OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia enters tonight's game with a 3-2 overall record. The Cavaliers are coming off a 63-54 loss to Georgia Tech (Dec. 4) in Atlanta in their Atlantic Coast Conference opener.

Fordham stands at 1-6 on the season. In their last outing, the Rams suffered a 71-63 double overtime setback to Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. Fordham finished the 2004-05 season with a 13-16 overall record and an 8-8 mark in the Atlantic 10.

The Series vs. Fordham

Tonight's game is the third meeting between Virginia and Fordham in men's basketball. The Rams lead the series 2-0, but the two schools haven't met on the hardwood in more than 50 years.

The first meeting took place on Feb. 21, 1924 with Fordham winning 37-24 in Charlottesville. The last time the two teams met was on February 4, 1950 with the Rams coming away with a 73-44 home victory.

Virginia vs. the Atlantic 10

This is UVa's second game this season against a team from the Atlantic 10. Virginia registered a 59-43 victory at Richmond (Nov. 22) earlier this season. The Cavaliers are 87-73 (.544) against the 14 schools in the Atlantic 10 conference. Most of the games occurred prior to a school's membership in the A-10.

In all games against the current membership of the A-10, Virginia is 51-36 vs. Richmond, 25-23 vs. George Washington, 3-2 vs. Temple, 2-0 vs. Dayton and Massachusetts, 2-6 vs. St. Joseph's, 1-0 vs. Xavier, 1-1 vs. Rhode Island, 0-2 vs. Fordham and LaSalle, and 0-1 vs. St. Louis. The Cavaliers have never played Charlotte, Duquesne or St. Bonaventure.

There have been 20 schools that have been members of the Atlantic 10 Conference at one time or another since 1976-77. These schools include several current members of the Big East conference. Virginia is 16-3 against these schools at the time they were in the Atlantic 10.

Prior to this season's matchup against Richmond (Nov. 22), Virginia's last game against an Atlantic 10 team was last season's matchup against the Spiders (UVa won 85-58 - Nov. 28). The prior Atlantic 10 team UVa faced was George Washington in the first round of the 2004 National Invitation Tournament. The Cavaliers won 79-66 (Mar. 17) at home in University Hall.

ACC Openers Unkind to Virginia

Virginia lost its 2005-06 Atlantic Coast Conference season opener 63-54 to Georgia Tech (Dec. 4) in Atlanta. The Cavaliers have lost their last 11 ACC openers. UVa is 19-34 all-time in ACC openers and 6-18 in away ACC openers.

Non-Conference Wins at University Hall

Virginia is 219-30 for an impressive .880 winning percentage all-time in University Hall against non-conference opponents. The Cavaliers' 87-65 victory on Jan. 2, 2003 over Wofford marked their 200th win over a non-conference opponent at University Hall since the building opened for the 1965-66 season.

The Cavaliers have won 101 of their last 112 home games (.902 winning percentage) against non-conference opponents dating back to the 1989-90 season. UVa had its 15-game home winning streak against non-conference opponents snapped with a 74-67 loss to South Carolina in the first round of the 2002 National Invitation Tournament (Mar. 13). Virginia's previous home non-conference loss was also in the NIT as the Cavaliers fell to Georgetown 115-111 in triple overtime in the first round of the 2000 NIT (Mar. 15).

UVa had its 34-game home non-conference regular season winning streak snapped with an 84-69 loss to Providence College on Jan. 3, 2004. Virginia's previous regular season home loss to a non-conference opponent was Dec. 12, 1998 when the Cavaliers fell to 12th-ranked St. John's 95-68.

Virginia is currently riding an 11-game non-conference home winning streak.

Cavaliers Open Season Strong

Virginia opened the 2005-06 season with a pair of victories, marking the seventh consecutive year UVa started out the season 2-0. UVa won its season-opener 79-44 over Liberty (Nov. 18) and then registered a 59-43 victory at Richmond (Nov. 22). The Cavaliers had their two-game winning streak snapped with an 81-51 loss to ninth-ranked Arizona Nov. 27.

