OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia enters tonight's Atlantic Coast Conference game with an 11-8 overall record and a 5-4 mark in the ACC. The Cavaliers snapped a two-game losing streak with a 75-73 victory over Wake Forest (Feb. 4) at University Hall.

Maryland stands at 14-7 overall and 4-4 in the ACC. The Terrapins have lost their last three games and are coming off a 62-58 loss to 18th-ranked NC State (Feb. 5) in Raleigh, N.C.

The Series vs. Maryland

Maryland leads the series with Virginia 99-64 in a rivalry that dates back to the 1912-13 season. UVa has lost the last four meetings in the series, including both contests last season. In the first meeting of the 2004-05 season, UVa fell 82-68 (Jan. 19) in College Park and the Cavaliers lost 92-89 in double overtime (Feb. 19) in Charlottesville.

The Cavaliers lost both games in the 2003-04 season to Maryland. The Terrapins won 71-67 (Feb. 4) in Charlottesville, snapping UVa's two-game winning streak in the series. Maryland earned a sweep in the season series with a 70-61 win (Mar. 7) in College Park.

UVa snapped a three-game losing streak (and a nine-game slide at Maryland) with an 86-78 victory (Feb. 6) at Comcast Center in the 2002-03 season. Virginia completed the 2002-03 season series sweep with an 80-78 overtime victory (Mar. 9) in Charlottesville. It marked the Cavaliers' first season sweep of Maryland since the 1992-93 campaign.

In the 2001-02 season, the Terrapins won 91-87 (Jan. 31) in Charlottesville in the first meeting and 112-92 (Mar. 3) in the final game at Cole Field House. In 2000-01, UVa split a pair of games with Maryland with each team winning at home. Virginia earned a 99-78 victory (Jan. 31) in the first meeting of 2000-01 in Charlottesville. Maryland gained a split in the season series with a 102-67 victory (Mar. 3) in College Park.

Virginia has lost seven of the last 11 and 17 of the last 24 contests in the series with Maryland since winning five consecutive games between 1992-1994.

This is the 59th consecutive season the Cavaliers and Terrapins have met (every season since 1947-48), Virginia's second-oldest opponent in terms of consecutive seasons met. They have played 125 games in that span. (Virginia's oldest opponent in terms of consecutive seasons played is Virginia Tech—71 straight seasons).

The Terrapins lead 56-20 in games played in College Park during the series. UVa won only 13 of 47 meetings at Cole Field House. In its first appearance at the Comcast Center, UVa registered an 86-78 victory over then eighth-ranked Maryland (Feb. 6, 2003). The victory snapped the Cavaliers' nine-game losing streak at Maryland. The Cavaliers' previous victory in College Park was a 70-68 win on Feb. 4, 1993. Virginia is 1-2 all-time at Comcast Center.

Five of the Cavaliers' last six wins over the Terrapins (1995, 1997, 2000, 2001 and 2003) have occurred at University Hall.

Last Season vs. Maryland

Virginia dropped two games to Maryland last season. UVA fell to the Terrapins 82-68 (Jan. 19) in College Park and 92-89 in double overtime (Feb. 19) in Charlottesville.

In the first meeting, Virginia took a 41-40 halftime lead and extended the advantage to seven points early in the second half, but Maryland responded with an 18-4 run to take the lead for good and went on to an 82-68 victory at Comcast Center.

Elton Brown and Devin Smith both recorded double-doubles in the loss. Brown had 18 points and 10 rebounds for his ninth double-double of the season, while Smith tallied 17 points and 10 boards for his second double-double of the season. J.R. Reynolds added 12 points.

The Terrapins led 32-23 with 7:45 remaining in the first half, but Virginia went on a 12-0 run over the next two minutes to take a 35-32 edge and eventually took a 41-40 halftime lead.

UVA extended its advantage to 49-42 with an 8-2 run in the first 1:44 of the second half. Maryland then went on an 18-4 spurt to grab a 60-53 lead with 12:24 left in the game and eventually built its lead to double figures.

After shooting 44.4 percent (16-36) in the first half, the Cavaliers made only 7-31 attempts from the floor for 22.6 percent in the second half. Maryland shot 48.4 percent (15-31) in the second half while outscoring UVA 42-27. For the game, UVA shot 34.3 percent (23-67) from the field and Maryland made 28-64 attempts for 43.8 percent.

The Cavaliers held a 46-39 edge in rebounds, including an 18-10 margin on the offensive glass. UVA committed 15 turnovers in the game and forced only nine Maryland miscues. The Terps also blocked 11 of UVA's shots.

Nik Caner-Medley led Maryland with 26 points and seven rebounds. John Gilchrist added 13 points and seven assists.

In the second meeting, Virginia made three-point baskets to force overtime and then a second extra session, but UVA's magic ran out in the second overtime and Virginia fell to 22nd-ranked Maryland 92-89 in Charlottesville.

