OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia enters tonight's game with a 9-3 overall record and an 0-2 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Cavaliers are coming off a 92-69 loss to ninth-ranked Georgia Tech (Jan. 8) in Atlanta, Ga.

Miami stands at 10-3 overall and 1-1 in the ACC. The Hurricanes are coming off a 67-66 victory over NC State (Jan. 9) in Coral Gables, Fla., for their first ACC victory. Miami finished the 2003-04 season with a 14-16 overall record and a 4-12 mark in the Big East.

The Series vs. Miami

The Cavaliers are 0-2 all-time against Miami with both contests taking place in 1966. The Hurricanes won the initial meeting 80-75 on February 10, 1966 in Florida. The following season, Miami won the second meeting 80-78 in Charlottesville on December 10, 1966.

Virginia vs. ACC Newcomers

Prior to the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech to the Atlantic Coast Conference this season, two other teams joined the ACC after the formation of the conference in 1954 – Georgia Tech in 1979-80 and Florida State in 1991-92. In both instances when UVA met the Yellow Jackets and Seminoles in their inaugural ACC season, the Cavaliers were victorious.

On December 1, 1979, Virginia defeated Georgia Tech 55-37 at University Hall in the initial ACC matchup between the two teams. The Cavaliers also won against Florida State in the first ACC meeting between the two schools – 77-68 in overtime on January 4, 1992, in Tallahassee.

Oddly enough, UVA lost to both Georgia Tech and Florida State in the second meeting of the two school's inaugural ACC season.

Looking for First ACC Win

Virginia stands at 0-2 in the ACC this year after starting its conference slate with three losses last year. The Cavaliers have not lost their first two ACC home games since Pete Gillen's first season as head coach in 1998-99. Virginia dropped its first five ACC contests in Gillen's first season, only two of which were at home.

Cavalier Captains

Seniors Elton Brown, Jason Clark and Devin Smith are the captains of the 2004-05 Virginia basketball team. It is the second consecutive year Smith is serving as a team captain.

That year, the Cavaliers topped No. 8 Maryland 86-78 at the Comcast Center. The Arizona win was the Cavaliers' first over a non-conference top ten team since a 107-89 win over No. 4 Tennessee on December 19, 2000.

Virginia Basketball Celebrates 100 Years

The men's basketball program at the University of Virginia celebrates its 100th season in 2004-05. The inaugural season began on January 18, 1906 with a 30-9 victory over the Charlottesville YMCA. Under Coach Henry Lannigan, UVa went 8-2 for the season. Virginia had two more wins over the Charlottesville YMCA and also defeated Washington & Lee, the Staunton YMCA, Bridgewater, William and Mary, and the Richmond YMCA. Virginia's only losses during the season came against the Baltimore YMCA and Carroll Institute.

Smith Misses Last Three Games

Devin Smith has not played in Virginia's last three games – the ACC opener against Wake Forest (Jan. 2), Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) and Georgia Tech (Jan. 8) – after injuring an ankle in the Cavaliers' overtime victory over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23). Smith is questionable for tonight's game against Miami.

Smith leads UVa in scoring with 17.4 points per game and is also averaging 6.6 rebounds per contest.

ACC Rookies of the Week

In the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons, the Cavaliers have had four different players earn ACC Rookie of the Week honors a total of six times. Sean Singletary is a three-time recipient of the award this season and Adrian Joseph has won the award once.

In the last two years, the only other ACC school to have more than one player named ACC Rookie of the Week is Maryland with two players earning the honor last season.

Virginia leads all schools in ACC Rookie of the Week selections with 72 over the years. Georgia Tech is second with 67 all-time ACC Rookie of the Week selections.

Overtime Good for Virginia

With two overtime wins this season, including an 80-79 double overtime victory over Western Kentucky (Jan. 5), the Cavaliers' have won their last five overtime games. UVa also posted a 79-77 overtime win over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23) this season.

Last season, UVa defeated Clemson 83-79 (Mar. 11) in the ACC Tournament and Florida State 76-67 (Jan. 18) at home in extra time. In the 2002-03 season, UVa defeated then 13th-ranked Maryland 80-78 in overtime in Charlottesville on March 9, 2003.

The last time the Cavaliers lost in overtime was back in the 1999-2000 season when they lost to Georgetown 115-111 in triple overtime in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament in Charlottesville on March 15, 2000.

Close Games

The Cavaliers have played five games that have been decided by four points or less, including two overtime affairs. UVa is 4-1 in those close games and all five tight contests have occurred in the Cavaliers' last eight games.

