December 19, 1994 and November 30, 1996, respectively.

Virginia's previous season high for three-pointers made was nine against Virginia Tech (Nov. 28). The Cavaliers' 25 attempted threes against Minnesota (Dec. 3) were the season high before taking 31 against Florida State.

31.9 Percent Shooting

The Cavaliers held Florida State (Jan. 18) to just 31.9 percent (22-69) shooting from the floor. In the first three ACC games, Virginia had allowed its opponents to shoot a combined 50 percent (90-180) from the floor.

UVa's 31.9 percent field goal percentage defense against FSU marked the lowest vs. an ACC opponent since Wake Forest shot 29.0 percent (20-69) on February 24, 1996.

16 Field Goals

The Cavaliers had a season-low 16 field goals against Georgia Tech (Jan. 15). The 16 field goals ties for the 16th fewest in a game. The last time UVa had fewer than 16 field goals in a game was on February 19, 1997 when the Cavaliers made only 15 (of 37 attempts) against N.C. State.

Interestingly enough, Virginia won the game 55-46 in Raleigh and the Wolfpack also made only 15 field goals (they attempted 39).

Spreading Minutes Around

Virginia has 10 players who are averaging 10 or more minutes per game. The Cavaliers also have just one player who is averaging more than 30 minutes per game – senior Todd Billet at 32.6 minutes per game.

Assist-to-Turnover Ratio

UVa is fourth in the ACC with a 1.19 to 1 assist-to-turnover ratio. The Cavaliers have handed out 236 assists while committing 198 turnovers. Senior guard Todd Billet is fourth among all ACC players with a 2.50 to 1 assist-to-turnover ratio with 50 assists and only 20 miscues. Freshmen J.R. Reynolds and T.J. Bannister have 1.93 to 1 and 1.88 to 1 assist-to-turnover ratios, respectively.

Last season, UVa had a .87 to 1 assist-to-turnover ratio.

Turnovers

The Cavaliers' streak of five consecutive games with 13 or fewer turnovers ended against N.C. State (Dec. 28) as UVa committed 18 turnovers in the game.

Within the five-game stretch of 13 or fewer turnovers, Virginia put together a three-game streak where it did not commit more than 10 turnovers (9 vs. Minnesota – Dec. 3, 9 vs. VMI – Dec. 5, and 10 vs. James Madison – Dec. 16).

The last time UVa had back-to-back games with fewer than 10 turnovers was in the 1999-2000 season. The Cavaliers had eight turnovers against Clemson (Jan. 15) and seven against North Carolina (Jan. 18).

Virginia has four games this season in which it has committed fewer than 10 turnovers. UVa had nine or fewer turnovers only once last season – 9 vs. Long Island (Nov. 22) in the season-opener.

Getting to the Free Throw Line

Virginia has gotten to the free throw line quite frequently in 2003-04. The Cavaliers have attempted 381 free throws and made 249 this season, so UVa is only shooting 65.4 percent from the free throw line.

The Cavaliers are averaging 25.4 attempts from the free throw line per game (and 16.6 made per game). UVa has made more free throws than its opponent in all but five games this season, including three losses – N.C. State (Dec. 28) made 15 free throws to UVa's 12. Providence (Jan 3) and Virginia both made 11 free throws. Duke (Jan. 11) made 19 free throws to the Cavaliers' 15. In its win over William & Mary (Jan. 5), the Tribe made 13 foul shots to Virginia's 12. Florida State (Jan. 18) made 13 free throws to UVa's 11.

Virginia's opponents have attempted only 261 free throws (17.4 per game) and made 177 (11.8 per game). UVa has attempted 120 more free throws than its opponents (8.0 more per game) and made 72 more free throws (4.8 more per game). Cavalier opponents have attempted nine or fewer free throws in three games.

Last season, Virginia averaged 20.7 attempts and 13.6 made free throws per game.

Perfect from the Free Throw Line

One bright spot from the N.C. State (Dec. 28) game was the Cavaliers' effort from the free throw line. UVa made all 12 of its free throws to tie the team's second best single game free throw performance ever. On January 23, 1988, UVa was also 12-12 from the line against Georgia Tech. The best free throw shooting performance in school history was a 16-16 effort against South Carolina on January 8, 1965.

Interestingly enough, the Cavaliers were only 31-58 for 53.4 percent from the free throw line in the two previous games combined before their 12-12 performance at N.C. State. Virginia followed its perfect performance against NCSU by making only 15-23 free throws (65.2 percent) against Iowa State (Dec. 31).