Gary Forbes hit a three-pointer with four seconds left in regulation to tie the game at 69-69 and force overtime. Maryland opened overtime with seven consecutive points and also led 80-73 with 1:57 to play in the first extra session. Back-to-back three-pointers by Sean Singletary and Reynolds brought UVA within 80-79 with 58 seconds left. After a jumper by the Terps' Travis Garrison with 33 seconds to go, Singletary forced a second extra session with a three-pointer with 20 ticks on the clock.

The Terps scored the first four points in the second overtime, but Virginia came back and took an 89-87 lead on a Brown basket with 2:38 to play. Maryland used two free throws and a three-pointer to take a 92-89 lead. Brown's desperation three-pointer with one second left was partially blocked.

UVA took a 49-43 lead with 13:27 to play in regulation, but Maryland used a 19-5 run to grab a 62-54 advantage with 6:29 to go. The Cavaliers quickly cut the Terps' lead down to one, 62-61, with 4:03 to go.

Singletary led Virginia with game-high totals of 23 points and nine assists with the assists setting a career high. Smith tallied 22 points, eight rebounds and three blocked shots, while Forbes had 17 points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots. Head Coach Dave Leitao

Dave Leitao was named the 10th head men's basketball coach at Virginia on April 16, 2005. Leitao was the head coach at DePaul University the last three seasons (2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05). His DePaul teams competed in a postseason tournament each season. The Blue Demons participated in the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and in the National Invitation Tournament in 2003 and 2005. Leitao also spent two seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northeastern University (1994-95 and 1995-96).

School	Record	Years
Northeastern	22-35	'95, '96
DePaul	58-34	'03, '04, '05
Virginia	11-8	'06
6 Seasons	91-77

In six seasons as a head coach he sports a 91-77 record.

This is Leitao's first meeting against Maryland as a head coach.

Leitao has coached in 25 games against AP ranked teams and is 6-19. Against top 10 AP teams, Leitao is 0-8. He was 0-4 against ranked teams in two seasons at Northeastern, 5-11 vs. ranked opponents in three years at DePaul, and 1-4 against ranked foes at UVa.

In six season-openers, Leitao is 4-2. In addition to this year's season-opening win, Leitao won all three season openers while at DePaul and lost both openers at Northeastern. Here's a look at the results of Leitao's six season-openers:

1994-95 Northeastern lost at Duke 93-70
 1995-96 Northeastern lost at Marist 73-55
 2002-03 DePaul won at Northern Illinois 63-48
 2003-04 DePaul won at home over Loyola-Chicago 73-61
 2004-05 DePaul won at home over Bowling Green 69-59
 2005-06 Virginia won at home over Liberty 79-44

Dave Leitao Makes Virginia Debut

A new era of Virginia basketball began on Nov. 18 when Dave Leitao made his Virginia coaching debut. The Cavaliers rolled to a 79-44 victory over Liberty. Leitao became the seventh (of 10) head coach to win his opener at UVa. Here's a look at how the nine other coaches fared in their Cavalier debut:

Henry Lannigan (1905-06)	W	30-9	Charlottesville YMCA (H)
Roy Randall (1929-30)	L	65-32	Duke (H)
Gus Tebell (1930-31)	W	32-15	Staunton Collegians (H)
Evan "Bus" Male (1951-52)	W	56-50	Catholic (H)
Billy McCann (1957-58)	L	73-69	William & Mary (A)
Bill Gibson (1963-64)	L	75-64	Kentucky (A)
Terry Holland (1974-75)	W	77-69	Washington & Lee (H)
Jeff Jones (1990-91)	W	80-77	Siena (N)
Pete Gillen (1998-99)	W	86-70	Va. Commonwealth (N)
Dave Leitao (2005-06)	W	79-44	Liberty (H)

Leitao also earned a win in his second game at Virginia and joined four of the previous nine head basketball coaches at UVa to start out their stay at Virginia with consecutive wins. Jeff Jones (1990-91), Terry Holland (1974-75) and Gus Tebell (1930-31) each started out 2-0, while Henry Lannigan (1905-06) is the only Virginia coach to win more than his first two games. He led UVa to four consecutive victories in the first year of the Cavalier basketball program in 1905-06.

New UVa Coaches in Home ACC Debut

Dave Leitao made his ACC home game coaching debut against Clemson (Jan. 7) – a 64-58 win. He is only the third of seven UVa coaches to win their first home ACC game. Billy McCann was the first UVa coach to win his home ACC debut in the 1957-58 season (a 66-61 win over Wake Forest – Dec. 14). In 1990-91, Jeff Jones was the second UVa coach to win his first home ACC game (an 81-64 win over #8 Duke – Jan. 5).

