OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia enters today's Atlantic Coast Conference game with a 14-10 overall record and a 7-6 mark in the ACC. The Cavaliers are coming off a 72-58 win over 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21) at University Hall.

Clemson stands at 15-11 overall and 4-9 in the ACC this season. The Tigers are coming off a 74-68 overtime loss to Wake Forest (Feb. 22) in Winston-Salem, N.C.

The Series vs. Clemson

Virginia leads the all-time series with Clemson 64-46. The Cavaliers won the initial meeting of the 2005-06 season 64-58 (Jan. 7) in Charlottesville to extend their winning streak over Clemson to five consecutive games.

UVa won the only meeting against Clemson last season 81-79 (Jan. 22) at University Hall. Virginia swept three games from the Tigers in the 2003-04 season. UVa snapped a two-game losing streak to the Tigers with a 61-50 win (Jan. 20) in Charlottesville. Virginia earned a sweep with a 58-55 victory (Feb. 21) in Clemson, S.C., and then defeated Clemson a third time with an 83-79 overtime victory (Mar. 11) in the ACC Tournament in Greensboro, N.C. It marked only the second time the Cavaliers beat Clemson three times in the same season (UVa also won three times in 1982).

UVa has won 12 of the last 16 games against the Tigers and 23 of the last 32 in the series dating back to the 1989-90 season. The Cavaliers swept the season series seven times in the last 13 seasons (since 1992-93) and are 19-8 vs. the Tigers during that span.

The Tigers swept the 2002-03 season series from UVa, winning 78-77 (Jan. 18) in Clemson, S.C., and 73-64 (Feb. 18) in Charlottesville. It marked Clemson's first season sweep since the 1996-97 campaign.

Virginia had its four-game winning streak against the Tigers snapped with a 68-52 loss (Jan. 8) in the first meeting in the 2001-02 season in Clemson, S.C. Virginia earned a split in the 2001-02 series with an 85-71 win (Feb. 10) in University Hall.

The Cavaliers swept the 2000-01 season series versus Clemson, winning 104-76 (Jan. 27) at Littlejohn Coliseum and 84-65 (Feb. 28) at University Hall. Virginia also swept the 1999-00 season series from Clemson.

All-time the Cavaliers are 16-20 at Littlejohn Coliseum and 20-30 in Clemson. Virginia had won its previous two games (98-91 – Jan. 15, 2000 and 104-76 – Jan. 27, 2001) at Littlejohn prior to losing 68-52 in 2001-2002 and 78-77 in the 2002-03 season.

The last four games (all UVa wins) have been decided by a total of 15 points with UVa's six-point win (64-58) earlier this season marking the largest margin of victory. In the 2003-04 season, the Cavaliers won by three points (58-55) and four points – in overtime (83-79). UVa won by two points (81-79) last season.

Earlier This Season vs. Clemson

Adrian Joseph scored a game-high 19 points to help lead Virginia to a 64-58 victory over Clemson (Jan. 7) at University Hall. It marked the first ACC win in the Dave Leitao era at UVa.

Joseph led four Cavaliers in double figure scoring with his 19 points. He was 6-10 from the field, including 3-5 on three-point attempts, and made all four free throws, while playing 39 minutes. Sean Singletary added 17 points, six assists, five rebounds and two steals, while Jason Cain nearly recorded a double-double with 12 points and a game-high nine rebounds. J.R. Reynolds added 10 points and six rebounds.

UVa led throughout much of the first half and took a 31-26 lead at the intermission. The Cavaliers took their biggest lead of the contest, 52-42, with 8:08 remaining on a Singletary three-pointer. Clemson immediately went on an 11-0 run to take a 53-52 edge with 4:35 to play. Vernon Hamilton scored seven of the 11 points during the spurt. A Cain free throw with 4:14 to go halted the run and tied the game. Two more Cain tosses from the charity stripe gave UVa a two-point lead (55-53) with 2:44 left. A three-point play by Cliff Hammonds put the Tigers back on top, 56-55 with 1:33 remaining. A Singletary jumper at the 1:12 mark put Virginia back on top to stay, 57-56. UVa made 7-8 free throws in the final minute to seal the victory.