Thefts

In addition to giving the Cavaliers a lift offensively, junior Devin Smith has been a defensive spark. In just 11 games, Smith set a new personal single season career mark for steals with 21. Through 14 games this season, he has a team-high 25 steals. Smith had 19 steals in 32 games last season. He has 16 of his 25 steals in the last seven games, including a career-high five vs. Iowa State (Dec. 31).

Getting to the Free Throw Line

Junior Elton Brown has already taken a career-best 109 attempts from the free throw line. He has only made 64 attempts for 58.7 percent. Brown is averaging 7.3 attempts from the foul line per game and has taken 10 or more free throws in a game four times. He did not attempt a free throw in UVa's loss to Providence (Jan. 3).

Brown has attempted 60 more free throws than any other player on the team (Gary Forbes has 49 attempts). Brown took 93 free throws all of last season.

Freshmen Contributions

UVa's five freshman – T.J. Bannister, Jason Cain, Gary Forbes, Donte Minter, and J.R. Reynolds are making significant contributions. Four of them have played in every game, while Reynolds missed two games with an illness.

The quintet have accounted for:

- 52.4 percent of the team's blocked shots (33 of 63)
- 40.7 percent of the team's assists (96 of 236)
- 39.8 percent of the team's steals (41 of 103)
- 38.5 percent of the team's minutes (1,166 of 3,025)
- 34.2 percent of the points scored (400 of 1,169)
- 32.4 percent of the team's rebounds (179 of 552)

The freshmen have combined to play in 73 of 75 games and are averaging 79.9 minutes, 27.4 points, 12.3 rebounds, 6.4 assists, 2.8 steals, and 2.3 blocked shots per game.

Two 20-Point Scorers Times Five

The Cavaliers have had a pair of players score 20 or more points in the same game five times this season. Five different Cavaliers have scored 20 or more points in a game this season. Here's a list of the games two UVa players have scored 20 or more points.

Minnesota (Dec. 3) – Elton Brown 26, Gary Forbes 22
Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19) – Derrick Byars 21, Elton Brown 21
Iowa State (Dec. 31) – Derrick Byars 20, Devin Smith 25
William & Mary (Jan. 5) – Devin Smith 22, Elton Brown 22
Florida State (Jan. 18) – Todd Billet 26, Devin Smith 21

Field Goal Percentage Defense Slipping

After holding six of its first eight opponents below 40 percent shooting from the field, Virginia has allowed four of its last seven opponents to shoot over 50 percent from the floor.

James Madison (Dec. 16) became the first team to shoot better than 40 percent against Virginia this season as it shot 45.3 percent (29-64). N.C. State (Dec. 28) eclipsed 50 percent shooting – 30-59 (50.8 percent) and then Iowa State (Dec. 31) shot 55.2 percent (32-58). Providence shot a season-high 58.2 percent (32-55) from the field against Virginia. UVa held William & Mary (Jan. 5) to 44.8 percent shooting (26-58) from the field. The Tribe was shooting over 50 percent from the field in the game until missing 12 of their final 16 attempts. Duke (Jan. 11) became the fourth team to shoot better than 50 percent from the floor against the Cavaliers as it was 34-65 for 52.3 percent.

UVa held Florida State (Jan. 18) to 31.9 percent (22-69) shooting from the floor.

Here's a look at UVa's field goal percentage defense through the first 14 games of the season.

Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23)	27-71	38.0 percent
Virginia Tech (Nov. 28)	26-72	36.1 percent
High Point (Nov. 30)	21-67	31.3 percent
Minnesota (Dec. 3)	27-73	37.0 percent
at VMI (Dec. 5)	22-66	33.3 percent
James Madison (Dec. 16)	29-64	45.3 percent
Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19)	26-67	38.8 percent
Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22)	29-65	44.6 percent
N.C. State (Dec. 28)	30-59	50.8 percent
Iowa State (Dec. 31)	32-58	55.2 percent
Providence (Jan. 3)	32-55	58.2 percent
William & Mary (Jan. 5)	26-58	44.8 percent
Duke (Jan. 11)	34-65	52.3 percent
Georgia Tech (Jan. 15)	26-56	46.4 percent
Florida State (Jan. 18)	22-69	31.9 percent

Trouble on the Boards

The Cavaliers have won 11 of 15 games this season despite only out-rebounding six opponents (by a combined 20 rebounds).