Head Coach Dave Leitao

Dave Leitao was named the 10th head men's basketball coach at Virginia on April 16, 2005. Leitao was the head coach at DePaul University the last three seasons. His DePaul teams compiled an overall record of 58-34 and competed in a postseason tournament each season. The Blue Demons participated in the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and in the National Invitation Tournament in 2003 and 2005. Leitao also spent two seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northeastern University, and now sports an 83-71 record in six seasons as a head coach.

This is Leitao's first meeting against Fordham as a head coach.

Leitao has coached in 21 games against AP ranked teams and is 5-16. Against top 10 AP teams, Leitao is 0-6. He was 0-4 against ranked teams in two seasons at Northeastern, 5-11 vs. ranked opponents in three years at DePaul, and 0-1 against ranked foes at UVa.

In six season-openers, Leitao is 4-2. In addition to this year's season-opening win, Leitao won all three season openers while at DePaul and lost both openers at Northeastern. Here's a look at the results of Leitao's six season-openers:

1994-95	Northeastern lost at Duke 93-70
1995-96	Northeastern lost at Marist 73-55
2002-03	DePaul won at Northern Illinois 63-48
2003-04	DePaul won at home over Loyola-Chicago 73-61
2004-05	DePaul won at home over Bowling Green 69-59
2005-06	Virginia won at home over Liberty 79-44

Dave Leitao Makes Virginia Debut

A new era of Virginia basketball began on Nov. 18 when Dave Leitao made his Virginia coaching debut. The Cavaliers rolled to a 79-44 victory over Liberty. Leitao became the seventh (of 10) head coach to win his opener at UVa. Here's a look at how the nine other coaches fared in their Cavalier debut:

Henry Lannigan (1905-06)	W	30-9	Charlottesville YMCA (H)
Roy Randall (1929-30)	L	65-32	Duke (H)
Gus Tebell (1930-31)	W	32-15	Staunton Collegians (H)
Evan "Bus" Male (1951-52)	W	56-50	Catholic (H)
Billy McCann (1957-58)	L	73-69	William & Mary (A)
Bill Gibson (1963-64)	L	75-64	Kentucky (A)
Terry Holland (1974-75)	W	77-69	Washington & Lee (H)
Jeff Jones (1990-91)	W	80-77	Siena (N)
Pete Gillen (1998-99)	W	86-70	Va. Commonwealth (N)
Dave Leitao (2005-06)	W	79-44	Liberty (H)

Leitao also earned a win in his second game at Virginia and joined four of the previous nine head basketball coaches at UVa to start out their stay at Virginia with consecutive wins. Jeff Jones (1990-91), Terry Holland (1974-75) and Gus Tebell (1930-31) each started out 2-0, while Henry Lannigan (1905-06) is the only Virginia coach to win more than his first two games. He led UVa to four consecutive victories in the first year of the Cavalier basketball program in 1905-06.

The Opener

UVa's 35-point margin of victory over Liberty (Nov. 18) marked the largest in a season-opener since the 2000-01 season when the Cavaliers won by 46 points over Long Island (Nov. 17) – 96-50. The 44 points allowed by UVa are the fewest in a season opener since 1991-92 when Virginia posted a 78-43 win over William & Mary (Nov. 24).

Cavalier Captains

Junior J.R. Reynolds and sophomore Sean Singletary are co-captains of the 2005-06 Virginia basketball team. Singletary is the first sophomore since Donald Hand in the 1998-99 season to be a team captain.

Cavaliers Improve to 4-2 in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With a 72-57 victory over Northwestern (Nov. 30), Virginia improved to 4-2 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the seventh consecutive year as ACC schools won six of 11 contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 40-24.

UVa Drops ACC Opener to Georgia Tech 63-54

Virginia fell behind Georgia Tech by as many as 18 points and the Cavaliers nearly overcame the deficit before falling 63-54 (Dec. 4) in Atlanta. UVa lost its ACC opener for the 11th consecutive season.

