Earlier This Season vs. Wake Forest

The Cavaliers held an early lead on fifth-ranked Wake Forest, but the Demon Deacons used a 13-0 run early in the second half to break open the game and cruised to an 89-70 victory (Jan. 2) at University Hall. It marked Virginia's 10th consecutive loss in its ACC season opener.

Adrian Joseph, starting in place of the injured Devin Smith, made the most of his first collegiate start as he scored a career-high 19 points to pace the Cavaliers. He made 7-12 attempts from the floor, including 3-6 three-point attempts, and both free throw attempts. J.R. Reynolds tallied 17 points, while Gary Forbes came off the bench to score 13 points.

The Cavaliers held the lead early, but Wake Forest took the lead for good, 21-19, with 9:33 to play in the first half on a dunk by Vytautas Danelius. The Demon Deacons extended their lead to eight points late in the first half before Forbes hit a three-pointer to make the halftime score 42-37. Joseph scored 15 of his points in the first stanza.

Wake Forest reeled off 13 consecutive points early in the second half to open up a 57-39 advantage with 15:22 to play. The Cavaliers trimmed the deficit to seven, 61-54, on a jumper by Elton Brown with 11:37 left in the game, but could get no closer.

Virginia shot 42.4 percent (25-59) from the field in the game, while the Deacs shot 50.9 percent (28-55). Wake made 24-31 (77.4 percent) of its free throws and held a 45-28 advantage in rebounds. The Cavaliers made only 12-20 (60.0 percent) free throw attempts. UVa committed only 11 turnovers in the game while forcing 18 Wake miscues.

Virginia Basketball Celebrates 100 Years

The men's basketball program at the University of Virginia celebrates its 100th season in 2004-05. The inaugural season began on January 18, 1906 with a 30-9 victory over the Charlottesville YMCA. Under Coach Henry Lannigan, UVa went 8-2 for the season. Virginia had two more wins over the Charlottesville YMCA and also defeated Washington & Lee, the Staunton YMCA, Bridgewater, William and Mary, and the Richmond YMCA. Virginia's only losses during the season came against the Baltimore YMCA and Carroll Institute.

Four ACC Wins

After dropping seven of their first eight ACC games, the Cavaliers won three consecutive conference tilts before falling at fourth-ranked North Carolina 85-61 (Feb. 16) and to #22 Maryland 92-89 in double overtime (Feb. 19) in Charlottesville. UVa is currently 4-9 in the ACC.

UVa posted a 64-62 win over NC State (Feb. 5) in Raleigh to snap a two-game ACC slide, and then registered a 56-55 win over Florida State (Feb. 9) and a 65-60 victory over Virginia Tech (Feb. 12), both at University Hall.

Virginia fell short in its first five ACC games and earned its first conference win of the season with an 81-79 victory over Clemson (Jan. 22) in Charlottesville. UVa's 0-5 start in the ACC marked the first time since the 1998-99 season the Cavaliers lost their first five conference games. Oddly enough a home win over then #25 Clemson (Jan. 17, 1999) was Virginia's first ACC win that year as well.

After defeating Clemson, the Cavaliers fell to Virginia Tech 79-73 (Jan. 27) in Blacksburg and #3 North Carolina 110-76 (Jan. 29) in Charlottesville before posting the victory over NC State.

No More RBC Center Blues

Virginia lost its first five games at the RBC Center (formerly the Entertainment and Sports Arena) and seven consecutive in Raleigh before snapping the losing streak with a 64-62 victory over NC State (Feb. 5).

Virginia defeated then No. 10 Arizona 78-60 on November 21 at University Hall, for its first win over a top ten team since the 2002-03 season. That year, the Cavaliers topped No. 8 Maryland 86-78 at the Comcast Center. ## ACC Rookies of the Week

In the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons, Virginia has had four different players earn ACC Rookie of the Week honors a total of eight times. Sean Singletary is a five-time recipient of the award this season (including this week's honor) and Adrian Joseph has won the award once.

Ralph Sampson was also a five-time recipient of the ACC Rookie of the Week award in 1979-80, while Bryant Stith is a UVA record six-time winner of the ACC rookie award in 1988-89.

In the last two years, the only other ACC schools to have more than one player named ACC Rookie of the Week are Maryland, Duke and Clemson. All three schools have had two players earn the honor.