Closing in on 400

Virginia's win over Wake Forest (Feb. 4) was its 399th win all-time at University Hall. In 41 seasons (including 2005-06), the Cavaliers are 399-142 (.738) all-time at U-Hall.

After calling University Hall home since the 1965-66 season, the Cavaliers will move across the street to their new facility, the John Paul Jones Arena, for the 2006-07 season.

UVa will have its first chance at win 400 when it hosts state and ACC rival Virginia Tech at U-Hall Saturday (Feb. 11) at 8:00 p.m.

Five ACC Wins

After just nine ACC games this season, Virginia surpassed its conference win total of four from 2004-05. UVa was 4-2 after six games this season, marking the first time since the 2001-02 season it was two games over .500 in conference play (also 4-2).

The Cavaliers are currently 5-4 in the ACC and one more win would equal the team's conference win totals in 2002-03 and 2003-04.

U-Hall is Kind to Cavaliers

UVa is 8-2 at home this season, including 4-1 in the ACC, but only 2-6 in away games (1-3 in the ACC).

Defeating the Defending National Champion

UVa's 72-68 win over 2005 NCAA champion North Carolina (Jan. 19) marked the fourth consecutive win for Virginia over a reigning national champion.

In the 2002-03 season, the Cavaliers posted a pair of wins over Maryland (the 2002 NCAA champion) – 86-78 at Maryland (Feb. 6) and 80-78 in OT at home (Mar. 9). UVa began its current streak with an 87-84 home win over Duke (the 2001 NCAA champion) on Feb. 28, 2002.

Virginia is 8-13 all-time against the reigning national champions in 11 different seasons. In addition to four straight wins, UVa has won six of the last nine matchups.

UVa is 1-6 all-time vs. North Carolina in the year following Tar Heel national titles (0-2 in 1958, 0-2 in 1983, 0-2 in 1994, and 1-0 in 2006). In addition to UNC, Virginia is 2-0 vs. Maryland, 3-3 vs. Duke, 2-3 vs. NC State, and 0-1 vs. Cincinnati.

Back to ACC Play

The Cavaliers opened ACC play on Dec. 4 (a 63-54 loss at Georgia Tech) and played their second conference game on Jan. 7 against Clemson (a 64-58 win). The 33 days between ACC games (Georgia Tech and Clemson) is the longest stretch ever between ACC contests for Virginia. The previous longest length of time between ACC games for UVa was 31 days in the 1979-80 season – Dec. 1 (vs. Georgia Tech) to Jan. 2 (vs. Wake Forest).

Virginia also played six non-conference games between league matchups. The six games ties for the second most all-time between ACC contests (1997-98, 1996-97, 1981-82, and 1967-68). In 1979-80, the Cavaliers played eight non-conference contests between their first two ACC games.

The Opener

UVa's 35-point margin of victory over Liberty (Nov. 18) marked the largest in a season-opener since the 2000-01 season when the Cavaliers won by 46 points over Long Island (Nov. 17) – 96-50. The 44 points allowed by UVa are the fewest in a season opener since 1991-92 when Virginia posted a 78-43 win over William & Mary (Nov. 24).

Singletary Named ACC Player of the Week

Sophomore guard Sean Singletary was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 19. Singletary scored a career-high 35 points in UVa's 80-69 loss at 10th-ranked Gonzaga (Dec. 17). In addition to the 35 points, Singletary tied his career high with six steals and added six rebounds and four assists.

Singletary, who was a five-time ACC Rookie of the Week last season, is the first UVa player to garner the ACC's Player of the Week award since Elton Brown captured the honor on Dec. 27, 2004.

Singletary is currently fourth in the ACC with 18.1 points per game.

No Steals

UVa committed only eight turnovers in its 71-51 win over Miami (Jan. 24) and the Hurricanes did not have a steal in the game. It marks the 10th time a Virginia opponent did not have a steal in a game and the first time since Feb. 26, 2003 when Ohio did not record a steal.

Virginia Beats Wake Forest with Last Second Jumper

J.R. Reynolds made a baseline jumper with 4.1 seconds left to break a 73-73 tie and lift Virginia to a 75-73 win over Wake Forest (Feb. 4) at University Hall.

The Cavaliers led 73-69 after Sean Singletary made a jumper with 2:23 left to play. On the next possession, Justin Gray made a three-pointer while being fouled and sank the ensuing free throw to knot the game at 73-73 at the 2:06 mark.

Reynolds missed a three-point attempt with 1:36 to play. After a Wake Forest turnover, Adrian Joseph misfired on a three-pointer with 35 seconds to play, but Mamadi Diane grabbed the offensive rebound. After a UVa timeout, Singletary drove to the basket and found Reynolds along the baseline for the game-winning basket. Gray's desperation three-point attempt at the buzzer was off the mark.