The Cavaliers shot 41.7 percent (20-48) from the field, but made 6-11 three-point attempts (54.5 percent). Clemson shot 39.7 percent (23-58) from the floor and made 6-7 free throws (85.7 percent). UVa nearly matched the Tigers' accuracy from the line, but made three times as many while going 18-22 for 81.8 percent. Virginia held a commanding 39-21 advantage in rebounds, but committed 17 turnovers to Clemson's 11.

Hammonds led Clemson with 14 points, while Hamilton added 13 points, four assists and four steals.

Head Coach Dave Leitao

Dave Leitao was named the 10th head men's basketball coach at Virginia on April 16, 2005. Leitao was the head coach at DePaul University the last three seasons (2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05). His DePaul teams competed in a postseason tournament each season. The Blue Demons participated in the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and in the National Invitation Tournament in 2003 and 2005. Leitao also spent two seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northeastern University (1994-95 and 1995-96).

In six seasons as a head coach he sports a 94-79 record.

Leitao is 1-0 all-time as a head coach against Clemson.

Leitao has coached in 26 games against AP ranked teams and is 7-19. Against top 10 AP teams, Leitao is 0-8. He was 0-4 against ranked teams in two seasons at Northeastern, 5-11 vs. ranked opponents in three years at DePaul, and 2-4 against ranked foes at UVa. Virginia's 72-58 win over 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21) marked the highest ranked opponent a Leitao coached team has defeated. The previous highest ranked opponent Leitao beat was 13th-ranked Cincinnati – 68-65 (Mar. 4, 2004) while he was the head coach at DePaul.

In six season-openers, Leitao is 4-2. In addition to this year's season-opening win, Leitao won all three season openers while at DePaul and lost both openers at Northeastern. Here's a look at the results of Leitao's six season-openers:

New UVa Coaches in Home ACC Debut

Dave Leitao made his ACC home game coaching debut against Clemson (Jan. 7) – a 64-58 win. He is only the third of seven UVa coaches to win their first home ACC game. Billy McCann was the first UVa coach to win his home ACC debut in the 1957-58 season (a 66-61 win over Wake Forest – Dec. 14). In 1990-91, Jeff Jones was the second UVa coach to win his first home ACC game (an 81-64 win over #8 Duke – Jan. 5).

Seven ACC Wins

After just nine ACC games this season, Virginia surpassed its conference win total of four from 2004-05. UVa was 4-2 after six games this season, marking the first time since the 2001-02 season it was two games over .500 in conference play (also 4-2).

The Cavaliers are currently 7-6 in the ACC and it is UVa's most ACC wins since 2001-02 when the team went 7-9 in conference action. UVa has not won more than seven ACC games since the 2000-01 season when it went 9-7. Virginia was also 9-7 in 1999-00.

Virginia has just one regular season home game left at University Hall. UVa's final regular season home game is against Maryland (Mar. 5).

Virginia's overtime victory over Virginia Tech (Feb. 11) marked UVa's 400th win all-time at U-Hall. The Cavaliers picked up their 401st win at U-Hall against Longwood (Feb. 15) and registered win number 402 vs. then 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21). In 41 seasons (including 2005-06), the Cavaliers are 402-142 (.739 winning percentage) all-time at U-Hall.

After calling University Hall home since the 1965-66 season, the Cavaliers will move across the street to their new facility, the John Paul Jones Arena, for the 2006-07 season.

U-Hall is Kind to Cavaliers

UVa is 11-2 at home this season, including 6-1 in the ACC, but only 2-8 in away games (1-5 in the ACC). Virginia has won its last six home games and lost its last four away games. UVa is 6-1 in ACC games at U-Hall this season, its most conference wins at home since 2000-01 when the Cavaliers were 7-1.

Defeating the Defending National Champion

UVa's 72-68 win over 2005 NCAA champion North Carolina (Jan. 19) marked the fourth consecutive win for Virginia over a reigning national champion.

