OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia stands at 10-2 overall and 0-1 in the Atlantic Coast Conference in the 2003-2004 season. The Cavaliers are coming off an 84-71 win over in-state rival William & Mary (Jan. 5) in Charlottesville, Va. Duke is ranked second in The Associated Press and USAToday/ESPN polls and stands at 11-1 overall and 1-0 in the ACC. The Blue Devils are coming off a 99-58 victory over Fairfield (Jan. 6) in Durham, N.C.

The Series vs. Duke

Duke leads the all-time series with the Cavaliers 101-47. The Blue Devils won all three meetings last season. Duke, ranked number one in the nation at the time, won the first meeting of the 2002-2003 season 104-93 (Jan. 15) in Durham. The eighth-ranked Blue Devils won 78-59 (Feb. 15) in Charlottesville. In the ACC Tournament, 12th-rated Duke won 83-76 (Mar. 14) in Greensboro. UVa split the 2001-2002 season series with the Blue Devils. Virginia lost the first meeting 94-81 (Jan. 27) in Durham and won at home 87-84 (Feb. 28). The Cavaliers also split the 2000-2001 series with the Blue Devils with both teams winning at home. Duke won the first meeting 103-61 (Jan. 13) in Durham, while UVa posted a 91-89 victory (Feb. 14) in Charlottesville, which snapped a 12-game slide to the Blue Devils.

Duke has dominated the series in the last 20 years, winning 37 of the last 47 meetings since Ralph Sampson's graduation from Virginia in 1983. The Blue Devils have also won 16 of the last 18 meetings dating back to the last matchup of the 1995-96 season.

In addition to snapping the 12-game losing streak to the Blue Devils with its win in 2001, Virginia broke a six-game streak in which Duke reached triple digits against the Cavaliers.

During Duke's 12-game winning streak over UVa, the Blue Devils won in convincing fashion, winning by an average of 25.3 points per game. Duke won by more than 40 points on four occasions. Only six of the last 16 games have been decided by fewer than 10 points.

Although Duke owns a big lead in the series, Virginia is 32-33 all-time against Duke on the Cavaliers' various home floors throughout the years. UVa is 19-19 against Duke at University Hall and the Cavaliers have won two of the last three meetings in U-Hall.

Cavalier Captains

Graduate students Todd Billet and Majestic Mapp, along with junior Devin Smith, are the captains of the 2003-04 Virginia basketball team. It is the second consecutive year Mapp is serving as a team captain.

Non-Conference Play

The Cavaliers concluded regular season non-conference play with a 10-1 record (UVa's second loss was to N.C. State in its ACC opener). The only non-conference blemish on Virginia's record is an 84-69 setback to Providence College (Jan. 3). Some of UVa's most notable wins included: Minnesota 86-78 (Dec. 3) in the ACC/Big 10 Challenge at University Hall; Loyola Marymount 76-68 (Dec. 19) in Los Angeles; and Iowa State 85-74 (Dec. 31) in U-Hall. The Cavaliers also won all four contests against in-state foes.

Virginia vs. Ranked Duke Teams

Tonight's game marks the 16th time in the last 17 meetings that the Cavaliers have faced a Duke team ranked in the top 10 of The Associated Press Poll. UVa is 2-13 in the last 15 meetings against a top-10 Blue Devil squad. Duke is currently ranked second in The Associated Press Poll. Last year's meeting in the ACC Tournament on March 14 was the first time since January 18, 1997 that the Blue Devils were not ranked in the top 10 when the two teams met. Duke was ranked 12th when it defeated UVa 83-76 in the 2003 ACC Tournament. The previous time the Blue Devils were not a top 10 team when they played UVa was on January 18, 1997 – 13th (a 78-59 Duke win).

After dropping 10 consecutive meetings against top-10 ranked Duke teams, the Cavaliers have won two of the last six games, including an 87-84 victory at University Hall (Feb. 28, 2002) – the last Virginia win over Duke. The other Cavalier victory was a 91-89 decision on February 14, 2001 at U-Hall.