Virginia leads all schools in ACC Rookie of the Week selections with 74 over the years. Georgia Tech is second with 68 all-time ACC Rookie of the Week selections.

Overtime Good for Virginia

With its 92-89 double overtime loss to 22nd-ranked Maryland (Feb. 19), the Cavaliers had their five-game overtime winning streak snapped. Earlier this season, UVA posted a double overtime win over Western Kentucky – 80-79 (Jan. 5) and a 79-77 overtime win over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23).

Last season, UVA defeated Clemson 83-79 (Mar. 11) in the ACC Tournament and Florida State 76-67 (Jan. 18) at home in extra time. In the 2002-03 season, UVA defeated then 13th-ranked Maryland 80-78 in overtime in Charlottesville on March 9, 2003.

Prior to Maryland (Feb. 19), the last time the Cavaliers lost in overtime was back in the 1999-2000 season when they fell to Georgetown 115-111 in triple overtime in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament in Charlottesville on March 15, 2000.

Close Games

The Cavaliers have played 10 games that have been decided by five points or less, including three overtime affairs. UVA is 8-2 in those close games. The eight wins are by a combined 19 points and the two losses are by five points.

Beating the Buzzer

The Cavaliers have scored game-winning baskets in the closing seconds of four games this season and four different players have made those game-winning shots.

J.R. Reynolds made a driving layup with 1.5 seconds left in overtime to lift UVA to a 79-77 win over Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23) in Charlottesville. Reynolds had made only 2-8 field goal attempts prior to the game-winning shot.

T.J. Bannister provided the heroics as he scored after a mad scramble with 2.7 seconds left in double overtime as UVA posted an 80-79 win over Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) at University Hall. Bannister was 1-5 from the field before making his short jumper in the lane.

Sean Singletary is the third Cavalier to score a game-winning basket in the closing seconds. He grabbed the offensive rebound on his own missed shot and scored with 2.2 seconds remaining in UVA's 64-62 win over NC State (Feb. 5) in Raleigh.

Devin Smith became the fourth UVA player to make a game-winning shot in the closing seconds of a game. Smith drained a three-pointer with 5.2 seconds left to lift the Cavaliers to a 56-55 win over Florida State (Feb. 9). Smith had been 1-6 on three-point attempts prior to making the game winner. It marked Virginia's only lead of the game.

Head Coach Pete Gillen

Pete Gillen is in his 20th season as a collegiate head coach and sports a 391-217 record for a .643 winning percentage. Gillen is in his seventh season at Virginia and has posted a 117-89 record (.568 winning percentage).

Gillen coached the 600th game of his career against Clemson on January 22 and his 200th game at Virginia on January 29 against North Carolina.

Gillen won his 350th career game on December 21, 2002 when his Cavaliers posted a 61-57 victory over Rutgers. His 300th career victory came when Virginia defeated then 21st-ranked North Carolina 87-85 on January 18, 2000 at University Hall.

Gillen has led his teams to postseason play 16 times in 19 seasons (nine NCAA, seven NIT), including the last five seasons at Virginia. He has been selected as the conference Coach of the Year five times – all while coaching Xavier (Midwestern Collegiate Conference).

Clark to Miss Remainder of Season

Jason Clark will not play for the Cavaliers for the remainder of the 2004-05 season for academic reasons.

The 6-8 senior from Virginia Beach, Va., played in 13 games this season and averaged 6.7 points and 5.2 rebounds a game. He is fifth on Virginia's all-time blocked shots list with 112. Clark made 166-271 field goal attempts during his career for an impressive 61.3 percent.

Only One Starter

Sean Singletary is the only Cavalier to start all 24 games this season. Singletary and Elton Brown both started the first 19 games of the season, but Brown had his starting streak snapped against NC State (Feb. 5). J.R. Reynolds has started in 23 of UVa's 24 contests this season.

Cavaliers Suffer Double Overtime Loss to Maryland

Virginia made three-point baskets to force overtime and then a second extra session, but UVa's magic ran out in the second overtime and Virginia fell to 22nd-ranked Maryland 92-89 (Feb. 19) in Charlottesville.

