OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia enters today's final game in University Hall with a 14-12 overall record and a 7-8 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The Cavaliers have lost their last two games and are coming off a 99-54 loss to 13th-ranked North Carolina (Mar. 1) in Chapel Hill.

Maryland stands at 17-11 overall and 7-8 in the ACC. The Terrapins snapped a two-game losing streak with a 65-61 victory over Miami (Mar. 1) in College Park, Md.

The Series vs. Maryland

Maryland leads the series with Virginia 100-64 in a rivalry that dates back to the 1912-13 season. UVA has lost the last five meetings in the series (and eight of the last 10), including the first matchup this season – 76-65 (Feb. 7) in College Park. Virginia also lost both contests last season. In the first meeting of the 2004-05 season, UVA fell 82-68 (Jan. 19) in College Park and the Cavaliers lost 92-89 in double overtime (Feb. 19) in Charlottesville.

The Cavaliers lost both games in the 2003-04 season to Maryland. The Terrapins won 71-67 (Feb. 4) in Charlottesville, snapping UVA's two-game winning streak in the series. Maryland earned a sweep in the season series with a 70-61 win (Mar. 7) in College Park.

UVA snapped a three-game losing streak (and a nine-game slide at Maryland) with an 86-78 victory (Feb. 6) at Comcast Center in the 2002-03 season. Virginia completed the 2002-03 season series sweep with an 80-78 overtime victory (Mar. 9) in Charlottesville. It marked the Cavaliers' first season sweep of Maryland since the 1992-93 campaign.

In the 2001-02 season, the Terrapins won 91-87 (Jan. 31) in Charlottesville in the first meeting and 112-92 (Mar. 3) in the final game at Cole Field House. In 2000-01, UVA split a pair of games with Maryland with each team winning at home. Virginia earned a 99-78 victory (Jan. 31) in the first meeting of 2000-01 in Charlottesville. Maryland gained a split in the season series with a 102-67 victory (Mar. 3) in College Park.

Virginia has lost eight of the last 12 and 18 of the last 25 contests in the series with Maryland since winning five consecutive games between 1992-1994.

This is the 59th consecutive season the Cavaliers and Terrapins have met (every season since 1947-48), Virginia's second-oldest opponent in terms of consecutive seasons met. They have played 126 games in that span. (Virginia's oldest opponent in terms of consecutive seasons played is Virginia Tech—71 straight seasons).

UVA has won eight of the last 14 games between the two teams at University Hall and 12 of the last 20. Virginia is 40-38 all-time on its home court against Maryland, including a 23-17 record at University Hall.

Five of the Cavaliers' last six wins over the Terrapins (1995, 1997, 2000, 2001 and 2003) have occurred at University Hall.

Earlier This Season vs. Maryland

The Cavaliers got off to a great start and led by as many as 14 points, but got into second half foul trouble and fell to Maryland 76-65 (Feb. 7) at Comcast Center.

Virginia jumped out to a 13-0 lead and also led 20-6 in the early minutes of the game. Maryland cut UVA's lead down to three on two occasions, including 30-27 with 2:09 remaining in the first half. The Cavaliers closed out the half with an 8-3 run to build their lead to eight, 38-30.

Maryland trimmed UVA's lead to five, 43-38, with 15:06 to play, but the Cavaliers built the advantage back to nine (51-42) on Reynolds' three-pointer with 10:36 to go.

Virginia's fortunes started to fade right after Reynolds made the three as he was whistled for his fourth personal foul. The Terps scored 11 consecutive points to take their first lead of the game, 53-51, with 7:38 to play. Sean Singletary, who played the final 8:19 with four fouls, gave UVA its last lead of the game, 58-56, with a three-pointer at the 5:23 mark. Singletary's two free throws with 3:09 left knotted the game at 60-60, but Maryland scored the next 11 points to pull out the victory.

Reynolds and Singletary led UVA with 18 points apiece.