The Cavaliers trailed 29-17 at halftime and the deficit extended to 18 points when Georgia Tech opened the second half with a 6-0 run. The Yellow Jackets led 46-31 with 9:19 to play in the game when UVa went on a run to trim the margin to four points. At the 8:53 mark Mamadi Diane ignited a 13-2 run that brought the Cavaliers within four, 48-44, with 5:13 left. UVa came within four again at the 4:33 mark when Jason Cain made one of two free throws. The Yellow Jackets made all eight of their free throws in the final two minutes to seal the victory.

Cain notched his first career double-double with team and career highs of 15 points and 11 rebounds. Seven of his rebounds were of the offensive variety. Diane added 14 points and seven rebounds, while Sean Singletary had 10 points – all in the second half, five rebounds and three assists.

The Cavaliers had a woeful evening shooting the basketball as they made only 19-69 attempts from the field for 27.5 percent. UVa also missed all 13 of its three-point attempts. Georgia Tech shot 40.0 percent (22-55) from the floor and made only 1-7 three-pointers. Virginia won the rebounding battle 52-41 and registered 28 offensive rebounds in the game, which ties for the second most in school history.

Jeremis Smith led Georgia Tech with 17 points and nine rebounds, while Anthony Morrow added 13 points.

Bannister makes Debut

After missing the first four games of the season, guard T.J. Bannister made his 2005-06 season debut against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). Bannister played two minutes during the first half and made his only field goal attempt.

Last season, Bannister averaged 4.3 points and 3.7 assists per game.

Raising Cain

Jason Cain recorded his first career double-double in UVa's 63-54 loss to Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The junior forward tallied career highs of 15 points and 11 rebounds in the contest. His former career highs of 13 points and nine rebounds came in different games against NC State last season.

Cain is the only current UVa player to have a double-double to his credit (and is also the only Cavalier to have a double-digit rebounding performance). He leads UVa with 34 rebounds (6.8 per game), including 19 offensive rebounds (3.8 per game).

Diane Bounces Back

After making 6-11 field goal attempts and scoring 17 points in his collegiate debut against Liberty (Nov. 18), Mamadi Diane struggled in his next two games. Diane made only 1-7 attempts from the floor vs. both Richmond (Nov. 22) and Arizona (Nov. 27) and scored a total of seven points. Diane bounced back with a career-high 18 points (6-9 field goals) against Northwestern (Nov. 30). He then had 14 points (and seven rebounds) against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4).

On the season, Diane is averaging 11.2 points and 5.8 rebounds per game while starting all five contests.

Who Leads the Cavaliers in Minutes Played?

An educated guess would be that either Sean Singletary or J.R. Reynolds leads UVa in minutes played, however, that would be incorrect. In a very close race, freshman Mamadi Diane leads the team with 162 minutes played (32.4 per game). Singletary is second with 161 minutes (32.2 per game) and Reynolds is third (32.0 per game).

Turnovers

UVa is averaging 17.4 turnovers per game through the first five contests. The Cavaliers have committed 18 or more turnovers in four of five games. Against Northwestern (Nov. 30), UVa had only eight turnovers, including only two miscues in the second half against the Wildcats. In its previous game against Arizona, Virginia committed a season-high 24 turnovers.

No Threes

UVa was 0-13 from three-point range against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The last time Virginia failed to make a three-pointer in a game was Jan. 31, 2004 at Wake Forest.

28 Offensive Rebounds

UVa pulled down 28 offensive rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4) and it ties for the second highest offensive rebounds total in a game in school history. The Cavaliers also had 28 offensive boards against Virginia Tech on Jan. 25, 1989. The school record for offensive rebounds in a game is 30 vs. Towson on Dec. 3, 1994.

Point Guard or Shooting Guard?

Through five games, UVa's point guard leads the team in scoring, while the Cavaliers' shooting guard leads the team in assists.

Point guard Sean Singletary leads UVa with 17.2 points per game and is averaging 3.0 assists per game, while shooting guard J.R. Reynolds leads the team with 21 assists (4.2 per game). Reynolds is second on the squad with 12.4 points per contest.