Virginia led by as many as seven points, 19-12, midway through the first half. The Deacs responded with a 12-0 run to grab a 24-19 advantage with 8:48 remaining in the opening half. Wake Forest extended its lead to as many as six points, 34-28, with 4:04 left in the first half, but UVa was able to trim the deficit to three, 38-35, at the intermission.

UVa tied the game five times in the first nine minutes of the second half and took its first lead of the final stanza, 56-55, on a Cain free throw with 10:50 to play. The Cavaliers never trailed again (although the game was tied at 57-57 and 73-73).

Reynolds led all players with his 21 points, while Singletary added 19 points, eight assists and six rebounds. Cain recorded his fifth double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds, while Joseph added 14 points and eight boards. Diane set a career high and tied Cain for game-high honors in rebounds with 10.

Virginia outrebounded Wake, the best rebounding team in the ACC, 47-25 and UVa held a 21-5 advantage on the offensive glass. The Cavaliers shot 42.6 percent (26-61) from the field in the game, while Wake made 25-49 attempts (and 9-18 three-pointers) for 51.0 percent. UVa committed 11 turnovers in the game and the Demon Deacons had only nine.

Gray led Wake Forest with 18 points, while Trent Strickland added 17.

20 Point Win

UVa's 20-point win over Miami (Jan. 24) is its largest margin of victory in an ACC contest since the end of the 2000-01 season. The Cavaliers closed their home ACC season in 2001 with a 19-point victory (84-65) over Clemson (Feb. 28). In the previous game, UVa registered a 20-point win (86-66) over then second-ranked North Carolina (Feb. 25) at home.

54.0 Percent Shooting

Virginia shot a season-high 54.0 percent (27-50) from the field against Miami (Jan. 24). It marked the first time this season UVa has shot over 50 percent in a game (the Cavaliers shot exactly 50 percent against Hartford – 25-50 on Dec. 31).

The last time Virginia eclipsed the 50 percent field goal mark was last season against Virginia Tech (Jan. 27) when it shot 50.9 percent (27-53).

Three-Point Field Goal Leaders

J.R. Reynolds has made 131 three-point field goals in his career and ranks 10th on UVa's all-time three-point field goals list. Reynolds' next three-point field goal will tie him with Richard Morgan (1986-89) for ninth place with 132 career three-pointers. Roger Mason, Jr. (2000-02) is eighth with 137 career threes.

Thief

Sean Singletary is seventh in the ACC in steals with 1.94 per game. Singletary has 35 steals in 18 games this season. He has three or more steals in five games this season.

Swat

Sophomore Tunji Soroye has blocked a career-best 27 shots this season for an average of 1.42 per game. Soroye is currently sixth in the ACC in blocked shots per game. He has blocked two or more shots in nine games, including a season-high four blocks vs. Clemson (Jan. 7).

Singletary Goes for 35

Sean Singletary scored a career-high 35 points in UVa's 80-69 loss at Gonzaga (Dec. 17). The 35 points set a McCarthy Athletic Center record for the most points scored by a Gonzaga opponent. Singletary, who missed UVa's previous game against Fordham (Dec. 7) with a hip injury, made 11-20 attempts from the field (4-9 three-pointers) and 9-14 free throws. He also had a career-high tying six steals, six rebounds and four assists in 39 minutes.

Singletary's 35 points are the most scored in a game by a UVa player since J.R. Reynolds tallied 32 points vs. Miami (Mar. 10) in last year's ACC tournament. The last time a UVa player scored more than 35 points in a game was last season when Devin Smith tallied 40 points against Iowa State (Dec. 6).

Singletary scored just over half of Virginia's points in the game against Gonzaga. The last time one player scored more than half of UVa's points in a game was when Smith scored his 40 points against Iowa State last season (UVa had 79 as a team).

Bannister Returns to Action

After missing six consecutive games, guard T.J. Bannister returned to action for the Cavaliers against Florida State (Jan. 11) and played in five straight games before missing the NC State (Feb. 1) and Wake Forest (Feb. 4) contests.

He entered the FSU game with 11:42 left in the first half and logged 18 minutes. He did not score in the game, but had five assists with just one turnover. Bannister had his most productive game of the season vs. North Carolina with seven points, three rebounds, two assists and a steal in 10 minutes. He also dished out four assists while logging a season-high 23 minutes against Miami (Jan. 24).

Bannister missed the first four games of the season and made his 2005-06 season debut against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). He played two minutes during the first half and made his only field goal attempt. Bannister also played seven minutes against Fordham and had two assists and one rebound before missing the next six games.

Last season, Bannister averaged 4.3 points and 3.7 assists per game.

Ruling the Offensive Glass

Jason Cain registered an amazing 16 offensive rebounds in two games (7 vs. Georgia Tech – Dec. 4 and 9 vs. Fordham – Dec. 7). The 16 offensive rebounds ties Bryant Stith for the most offensive rebounds in back-to-back games in school history. Stith had 16 offensive boards (eight each) against Wake Forest (Mar. 1, 1989) and Maryland (Mar. 5, 1989).