Jason Cain notched his sixth double-double with 11 points and 13 rebounds.

The Cavaliers shot only 34.4 percent (21-61) from the field in the game, but made 14-16 free throws (87.5 percent). ## Final Game In University Hall

Today's game against Maryland marks Virginia's final regular season game at University Hall.

Dave Leitao was named the 10th head men's basketball coach at Virginia on April 16, 2005. Leitao was the head coach at DePaul University the last three seasons (2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05). His DePaul teams competed in a postseason tournament each season. The Blue Demons participated in the NCAA Tournament in 2004 and in the National Invitation Tournament in 2003 and 2005. Leitao also spent two seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northeastern University (1994-95 and 1995-96).

School	Record	Years
Northeastern	22-35	'95, '96
DePaul	58-34	'03, '04, '05
Virginia	14-12	'06
6 Seasons	94-81

In six seasons as a head coach he sports a 94-81 record.

Leitao is 0-1 all-time vs. Maryland as a head coach.

Leitao has coached in 27 games against AP ranked teams and is 7-20. Against top 10 AP teams, Leitao is 0-8. He was 0-4 against ranked teams in two seasons at Northeastern, 5-11 vs. ranked opponents in three years at DePaul, and 2-4 against ranked foes at UVa. Virginia's 72-58 win over 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21) marked the highest ranked opponent a Leitao coached team has defeated. The previous highest ranked opponent Leitao beat was 13th-ranked Cincinnati – 68-65 (Mar. 4, 2004) while he was the head coach at DePaul.

In six season-openers, Leitao is 4-2. In addition to this year's season-opening win, Leitao won all three season openers while at DePaul and lost both openers at Northeastern. Here's a look at the results of Leitao's six season-openers:

In 1990-91, Jeff Jones was the second UVa coach to win his first home ACC game (an 81-64 win over #8 Duke – Jan. 5).

Cavalier Captains

Junior J.R. Reynolds and sophomore Sean Singletary are co-captains of the 2005-06 Virginia basketball team. Singletary is the first sophomore since Donald Hand in the 1998-99 season to be a team captain.

Virginia Drops 99-54 Decision to North Carolina

North Carolina jumped out to an early lead and raced to a 99-54 win over Virginia (Mar. 1) in Chapel Hill, N.C. The 13th-ranked Tar Heels shot 59.3 percent (35-59) from the field and made 11 of 20 (55.0 percent) three-point field goal attempts.

The 45-point loss marked the largest margin of defeat for the Cavaliers in the series vs. North Carolina. UVa's previous largest margin of defeat to the Tar Heels was 44 points in a 108-64 loss on Feb. 6, 1968 in Chapel Hill.

J.R. Reynolds led UVa with 19 points and scored the 1,000th point of his career on a jumper with 17:50 left in the game. Sean Singletary was the only other Cavalier to reach double figures with 14 points.

The Cavaliers led twice early in the contest and took their final lead, 7-5, on a Jason Cain field goal with 17:33 remaining in the first half. North Carolina then embarked on an 18-2 run to take the lead for good, 23-9, with 12:57 left in the first half. The Tar Heels led by as many as 28 points during the opening half and took a 49-24 lead at halftime.

Virginia never got closer than 21 points in the second half as UNC shot a sizzling 64.3 percent (18-28) from the field in the final stanza.

UVa shot only 32.4 percent (22-68) from the field for the game and connected on just 4-24 three-point field goal attempts (16.7 percent). North Carolina held a 45-28 edge in rebounds and made 18-25 (72.0 percent) of its free throw attempts. Virginia was 6-8 (75.0 percent) from the charity stripe. The Cavaliers committed only 12 turnovers in the game, while UNC had 10 miscues.

David Noel led North Carolina with 26 points, while Reyshawn Terry added 17 points and seven rebounds.

Seven ACC Wins

After just nine ACC games this season, Virginia surpassed its conference win total of four from 2004-05. UVa was 4-2 after six games this season, marking the first time since the 2001-02 season it was two games over .500 in conference play (also 4-2).