In the 2002-03 season, the Cavaliers posted a pair of wins over Maryland (the 2002 NCAA champion) – 86-78 at Maryland (Feb. 6) and 80-78 in OT at home (Mar. 9). UVa began its current streak with an 87-84 home win over Duke (the 2001 NCAA champion) on Feb. 28, 2002.

Virginia is 8-13 all-time against the reigning national champions in 11 different seasons. In addition to four straight wins, UVa has won six of the last nine matchups.

UVa is 1-6 all-time vs. North Carolina in the year following Tar Heel national titles (0-2 in 1958, 0-2 in 1983, 0-2 in 1994, and 1-0 in 2006). In addition to UNC, Virginia is 2-0 vs. Maryland, 3-3 vs. Duke, 2-3 vs. NC State, and 0-1 vs. Cincinnati.

Back to ACC Play

The Cavaliers opened ACC play on Dec. 4 (a 63-54 loss at Georgia Tech) and played their second conference game on Jan. 7 against Clemson (a 64-58 win). The 33 days between ACC games (Georgia Tech and Clemson) is the longest stretch ever between ACC contests for Virginia. The previous longest length of time between ACC games for UVa was 31 days in the 1979-80 season – Dec. 1 (vs. Georgia Tech) to Jan. 2 (vs. Wake Forest).

Virginia also played six non-conference games between league matchups. The six games ties for the second most all-time between ACC contests (1997-98, 1996-97, 1981-82, and 1967-68). In 1979-80, the Cavaliers played eight non-conference contests between their first two ACC games.

No Steals

UVa committed only eight turnovers in its 71-51 win over Miami (Jan. 24) and the Hurricanes did not have a steal in the game. It marks the 10th time a Virginia opponent did not have a steal in a game and the first time since Feb. 26, 2003 when Ohio did not record a steal.

Cavalier Captains

Junior J.R. Reynolds and sophomore Sean Singletary are co-captains of the 2005-06 Virginia basketball team. Singletary is the first sophomore since Donald Hand in the 1998-99 season to be a team captain.

Virginia Notches Impressive 72-58 Win over Boston College

J.R. Reynolds scored a season-high 28 points to lead Virginia to a 72-58 win over 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21) at University Hall. The Cavaliers shot an impressive 52.1 percent (25-48) from the floor and 57.1 percent (12-21) from three-point range in the contest. The 12 made threes is an ACC season high for Virginia.

UVa scored the first five points of the game, but the Eagles scored the next seven points to take what proved to be their only lead of the game, 7-5, with 14:12 remaining in the first half. The Cavaliers responded with a 26-6 run to grab a 31-13 advantage with 4:54 to play in the opening stanza. BC used a 9-0 spurt to cut Virginia's lead in half, 31-22, with 3:15 to play. UVa quickly built its lead back up to 14 points (38-24) and took a 38-28 lead at the half.

The Eagles never got closer than 10 points during the second half – 44-34 with 15:19 left in the game. Virginia used a 6-0 run at that point to open up a 50-34 edge with 13:33 left and the Eagles never got closer than 12 points the rest of the way.

Reynolds made 9-15 attempts from the floor, including 4-7 three-pointers, and 6-7 free throws for his game-high 28 points. Sean Singletary added 16 points and five assists, while Adrian Joseph and Mamadi Diane both made three three-pointers to tally nine points apiece. Tunji Soroye added six points, seven rebounds and two blocked shots.

Virginia shot 55.6 percent (10-18) from the floor in the second half, including 71.4 percent (5-7) from the three-point line. The Cavaliers held Boston College to 35.2 percent (19-54) shooting from the field in the contest and 18.8 percent (3-16) from beyond the three-point arc. UVa continued its outstanding shooting from the free throw line by making 10-13 attempts (76.9 percent). The Eagles were 17-27 (63.0 percent) from the line and held a 35-31 edge in rebounds. UVa had 12 turnovers in the game, while BC committed 11.