UVa was out-rebounded by Mount St. Mary's (41-36), Virginia Tech (44-39), and Minnesota (51-40), and tied High Point (39-39) to open the season. UVa was out-rebounded by 5.3 boards per game in its first four games. In UVa's next five games, the Cavaliers out-rebounded each of their opponents – VMI (45-44), James Madison (39-37), Loyola Marymount (48-39), Coastal Carolina (37-36), and N.C. State (37-31). Virginia out-rebounded those five opponents by 3.8 boards per game.

UVa was out-rebounded by Iowa State (Dec. 31) 40-23, the Cavaliers' largest rebounding deficit of the season. Virginia out-rebounded Providence (Jan. 3) by one (35-34), but was out-rebounded by:

William & Mary (Jan. 5) by eight (39-31)
Duke (Jan. 11) by 13 (43-30)
Georgia Tech (Jan. 15) by three (36-33)
Florida State (Jan. 18) by five (45-40)

In the last six games, UVa is being out-rebounded by 7.5 boards per game.

Virginia is being out-rebounded 36.8 to 39.9 (-3.1) per game this season. On the offensive glass, the Cavaliers have been out-rebounded 224-188 (-2.4 per game). UVa gave up 22 offensive rebounds against Minnesota and Florida State. The Cavaliers also had 22 offensive boards against Loyola Marymount and 20 vs. Providence.

Brown's Double Digit Streak Snapped

Junior forward/center Elton Brown had his streak of scoring in double figures in 14 consecutive games snapped against Florida State (Jan. 18) as he scored only three points.

Brown has been a force for the Cavaliers all season. Despite only scoring three points against Florida State, Brown is still averaging 16.2 points and 7.3 rebounds per game over the last 12 contests. He recorded double-doubles against VMI (14 points, 13 rebounds), Loyola Marymount (21 points, 10 rebounds), and Coastal Carolina (22 points, 11 rebounds).

His 13 rebounds vs. VMI are a career high as are his 26 points against Minnesota. Brown is shooting 52.2 percent (72-138) from the field over the last 12 games.

Brown is averaging career and team-bests of 15.3 points (5th in the ACC) and 6.7 rebounds (7th in the ACC) per game this season. He is shooting 50.9 percent (83-163) from the field (4th in the ACC).

Brown's streak of 14 consecutive double figure scoring games was second among all ACC players. He is averaging 5.7 more points per game this season (15.3 ppg) than last season (9.6 ppg).

Smith Returns to Lineup

After missing the Cavaliers' season-opener against Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23) as well as the second exhibition game against Coaches vs. Cancer All-Stars (Nov. 18), junior Devin Smith returned to the lineup against Virginia Tech (Nov. 28). In 16 minutes of action off the bench, Smith tallied five points and seven rebounds. He made his first start of the season against Minnesota (Dec. 3) and posted a team and UVa career-high 10 rebounds to go along with three points, two steals and one assist in 25 minutes of playing time. Smith remained in the starting lineup for 11 consecutive games before not starting against Florida State (Jan. 18). He was out with an injured back.

Smith, who continues to miss some practice time with the back injury, has had several impressive games as of late.

Against Iowa State (Dec. 31), he had 25 points, a career-high five steals, three blocks, three rebounds and three assists with no turnovers in 30 minutes. He made 9-14 attempts from the field (3-5 on three-pointers) against the Cyclones.

Versus William & Mary (Jan. 5), Smith tallied 22 points, a career-high eight assists, five rebounds, and three steals with just one turnover in 32 minutes. He was 9-15 from the field and made two three-pointers, including a three with UVa leading 64-63 with 7:23 remaining.

Against Duke (Jan. 11), he had 19 points, six rebounds, two blocks and an assist in 30 minutes. Smith made 6-11 field goal attempts, including 5-6 three-pointers.

After not practicing the prior two days before the game against Florida State (Jan. 18), Smith tallied 21 points to help lead the Cavaliers to an overtime victory. Smith scored all 21 of his points after halftime, including UVa's first five points in overtime and a total of seven extra-session points. He also added six rebounds, two assists, two steals and a blocked shot.