Furthermore, Cain's nine offensive rebounds vs. the Rams was just one shy of the single game school mark which is shared by three players (Stith, Matt Blundin, and Travis Watson). Only one other player – Junior Burrough – has had nine offensive boards in a game (against Old Dominion on Dec. 11, 1993).

On the season, Cain has 68 offensive rebounds for an average of 3.58 per game (first in the ACC) and 44.7 percent (68 of 152) of his rebounds are of the offensive variety.

Really Raising Cain

Jason Cain recorded back-to-back double-doubles twice this season. He has five double-doubles this season and has led Virginia in rebounding in 12 of the last 16 games.

Cain had his first career double-double in UVa's 63-54 loss to Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The junior forward tallied then career highs of 15 points and 11 rebounds. Against Fordham (Dec. 7), Cain posted career bests with 16 points and 15 rebounds. Against Loyola (Dec. 23), he recorded 15 points and 16 rebounds with the 16 boards setting yet another career high. Against UMBC (Dec. 28), Cain tied his career high with 16 points and added 12 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season. His fifth double-double came against Wake Forest (Feb. 4) when he tallied 13 points and 10 rebounds.

His former career highs of 13 points and nine rebounds came in different games against NC State last season.

Cain also blocked a career-best five shots vs. North Carolina (Jan. 19) and now has a career-high 18 blocked shots this season. His former career high for blocked shots was three vs. UMBC (Dec. 28) earlier this season.

Cain is the only current UVa player to have a double-double to his credit (and is also one of only two Cavaliers to have a double-digit rebounding performance – six this season). He leads UVa with 152 rebounds (8.0 per game – fifth in the ACC), including 68 offensive rebounds (3.58 per game). Cain is fourth on the team in scoring with 8.5 points per game.

Increase in Assists

Sean Singletary averaged only 3.17 assists (19 assists) in his first six games this season. In nine of the last 12 games, Singletary has handed out six or more assists for an average of 6.0 per game (72 assists).

Singletary is currently second in the ACC with 5.06 assists per game. He is averaging 5.44 assists per ACC contest which leads all ACC players.

Field Goal Percentage Leader

Freshman Laurynas Mikalauskas leads the Cavaliers in field goal percentage. He has made 48-81 attempts from the field for 59.3 percent accuracy. Over the last 10 games, Mikalauskas has made 29-46 attempts (63.0 percent) from the floor.

Mikalauskas turned in several outstanding performances as of late. Against North Carolina (Jan. 19), he posted a 10-point, five-rebound performance. It marked the first time he scored in double figures in an ACC game. Against Miami (Jan. 24), Mikalauskas tallied 12 points and eight rebounds. The 12 points are his ACC high, while the eight boards equal his conference best (he had eight rebounds in his ACC debut against Georgia Tech – Dec. 4). Versus NC State (Feb. 1), Mikalauskas notched 10 points and four rebounds.

Home is Sweet for Diane

Freshman Mamadi Diane has played well at home this season while struggling on the road. Here's a breakdown of Diane's statistics at home vs. on the road.

*UVa's game against UMBC (Dec. 28) is included as an away game. Diane had 16 points (6-11 field goals), three rebounds, three steals, one assist and one blocked shot with no turnovers.

Ditto for Joseph

Adrian Joseph is averaging 13.3 points per game at home (10 games), but is averaging only 7.2 points per game away from U-Hall (nine games). Joseph is shooting 43.4 percent (46-106) from the field and 41.4 percent (24-58) from three-point range at home. Away from U-Hall, Joseph is shooting only 39.7 percent (25-63) from the field and 25.0 percent (8-32) from three-point territory.

Overall, Joseph is averaging 10.4 points per game while shooting 42.0 percent (71-169) from the field and 35.6 percent (32-90) from beyond the arc.

Double Figures in Rebounds

Mamadi Diane pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds against Wake Forest (Feb. 4). His previous career high was seven rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). Diane became just the second Cavalier to reach double figures in rebounds in a game this season. Jason Cain has six double figure rebounding performances to his credit.

32 or 96

Sean Singletary, J.R. Reynolds and Adrian Joseph have combined to make 96 three-point field goals this season. Interestingly, all three have drained 32 three-pointers this season.

Joseph only made 14 three-pointers all of last season. Singletary is just two three-pointers shy of his single season high of 34. Reynolds' all-time best in terms of three-pointers made is 51 last season.

Reynolds Breaks Out

After making only four three-point field goals (on 28 attempts) in the first seven games of the season, J.R. Reynolds drained a career-high tying five three-pointers against Loyola (Dec. 23) on seven attempts.

Including the Loyola game, Reynolds has made 28-67 (41.8 percent) three-point attempts in the last 12 games. Reynolds is now 32-95 (33.7 percent) from beyond the three-point line this season.