Craig Smith led Boston College with 22 points and nine rebounds, while Tyrese Rice added 10 points.

20 Point Win

UVa's 20-point win over Miami (Jan. 24) is its largest margin of victory in an ACC contest since the end of the 2000-01 season. The Cavaliers closed their home ACC season in 2001 with a 19-point victory (84-65) over Clemson (Feb. 28). In the previous game, UVa registered a 20-point win (86-66) over then second-ranked North Carolina (Feb. 25) at home.

54.0 Percent Shooting

Virginia shot a season-high 54.0 percent (27-50) from the field against Miami (Jan. 24). It marked the first time this season UVa has shot over 50 percent in a game (the Cavaliers shot exactly 50 percent against Hartford – 25-50 on Dec. 31). Virginia also connected on 52.1 percent (25-48) of its attempts from the field against Boston College (Feb. 21).

Closing in on 1,000

J.R. Reynolds is quickly approaching the 1,000-point milestone. Reynolds has scored 975 points in his career and needs 25 to reach the 1,000-point plateau. Thirty-nine Cavaliers have scored 1,000 points during their career. The last player to score his 1,000th career point was Devin Smith, who reached the milestone last season.

54 Attempts

Each of UVa's last three opponents – Longwood, Florida State and Boston College – have attempted 54 field goals. Longwood and BC both made 19, while Florida State made 28.

Three-Point Field Goal Leaders

J.R. Reynolds has made 147 three-point field goals in his career and is in seventh place on UVa's all-time three-point field goals list. Reynolds needs nine three-point field goals to tie Donald Hand (1998-01) and Todd Billett (2003-04) for fifth place with 156 career threes.

Thief

Sean Singletary is ninth in the ACC in steals with 1.78 per game. Singletary has 41 steals in 23 games this season. He has three or more steals in five games this season.

Swat

Sophomore Tunji Soroye has blocked a career-best 34 shots this season for an average of 1.42 per game. Soroye is currently tied for fifth in the ACC in blocked shots per game. He has blocked two or more shots in 11 games, including a season-high four blocks vs. Clemson (Jan. 7) and Longwood (Feb. 15).

Singletary Goes for 35

Sean Singletary scored a career-high 35 points in UVa's 80-69 loss at Gonzaga (Dec. 17). The 35 points set a McCarthy Athletic Center record for the most points scored by a Gonzaga opponent. Singletary, who missed UVa's previous game against Fordham (Dec. 7) with a hip injury, made 11-20 attempts from the field (4-9 three-pointers) and 9-14 free throws. He also had a career-high tying six steals, six rebounds and four assists in 39 minutes.

Singletary's 35 points are the most scored in a game by a UVa player since J.R. Reynolds tallied 32 points vs. Miami (Mar. 10) in last year's ACC tournament. The last time a UVa player scored more than 35 points in a game was last season when Devin Smith tallied 40 points against Iowa State (Dec. 6).

Singletary scored just over half of Virginia's points in the game against Gonzaga. The last time one player scored more than half of UVa's points in a game was when Smith scored his 40 points against Iowa State last season (UVa had 79 as a team).

ACC Legend

Former Cavalier great Curtis Staples (1995-98) has been selected as Virginia's ACC Legend and will be honored at this year's ACC Men's Basketball Tournament in Greensboro. Staples will be honored at the annual ACC Basketball Legends Brunch which will be held on Saturday, March 11 beginning at 10 a.m.

Staples held the all-time three-point field goals made mark in ACC and NCAA history until Feb. 14 when Duke's J.J. Redick broke his records. Staples made a total of 413 three-pointers during his four-year career at Virginia. A third-team All-ACC selection in 1998, he started 97 of 122 total games during his college career.

As a senior, he led the nation in three-point field goals per game and averaged 18.1 points per game. He led the ACC in three-point field goals per game all four seasons of his career, becoming only the third player in ACC history to lead the conference in a statistical category for four consecutive years.

No Threes

UVa was 0-13 from three-point range against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The last time Virginia failed to make a three-pointer in a game was Jan. 31, 2004 at Wake Forest.

