OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia opened the 2006-07 season with a 93-90 come-from-behind victory over then 10th-ranked Arizona (Nov. 12) at John Paul Jones Arena. It marked the ninth consecutive year the Cavaliers have opened the season with a victory. UVa finished the 2005-06 season with a 15-15 record and tied for seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 7-9 mark.

Morgan State is 0-2 on the season. The Bears lost at East Carolina 86-67 in their season opener (Nov. 11) and fell at American 97-84 (Nov. 14). Morgan State was 4-26 overall and 4-14 in the MEAC in 2005-06.

A NEW ERA

A new era of Virginia basketball began on Nov. 12 when the Cavaliers christened the John Paul Jones Arena with a 93-90 victory over Arizona. The arena, which officially opened in August of 2006, seats 15,219 for basketball games.

CAVALIERS OPEN SEASON STRONG

Virginia began the 2006-07 season with a 93-90 win over Arizona (Nov. 18) at the John Paul Jones Arena. The Cavaliers have won nine consecutive season openers (10 straight home openers) and 18 of the last 20. Overall, UVa is 82-20 (.804) all-time in season openers.

UVa's three-point margin of victory over Arizona is its smallest in a season opener since a 90-86 win over Long Island (Nov. 22) to open the 2002-03 season.

Then 10th-ranked Arizona is the second highest ranked team Virginia has ever opened a season against – and the first ranked team it has ever beaten in a season opener. In 1963-64, the Cavaliers opened up against ninth-ranked Kentucky and lost 75-64 on Nov. 30, 1963 in Lexington, Ky.

THE SERIES VS. MORGAN STATE

Today's game is the first meeting between Virginia and Morgan State in men's basketball. The Bears are the first of three opponents UVa will play for the first time. The Cavaliers will also play UNC Asheville on Nov. 22 and Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES) on Nov. 26. UVa could also meet the University of Central Florida, Tennessee Tech, or Puerto Rico-Mayaquez for the first time in the San Juan Shootout Dec. 19-21 in Carolina, Puerto Rico.

VIRGINIA VS. THE MEAC

Morgan State is the first of three MEAC opponents Virginia will face this season. UVa also plays the MEAC's Maryland Eastern Shore and Hampton.

The Cavaliers are a perfect 7-0 all-time against teams from the MEAC. Six of the previous seven games against MEAC schools were played at University Hall. UVa's 102-56 win against Hampton on Dec. 10, 1999 at the Hampton Convocation Center is the Cavaliers' only away game against a MEAC opponent. Virginia's 115-66 win over Howard on Nov. 21, 2001 was its most recent game against an opponent from the MEAC.

UVa also defeated Hampton 116-66 in the 1998-99 season. Virginia's other victories over MEAC schools came against North Carolina A&T (94-50) and Bethune-Cookman (109-49) during the 1994-95 season, Coppin State (63-61) in 1993-94, and Howard (100-64) in 1992-93.

Virginia's average margin of victory over MEAC teams is 41.0 points per game, which includes a two-point win over Coppin State in December of 1993. The Cavaliers are averaging 99.9 points per game while holding their MEAC opponents to 58.9 points per game.

HEAD COACH DAVE LEITAO

Dave Leitao is in his second season as the Cavaliers' head coach and has a record of 16-15. In his first season at UVa in 2005-06, Virginia posted a 15-15 record and compiled a 7-9 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play. Virginia tied for seventh in the ACC standings after being picked 12th in the ACC Preseason Media Poll.

UVa advanced to the 2006 National Invitation Tournament, but fell in the opening round to Stanford 65-49 (Mar. 14). Virginia's appearance in the NIT marked the fourth consecutive postseason appearance by a Leitao-coached team. Leitao led DePaul to three straight postseason bids, including the NCAA Tournament in 2004.

In six seasons as a head coach, Leitao has a career record of 96-84.

This is the first time Leitao has faced Morgan State as a head coach.

Leitao has coached in 29 games against AP ranked teams and is 8-21.

Against top 10 AP teams, Leitao is 1-9. He earned his first victory over an AP top 10 team when UVa posted a 93-90 win over Arizona (Nov. 12). Leitao was 0-4 against ranked teams in two seasons at Northeastern, 5-11 vs. ranked opponents in three years at DePaul, and is 3-6 against ranked foes at UVa. Virginia's 72-58 win over 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21, 2006) marked the highest ranked opponent a Leitao coached team had defeated until the win over Arizona.

Leitao improved to 5-2 in season openers as a head coach with the win over Arizona. In addition to winning both openers at Virginia, Leitao won all three season openers while at DePaul. He lost both openers at Northeastern.

UVA USES STRONG SECOND HALF FOR WIN OVER ARIZONA

Virginia trailed by as many as 19 points in the first half, but used a 57-point outburst in the second stanza to register a 93-90 victory over 10th-ranked Arizona (Nov. 12) in the first game at the John Paul Jones Arena.