In the past six seasons, Virginia has played Duke when the Blue Devils were ranked as the nation's top team seven times. In 1997-98 Duke was ranked #1 at the time of all three meetings. (Virginia became the first team in NCAA history to play the nation's #1 team five times in one season when, in addition to three games vs. Duke, UVa also played North Carolina twice when it was atop the polls). In 1998-99, the Blue Devils were ranked #1 when they defeated UVa 100-54 in Charlottesville (Feb. 11) and 104-67 in the ACC Tournament (Mar. 4). In 2001-2002, Virginia lost to #1 Duke 94-81 (Jan. 27) in Durham. Last season the Blue Devils were #1 when they recorded a 104-93 win (Jan. 15) in Durham.

Overall, Virginia hasn't fared well against a nationally-ranked Duke squad. The Cavaliers are 14-54 against a ranked Duke team and 11-46 vs. top 10 Blue Devil teams. Virginia has never defeated a #1 or #2 ranked Duke team (0-18 all-time), but has four wins over #3 Blue Devil teams and one victory over Duke teams ranked fourth through 10th (one victory over #4, #5, etc.).

UVa vs. #2 Duke Teams

The Cavaliers are 0-6 all-time against second-ranked Duke teams. The last time UVa played a second-ranked Duke squad was on January 13, 2001, a 103-61 Blue Devil win in Durham. UVa is 0-2 vs. #2 Duke teams at home – Jan. 5, 1985 (63-58) and Jan. 15, 1994 (66-58).

First Ranked Team

Today's game against #2 Duke is the first of the season for Virginia against a ranked opponent. The game against Duke starts a stretch where UVa plays four top-12 ranked opponents in six games. After Duke, Virginia's other ranked opponents include: #8 Georgia Tech (Jan. 15), #12 North Carolina (Jan. 24) and #5 Wake Forest (Jan. 31) – all on the road.

More Success in Second ACC Games

Virginia has lost its last nine ACC openers (19-32 all-time), including an 86-69 setback at N.C. State (Dec. 28) this season. However, UVa has fared much better in its second ACC contest of the season over the same span. Over the last eight years, the

3 • Virginia vs. Duke, January 11, 2004

Cavaliers have won five times in their second ACC game. Four of the wins have come at home at University Hall and the fifth win came in Richmond (against Wake Forest in the 1997-98 season).

The only time in the last four years UVa didn't win its second ACC game was in 2001-2002 (a 68-52 loss at Clemson – Jan. 8).

Jason Clark Rejoins Team

Jason Clark, a 6-8 junior forward from Virginia Beach, Va., has rejoined the University of Virginia men's basketball team. Clark practiced with the Cavaliers for the first time this season on January 4 and has not played in any games. He was on the bench, but not in uniform for Saturday's (Jan. 3) game with Providence College and did not play in UVa's game against William & Mary (Jan. 5) at University Hall.

A two-year letterman, he averaged 4.7 points and 2.5 rebounds a game for Virginia during the 2002-03 season. He shot 70.7 percent (58-82) from the floor and blocked 25 shots.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 19th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 370-195 record for a .655 winning percentage. Gillen is in his sixth season at Virginia and has posted a 96-67 record (.589 winning percentage).

Gillen won his 350th career game on December 21, 2002 when his Cavaliers posted a 61-57 victory over Rutgers. His 300th career victory came when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 15 times in 18 seasons (nine NCAA, six NIT), including the last four seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times – all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Reynolds Back

After missing the Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19) and Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22) games because of illness, freshman guard J.R. Reynolds returned to action in UVa's game against N.C. State (Dec. 28). He had only one rebound in eight minutes. In the last three games, Reynolds has averaged 8.7 points per game, including a career-high 10 points against Providence (Jan.3).

Elton Brown vs. Duke

Junior Elton Brown was the only Cavalier to score in double figures in all three meetings with Duke last season. He scored 19 points at Cameron (Jan. 15), 18 points at University Hall (Feb. 15), and had 15 points in the ACC Tournament (Mar. 14) in Greensboro. Brown averaged 17.3 points per game and shot 61.8 percent (21-34) from the floor vs. Duke last season.