Seeing More Playing Time

Freshman guard T.J. Bannister has seen his most significant playing time of the season over the last nine games. Here's a look at Bannister's key stats over the last nine games:

Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19) – 19 min., 4 asts., 3 rebs.
Coastal Car. (Dec. 22) – 21 min., 5 pts., 4 asts., 2 rebs., 1 st.
N.C. State (Dec. 28) – 15 min., 2 pts., 3 rebs., 5 asts.
Iowa State (Dec. 31) – 6 min., 2 asts.
Providence (Jan. 3) – 13 min., 2 pts., 3 asts., 1 reb.
William & Mary (Jan. 5) – 15 min., 1 pt., 1 reb., 2 asts.
Duke (Jan. 11) – 27 min., 4 pts, 2 rebs., 5 asts., 1 st.
Georgia Tech (Jan. 15) – 10 min, 1 pt.
Florida State (Jan. 18) – 8 min., 1 reb.

Bannister did not have an assist against Georgia Tech (Jan. 15) or Florida State (Jan. 18), marking the first two times since the Minnesota game (Dec. 3) he has not recorded an assist.

Auspicious Debut

Freshman Gary Forbes had a tremendous debut in the Cavaliers' 80-71 win over Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23). Forbes had team-high totals of 21 points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots. He was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on November 24 for his performance. Forbes followed up his first collegiate game with a team-high tying 16 points to go along with a team-best eight rebounds in UVa's 80-65 win over Virginia Tech (Nov. 28).

It is the first time a Virginia freshman has led the team in scoring and rebounding in a season-opener since Ralph Sampson in 1979. Sampson had 17 points and eight rebounds against Johns Hopkins on November 25, 1979. Forbes is also the first UVa freshman to lead the team in scoring (he tied for the team lead in scoring against Virginia Tech) and rebounding in his first two games since the restoration of freshman eligibility in 1972-73.

The last freshman to lead UVa in scoring in a season-opener was Harold Deane, who scored 10 points against Connecticut on November 29, 1993. With 24 points against James Madison in 1977, Jeff Lamp holds the school record for most points in a season-opener by a freshman.

The last frosh to lead the Cavaliers in rebounding in a season-opener was Travis Watson, who had 14 rebounds against Elon on November 19, 1999.

On the season, Forbes is averaging 10.5 points (4th on the team) and 5.3 rebounds (3rd on the team) per game. He leads UVa with 17 blocked shots. He is second among all ACC rookies in rebounding, and third in scoring, blocked shots, and minutes per game (28.9). Forbes has twice tallied three blocks in a game – Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23) and Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22).

Brown Registers Third Double-Double of Season

Junior Elton Brown became the first Cavalier in 2003-2004 to register a double-double when he tallied 14 points and a career-high 13 rebounds in UVa's 78-56 win over VMI (Dec. 5). All but one of his rebounds came in the first half. After nearly recording another double-double against James Madison (Dec. 16) with 19 points and nine rebounds, Brown posted his second double-double of the season against Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19). He had 21 points and 10 rebounds against the Lions. Brown added his third double-double of the year with 22 points and 11 rebounds vs. Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22).

Brown now has four career double-doubles. He posted 20 points and 10 rebounds against Georgia Tech on January 22, 2002 for his first career double-double.

Byars Tallies First Career Double-Double

Sophomore forward Derrick Byars became the second Cavalier to notch a double-double this season with a 17-point, 11-rebound performance against Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22). It marked the first double-double of Byars' career and the 11 rebounds also established a new career high.

Byars and Elton Brown became the first UVa players to record a double-double in the same game since February 12, 2002 when Chris Williams (18 pts., 10 rebs.) and Travis Watson (17 pts., 10 rebs.) posted double-doubles against North Carolina.

Mapp Making a Contribution

Guard Majestic Mapp has made a contribution in the first 15 games of the season. He is averaging 2.2 points, 1.3 assists and 1.2 rebounds in 11.3 minutes per game while seeing action in 14 of 15 games.

Here's a look at Mapp's game-by-game statistics:

Opponent	Pt.	Reb.	Ast.	TO	St.	Min.

* indicates season high

Last season Mapp averaged 2.4 points, 1.2 rebounds, and 1.7 assists in 15.6 minutes of action per game. He played in 18 of 32 games last season, including the final 17 games.

Mapp missed 70 consecutive games spanning 1,032 days, after tearing the ACL in his right knee on August 2, 2000. He missed the entire 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons. Mapp made his long anticipated return to the Cavalier lineup against North Carolina (Jan. 11, 2003). Mapp entered the game to a standing ovation with 7:23 remaining in the first half and played just over two minutes.

Billet Ninth in Three-Point Field Goals

Senior guard Todd Billet has made 129 career three-point field goals for the Cavaliers and is in ninth place all-time at Virginia. He needs just two three-pointers to move past Chris Williams (1999-02) into eighth place and four more to jump to seventh place in front of Richard Morgan (1986-89).