Mamadi Diane and Sean Singletary both scored 25 points to lead UVa to the season-opening victory. Diane set a career high with his 25 points as he connected on 8-9 attempts from the field, including 5-6 three-point field goals, and made all four free throw attempts. He also added four rebounds, two assists and two steals. Singletary had six assists, two rebounds and two steals in addition to his 25 points. Jason Cain recorded the seventh double-double of his career with 13 points and a game-high 12 rebounds. J.R. Reynolds rounded out Virginia's double figure scorers with 10 points, marking the 25th consecutive game he has reached double digits in scoring.

Diane got the John Paul Jones Arena era off to a quick start by making a three-pointer at the 19:34 mark. The Wildcats trailed 14-12 at the 14:14 mark of the first stanza, but used an 18-2 run to grab a 30-16 lead with 11:00 remaining in the first half. Arizona built its lead to 19 points (45-26) before taking a 49-36 lead at the intermission.

UVa came back to tie the game at 68-68 with 11:04 to play when Singletary made a pair of free throws. The Wildcats extended their lead to five points (77-72) only to see Virginia battle back to tie the game at 77-77 with 6:30 left. Diane's three-pointer with 5:43 to go gave UVa the lead, 80-79. The Cavaliers took the lead for good, 84-82, at the 4:11 mark when Diane drained a pair of free throws. Reynolds built the lead to 86-82 with two more tosses from the charity stripe at the 2:56 mark. UVa increased its lead to six, 89-83 with 1:38 to play when Singletary converted two free throws. Arizona battled back to cut the lead to 92-90 with 12 seconds left on a pair of free throws by Mustafa Shakur. Reynolds made one more free throw with eight seconds to go and then Arizona missed a three-pointer at the buzzer.

Virginia shot 45.9 percent (28-61) from the field in the game and was 16-27 (59.3 percent) in the second half. The Wildcats shot 47.0 percent (31-66) from the floor. UVa made 29-38 free throw attempts (76.3 percent) while Arizona was 19-25 (76.0 percent) from the line. Both teams had 36 rebounds and UVa committed only 11 turnovers in the game while forcing 15.

Ivan Radenovic led Arizona with 24 points, eight rebounds and five assists, while Marcus Williams and Jawann McClellan both added 18 points.

DIANE NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Sophomore guard/forward Mamadi Diane was selected the Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Nov. 13 after scoring a career-high 25 points in UVa's 93-90 win over 10th-ranked Arizona (Nov. 12) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

Diane made 8-9 attempts from the field, including 5-6 three-point attempts, and all four free throws in registering the career-best 25 points. He also grabbed four rebounds and had two assists and two steals in 28 minutes of playing time.

Diane's previous career high was 18 points against Northwestern on Nov. 30, 2005. He snapped a streak of 17 consecutive games without scoring in double figures. It was the first time Diane has led UVa in scoring (Sean Singletary also had 25 points) since he tallied 17 points in his college debut on Nov. 18, 2005 against Liberty. Diane became the first men's basketball player to score a point in John Paul Jones Arena history when he made a three-point field goal at the 19:34 mark of the first half.

SINGLETARY AND REYNOLDS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS AGAIN

Junior guard Sean Singletary and senior guard J.R. Reynolds are Virginia's co-captains for the second consecutive season. Singletary and Reynolds also served as UVa's captains last season.

SECOND BEST STREAK

Guard J.R. Reynolds has scored in double figures in his last 25 games. That's the second best current streak among ACC players. UNC's Tyler Hansbrough has scored in double figures in 27 consecutive games.

THREE-POINT FIELD GOALS

J.R. Reynolds has made 159 three-point field goals in his career and is in fifth place on UVa's all-time three-point field goals list. Reynolds needs two more three-point field goals to tie Devin Smith (2003-05) for fourth place with 161 career threes. John Crotty (1988-91) is third with 179 three-pointers.

SOROYE OUT

Junior center Tunji Soroye had surgery on Nov. 9 to correct groin area discomfort. He is expected to be out three weeks or longer.

"We are anxious to have Tunji back with us as soon as his rehabilitation process enables him to return," Virginia head coach Dave Leitao said. "We will miss his presence and look forward to having him back in action."

The 6-11 Soroye has lettered twice for UVa and started 23 games for the Cavaliers during the 2005-06 season. He averaged 1.8 points and 3.5 rebounds a game last season, and led the team in blocked shots with 37 (1.23 bpg.).

UVA WINS EXHIBITION GAME

Virginia captured a 78-63 win over Augusta State in exhibition action on Nov. 4 in the team's first game at John Paul Jones Arena.

Junior Sean Singletary scored the first two buckets, helping the Cavaliers jump out to a quick 6-0 lead. After two Jaguar baskets, UVa went on a 12-0 run to go ahead 18-4. UVa built a 20-point advantage three times before closing out the stanza with a 21-point edge at halftime, 43-22.

In the second half, the 'Hoos built upon their lead, going ahead by as many as 28 points, 57-29. Augusta State didn't give up, closing out the game with a 16-10 run to come within 13 points, 76-63 during the final minute of play.