The Cavaliers are currently 7-8 in the ACC and it is UVa's most ACC wins since 2001-02 when the team went 7-9 in conference action. UVa has not won more than seven ACC games since the 2000-01 season when it went 9-7. Virginia was also 9-7 in 1999-00.

Defeating the Defending National Champion

UVa's 72-68 win over 2005 NCAA champion North Carolina (Jan. 19) marked the fourth consecutive win for Virginia over a reigning national champion. The Cavaliers had their winning streak over the defending national champion snapped with a 99-54 loss to North Carolina (Mar. 1).

In the 2002-03 season, the Cavaliers posted a pair of wins over Maryland (the 2002 NCAA champion) – 86-78 at Maryland (Feb. 6) and 80-78 in OT at home (Mar. 9). UVa began its four-game streak with an 87-84 home win over Duke (the 2001 NCAA champion) on Feb. 28, 2002.

Virginia is 8-14 all-time against the reigning national champions in 11 different seasons. UVa has won six of the last 10 matchups.

UVa is 1-7 all-time vs. North Carolina in the year following Tar Heel national titles (0-2 in 1958, 0-2 in 1983, 0-2 in 1994, and 1-1 in 2006). In addition to UNC, Virginia is 2-0 vs. Maryland, 3-3 vs. Duke, 2-3 vs. NC State, and 0-1 vs. Cincinnati.

Back to ACC Play

The Cavaliers opened ACC play on Dec. 4 (a 63-54 loss at Georgia Tech) and played their second conference game on Jan. 7 against Clemson (a 64-58 win). The 33 days between ACC games (Georgia Tech and Clemson) is the longest stretch ever between ACC contests for Virginia. The previous longest length of time between ACC games for UVa was 31 days in the 1979-80 season – Dec. 1 (vs. Georgia Tech) to Jan. 2 (vs. Wake Forest).

Virginia also played six non-conference games between league matchups. The six games ties for the second most all-time between ACC contests (1997-98, 1996-97, 1981-82, and 1967-68). In 1979-80, the Cavaliers played eight non-conference contests between their first two ACC games.

No Steals

UVa committed only eight turnovers in its 71-51 win over Miami (Jan. 24) and the Hurricanes did not have a steal in the game. It marks the 10th time a Virginia opponent did not have a steal in a game and the first time since Feb. 26, 2003 when Ohio did not record a steal.

20 Point Win

UVa's 20-point win over Miami (Jan. 24) is its largest margin of victory in an ACC contest since the end of the 2000-01 season. The Cavaliers closed their home ACC season in 2001 with a 19-point victory (84-65) over Clemson (Feb. 28). In the previous game, UVa registered a 20-point win (86-66) over then second-ranked North Carolina (Feb. 25) at home.

54.0 Percent Shooting

Virginia shot a season-high 54.0 percent (27-50) from the field against Miami (Jan. 24). It marked the first time this season UVa shot over 50 percent in a game (the Cavaliers shot exactly 50 percent against Hartford – 25-50 on Dec. 31). Virginia also connected on 52.1 percent (25-48) of its attempts from the field against Boston College (Feb. 21).

1,000 Points

J.R. Reynolds is the 40th Cavalier to score 1,000 career points. Reynolds reached the milestone with 17:50 to play against North Carolina (Mar. 1) when he connected on a jumper for points 1,000 and 1,001 of his career. He finished the game with 19 points and 1,010 in his career.

The previous UVa player to score his 1,000th career point was Devin Smith, who reached the milestone last season.

Three-Point Field Goal Leaders

J.R. Reynolds has made 151 three-point field goals in his career and is in seventh place on UVa's all-time three-point field goals list. Reynolds needs five more three-point field goals to tie Donald Hand (1998-01) and Todd Billett (2003-04) for fifth place with 156 career threes.