Here's a look at Virginia's all-time three-point field goal leaders list:

1. Curtis Staples (1995-98)	413 – NCAA record
2. Harold Deane (1994-97)	237
3. John Crotty (1988-91)	179
4. Donald Hand (1998-01)	156
5. Cory Alexander (1992-95)	142
6. Roger Mason, Jr. (2000-02)	137
7. Richard Morgan (1986-89)	132
8. Chris Williams (1999-02)	130
9. Todd Billet (2002-present)	129
10. Bryant Stith (1989-92)	114
11. Keith Friel (2000-01)	107

Billet Drains 100th Three

Guard Todd Billet drilled his 100th career three-point field goal as a Cavalier in UVa's win over High Point (Nov. 30). Billet is currently ninth on Virginia's career three-point field goals list with 129.

Billet has made his 129 career three-pointers at UVa in just 47 games for an average of 2.74 threes per game. He made 94 threes last season which is the fourth highest single season total in school history.

7 • Virginia vs. Clemson, January 20, 2004

In his collegiate career (which includes 158 three-point field goals while playing two seasons at Rutgers), Billet has made 287 threes. Billet's total of 287 career threes would rank ninth among all ACC players if he had played his entire career in the ACC.

Billet has played in 105 games in his career and has made at least one three-point field goal in 99 of those games. Billet had his streak of making a three-pointer in 23 consecutive games snapped against Duke (Jan. 11) – his longest collegiate streak. He made at least one three-point field goal in the first 18 games of his freshman season at Rutgers (1999-2000), which was his previous career best streak. Billet has made four or more three-pointers 31 times and three or more threes in 49 contests.

Here's a look at Billet's yearly three-point field goal totals.

Season	Games with a 3-Pt FG	Games with 4 or more 3-Pt FG	Total 3-PT FG
2003-2004	14 of 15	3 games	35
2002-2003	30 of 32	11 games	94

Shooting Well

Freshman forward/center Donte Minter is off to a great start shooting the basketball. In 15 games, Minter has made 46-76 attempts from the field for an impressive 60.5 percent.

Here's a look at Minter's game-by-game field goal shooting statistics.

Opponent	FG Shooting	Percentage
Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23)	5-6	83.3 percent
High Point (Nov. 30)	4-5	80.0 percent
Virginia Tech (Nov. 28)	3-5	60.0 percent
Minnesota (Dec. 3)	1-3	33.3 percent
VMI (Dec. 5)	6-6	100.0 percent
James Madison (Dec. 16)	2-3	66.7 percent
Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19)	1-4	25.0 percent
Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22)	2-3	66.7 percent
N.C. State (Dec. 28)	1-2	50.0 percent
Iowa State (Dec. 31)	5-7	71.4 percent
Providence (Jan. 3)	1-2	50.0 percent
William & Mary (Jan. 5)	4-8	50.0 percent
Duke (Jan. 11)	6-12	50.0 percent
Georgia Tech (Jan. 15)	2-4	50.0 percent
Florida State (Jan. 18)	3-6	50.0 percent

In UVa's two exhibition victories, Minter was even more accurate from the floor as he shot 83.3 percent while making 15 of 18 attempts. He was a perfect 7-7 from the field against Big Apple Basketball (Nov. 11).

Minter isn't the only Cavalier shooting the ball well this season. Junior forward/center Elton Brown is shooting 50.9 percent (83-163) from the field this season.

Junior forward Devin Smith has made 47.5 percent (67-141) of his attempts from the field in the first 15 games, including 52.2 percent (24-46) in ACC play.

Cavaliers Even Record in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With an 86-78 victory over Minnesota on December 3, Virginia evened its ACC/Big Ten Challenge record at 2-2. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the fifth consecutive year as ACC schools won seven of nine contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 27-17.

Five in Double Figures

Virginia has featured a balanced scoring attack this season as the Cavaliers have had five players reach double figures in scoring in three of their 15 games. Currently, four Virginia players are averaging in double figure scoring this season with a fifth at 9.6 points per game.

In the season-opener vs. Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23), Gary Forbes (21), Todd Billet (13), Donte Minter (12), Derrick Byars (11), and Elton Brown (10) all reached double digits.

Against High Point (Nov. 30), Minter (13), Byars (12), Forbes (10), Devin Smith (10), and Brown (10) scored in double figures.

In the ACC opener vs. N.C. State (Dec. 28), Brown (18), Smith (14), Forbes (11), Byars (10), and Billet (10) all reached double digits.