Reynolds snapped an 0-11 slump that spanned four games when he made his first three against Loyola with 12:53 left in the first half. His 5-7 effort from long range against Loyola also snapped a 1-20 slump over the previous five games.

In the last 12 games, Reynolds is averaging 17.6 points per game (211 points). He has scored in double figures in a career-best 13 consecutive games.

Turnovers

UVa is averaging 14.2 turnovers per game this season. The Cavaliers committed 18 or more turnovers in four of their first five games. In the last 14 games, UVa has cut its turnovers down to 13.1 per game (183 turnovers). The most miscues UVa has made in its last 14 games is 21 vs. Virginia Tech (Jan. 15). UVa also had 19 turnovers vs. Duke (Jan. 28). In that same 14-game span, the Cavaliers have seven games in which they had 11 or fewer turnovers, including a season-low tying eight turnovers vs. Miami (Jan. 24) and NC State (Feb. 1).

The Cavaliers have averaged 12.6 turnovers per game at home and 16.0 miscues away from University Hall.

Against Northwestern (Nov. 30), UVa had only eight turnovers, including just two miscues in the second half against the Wildcats. In its previous game against Arizona, Virginia committed a season-high 24 turnovers.

No Threes

UVa was 0-13 from three-point range against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The last time Virginia failed to make a three-pointer in a game was Jan. 31, 2004 at Wake Forest.

28 Offensive Rebounds

UVa pulled down 28 offensive rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4) and it ties for the second highest offensive rebounds total in a game in school history. The Cavaliers also had 28 offensive boards against Virginia Tech on Jan. 25, 1989. The school record for offensive rebounds in a game is 30 vs. Towson on Dec. 3, 1994.

Virginia gave up 28 offensive rebounds to Hartford (Dec. 31). The 28 offensive boards by the Hawks is the fourth highest total by a UVa opponent ever.

Guards Lead the Way

Starting guards Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds are pacing the Cavaliers this season. The two guards have combined to lead UVa in scoring in 15 of 19 games.

Singletary leads UVa with 18.1 points per game and is averaging 5.1 assists per game (91 assists). Reynolds is second on the squad with 15.3 points per contest and has tallied 60 assists (3.2 per game).

Singletary has led UVa in scoring eight times – 24 points against Arizona, 23 points vs. Northwestern, 35 points vs. Gonzaga, 22 points vs. Hartford, 27 points vs. Florida State, 16 points vs. Virginia Tech (tied with Reynolds), 18 points vs. North Carolina, and 29 points vs. Miami.

Reynolds has also led the Cavaliers in scoring eight times – 23 points against Richmond, 25 points vs. Loyola (Md.), 20 points vs. UMBC, 26 points vs. Western Kentucky, 16 points vs. Virginia Tech (tied with Singletary), 19 points vs. Duke, 16 points vs. NC State, and 21 points vs. Wake Forest.

Rebounding a Key

One of the keys to success for UVa this season is rebounding and so far Virginia has more than held its own on the glass. The Cavaliers have outrebounded 15 of their first 19 opponents and are averaging 6.8 more rebounds per game than the opposition. UVa is averaging 38.1 rebounds overall and 13.9 offensive boards per contest.

The Cavaliers have outrebounded eight of their opponents by 10 or more rebounds. In nine ACC games, Virginia has outrebounded the opposition 338-279 for an average of +6.6 per game.

Virginia outrebounded Wake Forest (Feb. 4) by 22 rebounds (47-25 – their largest margin of the season) and the Demon Deacons entered the game as the leading rebounding team in the ACC.

Free Throw Accuracy

UVa is shooting an impressive 74.5 percent (289-388) from the free throw line this season which ranks second in the ACC (UVa is shooting 74.7 percent – 136-182 – in ACC play). Sean Singletary is tied for eighth among all ACC players in free throw shooting at 81.2 percent (82-101). J.R. Reynolds is just outside the top 10 in free throw shooting in the conference at 78.6 percent (77-98).

Several other Cavaliers are shooting extremely well from the free throw line, but don't qualify to be listed among the ACC's leaders because they haven't made enough free throws (2.5 made per game is the requirement to be ranked).

– Mamadi Diane is shooting 86.7 percent (26-30) from the line
– Adrian Joseph is shooting 77.4 percent (24-31) from the line
– Tunji Soroye is shooting 73.3 percent (11-15) from the line

Double Figures in Last 10 Games

Sean Singletary has set a new career high by scoring in double figures in the last 10 games. His current streak began with a 22-point performance against Hartford (Dec. 31) and in his last outing, Singletary tallied 19 points against Wake Forest (Feb. 4).

During his current scoring streak, Singletary is averaging 19.4 points per game (194 points).