Thief

Sean Singletary is sixth in the ACC in steals with 1.84 per game. Singletary has 46 steals in 25 games this season. He has three or more steals in six games this season.

Singletary needs two more steals to equal his freshman season total.

Swat

Sophomore Tunji Soroye has blocked a career-best 35 shots this season for an average of 1.35 per game. Soroye is currently eighth in the ACC in blocked shots per game. He has blocked two or more shots in 11 games, including a season-high four blocks vs. Clemson (Jan. 7) and Longwood (Feb. 15).

Singletary Goes for 35

Sean Singletary scored a career-high 35 points in UVa's 80-69 loss at Gonzaga (Dec. 17). The 35 points set a McCarthy Athletic Center record for the most points scored by a Gonzaga opponent. Singletary, who missed UVa's previous game against Fordham (Dec. 7) with a hip injury, made 11-20 attempts from the field (4-9 three-pointers) and 9-14 free throws. He also had a career-high tying six steals, six rebounds and four assists in 39 minutes.

Singletary's 35 points are the most scored in a game by a UVa player since J.R. Reynolds tallied 32 points vs. Miami (Mar. 10) in last year's ACC tournament. The last time a UVa player scored more than 35 points in a game was last season when Devin Smith tallied 40 points against Iowa State (Dec. 6).

Singletary scored just over half of Virginia's points in the game against Gonzaga. The last time one player scored more than half of UVa's points in a game was when Smith scored his 40 points against Iowa State last season (UVa had 79 as a team).

ACC Legend

Former Cavalier great Curtis Staples (1995-98) has been selected as Virginia's ACC Legend and will be honored at this year's ACC Men's Basketball Tournament in Greensboro. Staples will be honored at the annual ACC Basketball Legends Brunch which will be held on Saturday, March 11 beginning at 10 a.m.

Staples held the all-time three-point field goals made mark in ACC and NCAA history until Feb. 14 when Duke's J.J. Redick broke his records. Staples made a total of 413 three-pointers during his four-year career at Virginia. A third-team All-ACC selection in 1998, he started 97 of 122 total games during his college career.

As a senior, he led the nation in three-point field goals per game and averaged 18.1 points per game. He led the ACC in three-point field goals per game all four seasons of his career, becoming only the third player in ACC history to lead the conference in a statistical category for four consecutive years.

No Threes

UVa was 0-13 from three-point range against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The last time Virginia failed to make a three-pointer in a game was Jan. 31, 2004 at Wake Forest.

Ruling the Offensive Glass

Jason Cain registered an amazing 16 offensive rebounds in two games (7 vs. Georgia Tech – Dec. 4 and 9 vs. Fordham – Dec. 7). The 16 offensive rebounds ties Bryant Stith for the most offensive rebounds in back-to-back games in school history. Stith had 16 offensive boards (eight each) against Wake Forest (Mar. 1, 1989) and Maryland (Mar. 5, 1989).

Furthermore, Cain's nine offensive rebounds vs. the Rams was just one shy of the single game school mark which is shared by three players (Stith, Matt Blundin, and Travis Watson). Only one other player – Junior Burrough – has had nine offensive boards in a game (against Old Dominion on Dec. 11, 1993).

On the season, Cain has 80 offensive rebounds for an average of 3.08 per game (fourth in the ACC) and 40.4 percent (80 of 198) of his rebounds are of the offensive variety.

Really Raising Cain

Jason Cain recorded back-to-back double-doubles three times this season. He has six double-doubles this season (eighth in the ACC) and has led Virginia in rebounding in 15 of the last 23 games. Cain has recorded double figures in rebounds eight times this season.

