Wake Forest stands at 11-1 in 2004-05 and is ranked fifth in the AP poll and fourth in the ESPN/USAToday poll. The Demon Deacons have won six consecutive games and are coming off a 98-76 win over North Carolina A&T (Dec. 30) in Winston-Salem.

The Series vs. Wake Forest

Virginia led the all-time series with Wake Forest entering the 1990s, but the Demon Deacons have had the better of the Cavaliers recently and now lead the series 61-57. The two teams split the 2003-04 series. The Deacs registered a 91-78 win (Jan. 31) in the first meeting in Winston-Salem, while Virginia won 84-82 (Mar. 2) in Charlottesville. Wake Forest has won 15 of the last 23 meetings and 20 of the 34 matchups since the 1989-90 season. Virginia, however, has won seven of the last 14 games. The home team has won the past eight matchups in the series.

In the 2002-03 season, UVa posted an 85-75 win (Jan. 23) in the first meeting of the season in Charlottesville. Wake Forest won the second matchup 75-71 (Feb. 23) in Winston-Salem.

The Cavaliers split the 2001-2002 season series with Wake Forest with both teams winning on their home floor. UVa won the first meeting 86-74 (Jan. 15) in Charlottesville, while the Demon Deacons took a 92-70 decision (Feb. 17) in Winston-Salem. The two teams also split the 2000-2001 season series with both teams winning at home. Wake won the first meeting in the 2000-2001 season 96-73 (Jan. 2) in Winston-Salem in a matchup of two top 10 teams (UVa was ranked eighth in the AP poll and Wake was fourth). Virginia won the second meeting 82-71 (Feb. 3) in Charlottesville.

The Cavaliers have won 20 of the last 26 games played at University Hall, including the last four. Wake Forest has won five of the last 11 games in Charlottesville dating back to the 1992-93 season. The Demon Deacons' last win in Charlottesville was an 80-75 win (Mar. 2) in the 1999-00 season. Virginia leads 34-18 in games played in Charlottesville.

Virginia vs. Top 10 Wake Forest Teams

UVa has played top 10 ranked Demon Deacon teams 13 times through the years and is 3-10 all-time. The Cavaliers are also 0-5 vs. top five Wake teams. The sixth-ranked Deacs that Virginia beat 83-73 on Jan. 28, 1981 is the highest ranked Wake team UVa has defeated.

Tough to Shoot Well vs. Wake Forest

Virginia has had a rough time on the offensive end against Wake Forest since the 1989-90 season. The Cavaliers have shot 46 percent or better against Wake Forest just 10 times in the last 34 games. Eight of the 10 games resulted in Virginia wins with the two losses coming when UVA shot 52.0 percent (26-50) in a 75-71 loss (Feb. 23, 2003) in Winston-Salem and last season when the Cavaliers shot 50.0 percent (31-62) in a 91-78 loss (Jan. 31, 2004) in Winston-Salem.

In the second meeting of the 2003-04 season, the Cavaliers shot 51.6 percent (33-64) in an 84-82 victory (Mar. 2) in Charlottesville.

In the first meeting of the 2002-03 season, an 85-75 Virginia win (Jan. 23), the Cavaliers also bettered 50 percent shooting in the game - 30-59 for 50.8 percent. The Cavaliers are 14-20 vs. Wake Forest since 1989-90.

UVA has shot 41.9 percent from the floor and averaged 67.2 points per game against Wake Forest since 1989-90.

Similarly, the Cavalier defense has been almost as stingy as Wake's. The Deacons have made 43.8 percent of their field goal attempts over the last 34 meetings and have averaged 69.6 points per game.

Wake Forest topped 50 percent shooting from the floor only six times since 1989-90. Those games are:

- 52.1 percent (25-48) in a 74-66 win on February 10, 1991;
- 55.8 percent (29-52) in an 81-64 win on January 24, 1996;
- 52.9 percent (27-51) in an 80-67 win on March 2, 2000 (the only time since the 1989-90 season Wake has eclipsed 50 percent shooting at University Hall);
- 58.1 percent (36-62) in a 96-73 win on January 2, 2001;
- 57.9 percent (33-57) in a 92-70 win on February 17, 2002;
- 50.0 percent (27-54) in a 91-78 win on January 31, 2004

A breakdown of both teams' offensive performance since the 1989-90 season in wins and losses is below.

	UVA FG%	PPG	WFU FG%	PPG
Combined (34)	.419	67.2	.438	69.6
UVA wins (14)	.463	72.9	.407	65.8
UVA losses (20)	.390	63.2	.461	72.2

Cavaliers Down Top Ten Foe

Virginia defeated then No. 10 Arizona 78-60 on November 21 at University Hall, for its first win over a top ten team since the 2002-03 season. That year, the Cavaliers topped No. 8 Maryland 86-78 at the Comcast Center. The Arizona win was the Cavaliers' first over a non-conference top ten team since a 107-89 win over No. 4 Tennessee on December 19, 2000.