Ruling the Offensive Glass

Jason Cain registered an amazing 16 offensive rebounds in two games (7 vs. Georgia Tech – Dec. 4 and 9 vs. Fordham – Dec. 7). The 16 offensive rebounds ties Bryant Stith for the most offensive rebounds in back-to-back games in school history. Stith had 16 offensive boards (eight each) against Wake Forest (Mar. 1, 1989) and Maryland (Mar. 5, 1989).

Furthermore, Cain's nine offensive rebounds vs. the Rams was just one shy of the single game school mark which is shared by three players (Stith, Matt Blundin, and Travis Watson). Only one other player – Junior Burrough – has had nine offensive boards in a game (against Old Dominion on Dec. 11, 1993).

On the season, Cain has 79 offensive rebounds for an average of 3.29 per game (third in the ACC) and 40.7 percent (79 of 194) of his rebounds are of the offensive variety.

Really Raising Cain

Jason Cain recorded back-to-back double-doubles three times this season. He has six double-doubles this season (tied for seventh in the ACC) and has led Virginia in rebounding in 15 of the last 21 games. Cain has recorded double figures in rebounds eight times this season.

Cain had his first career double-double in UVa's 63-54 loss to Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The junior forward tallied then career highs of 15 points and 11 rebounds. Against Fordham (Dec. 7), Cain posted career bests with 16 points and 15 rebounds. Against Loyola (Dec. 23), he recorded 15 points and 16 rebounds with the 16 boards setting yet another career high. Against UMBC (Dec. 28), Cain tied his career high with 16 points and added 12 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season. His fifth double-double came against Wake Forest (Feb. 4) when he tallied 13 points and 10 rebounds. For the third time this season, Cain notched back-to-back double-doubles with an 11-point, 13-rebound performance against Maryland (Feb. 7).

His former career highs of 13 points and nine rebounds came in different games against NC State last season.

Cain also blocked a career-best five shots vs. North Carolina (Jan. 19) and now has a career-high 22 blocked shots this season. His former career high for blocked shots was three vs. UMBC (Dec. 28) earlier this season.

Cain leads UVa with 194 rebounds (8.1 per game – fifth in the ACC), including 79 offensive rebounds (3.29 per game). He is averaging 8.5 rebounds per ACC contest (fifth in the ACC). Cain is fourth on the team in scoring with 8.3 points per game.

Increase in Assists

Sean Singletary averaged only 3.17 assists (19 assists) in his first six games this season. In nine of the last 17 games, Singletary has handed out six or more assists for an average of 5.0 per game (85 assists).

Singletary is currently fourth in the ACC with 4.52 assists per game. He is averaging 4.46 assists per ACC contest which is third among all ACC players.

Field Goal Percentage Leader

Freshman Laurynas Mikalauskas leads the Cavaliers in field goal percentage. He has made 61-103 attempts from the field for 59.2 percent accuracy. Over the last 15 games, Mikalauskas has made 42-68 attempts (61.8 percent) from the floor.

Mikalaukas turned in several outstanding performances as of late. Against North Carolina (Jan. 19), he posted a 10-point, five-rebound performance. It marked the first time he scored in double figures in an ACC game. Against Miami (Jan. 24), Mikalauskas tallied 12 points and eight rebounds. The 12 points are his ACC high, while the eight boards equal his conference best (he had eight rebounds in his ACC debut against Georgia Tech – Dec. 4). Versus NC State (Feb. 1), Mikalauskas notched 10 points and four rebounds.

Home is Sweet for Diane

Away from U-Hall, Joseph is shooting only 39.8 percent (33-83) from the field and 26.2 percent (11-42) from three-point territory.

Overall, Joseph is averaging 10.5 points per game while shooting 42.3 percent (91-215) from the field and 35.9 percent (42-117) from beyond the arc.