Gary Forbes hit a three-pointer with four seconds left in regulation to tie the game at 69-69 and force overtime. Maryland opened overtime with seven consecutive points and also led 80-73 with 1:57 to play in the first extra session. Back-to-back three-pointers by Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds brought UVa within 80-79 with 58 seconds left. After a jumper by the Terps' Travis Garrison with 33 seconds remaining, Singletary forced a second extra session with a three-pointer with 20 ticks on the clock.

The Terps scored the first four points in the second overtime, but Virginia came back and took an 89-87 lead on an Elton Brown basket with 2:38 to play. Maryland used two free throws and a three-pointer to take a 92-89 lead with 13 seconds left. Brown's desperation three-pointer with one second left was partially blocked by Maryland's Ekene Ibekwe.

UVa took a 49-43 lead with 13:27 to play in regulation, but Maryland used a 19-5 run to grab a 62-54 advantage with 6:29 to go in the second stanza. The Cavaliers quickly cut the Terps' lead down to one, 62-61, with 4:03 to go.

Singletary led Virginia with game-high totals of 23 points and nine assists with the nine assists setting a career high. Devin Smith tallied 22 points, eight rebounds and three blocked shots, while Forbes had 17 points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots. Brown registered his 11th double-double of the season with 13 points and 12 rebounds.

UVa shot 44.0 percent (33-75) from the field, including 11-25 (44.0 percent) on three-point attempts. The Cavaliers made just 12-27 free throws for 44.4 percent. Maryland held a 50-46 edge in rebounds while UVa had 13 turnovers to the Terps' 15.

John Gilchrist led Maryland with 22 points and nine rebounds, while Garrison had 20 points. Nik Caner-Medley recorded a double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds.

Brown Reaches 1,000 Point Plateau

Against Arizona (Nov. 21), Elton Brown became the 38th player in Virginia history to score 1,000 career points. For his career, Brown now has 1,323 points, placing him 20th in career points at UVa. Mel Kennedy (1985-88) holds the 19th spot with 1,415 career points.

With 1,323 career points, Brown is seventh among active ACC players in career scoring.

Smith Scores 1,000th Career Point

Devin Smith became the 39th Cavalier to score 1,000 career points. Smith reached the milestone with a driving layup with 20 seconds remaining in the first half in UVa's win over Florida State (Feb. 9). Smith has scored 1,054 career points at Virginia and is 37th all-time in scoring. Gene Engel (1961-63) is 36th with 1,071 career points.

Joseph Makes Most of Opportunity

Freshman forward Adrian Joseph made his first career start against Wake Forest (Jan. 2) in place of the injured Devin Smith. Joseph made the most of the opportunity as he tallied 19 points. He connected on 7-12 attempts from the field (3-6 from three-point range) and made both free throw attempts. He played a season-high 32 minutes and had one blocked shot and did not commit a turnover. For his effort, Joseph was named the ACC Rookie of the Week on January 3.

Joseph started five consecutive games before coming off the bench against Maryland (Jan. 19), Clemson (Jan. 22) and Virginia Tech (Jan. 27). He returned to the Cavaliers' starting lineup against North Carolina (Jan. 29) and had five points and four rebounds in 21 minutes.

Against Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) he tallied six points and four rebounds in 24 minutes. He made his third consecutive start against Georgia Tech (Jan. 8) and had eight points, one rebound and one steal in 24 minutes. Joseph had 11 points and a career-high seven rebounds in 27 minutes against Miami (Jan. 12). He went scoreless in 15 minutes against Duke (Jan. 15).

Joseph scored eight points in his collegiate debut against Robert Morris (Nov. 19). In his seven games prior to Wake Forest, Joseph had scored just 16 points and played only 67 minutes.

Joseph missed the first game of his career against Providence (Feb. 2) due to a leg injury and also did not play against NC State (Feb. 5), Florida State (Feb. 9), Virginia Tech (Feb. 12), North Carolina (Feb. 16), and Maryland (Feb. 19).

Smith Joins Elite Group

Devin Smith lit up the scoreboard for a career-high 40 points in UVa's 81-79 loss at Iowa State (Dec. 6). He became the eighth Cavalier to tally 40 or more points in a game and the first since Donald Hand poured in 41 points against N.C. State on February 14, 1999.

His 40 points ties for the fourth highest scoring total in a game this season among all Division I players.