Only Five Turnovers

The Cavaliers committed just five turnovers in an 85-74 win over Iowa State (Dec. 31). The five turnovers were just one shy of the school mark for fewest turnovers in a game. On five occasions, the Cavaliers had just four turnovers in a game.

Interestingly enough, the last time UVa had only five turnovers in a game was on March 13, 1997 against Iowa in the first round of the NCAA Tournament and Iowa committed only three turnovers which ties for the UVa opponent record for fewest turnovers in a game (UVa lost the game 73-60). The game prior to Iowa was against North Carolina (Mar. 7, 1997) and UVa tied the school record with only four turnovers in that contest (a 78-68 loss in the first round of the ACC Tournament).

...Then 20

After committing only five turnovers against Iowa State (Dec. 31), UVa had a season-high 20 miscues against Providence (Jan. 3). Providence had 24 turnovers in the contest.

The 20 turnovers vs. PC are the most in a game since the Cavaliers had 22 turnovers against St. John's (Mar. 24) in the second round of the 2003 National Invitation Tournament.

...Back Down to Six

The roller coaster that is Virginia turnovers is back on the down tick. After committing a season-high 20 turnovers against Providence (Jan. 3), the Cavaliers had only six miscues against William & Mary (Jan. 5) with just one in the first half. UVa's 20-turnover game against Providence was preceded by a season-low five turnovers against Iowa State (Dec. 31).

On the season, UVa is averaging an ACC-low 12.4 turnovers per game. The Cavaliers averaged 16.5 turnovers per game last season.

Only One Steal

In UVa's 85-74 win over Iowa State (Dec. 31), the Cyclones had only one steal. The last time a Virginia opponent only had one steal was Long Island on November 17, 2000. The last time UVa held an opponent without a steal was vs. New Orleans on November 30, 1990.

Starting Strong

For the third time in the last four years, Virginia started its season with eight consecutive victories. UVa dropped its first game of the season 86-69 against N.C. State (Dec. 28), but bounced back with an 85-74 win over previously undefeated Iowa State (Dec. 31). UVa fell to Providence 84-69 (Jan 3), but defeated William & Mary 84-71 (Jan. 5) in its last game. The only time in the last four seasons the Cavaliers did not win their first eight games was last year (2002-2003) when the team lost its fourth and fifth games of the season after starting out 3-0.

In 2001-2002, UVa won its first nine games of the season and in 2000-2001, the Cavaliers reeled off 10 consecutive victories to begin the season. The 10 straight wins marked UVa's best start since the 1992-93 team started the season with an 11-0 mark.

Spreading Minutes Around

Virginia has nine players who are averaging 10 or more minutes per game. The Cavaliers also have just two players who are averaging more than 30 minutes per game – senior Todd Billet at 32.6 minutes per game and freshman Gary Forbes at 30.1 minutes per game.

Assist-to-Turnover Ratio

UVa leads the ACC with a 1.30 to 1 assist-to-turnover ratio. The Cavaliers have handed out 194 assists while committing 149 turnovers. Senior guard Todd Billet is third among all ACC players with a 2.69 to 1 assist-to-turnover ratio with 43 assists and only 16 miscues.

Turnovers

The Cavaliers' streak of five consecutive games with 13 or fewer turnovers ended against N.C. State (Dec. 28) as UVa committed 18 turnovers in the game. UVa followed the N.C.

State game with a season-low five turnover effort against Iowa State (Dec. 31). The turnover bug reappeared against Providence as UVa committed a season-high 20 miscues, followed by a six-turnover performance against William & Mary (Jan. 5).

Within the five-game stretch of 13 or fewer turnovers, Virginia put together a three-game streak where it did not commit more than 10 turnovers (9 vs. Minnesota – Dec. 3, 9 vs. VMI – Dec. 5, and 10 vs. James Madison – Dec. 16).

The last time UVa had back-to-back games with fewer than 10 turnovers was in the 1999-2000 season. The Cavaliers had eight turnovers against Clemson (Jan. 15) and seven against North Carolina (Jan. 18).