Brown and Forbes Set Career Highs in Scoring

Junior forward/center Elton Brown and freshman guard/forward Gary Forbes set career scoring highs in UVa's win over Minnesota (Dec. 3).

Brown, who has scored in double figures in 14 of 15 games, exploded for a career-best 26 points against Minnesota. Brown's prior career-high was 22 points vs. Chamaine (Nov. 25) last season.

Forbes tallied 22 points against the Golden Gophers to set a new career-high. His previous career-best was 21 points in his collegiate debut against Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23). Forbes also established a new career-high with 12 rebounds vs. Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19).

Winning Despite Opponent's Shooting

Iowa State shot an impressive 55.2 percent (32-58) from the field against the Cavaliers (including 62.1 percent in the first half - 18-29). The last time a Virginia opponent shot better than 55 percent from the field and lost was on January 6, 2001 when N.C. State shot an impressive 61.2 percent (30-49), but lost 88-81 to UVa at University Hall.

Shooting 50 Percent in Openers

For the fourth consecutive season, the Cavaliers shot 50 percent or better in their season-opener. UVa shot 24-46 for 52.2 percent from the floor against Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23).

The last time UVa failed to reach 50 percent shooting from the field in a season-opener was in the 1999-2000 campaign when the Cavaliers shot a respectable 47.8 percent (33-69) from the floor against Elon.

UVa Captures First ACC Win, 76-67 Over Florida State

Virginia needed overtime, but the Cavaliers registered their first ACC win of the season with a 76-67 victory over Florida State January 18 at University Hall.

UVa played perhaps its best defensive game of the season limiting Florida State to 31.9 percent shooting, and rode the scoring of senior Todd Billet and junior Devin Smith, who combined for 47 points.

The Cavaliers held Florida State scoreless for the first five and a half minutes of the game and also held the Seminoles without a point for the first 3:17 of the overtime session. UVa outscored Florida State 11-2 in overtime and did not allow a field goal.

Billet scored a season-high 26 points, including six three-point field goals, and added six assists and two steals in 40 minutes of playing time. Smith scored all 21 of his points after halftime, including seven in the overtime session. He scored UVa's first five points in overtime. Freshman Donte Minter, making his first collegiate start, had nine points, seven rebounds and a career-high four blocked shots. Junior Jason Clark, who made his first start of the season, grabbed nine rebounds to go along with five points and two blocked shots. Freshman J.R. Reynolds added eight points and five assists and played outstanding defense against FSU's Tim Pickett.

Virginia led for much of the first half, but the Seminoles used an 11-3 run over the final four minutes of the first half to take a 30-25 halftime lead.

Florida State increased its lead to 36-30 two minutes into the second half, but UVa embarked on a 16-3 run to take a 46-39 advantage with 14:15 to play. Neither team led by more than two points in the final six minutes of regulation and the game went into overtime tied at 65-65.

In overtime, Smith drilled a three-pointer 12 seconds into the period and added a jumper at the 4:05 mark to give UVa a 70-65 edge. FSU pulled within three (70-67) on a pair of Pickett free throws with 1:43 to go. Minter and Billet added two free throws apiece in the final 48 seconds, followed by a Smith dunk, to seal the victory.

UVa shot 44.1 percent (26-59) in the game and made a season-best 13 three-pointers in 31 attempts. Florida State held a 45-40 edge in rebounds and made 10 three-pointers.

Von Wafer led the Seminoles with 17 points and eight rebounds. Pickett had nine points and 11 rebounds.

UVa Wins Two Exhibition Games

The Cavaliers won both of their exhibition games prior to the start of the 2003-2004 regular season. Virginia opened exhibition play with a 104-80 victory over Big Apple Basketball November 11 and then defeated the Coaches vs. Cancer All-Stars 91-90 on November 18.

In the win 104-80 win over Big Apple Basketball, Virginia shot 60.3 percent (38-63) from the field, including 47.8 percent (11-23) from three-point range, and had five players score in double figures.

Forward Derrick Byars made 10-11 shots from the field and scored 25 points to lead the Cavaliers. Guard Todd Billet scored 21 points and had five assists, while forward Devin Smith had 20 points and blocked four shots. Forward/center Donte Minter made all seven of his shots from the field and had 15 points, and forward/center Elton Brown scored 13 points and had a game-high seven rebounds.

UVa led 61-35 at halftime after shooting 69.7 percent (23-33) from the field in the first half, including 64.3 percent (9-14) from three-point range.