Smith made 11-18 field goal attempts, including 4-8 from three-point range, and 14-15 free throws (including his last 14 attempts).

Smith's 40-point performance marked the 17th time a Virginia player had reached the 40-point plateau.

Here's a list of UVa players who have scored 40 or more points in a game.

Devin Smith's 40 points against Iowa State marked the 13th time a Cyclone opponent has scored 40 or more points in a game. He is the seventh player to score 40 against Iowa State in regulation.

Here's the impressive list Smith joined by scoring 40 points against the Cyclones in regulation.

Soroye Solid

Tunji Soroye made his most significant contributions of the season against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27) and set career highs in multiple categories. The 6-11 freshman center played 13 minutes and started the second half. He tallied four points and four rebounds and blocked a pair of shots while picking up one assist. His minutes, points, rebounds, blocked shots and the assist all marked then career-bests for Soroye.

Against North Carolina (Jan. 29), Soroye set new career highs with 16 minutes played and five rebounds.

Back-to-Back 20-Point Games

J.R. Reynolds recorded back-to-back games with 20 or more points against Western Kentucky (Jan. 5) and Georgia Tech (Jan. 8). Since those two games, Reynolds' scoring has been inconsistent. He has had five games where he scored a total of seven points (two points vs. Miami – Jan. 12, three points vs. Duke – Jan. 16, zero points vs. NC State – Feb. 5, two points vs. Virginia Tech – Feb. 12, and zero points vs. UNC – Feb. 16). Reynolds also had five consecutive games where he reached double figures in scoring (12 points vs. Maryland – Jan. 19, 11 points vs. Clemson – Jan. 22, 10 points vs. Virginia Tech – Jan. 27, 18 points vs. North Carolina – Jan. 29, 15 points vs. Providence – Feb. 2).

Reynolds has reached double figures in scoring 13 times this season.

The guard equaled his then career-high with 20 points in an 80-79 double overtime victory over Western Kentucky (Jan. 5). Reynolds managed to score 20 points, including 16 after halftime, despite not feeling well. He set a new career-high with 21 points in a 92-69 loss at Georgia Tech (Jan. 8).

On the season, Reynolds is averaging 10.1 points per game.

40 Minute Man

Sean Singletary became the first Cavalier this season to play all 40 minutes of a regulation game when he went the distance against Virginia Tech (Feb. 12).

Singletary logged 45 minutes in UVa's double overtime loss to Maryland (Feb. 19), marking the most minutes a UVA player has played in a game this season.

Interestingly, Elton Brown had played the most minutes of any Cavalier in a game this season when he logged 42 minutes in the double overtime thriller vs. Western Kentucky.

Singletary Breaks Out

After scoring just 27 points and shooting only 21.2 percent (7-33) over his previous four games, Sean Singletary broke out of his slump against Duke (Jan. 16). He scored a team-high 19 points and made 7-12 attempts from the field (and was also 5-5 from the free throw line). Singletary also had 23 points against Maryland (Feb. 19), the most points he has scored since tallying 25 against Auburn (Dec. 3).

After scoring eight points in 28 minutes against Maryland (Jan. 19), Singletary came back to score 15 points (5-11 shooting from the floor, including 2-3 on three-pointers, and 3-4 free throws) in 29 minutes vs. Clemson (Jan. 22).

Singletary also handed out seven assists against the Tigers.

On the season, Singletary is averaging 10.3 points and 4.2 assists per game. He has reached double digits in scoring in 10 games, but never in back-to-back outings.

Instant Offense

Gary Forbes has supplied the Cavaliers with an offensive spark off the bench. He scored a career-high 23 points against North Carolina (Feb. 16) after equalling his season high with 21 points in the previous game vs. Virginia Tech (Feb. 12). Forbes also scored 21 points against Furman (Dec. 8).

In his last three games, Forbes is averaging 20.3 points, 6.3 rebounds and has made 23-36 attempts from the field for 63.9 percent accuracy.

Double-Double for Forbes

Gary Forbes made the most of his start against Duke (Jan. 16) as he recorded his first career double-double. In his second start of the season, Forbes tallied 17 points and 10 rebounds, including eight offensive boards, in 31 minutes. He was 7-18 from the field and 2-3 from the free throw line.