Virginia already has four games this season in which it has committed fewer than 10 turnovers. UVa had nine or fewer turnovers only once last season – 9 vs. Long Island (Nov. 22) in the season-opener.

Winning Despite Opponent's Shooting

Iowa State shot an impressive 55.2 percent (32-58) from the field against the Cavaliers (including 62.1 percent in the first half - 18-29). The last time a Virginia opponent shot better than 55 percent from the field and lost was on January 6, 2001 when N.C. State shot an impressive 61.2 percent (30-49), but lost 88-81 to UVa at University Hall.

Getting to the Free Throw Line

Virginia has gotten to the free throw line quite frequently in 2003-04. The Cavaliers have attempted 310 free throws and made 205 this season, so UVa is only shooting 66.1 percent from the free throw line.

The Cavaliers are averaging 25.8 attempts from the free throw line per game (and 17.1 made per game). UVa has made more free throws than its opponent in all but three games this season, including both losses. N.C. State (Dec. 28) made 15 free throws to UVa's 12, while Providence (Jan 3) and Virginia both made 11 free throws in that contest. William & Mary (Jan. 5) made 13 foul shots to Virginia's 12. Cavalier opponents have attempted nine or fewer free throws in three games.

Virginia's opponents have attempted only 193 free throws (16.1 per game) and made 129 (10.8 per game). UVa has attempted 117 more free throws than its opponents (9.8 more per game) and made 76 more free throws (6.3 more per game).

Last season, Virginia averaged 20.7 attempts and 13.6 made free throws per game.

Perfect from the Free Throw Line

One bright spot from the N.C. State (Dec. 28) game was the Cavaliers' effort from the free throw line. UVa made all 12 of its free throws to tie the team's second best single game free throw performance ever. On January 23, 1988, UVa was also 12-12 from the line against Georgia Tech. The best free throw shooting performance in school history was a 16-16 effort against South Carolina on January 8, 1965.

Interestingly enough, the Cavaliers were only 31-58 for 53.4 percent from the free throw line in the two previous games combined before their 12-12 performance at N.C. State. Virginia followed its perfect performance against NCSU by making only 15-23 free throws (65.2 percent) against Iowa State (Dec. 31).

Brown Registers Third Double-Double of Season

Junior Elton Brown became the first Cavalier in 2003-2004 to register a double-double when he tallied 14 points and a career-high 13 rebounds in UVa's 78-56 win over VMI (Dec. 5). All but one of his rebounds came in the first half. After nearly recording another double-double against James Madison (Dec. 16) with 19 points and nine rebounds, Brown posted his second double-double of the season against Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19). He had 21 points and 10 rebounds against the Lions. Brown added his third double-double of the year with 22 points and 11 rebounds vs. Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22).

Brown now has four career double-doubles. He posted 20 points and 10 rebounds against Georgia Tech on January 22, 2002 for his first career double-double.

Byars Tallies First Career Double-Double

Sophomore forward Derrick Byars became the second Cavalier to notch a double-double this season with a 17-point, 11-rebound performance against Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22). It marked the first double-double of Byars' career and the 11 rebounds also established a new career high.

Byars and Elton Brown became the first UVa players to record a double-double in the same game since February 12, 2002 when Chris Williams (18 pts., 10 rebs.) and Travis Watson (17 pts., 10 rebs.) posted double-doubles against North Carolina.

Cavaliers Even Record in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With an 86-78 victory over Minnesota on December 3, Virginia evened its ACC/Big Ten Challenge record at 2-2. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the fifth consecutive year as ACC schools won seven of nine contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 27-17.

Field Goal Percentage Defense Slipping

After holding six of its first eight opponents below 40 percent shooting from the field, Virginia has allowed three of its last four opponents to shoot over 50 percent from the floor.