Bannister Returns to Action Again

After missing six consecutive games, guard T.J. Bannister returned to action for the Cavaliers against Florida State (Jan. 11) and played in five straight games before missing the NC State (Feb. 1), Wake Forest (Feb. 4), Maryland (Feb. 7), and Virginia Tech (Feb. 11) contests. Bannister again returned to UVa's line-up against Longwood (Feb. 15) and has played the past three games. Against Longwood, he had two points, five assists, three turnovers, two steals and a rebound in 14 minutes. In 20 minutes vs. Florida State (Feb. 18), Bannister had six points, two rebounds, two assists, three turnovers and a steal. Against Boston College (Feb. 21), he had one assist and one steal in five minutes.

He entered the first FSU game with 11:42 left in the first half and logged 18 minutes. He did not score in the game, but had five assists with just one turnover. Bannister had his most productive game of the season vs. North Carolina with seven points, three rebounds, two assists and a steal in 10 minutes. He also dished out four assists while logging a season-high 23 minutes against Miami (Jan. 24).

Bannister missed the first four games of the season and made his 2005-06 season debut against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). He played two minutes during the first half and made his only field goal attempt. Bannister also played seven minutes against Fordham and had two assists and one rebound before missing the next six games.

First Double-Double

J.R. Reynolds recorded his first career double-double with 19 points and 12 assists against Virginia Tech (Feb. 11).

Reynolds' 12 assists doubled his previous career high of six.

In addition, it marked the first double-double by a UVa player in points and assists since Donald Hand had 12 points and 11 assists against Coastal Carolina on Nov. 20, 2000. It is also the most assists by a Cavalier since T.J. Bannister handed out 12 assists against Wake Forest on Mar. 2, 2004.

Double Figures in Rebounds

Mamadi Diane pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds against Wake Forest (Feb. 4). His previous career high was seven rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). Diane became just the second Cavalier to reach double figures in rebounds in a game this season. Jason Cain has eight double figure rebounding performances to his credit.

42, 44, 48

Sean Singletary, J.R. Reynolds and Adrian Joseph have combined to make 134 of UVa's 152 three-point field goals (88.2 percent) this season. Interestingly, the three-pointers made are pretty evenly distributed as Reynolds has made 48 threes, Singletary follows with 44, and Joseph has 42 threes to his credit. Singletary and Joseph have attempted 119 and 117 threes, respectively, while Reynolds has attempted 133.

Joseph only made 14 three-pointers all of last season. Singletary has set a new single season high with his 44 threes (he had 34 last season). Reynolds' all-time best in terms of three-pointers made is 51 last season.

Reynolds Breaks Out

After making only four three-point field goals (on 28 attempts) in the first seven games of the season, J.R. Reynolds drained a career-high tying five three-pointers against Loyola (Dec. 23) on seven attempts.

Including the Loyola game, Reynolds has made 44-105 (41.9 percent) three-point attempts in the last 17 games. Reynolds is now 48-133 (36.1 percent) from beyond the three-point line this season.

Reynolds snapped an 0-11 slump that spanned four games when he made his first three against Loyola with 12:53 left in the first half. His 5-7 effort from long range against Loyola also snapped a 1-20 slump over the previous five games.

In the last 17 games, Reynolds is averaging 18.2 points per game (310 points). He has scored in double figures in a career-best 18 consecutive games. Reynolds is averaging a career-best 16.3 points per game overall (11th in the ACC) and 16.5 per conference game (11th in the ACC) this season.

Diane Snaps a Slump

Mamadi Diane made 3-4 three-point field goal attempts against Boston College (Feb. 21) to snap a three-point draught.

Diane had missed his last 11 three-point attempts and was just 1-19 from long range in his last 10 games before making the three treys vs. BC. The three three-pointers made are a career high for Diane.

Turnovers

UVa is averaging 14.2 turnovers per game this season. The Cavaliers committed 18 or more turnovers in four of their first five games. In the last 19 games, UVa has cut its turnovers down to 13.3 per game (253 turnovers). UVa has committed 17 or more turnovers in a game during that span only four times. In that same 19-game span, the Cavaliers have seven games in which they had 11 or fewer turnovers, including a season-low tying eight turnovers vs. Miami (Jan. 24) and NC State (Feb. 1).