Forbes' performance against Duke was in stark contrast to his first start of the 2004-05 season. In his first start of the season against Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23), Forbes scored just one point and had three rebounds in 29 minutes of action. He was 0-4 from the field and 1-2 from the free throw line.

Odd number starts seem to be a jinx for Forbes this season. In his third start of the season, Forbes scored just one point in 17 minutes against Maryland (Jan. 19). He was 0-5 from the field and 1-2 from the free throw line. He did have six rebounds and a career-best tying three blocked shots.

Another Double-Double

Devin Smith recorded his second double-double of the season as he totaled 17 points and 10 rebounds against Maryland (Jan. 19). Elton Brown has tallied 11 double-doubles on the season and Gary Forbes has one.

Cain Makes First Start

Jason Cain earned his first career start against Clemson (Jan. 22) and also started against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27), Providence (Feb. 2) and NC State (Feb. 5). Cain did not start against North Carolina (Jan. 29). The 6-10 sophomore played 20 minutes, scored four points and had one rebound vs. Clemson. He made 2-5 attempts from the field and had one assist and one steal.

Against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27), Cain did not attempt a field goal and was charged with four turnovers. He had two points, five rebounds, one assist and one steal against the Friars (Feb. 2). Cain played a pivotal role in UVa's win over NC State (Feb. 5). He equaled his season high with seven points and pulled down a career-best nine rebounds in 34 minutes – another career high. Cain also had one assist, one blocked shot and one steal while committing one turnover.

In his fifth start of the season, Cain had four points, one rebound, one blocked shot and two steals vs. Florida State (Feb. 9). He also started against Maryland (Feb. 19) and had two points, eight rebounds and three steals.

Cain is the ninth Cavalier to earn a starting nod this season.

Good Shooting

The Cavaliers broke out of a seven-game shooting slump by hitting 32-56 attempts from the field for 57.1 percent shooting against Clemson (Jan. 22). Virginia followed that performance with a 50.9 percent (27-53) effort against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27). UVa's previous season high shooting percentage was 54.2 percent (32-59) against Arizona (Nov. 19).

Virginia's shooting woes returned against North Carolina (Jan. 29) as UVa shot 39.1 percent (25-64). UVa managed only 41.3 percent (26-63) shooting against Providence (Feb. 2), but shot a respectable 46.5 percent (20-43) vs. NC State (Feb. 5). In their last four games, the Cavaliers shot 40.4 percent (21-52) against Florida State (Feb. 9), 41.0 percent (25-61) vs. Virginia Tech (Feb. 12), 38.5 percent (20-52) against North Carolina (Feb. 16), and 44.0 percent (33-75) vs. Maryland (Feb. 19).

Virginia's 57.1 percent shooting is its highest in a game since making 58.2 percent (32-55) of its shots against Brown (Mar. 19) in the first round of the 2003 NIT.

It is also UVa's highest shooting percentage in an ACC contest since connecting on 59.2 percent (29-49) of its attempts from the floor against Clemson on January 18, 2003.

Only Six Turnovers

The Cavaliers committed a season-low six turnovers against Clemson (Jan. 22). Virginia's previous low for turnovers in a game this season was eight miscues against Auburn (Dec. 3) and Georgia Tech (Jan. 8).

In its next game against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27), Virginia committed a season-high 22 turnovers. UVa had 17 turnovers against North Carolina (Jan. 29), but trimmed that number to 10 against Providence (Feb. 2).

The six turnovers are the fewest a Gillen coached Virginia team has committed in an ACC contest. The Cavaliers twice had seven turnovers in an ACC game – North Carolina (Jan. 19, 2000) and Wake Forest (Feb. 17, 2002).

The previous time UVa had less than six turnovers in a game was last season against Iowa State (Dec. 31) when the Cavaliers had only five turnovers. UVa had six turnovers last season against William & Mary (Jan. 5).

Cavaliers Improve to 3-2 in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With a 48-44 victory at Northwestern on December 1, Virginia improved its record to 3-2 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the sixth consecutive year as ACC schools won seven of nine contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 34-19.

From Hectic to a Long Layoff

Virginia's home game against Furman on December 8 closed out a stretch of five games in 11 days (and four in eight days – all four at different venues). UVa's game against Loyola Marymount on December 23 was the Cavaliers' first since the Furman game – a 14-day layoff for final exams.