Singletary has led UVa in scoring twice – 24 points against Arizona and 23 points vs. Northwestern. Reynolds scored 23 points against Richmond to lead the Cavaliers.

Rebounding a Key

One of the keys to success for UVa this season is rebounding and so far Virginia has more than held its own on the glass. The Cavaliers have outrebounded each of their first five opponents and are averaging 11.4 more rebounds per game than the opposition. UVa is averaging 42.6 rebounds per contest.

Double Figures in all Five Games

After scoring in double figures in back-to-back games only once last season, Sean Singletary has scored in double figures in all five games this season and is averaging 17.2 points a game.

Singletary scored in double figures in 13 games last season, but not in back-to-back games until he scored 17 vs. NC State (Mar. 2) and 11 vs. Florida State (Mar. 6).

Dating back to the final game of the 2004-05 season, Singletary has scored in double digits in six consecutive games (he tallied 16 points in the ACC Tournament vs. Duke - Mar. 11).

Impressive Start

Virginia limited its first two opponents to an average of 43.5 points per game (Liberty 44 points, Richmond 43 points) and 25.7 percent (27-105) shooting from the field. The last time UVa held its first two opponents under 50 points was way back in the 1948-49 season. In 1948-49, the Cavaliers held Lynchburg Independents to 40 points (in a 72-40 win) and Langley Field to 38 points (in a 78-38 win).

In its third game, UVa gave up 81 points to then ninth-ranked Arizona (Nov. 27) and the Wildcats also shot 50.8 percent (33-65) from the field. The Cavaliers rebounded nicely from their first setback of the season with a 72-57 win over Northwestern (Nov. 30). UVa held the Wildcats to 57 points and 44.7 percent (21-47) shooting from the field.

UVa gave up 63 points to Georgia Tech, but held the Yellow Jackets to 40.0 percent (22-55) shooting from the field.

On the season, Virginia is limiting its opponents to 37.9 percent (103-272) shooting from the field and 57.6 points per game.

Last Season in University Hall

The 2005-06 campaign is the last season in University Hall for Virginia's men's and women's basketball teams. After calling University Hall home since the 1965-66 season, the Cavaliers will move across the street to their new facility, the John Paul Jones Arena, for the 2006-07 season.

In 41 seasons (including 2005-06), the Cavaliers are 395-140 (.738) all-time at University Hall.

Two Players Join Virginia Squad

University of Virginia men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao announced on Nov. 8 that junior Matt Deasey and freshman Drew Shiembob joined the Virginia team after going through a tryout process.

Deasey is a 6-0 guard from Wynnewood, Pa. He lettered three times in basketball at Episcopal Academy and was the team captain his senior season.

Shiembob is a 6-4 freshman forward from Richmond, Va. He was a four-year starter at St. Christopher's School. He averaged 18.5 points and 6.9 rebounds a game as a senior and earned Virginia League of Independent Schools first-team All-State honors. He finished his career at St. Christopher's as the school's career leader in rebounds (582) and ranked fourth in scoring (1,097 points). Shiembob was the team's captain as a junior and a senior.

UVa Returns Three Starters

The Cavaliers return three starters from last year's team. The returning starters are guards T.J. Bannister, J.R. Reynolds and Sean Singletary.

Sam Warren Leaves Virginia Basketball Team

Virginia men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao announced on Nov. 7 that center Sam Warren had left the team. Warren plans to remain at Virginia through the end of the fall semester.

"Sam is a terrific young man and I wish him well," Leitao said. "I am sorry he won't be with us."

Warren is a 6-10 freshman from Greenwood Village, Colo.

Cavaliers Win Exhibition Game 98-62

Sophomore Sean Singletary and junior guard J.R. Reynolds combined for 47 points as Virginia defeated Concordia University 98-62 on Nov. 11 in an exhibition game at University Hall.