The Cavaliers have averaged 12.6 turnovers per game at home and 16.0 miscues away from University Hall.

Against Northwestern (Nov. 30), UVa had only eight turnovers, including just two miscues in the second half against the Wildcats. In its previous game against Arizona, Virginia committed a season-high 24 turnovers.

28 Offensive Rebounds

UVa pulled down 28 offensive rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4) and it ties for the second highest offensive rebounds total in a game in school history. The Cavaliers also had 28 offensive boards against Virginia Tech on Jan. 25, 1989. The school record for offensive rebounds in a game is 30 vs. Towson on Dec. 3, 1994.

Virginia gave up 28 offensive rebounds to Hartford (Dec. 31). The 28 offensive boards by the Hawks is the fourth highest total by a UVa opponent ever.

Guards Lead the Way

Starting guards Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds are pacing the Cavaliers this season. The two guards have combined to lead UVa in scoring in 20 of 24 games. The duo is averaging 34.3 points per game.

Singletary leads UVa with 18.0 points per game and is averaging 4.5 assists per game (104 assists). Reynolds is second on the squad with 16.3 points per contest and has tallied 82 assists (3.4 per game).

Singletary has led UVa in scoring 11 times – 24 points against Arizona, 23 points vs. Northwestern, 35 points vs. Gonzaga, 22 points vs. Hartford, 27 points vs. Florida State (first meeting), 16 points vs. Virginia Tech (tied with Reynolds), 18 points vs. North Carolina, 29 points vs. Miami, 18 points vs. Maryland (tied with Reynolds), 23 points vs. Virginia Tech (second meeting), and 20 points vs. Longwood.

Reynolds has also led the Cavaliers in scoring 11 times – 23 points against Richmond, 25 points vs. Loyola (Md.), 20 points vs. UMBC, 26 points vs. Western Kentucky, 16 points vs. Virginia Tech (tied with Singletary), 19 points vs. Duke, 16 points vs. NC State, 21 points vs. Wake Forest, 18 points vs. Maryland (tied with Singletary), 18 vs. Florida State (second meeting), and 28 points vs. Boston College.

Rebounding a Key

One of the keys to success for UVa this season is rebounding and so far Virginia has more than held its own on the glass. The Cavaliers have outrebounded 18 of their first 24 opponents and are averaging 6.0 more rebounds per game than the opposition. UVa is averaging 37.9 rebounds overall and 13.5 offensive boards per contest.

The Cavaliers have outrebounded eight of their opponents by 10 or more rebounds. In 13 ACC games, Virginia has outrebounded the opposition 483-416 for an average of +5.2 per game.

Virginia outrebounded Wake Forest (Feb. 4) by 22 rebounds (47-25 – their largest margin of the season) and the Demon Deacons entered the game as the leading rebounding team in the ACC.

Free Throw Accuracy

UVa is shooting an impressive 75.6 percent (362-479) from the free throw line this season which ranks second in the ACC (UVa is shooting 76.5 percent – 195-255 – in ACC play). The Cavaliers have two players ranked among the leaders in the ACC in free throw shooting. Sean Singletary is fifth at 83.2 percent (99-119), while J.R. Reynolds is ninth in the conference at 80.3 percent (98-122).

Two other Cavaliers are shooting extremely well from the free throw line, but don't qualify to be listed among the ACC's leaders because they haven't made enough free throws (2.5 made per game is the requirement to be ranked).

– Mamadi Diane is shooting 84.8 percent (28-33) from the line
– Adrian Joseph is shooting 76.3 percent (29-38) from the line

Double Figures in Last 15 Games

Sean Singletary has set a new career high by scoring in double figures in the last 15 games. His current streak began with a 22-point performance against Hartford (Dec. 31) and in his last outing, Singletary tallied 16 points against Boston College (Feb. 21).

During his current scoring streak, Singletary is averaging 18.9 points per game (283 points).