Guard Tim Winn led Big Apple Basketball with 20 points and four assists.

Against the Coaches vs. Cancer All-Stars, Billet hit a long three-pointer at the final buzzer to lift UVa to a 91-90 win. The Cavaliers let a 17-point second half lead slip away, but Billet's heroics helped Virginia end its exhibition season with a victory.

UVa led 72-55 with 13:04 to play, but the Coaches vs. Cancer All-Stars outscored UVa 31-12 to take an 86-84 lead with 55 seconds left. Brown tied the game at 86-86 with a bucket inside the paint with 40 seconds left. However, the visitor's Dominic Smith answered with his third consecutive long three-pointer to put the All-Stars on top 89-86. Billet answered with a basket with 19 ticks left to trim the deficit to one, but missed a free throw that would have tied the game. After two missed free throws by the All-Stars' Harold Arcenaux, the All-Stars' Rassan Johnson made one of two foul shots to make the score 90-88. Billet then supplied the heroics with a long three-pointer as time expired.

Byars led the Cavaliers with 21 points and eight rebounds. He made 9-12 attempts from the field, including a 3-4 effort from three-point range. Brown registered a double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds, while Minter added 18 points and eight boards. Billet tallied 14 points with forward Gary Forbes rounding out the Cavaliers' double-digit scorers with 11 points.

Chris Crosby led the Coaches vs. Cancer All-Stars with 18 points, while Arcenaux totaled 17 points, 10 rebounds and five assists. Smith had 16 points with Tony Robertson and D.J. Harrison both contributing 12.

UVa shot 53.1 percent (34-64) from the field in the game, including 70 percent (21-30) in the first half. The Cavaliers also held a 47-24 advantage in rebounds.

Two Sign Letters Of Intent with Virginia

Head basketball coach Pete Gillen has announced the signing of two individuals to national letters of intent with Virginia. The two individuals are 6-7 small forward Adrian Joseph of Trinidad and 5-11 point guard Sean Singletary of Philadelphia, Pa.

"These two young men are outstanding students as well as very talented basketball players," Gillen said. "They will fit in perfectly in our pressing and running style of play."

Joseph is attending Brewster Academy in Wolfeboro, N.H., this academic year after attending Bergen Catholic High School in Oradell, N.J., last year. He averaged 15.0 points, 7.2 rebounds and 2.9 blocked shots a game during the 2002-03 season. He earned first-team All-League and All-County honors, and third-team All-State honors.

Singletary averaged 18 points, eight assists, seven rebounds and 4.5 steals a game as a junior at William Penn Charter School last season. He earned first-team All-League and All-City honors last year. Penn Charter finished the 2002-03 season with an overall record of 26-4 and won the league championship.

Virginia Men Return to Postseason Play

Virginia received an invitation to the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) following the 2002-03 regular season. UVa defeated Brown University 89-73 (March 19) at University Hall in the first round of the tournament. The Cavaliers then suffered a 73-63 loss at St. John's (March 24) in the second round. It was the Cavaliers 10th NIT appearance and the team's fourth consecutive postseason appearance. Virginia finished the 2002-03 season with an overall record of 16-16 and a 6-10 record in the ACC.

Cavaliers Welcome Nine Newcomers

Joining the Cavaliers this season are 5-10 1/2 freshman guard T.J. Bannister, 6-9 freshman forward Jason Cain, 6-6 freshman guard/forward Gary Forbes, 6-7 1/2 freshman forward/center Donte Minter, and 6-2 1/2 freshman guard J.R. Reynolds.

Bannister was the Division I-A Player of the Year in Florida and a first-team All-State selection as a senior in 2002-03. He finished third in the voting for Florida's Mr. Basketball Award as a high school senior, and was only the fourth player in the city of Jacksonville, Fla., to score over 2,000 points during a high school career.

Cain averaged 14 points, 12 rebounds, eight assists and five blocked shots a game as a senior at John Bartram High School, which finished the 2002-03 season with an overall record of 24-4 and won the Philadelphia Public League Championship. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2003 Philadelphia Public League championship game and the Public League All-Star Game.

Forbes was selected the Newsday Player of the Year in Brooklyn and was nominated for City Player of the Year as a high school senior in 2002-03. He earned first-team All-City and All-Tri-State honors in 2002-03 at Benjamin Banneker Academy, and is the first player in Benjamin Banneker Academy history to play Division I basketball.