Virginia shot 59 percent (36-61) from the field, including 50 percent (10-20) from three-point range. Freshman Mamadi Diane was one of two freshmen to start for the Cavaliers. Diane finished with 16 points. Sophomore forward Adrian Joseph came off the bench to score 13 points and junior forward Jason Cain added 11 rebounds. Singletary also tallied six assists.

UVa led 47-35 at halftime after shooting 51.4 percent (18-35) from the field in the first half, including 46.2 percent (6-13) from three-point range. The Cavaliers used a 29-16 run to build its largest lead in the first half at 39-23 with 3:20 left in the half.

Virginia stretched its lead to 21 points on a jumper by Cain with 12:10 remaining, 66-45. Concordia chipped away at the deficit and came within, 70-56, with 7:25 remaining, but the Cavaliers closed out the game with a 28-6 run to seal the victory.

Chris Blackwood and Andre Johnny each scored 13 points for Concordia while Patrick Perrotte added 10 points.

UVa Guards Make Game-Winning Plays

Three returning guards for the Cavaliers provided game-winning heroics during the 2004-05 season. Sean Singletary scored Virginia's final four points, including the winning basket with 2.2 seconds to play, in a 64-62 victory at North Carolina State. J.R. Reynolds' driving layup with 1.5 seconds remaining in overtime provided UVa with its margin of victory in a 79-77 win over Loyola Marymount. T.J. Bannister's jumper in the lane with 2.7 seconds left in the second overtime period gave the Cavaliers' an 80-79 win over Western Kentucky.

Singletery and Reynolds Earn ACC All-Freshmen Honors

Virginia has had a player earn All-ACC Freshmen honors each of the last two seasons.

Sean Singletery was named to the All-ACC Freshmen Team in 2005 after earning ACC Rookie of the Week honors five times. He averaged 10.5 points, 3.9 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 29.9 minutes played a game, and was the only UVa player to start all 29 games during the 2004-05 season.

J.R. Reynolds was named to the All-ACC Freshmen Team in 2004. He averaged 9.4 points, 1.7 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 24.7 minutes played a game during the 2003-04 season.

Singletery, Bannister in Last Year's ACC Rankings

Guard Sean Singletery led Virginia in assists (3.9 avg.) and steals (1.66 spg.) in 2004-05, and ranked first among Atlantic Coast Conference freshmen in those two categories. He also ranked second among ACC freshmen in minutes played (29.9 mpg.) and third in scoring (10.5 ppg.). Overall, he ranked sixth in the ACC in assist/turnover ratio (1.61, 113 assists and 70 turnovers), and ninth in assists and steals.

Guard T.J. Bannister ranked fifth in the ACC in assist/turnover ratio (1.71, 108 assists and 63 turnovers) and 10th in assists (3.72 avg.). He had an assist to turnover ratio of 2.18 in ACC games (74 assists and 34 turnovers) that ranked second in the conference.

J.R. Reynolds in the ACC Tournament

Guard J.R. Reynolds has played very well in the first two Atlantic Coast Conference Tournaments of his Virginia career.

In two games in the 2005 ACC Tournament, Reynolds scored 43 points and earned second-team All-Tournament honors. He scored a career-high 32 points and tied his career-high with 39 minutes played in the 66-65 victory over Miami in the opening round of the tournament. His 32 points tied for the third highest point total ever by a Virginia player in an ACC Tournament game. He is Virginia's first All-Tournament selection since Junior Burrough was a first-team pick in 1995.

Reynolds scored 38 points in UVa's two games in the 2004 ACC Tournament. He had a season-high 20 points against Duke in the tournament quarterfinals and 18 against Clemson in the first round.

Virginia Assistants have Head Coaching Experience

Two members of University of Virginia men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao's coaching staff have head coaching experience at the Division I level.

Rob Lanier was the head coach at Siena College the last four years (2001-05). During his four years as Siena's head coach, the Saints participated in one NCAA Tournament and one National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

Siena won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Tournament Championship in 2002 to earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament. The Saints defeated Alcorn State in the NCAA Tournament opening round game before losing to eventual national champion Maryland.