After scoring in double figures in back-to-back games only once last season, Singletary scored in double digits in the first six games he played in this season before having his streak stopped when he scored only four points against Loyola (Md.). Singletary, who is averaging 18.1 points a game, scored only seven points against UMBC (Dec. 28).

In addition to scoring in double figures the last 10 games, he has reached double digits in 16 of the 18 games he has played this season.

Singletary scored in double figures in 13 games last season, but not in back-to-back games until he scored 17 vs. NC State (Mar. 2) and 11 vs. Florida State (Mar. 6).

Reynolds Free Throw Streak Snapped

J.R. Reynolds had his streak of 20 consecutive free throws made snapped when he missed his second attempt vs. Clemson (Jan. 7) with 1:30 remaining in the first half.

Reynolds' streak started when he made his last free throw vs. Loyola (Dec. 23). He was a career-best 10-10 against UMBC (Dec. 28) and then made all four attempts from the line against Hartford (Dec. 31). Reynolds also made all four attempts from the charity stripe against Western Kentucky (Jan. 2).

Reynolds' 98 attempts from the free throw line this season are a career high as are his 77 made free throws. He is shooting 78.6 percent from the line this season. Reynolds is shooting 78.9 percent from the free throw line in his career (187-237).

Impressive Start

Virginia limited its first two opponents to an average of 43.5 points per game (Liberty 44 points, Richmond 43 points) and 25.7 percent (27-105) shooting from the field. The last time UVA held its first two opponents under 50 points was way back in the 1948-49 season. In 1948-49, the Cavaliers held Lynchburg Independents to 40 points (in a 72-40 win) and Langley Field to 38 points (in a 78-38 win).

On the season, Virginia's opponents are shooting 41.8 percent (448-1,071) from the field and averaging 64.7 points per game.

The Cavaliers have held eight opponents below 40.0 percent field goal shooting this season, including three of the last six. After allowing Florida State to shoot 60.0 percent (30-50), UVA held Virginia Tech, North Carolina and Miami to a combined 33.9 percent (61-180) shooting from the floor. Duke stopped that streak by shooting 55.3 percent (26-47) from the field against UVA on Jan. 28 and NC State followed with a 50.0 percent (27-54) effort on Feb. 1. Wake Forest became the third consecutive team to shoot 50 percent or better from the floor as it connected on 25-49 attempts for 51.0 percent.

Cavaliers Open Season Strong

Virginia opened the 2005-06 season with a pair of victories, marking the seventh consecutive year UVA started out the season 2-0. UVA won its season-opener 79-44 over Liberty (Nov. 18) and then registered a 59-43 victory at Richmond (Nov. 22). The Cavaliers had their two-game winning streak snapped with an 81-51 loss at ninth-ranked Arizona Nov. 27.

Cavaliers Improve to 4-2 in ACC/Big Ten Challenge

With a 72-57 victory over Northwestern (Nov. 30), Virginia improved to 4-2 in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge. The Cavaliers also helped the ACC win the series for the seventh consecutive year as ACC schools won six of 11 contests. The ACC's cumulative record in the Challenge is 40-24.

Virginia Signs Three Players

Head basketball coach Dave Leitao announced the signing of three individuals to letters of intent with Virginia during the November signing period.

The three players are 6-6 forward Will Harris from Corona, N.Y.; 6-8 forward Johnnie Lett of Mobile, Ala.; and 6-9 forward Jamil Tucker of Gary, Ind.

Minter No Longer on Team

Head coach Dave Leitao announced on Dec. 22 that Donte Minter is no longer on the team for personal reasons.

"Donte is a fine young man and I wish him well," Leitao said.

Minter, a 6-8 junior forward/center from Salisbury, N.C., did not play in a game for the Cavaliers this season.

Minter lettered for Virginia the last two seasons. He played in all 31 games for the Cavaliers and started three as a freshman during the 2003-04 season. He averaged 5.6 points and 2.6 rebounds a game that season, while shooting 56.0 percent (70-125) from the field and 71.7 percent (33-46) from the free throw line.

Minter was hampered by injuries in 2004-05. He played in 18 games that season, scoring 23 points and grabbing nine rebounds.

Shiembob Shines

Walk-on freshman forward Drew Shiembob made outstanding contributions in UVA's wins over UMBC (Dec. 28) and Hartford (Dec. 31).

In seven minutes vs. UMBC, Shiembob had a career-high four points while making both attempts from the field. Against Hartford, Shiembob equalled his career best with four points (2-3 shooting from the field) and also tallied a career-high two rebounds (both offensive). He also had an assist and a steal while playing a career-high 16 minutes.

Shiembob has played in eight games this season.

Two Players Join Virginia Squad

University of Virginia men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao announced on Nov. 8 that junior Matt Deasey and freshman Drew Shiembob joined the Virginia team after going through a tryout process.

Deasey is a 6-0 guard from Wynnewood, Pa. He lettered three times in basketball at Episcopal Academy and was the team captain his senior season.