Virginia's game against Wake Forest (an 89-70 loss) on January 2 was UVa's first since the Loyola Marymount game – a nine-day layoff.

After playing five games in 11 days in late November and early December, the Wake Forest game was just UVa's third game in 25 days.

The Antithesis

After defeating an extremely deliberate Northwestern team 48-44 (Dec. 1) in Evanston, Ill., the Cavaliers put their track shoes on and posted an 89-87 victory over Auburn (Dec. 3) in Richmond, Va.

Virginia scored 41 more points against Auburn than it did versus Northwestern. It marked the largest increase in points from one game to the next since the end of the 1999-2000 season. UVa scored 65 points in a loss to NC State (Mar. 10) in the ACC Tournament, then scored 111 points in a triple overtime loss to Georgetown (Mar. 15) in the National Invitation Tournament.

Bannister Assists

T.J. Bannister has handed out three or more assists in 14 of his last 15 games. He had his streak of 13 consecutive games with three or more assists snapped against North Carolina (Feb. 16) when he only recorded two assists. During the 15-game stretch, he had seven assists against Wake Forest (Jan. 2), Georgia Tech (Jan. 8) and Maryland (Feb. 19).

On the season, Bannister is averaging 3.6 assists per game. He has made 59-69 free throws for an impressive 85.5 percent.

Bannister scored a season-high 14 points in UVa's win over NC State (Feb. 5). His eight free throws made and 10 attempts against the Wolfpack established career highs in those two categories.

Double-Doubles

Elton Brown has registered 11 double-doubles in the Cavaliers' first 24 games this season and is second in the ACC in that category through games played February 24. He is the 11th Cavalier to register 10 or more double-doubles in a season.

Here's a look at Brown's double-doubles this season.

Robert Morris (Nov. 19)	13 points, 12 rebounds
Appalachian State (Nov. 24)	24 points, 12 rebounds
Richmond (Nov. 28)	12 points, 10 rebounds
Northwestern (Dec. 1)	15 points, 12 rebounds
Iowa State (Dec. 6)	13 points, 11 rebounds
Furman (Dec. 8)	16 points, 12 rebounds
Western Kentucky (Jan. 5)	10 points, 12 rebounds
Miami (Jan. 12)	20 points, 10 rebounds
Maryland (Jan. 19)	18 points, 10 rebounds
Virginia Tech (Jan. 27)	19 points, 15 rebounds
Maryland (Feb. 19)	13 points, 12 rebounds

Brown now has 15 career double-doubles. He is averaging 14.1 points and 8.7 rebounds per game (3rd in the ACC) in 2004-05. His 15 rebounds against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27) established a new career high.

Early Defense

The Cavaliers held their first five opponents to 60 or fewer points – Robert Morris (55), Arizona (60), Appalachian State (60), Richmond (58), and Northwestern (44). Auburn broke that streak with 87 points in a two point loss to UVA (Dec. 3) and opponents continued to score at a higher rate for a total of 15 games (including Auburn) before Virginia held Florida State (Feb. 9) to 55 points. UVA then held Virginia Tech (Feb. 12) to 60 points marking the seventh time this season the Cavaliers have limited an opponent to 60 or fewer points.

The last time UVA limited its first five opponents to 60 or fewer points was back in the 1948-49 season. In the 1948-49 season, the Cavaliers held their first nine opponents to 60 or fewer points.

By holding Virginia Tech to 60 points, it marked the first time during the Pete Gillen era UVA has held seven opponents to 60 or fewer points in game. The Cavaliers held six foes to 60 or fewer points in the 1998-99 season (Gillen's first at Virginia).

Since holding its first five opponents to 60 or less points, UVA's last 19 opponents have averaged 81.3 points per game. The Cavaliers have only held four opponents under 77 points and they were Furman (Dec. 8) with 67 points, NC State (Feb. 5) with 62 points, Florida State (Feb. 9) with 55 points, and Virginia Tech (Feb. 12) with 60 points. Prior to holding NC State to 62 points, UVA's previous 14 opponents had averaged 85.1 points per game.