Here's a look at Virginia's five games decided by four or less points:

Team (Date)	W/L	Score	Site
Northwestern (Dec. 1)	W	48-44	Evanston, Ill.
Auburn (Dec. 3)	W	89-87	Richmond, Va.
Iowa State (Dec. 6)	L	79-81	Ames, Iowa
Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23)	W	79-77 OT	Charlottesville
Western Kentucky (Jan. 5)	W	80-79 2OT	Charlottesville

Beating the Buzzer

The Cavaliers have scored game-winning baskets in the closing seconds of two games this season.

J.R. Reynolds made a driving layup with 1.5 seconds left in overtime to lift UVa to a 79-77 win over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23) in Charlottesville. Reynolds had made only 2-8 field goal attempts prior to the game-winning shot.

T.J. Bannister was the latest Cavalier to provide the heroics as he scored after a mad scramble with 2.7 seconds left in double overtime as UVa posted an 80-79 win over Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) at University Hall. Bannister was 1-5 from the field before making his short jumper in the lane.

Reaching Double Figures

Jason Clark scored a career-high 16 points against Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) and it marked just the 10th time in 88 career games Clark reached double figures in scoring.

Currently, Clark is shooting an impressive 62.7 percent (37-59) from the floor this season. In his career, Clark has made 166-270 field goal attempts for an outstanding 61.5 percent.

Reynolds Heating Up

J.R. Reynolds has scored at least 20 points in his last two games. The guard equaled his then career-high with 20 points in an 80-79 double overtime victory over Western Kentucky (Jan. 5). Reynolds managed to score 20 points, including 16 after halftime, despite not feeling well. He set a new career-high with 21 points in a 92-69 loss at Georgia Tech (Jan 8).

On the season, Reynolds is averaging 12.4 points per game, including 19.0 in two ACC contests.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 20th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 387-209 record for a .649 winning percentage. Gillen is in his seventh season at Virginia and has posted a 113-81 record (.582 winning percentage).

Gillen won his 350th career game on December 21, 2002 when his Cavaliers posted a 61-57 victory over Rutgers. His 300th career victory came when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 16 times in 19 seasons (nine NCAA, seven NIT), including the last five seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times – all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Virginia Falls To Ninth-Ranked Georgia Tech

Virginia trailed ninth-ranked Georgia Tech by only six points at halftime, but the Yellow Jackets broke the game open with a 15-4 run to begin the second half and went on to a 92-69 win (Jan. 8) in Atlanta.

The lead changed hands seven times during the first half, but Georgia Tech took the lead for good, 34-32, on a Jarrett Jack jumper with 4:35 left in the opening half.

J.R. Reynolds led the Cavaliers with a career-high 21 points, while Gary Forbes added 11 points off the bench. Elton Brown nearly recorded his eighth double-double of the season as he totaled 10 points and nine rebounds.

Virginia had trouble shooting from the field as it made just 22-74 attempts from the floor for 29.7 percent. Georgia Tech contributed to UVa's shooting woes as the Jackets blocked 14 Cavalier shots. Georgia Tech shot 49.3 percent (33-67) from the field and held a 54-44 advantage in rebounds. The Cavaliers, however, held a 24-18 edge on the offensive glass. Virginia also tied its season-low with just eight turnovers while forcing 14 Georgia Tech miscues.

Jack led the Yellow Jackets with 22 points and seven assists, while Luke Schenscher tallied 15 rebounds, seven points, five blocked shots, three assists and two steals.

Joseph Makes Most of Opportunity

Freshman forward Adrian Joseph made his first career start against Wake Forest (Jan. 2) in place of the injured Devin Smith. Joseph made the most of the opportunity as he tallied 19 points. He connected on 7-12 attempts from the field (3-6 from three-point range) and made both free throw attempts. He played a season-high 32 minutes and had one blocked shot and did not commit a turnover. For his effort, Joseph was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on January 3.

Joseph also earned a starting nod against Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) and tallied six points and four rebounds in 24 minutes. He made his third consecutive start against Georgia Tech (Jan. 8) and had eight points, one rebound and one steal in 24 minutes.

Joseph's previous career high was eight points in his collegiate debut against Robert Morris (Nov. 19). In his seven games prior to Wake Forest, Joseph had scored just 16 points and played only 67 minutes.

From Hectic to a Long Layoff

Virginia's home game against Furman on December 8 closed out a stretch of five games in 11 days (and four in eight days – all four at different venues). UVa's game against Loyola Marymount on December 23 was the Cavaliers' first since the Furman game – a 14-day layoff for final exams.

Virginia's game against Wake Forest (an 89-70 loss) on January 2 was UVa's first since the Loyola Marymount game – a nine-day layoff.

After playing five games in 11 days in late November and early December, the Wake Forest game was just UVa's third game in 25 days.

Smith Joins Elite Group

Devin Smith lit up the scoreboard for a career-high 40 points in UVa's 81-79 loss at Iowa State (Dec. 6). He became the eighth Cavalier to tally 40 or more points in a game and the first since Donald Hand poured in 41 points against N.C. State on February 14, 1999.