After scoring in double figures in back-to-back games only once last season, Singletary scored in double digits in the first six games he played in this season before having his streak stopped when he scored only four points against Loyola (Md.). Singletary, who is averaging 18.0 points a game, scored only seven points against UMBC (Dec. 28).

In addition to scoring in double figures the last 15 games, he has reached double digits in 21 of the 23 games he has played this season.

Singletary scored in double figures in 13 games last season, but not in back-to-back games until he scored 17 vs. NC State (Mar. 2) and 11 vs. Florida State (Mar. 6).

Reynolds Free Throw Streak Snapped

J.R. Reynolds had his streak of 20 consecutive free throws made snapped when he missed his second attempt vs. Clemson (Jan. 7) with 1:30 remaining in the first half.

Reynolds' streak started when he made his last free throw vs. Loyola (Dec. 23). He was a career-best 10-10 against UMBC (Dec. 28) and then made all four attempts from the line against Hartford (Dec. 31). Reynolds also made all four attempts from the charity stripe against Western Kentucky (Jan. 2).

Reynolds' 122 attempts from the free throw line this season are a career high as are his 98 made free throws. He is shooting 80.3 percent from the line this season. Reynolds is shooting 79.7 percent from the free throw line in his career (208-261).

The Opener

UVa's 35-point margin of victory over Liberty (79-44, Nov. 18) marked the largest in a season-opener since the 2000-01 season when the Cavaliers won by 46 points over Long Island (Nov. 17) – 96-50. The 44 points allowed by UVa are the fewest in a season opener since 1991-92 when Virginia posted a 78-43 win over William & Mary (Nov. 24).

Impressive Start

Virginia limited its first two opponents to an average of 43.5 points per game (Liberty 44 points, Richmond 43 points) and 25.7 percent (27-105) shooting from the field. The last time UVa held its first two opponents under 50 points was way back in the 1948-49 season. In 1948-49, the Cavaliers held Lynchburg Independents to 40 points (in a 72-40 win) and Langley Field to 38 points (in a 78-38 win).

On the season, Virginia's opponents are shooting 41.7 percent (570-1,366) from the field and averaging 65.5 points per game.

The Cavaliers have held 11 opponents below 40.0 percent field goal shooting this season, including six of the last 11. After allowing Florida State (Jan. 11) to shoot 60.0 percent (30-50), UVa held Virginia Tech, North Carolina and Miami to a combined 33.9 percent (61-180) shooting from the floor. Duke stopped that streak by shooting 55.3 percent (26-47) from the field against UVa on Jan. 28 and NC State followed with a 50.0 percent (27-54) effort on Feb. 1. Wake Forest became the third consecutive team to shoot 50 percent or better from the floor as it connected on 25-49 attempts for 51.0 percent. The streak of three consecutive opponents shooting 50 percent or better ended when UVa held Maryland to 39.1 percent (25-64) on Feb. 7.

Sophomore guard Sean Singletary was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 19. Singletary scored a career-high 35 points in UVa's 80-69 loss at 10th-ranked Gonzaga (Dec. 17). In addition to the 35 points, Singletary tied his career high with six steals and added six rebounds and four assists.

Singletary, who was a five-time ACC Rookie of the Week last season, is the first UVa player to garner the ACC's Player of the Week award since Elton Brown captured the honor on Dec. 27, 2004.

Singletary is currently fifth in the ACC with 18.0 points per game.

Shaun Brown, the head strength coach of the Toronto Raptors of the National Basketball Association the last two years, was named strength and conditioning coach for the University of Virginia men's basketball program on October 13.

From 1992-97, Brown was the head strength coach for men's basketball at the University of Kentucky. During his time at Kentucky, the men's basketball team won the 1996 NCAA Championship.

"The hiring of Shaun Brown continues to move our program in the right direction and helps us provide the best possible student-athlete experience," said UVa men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao. "Shaun comes to Virginia with credentials that speak for themselves. He has been a part of a national championship program, and has successfully trained athletes at the professional and collegiate levels."

Evan Marcus is Virginia's head strength coach and director of the McCue Center weight room.