Virginia Basketball Celebrates 100 Years

The men's basketball program at the University of Virginia celebrates its 100th season in 2004-05. The inaugural season began on January 18, 1906 with a 30-9 victory over the Charlottesville YMCA. Under Coach Henry Lannigan, UVA went 8-2 for the season. Virginia had two more wins over the Charlottesville YMCA and also defeated Washington & Lee, the Staunton YMCA, Bridgewater, William and Mary, and the Richmond YMCA. Virginia's only losses during the season came against the Baltimore YMCA and Carroll Institute.

Cavaliers Improve to 3-2 in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With a 48-44 victory at Northwestern on December 1, Virginia improved its record to 3-2 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the sixth consecutive year as ACC schools won seven of nine contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 34-19.

Overtime Good for Virginia

With a 79-77 overtime win over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23), the Cavaliers' have won their last four overtime games.

Last season, UVA defeated Clemson 83-79 (Mar. 11) in the ACC Tournament and Florida State 76-67 (Jan. 18) at home in extra time. In the 2002-03 season, UVA defeated then 13th-ranked Maryland 80-78 in overtime in Charlottesville on March 9, 2003.

The last time the Cavaliers lost in overtime was back in the 1999-2000 season when they lost to Georgetown 115-111 in triple overtime in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament in Charlottesville on March 15, 2000.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 20th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 386-207 record for a .651 winning percentage. Gillen is in his seventh season at Virginia and has posted a 112-79 record (.586 winning percentage).

Gillen won his 350th career game on December 21, 2002 when his Cavaliers posted a 61-57 victory over Rutgers. His 300th career victory came when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 16 times in 19 seasons (nine NCAA, seven NIT), including the last five seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times – all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

From Hectic to a Long Layoff

Virginia's home game against Furman on December 8 closed out a stretch of five games in 11 days (and four in eight days – all four at different venues). UVA's game against Loyola Marymount on December 23 was the Cavaliers' first since the Furman game – a 14-day layoff for final exams.

Tonight's game against Wake Forest is UVA's first since the Loyola Marymount game – a nine-day layoff.

After playing five games in 11 days in late November and early December, tonight's game against Wake Forest is just UVA's third game in 25 days.

Smith Joins Elite Group

Devin Smith lit up the scoreboard for a career-high 40 points in UVA's 81-79 loss at Iowa State (Dec. 6). He became the eighth Cavalier to tally 40 or more points in a game and the first since Donald Hand poured in 41 points against N.C. State on February 14, 1999.

Smith made 11-18 field goal attempts, including 4-8 from three-point range, and 14-15 free throws (including his last 14 attempts).

Smith's 40-point performance marked the 17th time a Virginia player had reached the 40-point plateau. Here's a list of UVA players who have scored 40 or more points in a game.

Cavalier Captains

Seniors Elton Brown, Jason Clark and Devin Smith are the captains of the 2004-05 Virginia basketball team. It is the second consecutive year Smith is serving as a team captain.

The Antithesis

After defeating an extremely deliberate Northwestern team 48-44 (Dec. 1) in Evanston, Ill., the Cavaliers put their track shoes on and posted an 89-87 victory over Auburn (Dec. 3) in Richmond, Va.

Virginia scored 41 more points against Auburn than it did versus Northwestern. It marked the largest increase in points from one game to the next since the end of the 1999-2000 season. UVA scored 65 points in a loss to NC State (Mar. 10) in the ACC Tournament, then scored 111 points in a triple overtime loss to Georgetown (Mar. 15) in the National Invitation Tournament.

Solid Defense

The Cavaliers held their first five opponents to 60 or fewer points – Robert Morris (55), Arizona (60), Appalachian State (60), Richmond (58), and Northwestern (44). Auburn broke that streak with 87 points in a two point loss to UVA (Dec. 3).

The last time UVA limited its first five opponents to 60 or less points was back in the 1948-49 season. In the 1948-49 season, the Cavaliers held their first nine opponents to 60 or fewer points.

Only once during the Pete Gillen era has UVA held more than five opponents to 60 or fewer points in a game and that was six times during the 1998-99 season (Gillen's first at Virginia).

More Defense

Virginia held Northwestern to only 44 points in a 48-44 victory (Dec. 1) in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. It marked the fewest points the Cavaliers have allowed in a game in the Pete Gillen era. The previous low by a UVA opponent for points in a game in the Gillen era was 48 points by Virginia Tech (in a 64-48 Cavalier win) on November 24, 2000.

The 44 points by Northwestern also marked the fewest points Virginia has allowed in a game since holding UMBC to 34 points (in a 57-34 UVA win) on December 21, 1996. It is also the lowest point total by a UVA opponent on its home court since the Cavaliers held UNLV to 39 points (a 59-39 UVA win) in Las Vegas on January 3, 1994.