More Defense

Virginia held Northwestern to only 44 points in a 48-44 victory (Dec. 1) in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. It marked the fewest points the Cavaliers have allowed in a game in the Pete Gillen era. The previous low by a UVA opponent for points in a game in the Gillen era was 48 points by Virginia Tech (in a 64-48 Cavalier win) on November 24, 2000.

The 44 points by Northwestern also marked the fewest points Virginia has allowed in a game since holding UMBC to 34 points (in a 57-34 UVA win) on December 21, 1996. It is also the lowest point total by a UVA opponent on its home court since the Cavaliers held UNLV to 39 points (a 59-39 UVA win) in Las Vegas on January 3, 1994.

Just Enough Offense

UVA's 48 points against Northwestern marked the fewest points in a Virginia victory in the Pete Gillen era. The previous low was 58 points (in a 58-55 win) at Clemson (Feb. 21) last season. It also marked the fewest points scored in a UVA victory since the 1981-82 season when the Cavaliers defeated NC State 45-40 on February 20.

UVA's 48 points against Northwestern are one point more than the fewest points scored in a game under Gillen. The Cavaliers managed just 47 points in losses to North Carolina (Jan. 21, 1999) and Georgia Tech (Feb. 9, 2000).

Smith Sixth in Three-Point Field Goals

Senior forward Devin Smith has made 146 career three-point field goals for the Cavaliers and stands in sixth place all-time at Virginia. Todd Billet (2003-04) and Donald Hand (1998-01) are tied for fourth place with 156 career three-pointers.

Here's a look at Virginia's all-time three-point field goal leaders list:

1. Curtis Staples (1995-98)	413 – NCAA record
2. Harold Deane (1994-97)	237
3. John Crotty (1988-91)	179
4. Todd Billet (2003-04)	156
Donald Hand (1998-01)	156
6. Devin Smith (2003-pres.)	146
7. Cory Alexander (1992-95)	142
8. Roger Mason, Jr. (2000-02)	137
9. Richard Morgan (1986-89)	132
10. Chris Williams (1999-02)	130

Smith Having Great Season

After being plagued by a back injury last season, Devin Smith is having a great senior season. Smith, who led UVA in scoring in nine of the 21 games he has played this season, is averaging 16.8 points per game overall (sixth in the ACC) and 15.5 points per game in conference play (12th in the ACC). He is shooting 47.0 percent (126-268) from the field, including 36.1 percent (48-133) from three-point range. Smith is also averaging 6.2 rebounds per game.

Smith scored a career-high 40 points while making 11-18 field goal attempts (4-8 three-pointers) and 14-15 free throws against Iowa State (Dec. 6). He also grabbed 10 rebounds for his first career double-double. He scored 26 points while making 8-13 field goal attempts (5-10 three-pointers) against Richmond (Nov. 28). He was also 5-6 from the free throw line. Against Auburn (Dec. 3), Smith had 23 points and eight rebounds. He made 9-14 attempts from the field, including 4-7 from three-point range.

Before leaving the Loyola Marymount (Dec. 23) game in the second half with an injury, Smith had 12 points, five rebounds and a career-high five blocked shots. After missing three games with the injury, Smith came back to score 21 points against Miami (Jan. 12). He also pulled down six rebounds.

He registered his second career double-double with 17 points and 10 rebounds against Maryland (Jan. 19) in his first start since injuring his ankle. Smith tallied a team-high 22 points in Virginia's win over Clemson (Jan. 22). He again led the team in scoring with 24 points against Virginia Tech (Jan.

27). His 24 points vs. Providence (Feb. 2) led UVa. Smith made the game-winning three-pointer with 5.2 seconds remaining in UVa's 56-55 win over Florida State (Feb. 9). He tallied 22 points, eight rebounds and three blocked shots vs. Maryland (Feb. 19).

Last season, Smith played in 27 of 31 games and averaged 12.2 points per game. He rarely practiced with the team in the latter portion of the season due to his back injury.

Nearly Perfect

The Cavaliers made 20-21 free throws for 95.2 percent accuracy against Duke (Jan. 16). It tied for the third-best "non-perfect" free throw shooting effort by Virginia in school history. It also tied for the best non-perfect free throw shooting performance on the road.