Minter attended Fork Union Military Academy during the 2002-03 academic year. Prior to attending Fork Union, Minter attended West Rowan High School (N.C.). West Rowan compiled a 30-0 record and won the North Carolina AAA State Championship during his senior year in 2001-02. He was the Most Valuable Player of the State Championship, the West Regional, the county and the North Piedmont Conference as a senior at West Rowan. Minter scored over 2,100 points while grabbing over 1,000 rebounds during his high school career.

Reynolds transferred to Oak Hill Academy from Roanoke Catholic for his senior year of high school. He averaged 16 points, four rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.5 steals a game at Oak Hill during the 2002-03 season. He started for four seasons at Roanoke Catholic and was named the Most Valuable Player in the Virginia Independent Schools Division II three times. Roanoke Catholic won three state championships during his time on the team.

Three additional players joined the Virginia team as walk-ons. The players are 6-5 1/2 senior forward Brad Abel of Burke, Va. (Lake Braddock High School); 6-2 guard Billy Glading of Bethesda, Md. (Gonzaga College High School), who is playing as a graduate student; and 6-5 sophomore forward Hank Nacey of Virginia Beach, Va. (Frank W. Cox High School). See page 11 of the notes for bios on the three walk-ons.

The most recent addition to the UVa team is freshman football player Vincent Redd. The 6-6 Redd joined the team January 16.

Scott Shepherd and Alexis Sherard have exchanged responsibilities in the Virginia men's basketball program. Shepherd is now an assistant coach after serving as the program's director of basketball operations for the last year. Sherard is now director of operations after spending the last year as an assistant coach.

Billet and Mapp Provide Experience

Senior guards Todd Billet and Majestic Mapp provide the Cavaliers with experience in the backcourt for the 2003-04 season. Billet earned honorable mention recognition on the 2003 All-ACC Team after leading the conference in three-point field goal percentage (.418, 94-225) and in three-point field goals made, (94, 2.94 pg). He was also ninth in the ACC in assists (108, 3.38 apg) and 13th in scoring (432, 13.5 ppg). Billet received his bachelor's degree in economics in May of 2003.

Mapp served as a tri-captain for the 2002-03 season and saw game action for the first time since the final game of the 1999-2000 season when he played two minutes against North Carolina (1/11/03) at University Hall. He played 19 minutes and scored a season-high 11 points in the win at Maryland (2/6/03). Mapp played in the last 17 games of the 2002-03 season and averaged 16.4 minutes played a game during that stretch. He also received his bachelor's degree in economics in May of 2003.

Raining Threes

UVa achieved great success behind the three-point arc during the 2002-03 season. Todd Billet led the ACC in three-point field goal percentage (41.8 percent) and three-point field goals made (94, 2.94 pg) last season. Devin Smith ranked eighth in the conference in three-point field goal percentage (38.6 percent).

The 2002-03 season also saw the Cavaliers' establish a school record with 239 three-point field goals made. The previous school record was 232 by the 1994-95 UVa team.

Starting on March 30, 1992, the Cavaliers have a streak of 352 consecutive games with at least one three-point field goal.

Four Out of Five Returning

UVa returns four of five starters from last season to the 2003-04 team. Todd Billet, Elton Brown, Derrick Byars and Devin Smith provide an experienced core of players from last season.

Fifteen Games against Tournament Teams

Of Virginia's 27 regular-season games before the 2004 ACC Tournament, 15 are against nine teams that participated in either the 2003 NCAA Tournament or the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). The Cavaliers meet league foes and NCAA Tournament participants Duke, Maryland, N.C. State and Wake Forest twice, while also matching up twice against NIT teams Georgia Tech and North Carolina. In addition to those games, Virginia plays 2003 NIT participants Iowa State, Minnesota and Providence.

Home Sweet Home

The Cavaliers play 17 of their 27 regular season games in the friendly confines of University Hall. After playing two exhibition games at home, Virginia started the 2003-2004 regular season by hosting four consecutive games. UVa is currently 9-2 at home this season.

John Paul Jones Arena On Its Way

On May 30, 2003 ground was broken on the University of Virginia's new special events center, the John Paul Jones Arena. Scheduled for completion in the summer of 2006, the $129.8 million arena will replace University Hall. The new 15,000-seat arena will feature training and weight rooms, men's and women's basketball locker rooms and lounges, coaches' offices, and one-and-a-half practice courts per program so the men's and women's basketball teams can practice simultaneously, and when the arena is being used for other purposes.