Cain had his first career double-double in UVa's 63-54 loss to Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). The junior forward tallied then career highs of 15 points and 11 rebounds. Against Fordham (Dec. 7), Cain posted career bests with 16 points and 15 rebounds. Against Loyola (Dec. 23), he recorded 15 points and 16 rebounds with the 16 boards setting yet another career high. Against UMBC (Dec. 28), Cain tied his career high with 16 points and added 12 rebounds for his fourth double-double of the season. His fifth double-double came against Wake Forest (Feb. 4) when he tallied 13 points and 10 rebounds. For the third time this season, Cain notched back-to-back double-doubles with an 11-point, 13-rebound performance against Maryland (Feb. 7).

His former career highs of 13 points and nine rebounds came in different games against NC State last season.

Cain also blocked a career-best five shots vs. North Carolina (Jan. 19) and now has a career-high 25 blocked shots this season. His former career high for blocked shots was three vs. UMBC (Dec. 28) earlier this season.

Cain leads UVa with 198 rebounds (7.6 per game – sixth in the ACC), including 80 offensive rebounds (3.08 per game). He is averaging 7.7 rebounds per ACC contest (seventh in the ACC). Cain is fourth on the team in scoring with 7.8 points per game.

Increase in Assists

Sean Singletary averaged only 3.17 assists (19 assists) in his first six games this season. In nine of the last 19 games, Singletary has handed out six or more assists for an average of 4.8 per game (92 assists).

Singletary is currently fourth in the ACC with 4.44 assists per game. He is averaging 4.33 assists per ACC contest which is second among all ACC players.

Field Goal Percentage Leader

Freshman Laurynas Mikalauskas leads the Cavaliers in field goal percentage. He has made 67-115 attempts from the field for 58.3 percent accuracy. Over the last 17 games, Mikalauskas has made 48-80 attempts (60.0 percent) from the floor.

Mikalauskas turned in several outstanding performances as of late. Against North Carolina (Jan. 19), he posted a 10-point, five-rebound performance. It marked the first time he scored in double figures in an ACC game. Against Miami (Jan. 24), Mikalauskas tallied 12 points and eight rebounds. The 12 points are his ACC high, while the eight boards equal his conference best (he had eight rebounds in his ACC debut against Georgia Tech – Dec. 4). Versus NC State (Feb. 1), Mikalauskas notched 10 points and four rebounds.

Home is Sweet for Diane

Bannister Returns to Action Again

T.J. Bannister has played in the last five games after missing a total of 14 games this season.

Bannister did not play in the first four games of the season and made his first appearance of the 2005-06 campaign against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). He played two minutes during the first half and made his only field goal attempt. Bannister also played seven minutes in UVa's next game against Fordham (Dec. 7) and had two assists and one rebound before missing the next six games.

After missing the six games, Bannister returned to action for the Cavaliers against Florida State (Jan. 11) for the first of five consecutive games he played in. He did not score against the Seminoles, but had five assists with just one turnover. Bannister had his most productive game of the season vs. North Carolina (Jan. 19) with seven points, three rebounds, two assists and a steal in 10 minutes.

Bannister made his third return to UVa's lineup against Longwood (Feb. 15) and has played the past five games.

On the season, Bannister is averaging 2.5 points and 1.2 rebounds per game. He has handed out 25 assists in 12 games for 2.1 assists per game.

First Double-Double

J.R. Reynolds recorded his first career double-double with 19 points and 12 assists against Virginia Tech (Feb. 11). Reynolds' 12 assists doubled his previous career high of six.

In addition, it marked the first double-double by a UVa player in points and assists since Donald Hand had 12 points and 11 assists against Coastal Carolina on Nov. 20, 2000. It is also the most assists by a Cavalier since T.J. Bannister handed out 12 assists against Wake Forest on Mar. 2, 2004.

Double Figures in Rebounds

Mamadi Diane pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds against Wake Forest (Feb. 4). His previous career high was seven rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4). Diane became just the second Cavalier to reach double figures in rebounds in a game this season. Jason Cain has eight double figure rebounding performances to his credit.