James Madison (Dec. 16) became the first team to shoot better than 40 percent against Virginia this season as it shot 45.3 percent (29-64). N.C. State (Dec. 28) eclipsed 50 percent shooting – 30-59 (50.8 percent) and then Iowa State (Dec. 31) shot 55.2 percent (32-58). Providence shot a season-high 58.2 percent (32-55) from the field against Virginia. In its last game, UVa held William & Mary (Jan. 5) to 44.8 percent shooting (26-58) from the field. The Tribe was shooting over 50 percent from the field in the game until missing 12 of their final 16 attempts.

Here's a look at UVa's field goal percentage defense through the first 12 games of the season.

Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23)	27-71	38.0 percent
Virginia Tech (Nov. 28)	26-72	36.1 percent
High Point (Nov. 30)	21-67	31.3 percent
Minnesota (Dec. 3)	27-73	37.0 percent
at VMI (Dec. 5)	22-66	33.3 percent
James Madison (Dec. 16)	29-64	45.3 percent
Loyola Marymount (Dec. 19)	26-67	38.8 percent
Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22)	29-65	44.6 percent
N.C. State (Dec. 28)	30-59	50.8 percent
Iowa State (Dec. 31)	32-58	55.2 percent
Providence (Jan. 3)	32-55	58.2 percent
William & Mary (Jan. 5)	26-58	44.8 percent

Less Trouble on the Boards

The Cavaliers have won 10 of 12 games this season despite only out-rebounding six opponents (by a combined 20 rebounds).

UVa was out-rebounded by Mount St. Mary's (41-36), Virginia Tech (44-39), and Minnesota (51-40), and tied High Point (39-39) to open the season. Forbes Tabbed ACC Rookie of the Week

Freshman Gary Forbes was selected as the Atlantic Coast Conference Rookie of the Week on November 24 for his performance in the Cavaliers' 80-71 season-opening victory over Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23) at University Hall.

The 6-6 guard/forward from Brooklyn, N.Y., scored 21 points and grabbed a game-high nine rebounds to lead UVa in both departments against Mount St. Mary's. He was 8-13 (61.5 percent) from the field and was 5-9 (55.6 percent) from the free throw line in the game. He also blocked three shots, had one assist and one steal in 35 minutes of action.

Elton Brown was the last Cavalier to earn the ACC's Rookie of the Week Award as he captured it twice in the 2001-2002 season (Dec. 24 and Jan. 28).

Auspicious Debut

Freshman Gary Forbes had a tremendous debut in the Cavaliers' 80-71 win over Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23). Forbes had team-high totals of 21 points, nine rebounds and three blocked shots. Forbes followed up his first collegiate game with a team-high tying 16 points to go along with a team-best eight rebounds in UVa's 80-65 win over Virginia Tech (Nov. 28).

It is the first time a Virginia freshman has led the team in scoring and rebounding in a season-opener since Ralph Sampson in 1979. Sampson had 17 points and eight rebounds against Johns Hopkins on November 25, 1979. Forbes is also the first UVa freshman to lead the team in scoring (he tied for the team lead in scoring against Virginia Tech) and rebounding in his first two games since the restoration of freshman eligibility in 1972-73.

The last freshman to lead UVa in scoring in a season-opener was Harold Deane, who scored 10 points against Connecticut on November 29, 1993. With 24 points against James Madison in 1977, Jeff Lamp holds the school record for most points in a season-opener by a freshman.

The last frosh to lead the Cavaliers in rebounding in a season-opener was Travis Watson, who had 14 rebounds against Elon on November 19, 1999.

On the season, Forbes is averaging 11.8 points (4th on the team) and 5.7 rebounds (4th on the team) per game. He leads UVa with 16 blocked shots. He is second among all ACC rookies in blocked shots, rebounding and minutes per game, and third in scoring. Forbes has twice tallied three blocks in a game – Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23) and Coastal Carolina (Dec. 22).

Brown on a Tear

Junior forward/center Elton Brown has been a force for the Cavaliers all season, but particularly in the last nine games. Over the last nine contests, Brown is averaging 18.7 points and 8.1 rebounds per game. He recorded double-doubles against VMI (14 points, 13 rebounds), Loyola Marymount (21 points, 10 rebounds), and Coastal Carolina (22 points, 11 rebounds).