On January 9, 1993, UVa also made 20-21 free throws at NC State. The Cavaliers' best non-perfect game from the charity stripe was a 24-25 (96.0 percent) effort at home against Marquette on November 26, 1988. UVa was 21-22 (95.5 percent) from the free throw line at home vs. North Carolina on January 15, 1983.

Over the years, UVa has had 12 contests when it did not miss a free throw in a game. The most free throws UVa made in a game without missing was 16 against South Carolina on January 8, 1965. Most recently, UVa was 12-12 against NC State on December 28, 2003.

Shooting Better at Home

The Cavaliers have struggled shooting the basketball on the road. In nine away games UVa has eclipsed 45 percent shooting only two times – 50.9 percent (27-53) at Virginia Tech (Jan. 27) and 46.5 percent (20-43) at NC State (Feb. 5). The Cavaliers have shot under 35 percent in three road games.

Virginia is shooting just 39.6 percent (205-518) in nine away games this season, including 31.6 percent (49-155) from three-point range. At home, UVa shoots 45.1 percent (395-875) overall and 31.8 percent (92-289) from three-point land.

In its 13 wins, Virginia is shooting 46.8 percent (356-760), while in 11 losses, the Cavaliers are shooting only 39.9 percent (277-695).

On the season, UVa is shooting 43.5 percent (633-1,455) from the floor and 41.2 percent (324-786) in ACC play.

Outblocked

Part of the Cavaliers' shooting woes stem from the fact that they have had 116 shots blocked in 24 games this season (4.8 per game). In 13 ACC games, UVa has had 74 shots blocked for an average of 5.7 per game. Virginia has blocked 43 shots in 13 conference games.

Over the last 13 games, Virginia has had 81 of its shots blocked for an average of 6.2 per game. The 81 blocked shots represent 10.3 percent of the Cavaliers' field goal attempts (790 attempts) over the last 13 contests. UVa has only blocked 41 of its opponents' shots over the last 13 games. That represents 5.4 percent of opponents' shots (761 attempts).

Most Points by a Freshman

Sean Singletary scored 25 points in UVa's 89-87 win over Auburn (Dec. 3). It marked the most points in a game by a Cavalier freshman since the 1998-99 season. Chris Williams scored 25 or more points in five games as a rookie in 1998-99, while classmate Adam Hall scored 27 points in a game the same season.

The last time Williams scored 25 or more points in a game as a freshman was against NC State (Jan. 14) when he tallied 27. He had a season-high 34 points versus Liberty (Dec. 8), marking the first time he scored 25 or more points in a game. Hall scored his 27 points against Hampton (Nov. 25).

Campbell Makes Most of Opportunity

Reserve guard Billy Campbell scored a career-high eight points against North Carolina (Jan. 29). He made all three field goal attempts, including a pair of three-pointers, in six minutes of playing time. Campbell also made his only field goal attempt against Providence (Feb. 2).

Starting Strong

For the fourth time in the last five years (including this season), Virginia started its season with six consecutive victories. UVa had its winning streak snapped with an 81-79 loss to Iowa State (Dec. 6).

The only time in the last five seasons the Cavaliers did not win their first six games was in the 2002-2003 season when the team lost its fourth and fifth games of the season after starting out 3-0.

Last season, Virginia won its first eight games. In 2001-2002, UVa won its first nine games of the season and in 2000-2001, the Cavaliers reeled off 10 consecutive victories to begin the season. The 10 straight wins marked UVa's best start since the 1992-93 team started the season with an 11-0 mark.

McDonald Earns Sportscaster Award

Mac McDonald, the Director of Broadcasting for Cavalier Sports Marketing and play-by-play voice for the University of Virginia, has been selected the 2004-05 Sportscaster of the Year in the state of Virginia. McDonald, who also serves as a host of Charlottesville Radio Group's WINA morning show, was selected by a statewide ballot of his peers in conjunction with the National Association of Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association in Salisbury, N.C. McDonald, who is in his ninth consecutive season with the Cavaliers, is also host of his own charity golf tournament that has raised over $200,000 in four years for the UVA Children's Medical Center. He also served as the "Voice of the Cavaliers" from 1980-85.

Virginia Picked Eighth

At the 43rd annual Atlantic Coast Conference Operation Basketball in Greensboro, N.C., on October 31, the Cavaliers were picked eighth in the media's pre-season poll. Wake Forest topped the list followed by North Carolina.