43, 47, 52

Sean Singletary, J.R. Reynolds and Adrian Joseph have combined to make 142 of UVa's 161 three-point field goals (88.2 percent) this season. Interestingly, the three-pointers made are pretty evenly distributed as Reynolds has made 52 threes, Singletary follows with 47, and Joseph has 43 threes to his credit. Singletary and Joseph have attempted 129 and 124 threes, respectively, while Reynolds has attempted 145.

Joseph only made 14 three-pointers all of last season. Singletary has set a new single season high with his 47 threes (he had 34 last season). Reynolds has also set a career-high with his 52 three-pointers made (51 last season).

Reynolds Breaks Out

After making only four three-point field goals (on 28 attempts) in the first seven games of the season, J.R. Reynolds drained a career-high tying five three-pointers against Loyola (Dec. 23) on seven attempts.

Including the Loyola game, Reynolds has made 48-117 (41.0 percent) three-point attempts in the last 19 games. Reynolds is now 52-145 (35.9 percent) from beyond the three-point line this season.

Reynolds snapped an 0-11 slump that spanned four games when he made his first three against Loyola with 12:53 left in the first half. His 5-7 effort from long range against Loyola also snapped a 1-20 slump over the previous five games.

In the last 19 games, Reynolds is averaging 18.2 points per game (345 points). He has scored in double figures in a career-best 20 consecutive games. Reynolds is averaging a career-best 16.3 points per game overall (10th in the ACC) and 16.7 per conference game (10th in the ACC) this season.

Diane Snaps a Slump

Mamadi Diane made 3-4 three-point field goal attempts against Boston College (Feb. 21) to snap a three-point draught.

Diane had missed his last 11 three-point attempts and was just 1-19 from long range in his last 10 games before making the three treys vs. BC. The three three-pointers made are a career high for Diane.

Turnovers

UVa is averaging 14.7 turnovers per game this season. The Cavaliers committed 18 or more turnovers in four of their first five games. In the last 21 games, UVa has cut its turnovers down to 14.0 per game (294 turnovers). UVa has committed 17 or more turnovers in a game during that span only five times (the Cavaliers had a season-high 29 turnovers against Clemson – Feb. 26). In that same 21-game span, the Cavaliers have 11 games in which they had 12 or fewer turnovers, including a season-low tying eight turnovers vs. Miami (Jan. 24) and NC State (Feb. 1).

The Cavaliers have averaged 12.6 turnovers per game at home and 16.7 miscues away from University Hall.

Against Northwestern (Nov. 30), UVa had only eight turnovers, including just two miscues in the second half against the Wildcats. In its previous game against Arizona, Virginia committed 24 turnovers.

28 Offensive Rebounds

UVa pulled down 28 offensive rebounds against Georgia Tech (Dec. 4) and it ties for the second highest offensive rebounds total in a game in school history. The Cavaliers also had 28 offensive boards against Virginia Tech on Jan. 25, 1989. The school record for offensive rebounds in a game is 30 vs. Towson on Dec. 3, 1994.

Virginia gave up 28 offensive rebounds to Hartford (Dec. 31). The 28 offensive boards by the Hawks is the fourth highest total by a UVa opponent ever.

100 Free Throws

Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds have both made more than 100 free throws this season (Singletary has made 107 and Reynolds has connected on 103). It marks the first time since the 2000-01 season two Cavaliers have made at least 100 free throws. In the 2000-01 season, Roger Mason, Jr. and Donald Hand made 122 and 113 free throws, respectively.

Guards Lead the Way

Starting guards Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds are pacing the Cavaliers this season. The two guards have combined to lead UVa in scoring in 22 of 26 games. The duo is averaging 34.5 points per game.

Rebounding a Key

One of the keys to success for UVa this season is rebounding and so far Virginia has more than held its own on the glass. The Cavaliers have outrebounded 18 of their first 26 opponents (despite being outrebounded in their last three games) and are averaging 4.8 more rebounds per game than the opposition. UVa is averaging 37.3 rebounds overall and 13.3 offensive boards per contest.