Just Enough Offense

UVa's 48 points against Northwestern marked the fewest points in a Virginia victory in the Pete Gillen era. The previous low was 58 points (in a 58-55 win) at Clemson (Feb. 21) last season. It also marked the fewest points scored in a UVa victory since the 1981-82 season when the Cavaliers defeated NC State 45-40 on February 20.

UVa's 48 points against Northwestern are one point more than the fewest points scored in a game under Gillen. The Cavaliers managed just 47 points in losses to North Carolina (Jan. 21, 1999) and Georgia Tech (Feb. 9, 2000).

Virginia Sneaks Past Loyola Marymount in OT

Elton Brown scored 25 points, including the last four in regulation and UVa's first four in overtime, in leading Virginia to a 79-77 overtime victory over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23) at University Hall.

In addition to his 25 points, Brown led the Cavaliers with eight rebounds. Devin Smith and Sean Singletary both scored 12 points with Smith adding five rebounds and a career-high five blocked shots. Singletary also contributed four rebounds and a pair of steals. T.J. Bannister came off the bench to score a season-high 11 points.

Loyola Marymount led by as many as eight points in the first half, including 24-16 with 8:05 remaining in the half. The Cavaliers closed out the first half with an 18-4 spurt to grab a 34-28 advantage at the intermission.

Virginia extended its lead to 10 points, 38-28, on two Brown free throws at the 18:26 mark of the second half. The Lions reeled of the next 11 points to take a 39-38 lead with 15:31 to play. After four lead changes and four ties, Loyola Marymount built a six-point lead, 60-54, with 6:48 to go. UVa closed to within two, 65-63, on a Singletary three-pointer with 2:59 to play. A layup by LMU's Matthew Knight at the 2:38 mark gave the Lions a 67-63 lead. Brown then made a jumper in the paint with 1:30 to play and knotted the game at 67-67 with a pair of free throws with 50 seconds on the clock.

Brown opened the overtime with two free throws, and after a LMU basket, he scored his final basket of the game. Singletary hit at three-pointer with 2:34 left and then drained a pair of free throws with 2:02 to go to give the Cavaliers a 76-72 advantage. A Bannister free throw with 40 seconds left gave UVa a 77-73 edge. Loyola Marymount scored the next four points to tie the game at 77-77, but J.R. ## Seniors Leading the Way

UVa's three seniors are the main reason the Cavaliers have started out the season with an 8-1 record. The trio – Elton Brown, Jason Clark, and Devin Smith – have led Virginia in scoring, rebounding and blocked shots in all but three games this season. Freshman Sean Singletary led UVa in points (25) and blocked shots (2) against Auburn (Dec. 3), while sophomore J.R. Reynolds led the team with three blocked shots vs. Iowa State (Dec. 6). Sophomore Gary Forbes led the Cavaliers in scoring against Furman (Dec. 8) with 21 points.

Smith has led the team in scoring four times, including a 40-point performance against Iowa State (Dec. 6), and Brown has topped the club three times.

Brown has led the team in rebounding eight times, including six double-digit performances, and Smith has led the team once.

Clark has led the team in blocked shots in two games, and tied for team-best honors in one game along with Brown, Smith and Forbes (all had one blocked shot vs. Arizona). Brown and Smith have both led UVa in blocks by themselves twice.

Brown Reaches 1,000 Point Plateau

Against Arizona (Nov. 21), Elton Brown became the 38th player in Virginia history to score 1,000 career points. For his career, Brown now has 1,135 points, placing him 34th in career points at UVa. Paul Adkins (1958-60) is 33rd with 1,150 career points and Olden Polynice (1984-86) is 32nd with 1,151.

Clark Ranked Sixth on Blocked Shots List

Jason Clark is currently sixth on Virginia's career blocked shots list with a total of 102. Steve Castellan (1976-79) holds the fifth spot with 108 career blocks. Ralph Sampson (1980-83) tops the UVa list with 462 career blocked shots and Chris Alexander (1993-96) is second with 148.

Starting Strong

For the fourth time in the last five years (including this season), Virginia started its season with six consecutive victories. UVa had its winning streak snapped with an 81-79 loss to Iowa State (Dec. 6).

The only time in the last five seasons the Cavaliers did not win their first six games was in the 2002-2003 season when the team lost its fourth and fifth games of the season after starting out 3-0.

Last season, Virginia won its first eight games. In 2001-2002, UVa won its first nine games of the season and in 2000-2001, the Cavaliers reeled off 10 consecutive victories to begin the season. The 10 straight wins marked UVa's best start since the 1992-93 team started the season with an 11-0 mark.

Double-Doubles

Elton Brown has registered six double-doubles in the Cavaliers' first nine games this season to tie for the ACC lead.

Here's a look at Brown's double-doubles this season.