Shiembob is a 6-4 freshman forward from Richmond, Va. He was a four-year starter at St. Christopher's School. He averaged 18.5 points and 6.9 rebounds a game as a senior and earned Virginia League of Independent Schools first-team All-State honors. He finished his career at St. Christopher's as the school's career leader in rebounds (582) and ranked fourth in scoring (1,097 points). Shiembob was the team's captain as a junior and a senior.

UVa Guards Make Game-Winning Plays

Three returning guards for the Cavaliers provided game-winning heroics during the 2004-05 season. Sean Singletary scored Virginia's final four points, including the winning basket with 2.2 seconds to play, in a 64-62 victory at North Carolina State. J.R. Reynolds' driving layup with 1.5 seconds remaining in overtime provided UVa with its margin of victory in a 79-77 win over Loyola Marymount. T.J. Bannister's jumper in the lane with 2.7 seconds left in the second overtime period gave the Cavaliers' an 80-79 win over Western Kentucky.

Singletary and Reynolds Earn ACC All-Freshmen Honors

Virginia has had a player earn All-ACC Freshmen honors each of the last two seasons.

Sean Singletary was named to the All-ACC Freshmen Team in 2005 after earning ACC Rookie of the Week honors five times. He averaged 10.5 points, 3.9 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 29.9 minutes played a game, and was the only UVa player to start all 29 games during the 2004-05 season.

J.R. Reynolds was named to the All-ACC Freshmen Team in 2004. He averaged 9.4 points, 1.7 rebounds, 2.0 assists and 24.7 minutes played a game during the 2003-04 season.

Virginia Assistants have Head Coaching Experience

Two members of University of Virginia men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao's coaching staff have head coaching experience at the Division I level.

Rob Lanier was the head coach at Siena College the last four years (2001-05). During his four years as Siena's head coach, the Saints participated in one NCAA Tournament and one National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

Siena won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Tournament Championship in 2002 to earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament. The Saints defeated Alcorn State in the NCAA Tournament opening round game before losing to eventual national champion Maryland.

During the 2002-03 season, Lanier led Siena to a 21-11 record and a third-place finish in the MAAC with a 12-6 record. The Saints earned a berth in the NIT where they defeated Villanova and Western Michigan before losing to Alabama-Birmingham.

Steve Seymour was the head coach at Drexel University for two years (1999-2001). Drexel compiled a 21-15 record in the America East Conference during his two years as head coach. He later served as an assistant coach at Siena during Rob Lanier's first three years as head coach of the Saints.

Brown Named Strength and Conditioning Coach

Shaun Brown, the head strength coach of the Toronto Raptors of the National Basketball Association the last two years, was named strength and conditioning coach for the University of Virginia men's basketball program on October 13.

Brown has 17 years of experience at the professional and collegiate levels. Before joining the staff of the Toronto Raptors, he was the head strength coach for the Boston Celtics from 1997-2003.

From 1992-97, Brown was the head strength coach for men's basketball at the University of Kentucky. During his time at Kentucky, the men's basketball team won the 1996 NCAA Championship.

"The hiring of Shaun Brown continues to move our program in the right direction and helps us provide the best possible student-athlete experience," said UVa men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao. "Shaun comes to Virginia with credentials that speak for themselves. He has been a part of a national championship program, and has successfully trained athletes at the professional and collegiate levels."

Evan Marcus is Virginia's head strength coach and director of the McCue Center weight room. Ed Nordenschild (head strength coach for Olympic sports), and assistant coaches Bill Miller, Shad Pospahala and Lorenzo Rivers assist Marcus. Nordenschild will continue his work with the UVa women's basketball team.

"The strength training unit is critical to our success and has done a tremendous job in support of the athletics department's 10-year goals," said Virginia Executive Associate Athletics Director Jon Oliver. "Shaun Brown is an important addition in this area. His credentials are reflective of the type of professionals we have in the strength training unit."

Brown served as the head strength coach at Providence College from November of 1989 until April of 1992. Prior to that he was an assistant strength coach at Rutgers University from August of 1989 until he accepted the position at Providence.

A native of Hornell, N.Y., Brown earned a bachelor's degree from Canisius College in 1987 and a master's degree from Ohio State University in 1988. He served as a graduate assistant strength coach at Ohio State and as strength and conditioning coach at Dublin High School in Dublin, Ohio, from August of 1988 to August of 1989.

John Paul Jones Arena On Its Way

On May 30, 2003 ground was broken on the University of Virginia's new special events center, the John Paul Jones Arena. Scheduled for completion in the summer of 2006, the arena will replace University Hall. The new 15,000-seat arena will feature training and weight rooms, men's and women's basketball locker rooms, coaches' offices, and one-and-a-half practice courts per program so the men's and women's basketball teams can practice simultaneously, and when the arena is being used for other purposes.