The Cavaliers have outrebounded eight of their opponents by 10 or more rebounds. In 15 ACC games, Virginia has outrebounded the opposition 543-495 for an average of +3.2 per game.

Virginia outrebounded Wake Forest (Feb. 4) by 22 rebounds (47-25 – their largest margin of the season) and the Demon Deacons entered the game as the leading rebounding team in the ACC.

On the season, UVa is 10-8 when it outrebounds the opposition, and 3-4 when it is outrebounded. The Cavaliers are 1-0 when they tie their opponent in rebounds in a game.

Free Throw Accuracy

UVa is shooting an impressive 75.6 percent (385-509) from the free throw line this season which ranks second in the ACC (UVa is shooting 76.5 percent – 218-285 – in ACC play).

Virginia's 75.6 percentage from the charity stripe this season currently ranks as the second-highest season free throw percentage in school history. The record is 76.2 percent (531-697), set in the 1978-79 season.

The Cavaliers have two players ranked among the leaders in the ACC in free throw shooting. Sean Singletary is fifth at 83.6 percent (107-128), while J.R. Reynolds is tied for seventh in the conference at 79.8 percent (103-129). Singletary is shooting 89.1 percent (57-64) from the line in ACC play (third in the ACC).

Two other Cavaliers are shooting extremely well from the free throw line, but don't qualify to be listed among the ACC's leaders because they haven't made enough free throws (2.5 made per game is the requirement to be ranked).

– Mamadi Diane is shooting 83.8 percent (31-37) from the line
– Adrian Joseph is shooting 76.3 percent (29-38) from the line

Double Figures in Last 17 Games

Sean Singletary has set a new career high by scoring in double figures in the last 17 games. His current streak began with a 22-point performance against Hartford (Dec. 31) and in his last outing, Singletary tallied 14 points against North Carolina (Mar. 1).

During his current scoring streak, Singletary is averaging 18.9 points per game (322 points).

After scoring in double figures in back-to-back games only once last season, Singletary scored in double digits in the first six games he played in this season before having his streak stopped when he scored only four points against Loyola (Md.). Singletary, who is averaging 18.2 points a game, scored only seven points against UMBC (Dec. 28).

In addition to scoring in double figures the last 17 games, he has reached double digits in 23 of the 25 games he has played this season.

Singletary scored in double figures in 13 games last season, but not in back-to-back games until he scored 17 vs. NC State (Mar. 2) and 11 vs. Florida State (Mar. 6).

Reynolds Free Throw Streak Snapped

J.R. Reynolds had his streak of 20 consecutive free throws made snapped when he missed his second attempt vs. Clemson (Jan. 7) with 1:30 remaining in the first half.

Reynolds' streak started when he made his last free throw vs. Loyola (Dec. 23). He was a career-best 10-10 against UMBC (Dec. 28) and then made all four attempts from the line against Hartford (Dec. 31). Reynolds also made all four attempts from the charity stripe against Western Kentucky (Jan. 2).

Reynolds' 129 attempts from the free throw line this season are a career high as are his 103 made free throws. He is shooting 79.8 percent from the line this season. Reynolds is shooting 79.5 percent from the free throw line in his career (213-268).

The Opener

UVa's 35-point margin of victory over Liberty (79-44, Nov. 18) marked the largest in a season-opener since the 2000-01 season when the Cavaliers won by 46 points over Long Island (Nov. 17) – 96-50. The 44 points allowed by UVa are the fewest in a season opener since 1991-92 when Virginia posted a 78-43 win over William & Mary (Nov. 24).

Impressive Start

Virginia limited its first two opponents to an average of 43.5 points per game (Liberty 44 points, Richmond 43 points) and 25.7 percent (27-105) shooting from the field. The last time UVa held its first two opponents under 50 points was way back in the 1948-49 season. In 1948-49, the Cavaliers held Lynchburg Independents to 40 points (in a 72-40 win) and Langley Field to 38 points (in a 78-38 win).