Smith made 11-18 field goal attempts, including 4-8 from three-point range, and 14-15 free throws (including his last 14 attempts).

Smith's 40-point performance marked the 17th time a Virginia player had reached the 40-point plateau.

Here's a list of UVa players who have scored 40 or more points in a game.

Cavaliers Improve to 3-2 in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With a 48-44 victory at Northwestern on December 1, Virginia improved its record to 3-2 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the sixth consecutive year as ACC schools won seven of nine contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 34-19.

The Antithesis

After defeating an extremely deliberate Northwestern team 48-44 (Dec. 1) in Evanston, Ill., the Cavaliers put their track shoes on and posted an 89-87 victory over Auburn (Dec. 3) in Richmond, Va.

Virginia scored 41 more points against Auburn than it did versus Northwestern. It marked the largest increase in points from one game to the next since the end of the 1999-2000 season. UVa scored 65 points in a loss to NC State (Mar. 10) in the ACC Tournament, then scored 111 points in a triple overtime loss to Georgetown (Mar. 15) in the National Invitation Tournament.

Solid Defense

The Cavaliers held their first five opponents to 60 or fewer points – Robert Morris (55), Arizona (60), Appalachian State (60), Richmond (58), and Northwestern (44). Auburn broke that streak with 87 points in a two point loss to UVa (Dec. 3).

The last time UVa limited its first five opponents to 60 or less points was back in the 1948-49 season. In the 1948-49 season, the Cavaliers held their first nine opponents to 60 or fewer points.

Only once during the Pete Gillen era has UVa held more than five opponents to 60 or fewer points in a game and that was six times during the 1998-99 season (Gillen's first at Virginia).

More Defense

Virginia held Northwestern to only 44 points in a 48-44 victory (Dec. 1) in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. It marked the fewest points the Cavaliers have allowed in a game in the Pete Gillen era. The previous low by a UVa opponent for points in a game in the Gillen era was 48 points by Virginia Tech (in a 64-48 Cavalier win) on November 24, 2000.

The 44 points by Northwestern also marked the fewest points Virginia has allowed in a game since holding UMBC to 34 points (in a 57-34 UVa win) on December 21, 1996. It is also the lowest point total by a UVa opponent on its home court since the Cavaliers held UNLV to 39 points (a 59-39 UVa win) in Las Vegas on January 3, 1994.

Just Enough Offense

UVa's 48 points against Northwestern marked the fewest points in a Virginia victory in the Pete Gillen era. The previous low was 58 points (in a 58-55 win) at Clemson (Feb. 21) last season. It also marked the fewest points scored in a UVa victory since the 1981-82 season when the Cavaliers defeated NC State 45-40 on February 20.

UVa's 48 points against Northwestern are one point more than the fewest points scored in a game under Gillen. The Cavaliers managed just 47 points in losses to North Carolina (Jan. 21, 1999) and Georgia Tech (Feb. 9, 2000).

Seniors Leading the Way

UVa's three seniors are the main reason the Cavaliers have started out the season with a 9-3 record. The trio –

Elton Brown, Jason Clark, and Devin Smith – have led Virginia in scoring, rebounding and blocked shots in all but six games this season.

The seniors have led the team in scoring in seven of 12 games. Smith has led the team in scoring four times, including a 40-point performance against Iowa State (Dec. 6), and Brown has topped the club three times.

Sophomore J.R. Reynolds led UVa in scoring with 20 points vs. Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) and a career-high 21 points against Georgia Tech (Jan. 8). Freshman Sean Singletary led Virginia in points (25) vs. Auburn (Dec. 3), while sophomore Gary Forbes led the Cavaliers in scoring (21 points) against Furman (Dec. 8) and freshman Adrian Joseph paced the team in scoring with 19 points against Wake Forest (Jan. 2).

The senior trio has led UVa in rebounding in all 12 games. Brown has led the team in rebounding 11 times, including seven double-digit performances, and Smith has led the team once.

In blocked shots, the seniors have led the team 10 times. Clark has led the team on five occasions, and tied for team-best honors in one game along with Brown, Smith and Forbes (all had one blocked shot vs. Arizona). Brown and Smith have both led UVa in blocks by themselves twice.

Singletary blocked two shots against Auburn (Dec. 3), while Reynolds led the team with three blocked shots vs. Iowa State (Dec. 6).

Brown Reaches 1,000 Point Plateau

Against Arizona (Nov. 21), Elton Brown became the 38th player in Virginia history to score 1,000 career points. For his career, Brown now has 1,163 points, placing him 31st in career points at UVa. Joe Noertker (1947-50) is 30th with 1,177 points and Mike Katos (1966-68) is 29th with 1,178 points.