His 13 rebounds vs. VMI are a career high as are his 26 points against Minnesota. Brown is shooting 55.0 percent (66-120) from the field over the last nine games.

Brown is averaging career and team-bests of 17.0 points (4th in the ACC) and 7.2 rebounds (tied for 8th in the ACC) per game this season. He is shooting 53.1 percent (77-145) from the field (4th in the ACC).

Brown's active streak of 12 consecutive double figure scoring games is second among all ACC players. He is averaging 7.4 more points per game this season (17.0 ppg) than last season (9.6 ppg).

Getting to the Free Throw Line

Junior Elton Brown has already taken 88 attempts from the free throw line. He has only made 50 attempts for 56.8 percent. Brown is averaging 7.3 attempts from the foul line per game and has taken 11 or more free throws in a game three times. He did not attempt a free throw in UVa's loss to Providence (Jan. 3).

Brown has attempted 49 more free throws than any other player on the team (Gary Forbes has 39 attempts). Brown took 93 free throws all of last season.

Smith Returns to Lineup

After missing the Cavaliers' season-opener against Mount St. Mary's (Nov. 23) as well as the second exhibition game against Coaches vs. Cancer All-Stars (Nov. 18), junior Devin Smith returned to the lineup against Virginia Tech (Nov. 28). In 16 minutes of action off the bench, Smith tallied five points and seven rebounds. He made his first start of the season against Minnesota (Dec. 3) and tallied a team and UVa career-high 10 rebounds to go along with three points, two steals and one assist in 25 minutes of playing time. Smith has remained in the starting lineup since. He was out with an injured back.

Smith, who continues to miss some practice time with the back injury, has had a couple impressive games as of late.

Against Iowa State (Dec. 31), he had 25 points, a career-high five steals, three blocks, three rebounds and three assists with no turnovers in 30 minutes. He made 9-14 attempts from the field (3-5 on three-pointers) against the Cyclones.

Versus William & Mary (Jan. 5), Smith tallied 22 points, a career-high eight assists, five rebounds, and three steals with just one turnover in 32 minutes. He was 9-15 from the field and made two three-pointers, including a three with UVa leading 64-63 with 7:23 remaining.

In addition to giving the Cavaliers a lift offensively, junior Devin Smith has been a defensive spark. In just 11 games, Smith has set a new personal single season career mark for steals with 21. He had 19 steals in 32 games last season. Smith has 12 of his 21 steals in the last four games, including a career-high five vs. Iowa State (Dec. 31).

Billet Drains 100th Three

Guard Todd Billet drilled his 100th career three-point field goal as a Cavalier in UVa's win over High Point (Nov. 30). Billet is currently ninth on Virginia's career three-point field goals list with 120.

Billet has made his 120 career three-pointers at UVa in just 44 games for an average of 2.73 threes per game. He made 94 threes last season which is the fourth highest single season total in school history.

In his collegiate career (which includes 158 three-point field goals while playing two seasons at Rutgers), Billet has made 278 threes. Billet's total of 278 career threes would rank ninth among all ACC players if he had played his entire career in the ACC.

Billet has played in 102 games in his career and has made at least one three-point field goal in 97 of those games. Currently, Billet has made a three-pointer in 23 consecutive games for his longest collegiate streak. Virginia's 11-point halftime lead shrank to two, 58-56, with 13:46 to play. After UVa built the lead back up to eight (64-56) at the 11:13 mark, William & Mary used a 7-0 run to pull within one point, 64-63, with 7:38 to go on Zeb Cope's two free throws. Prior to Cope's two free throws, the Tribe missed four shots from the floor and a free throw.

John Paul Jones Arena On Its Way

On May 30, 2003 ground was broken on the University of Virginia's new special events center, the John Paul Jones Arena. Scheduled for completion in the summer of 2006, the $129.8 million arena will replace University Hall. The new 15,000-seat arena will feature training and weight rooms, men's and women's basketball locker rooms and lounges, coaches' offices, and one-and-a-half practice courts per program so the men's and women's basketball teams can practice simultaneously, and when the arena is being used for other purposes.