The Cavaliers have held 11 opponents below 40.0 percent field goal shooting this season, including six of the last 13. After allowing Florida State (Jan. 11) to shoot 60.0 percent (30-50), UVa held Virginia Tech, North Carolina and Miami to a combined 33.9 percent (61-180) shooting from the floor. Duke stopped that streak by shooting 55.3 percent (26-47) from the field against UVa on Jan. 28 and NC State followed with a 50.0 percent (27-54) effort on Feb. 1. Wake Forest became the third consecutive team to shoot 50 percent or better from the floor as it connected on 25-49 attempts for 51.0 percent. The streak of three consecutive opponents shooting 50 percent or better ended when UVa held Maryland to 39.1 percent (25-64) on Feb. 7.

Three of UVa's last four opponents have connected on better than 50 percent of their attempts from the field, including North Carolina which shot 59.3 percent (35-59) – the second highest field goal percentage by a UVa opponent this season.

Reynolds' driving layup with 1.5 seconds remaining in overtime provided UVa with its margin of victory in a 79-77 win over Loyola Marymount. T.J. Rob Lanier was the head coach at Siena College the last four years (2001-05). During his four years as Siena's head coach, the Saints participated in one NCAA Tournament and one National Invitation Tournament (NIT).

Siena won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Tournament Championship in 2002 to earn a spot in the NCAA Tournament. The Saints defeated Alcorn State in the NCAA Tournament opening round game before losing to eventual national champion Maryland.

During the 2002-03 season, Lanier led Siena to a 21-11 record and a third-place finish in the MAAC with a 12-6 record. The Saints earned a berth in the NIT where they defeated Villanova and Western Michigan before losing to Alabama-Birmingham.

Steve Seymour was the head coach at Drexel University for two years (1999-2001). Drexel compiled a 21-15 record in the America East Conference during his two years as head coach. He later served as an assistant coach at Siena during Rob Lanier's first three years as head coach of the Saints.

Brown Named Strength and Conditioning Coach

Shaun Brown, the head strength coach of the Toronto Raptors of the National Basketball Association the last two years, was named strength and conditioning coach for the University of Virginia men's basketball program on October 13.

Brown has 17 years of experience at the professional and collegiate levels. Before joining the staff of the Toronto Raptors, he was the head strength coach for the Boston Celtics from 1997-2003.

From 1992-97, Brown was the head strength coach for men's basketball at the University of Kentucky. During his time at Kentucky, the men's basketball team won the 1996 NCAA Championship.

"The hiring of Shaun Brown continues to move our program in the right direction and helps us provide the best possible student-athlete experience," said UVa men's head basketball coach Dave Leitao. "Shaun comes to Virginia with credentials that speak for themselves. He has been a part of a national championship program, and has successfully trained athletes at the professional and collegiate levels.”

Evan Marcus is Virginia's head strength coach and director of the McCue Center weight room. Ed Nordenschild (head strength coach for Olympic sports), and assistant coaches Bill Miller, Shad Pospahala and Lorenzo Rivers assist Marcus. Nordenschild will continue his work with the UVa women's basketball team.

“The strength training unit is critical to our success and has done a tremendous job in support of the athletics department's 10-year goals,” said Virginia Executive Associate Athletics Director Jon Oliver. “Shaun Brown is an important addition in this area. His credentials are reflective of the type of professionals we have in the strength training unit.”

Brown served as the head strength coach at Providence College from November of 1989 until April of 1992. Prior to that he was an assistant strength coach at Rutgers University from August of 1989 until he accepted the position at Providence.

A native of Hornell, N.Y., Brown earned a bachelor's degree from Canisius College in 1987 and a master's degree from Ohio State University in 1988. He served as a graduate assistant strength coach at Ohio State and as strength and conditioning coach at Dublin High School in Dublin, Ohio, from August of 1988 to August of 1989.