Junior Adrian Joseph came off the bench to pace UVa with 17 points, 12 of which he netted in the first half. He finished three-of-four from the line and notched a team-best four treys. Senior J.R. Reynolds followed with 16 points, while Singletary added 13 points and eight assists. Sophomore Mamadi Diane had 10 points, and senior Jason Cain grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds. Sophomore Laurynas Mikalauskas had 10 boards.

Daniel Dixon paced Augusta State with 16 points. Tyrekus Bowman was the only other Jaguar in double digits with 14 points.

Overall, Virginia out-rebounded Augusta State, 53-30.

THREE PLAYERS JOIN MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Head coach Dave Leitao has added three players to the 2006-07 men's basketball roster. Sophomores Damin Altizer and Bob McCormick, and freshman David Noel have joined the UVa team after going through a tryout process.

Altizer is a 5-11 guard from Millboro, Va. He lettered four times in basketball at Bath County High School and twice was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player. He was an All-Pioneer District selection three times, earned All-Region honors twice and was an All-State selection as a high school senior.

McCormick is a 6-5 forward from Chicago, Ill. He was an All-Conference selection and team captain in basketball, baseball and soccer at Francis W. Parker High School. He earned third-team All-State honors as a high school senior and was the conference Player of the Year.

Noel is a 6-3 guard from Houston, Texas. He lettered once in basketball at Lamar High School and once at St. John's High School where he was a team captain. He earned first-team All-Conference honors and was the team's Most Valuable Player as a senior at St. John's. He also lettered one year in football at Lamar.

CURTIS STAPLES' JERSEY RETIRED

The jersey of former Virginia standout Curtis Staples was retired during halftime ceremonies of UVa's game against Arizona (Nov. 12).

Staples, a guard from Roanoke, Va., finished his Virginia career in 1998 as the NCAA's career leader in three-point field goals made with 413. His mark held until Duke's J.J. Redick established a new NCAA record for three-point field goals made (457) last season. Staples currently ranks third on the NCAA's career three-point field goals made list.

Jersey retirement is a new level of recognition at Virginia to honor players who have significantly impacted the program and Staples is the first player to be honored in this way. Individuals recognized in this way will have their jerseys retired, but their number will remain active.

Six Virginia players have had their uniform numbers retired and those numbers will not be worn again. Those numbers honor the most decorated players in the program's history, including Jeff Lamp (3), Barry Parkhill (40), Ralph Sampson (50), Bryant Stith (20), Wally Walker (41) and Buzzy Wilkinson (14).

In addition to being Virginia's career leader in three-point field goals made, Staples holds UVa records for three-point field goals made in a season (130) and in a game (9). He also holds Virginia records for most three-point field goals made by a senior (130), junior (98), sophomore (82) and freshman (103). He led the Atlantic Coast Conference in three-point field goals made per game during each of his four seasons at Virginia.

Staples ranks ninth on Virginia's career scoring list with 1,757 points. He lettered four times for the Cavaliers and was a team captain as a senior during the 1997-98 season. Staples averaged a career-high 18.1 points a game during the 1997-98 season and earned third-team All-ACC honors.

ACC/BIG TEN CHALLENGE

Virginia hopes to assist the Atlantic Coast Conference in winning the Commissioner's Cup for an eighth consecutive year when it plays at Purdue on Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

The Cavaliers have played six games in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge and have compiled a 4-2 record. UVa defeated Northwestern 72-57 in Charlottesville last season.

THE JOHN PAUL JONES ARENA

The 2006-07 season ushers in a new era for the Cavaliers as they play in their new basketball arena for the first time. The John Paul Jones Arena, which seats 15,219 fans, is located across the street from historic University Hall. The arena features an academic center and dining facility for all student-athletes, and practice courts, coaches office complexes, locker rooms, a weight room, training room, and equipment room for the men's and women's basketball programs.

PRESEASON HONORS

Guards Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds were selected to preseason All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams by media attending the ACC's Operation Basketball event in Greensboro, N.C., in October. Singletary was a first-team selection and Reynolds was named to the second team. In addition, Singletary has been named a third-team All-America selection by Street & Smith's College Basketball 2006-07 Yearbook, Rivals.com, and Collegehoops.net. Collegeinsider.com also named Singletary to its 16-player All-America team.

REMEMBERING U-HALL

While University Hall is no longer home to Virginia basketball, the memories of outstanding games in the building and the players who participated in them will remain forever.

The Cavaliers played Kentucky in the first game at U-Hall on Dec. 4, 1965 and lost to the Wildcats 99-73.

On March 5, 2006, the UVa men's team played its final game in U-Hall after 41 seasons - a 71-70 loss to Maryland. During those 41 seasons, Virginia compiled an overall record of 402-143 in University Hall and a record of 179-112 against ACC opponents in the building. Last season, UVa won its 400th game in U-Hall by defeating in-state rival Virginia Tech 81-77 in overtime on Feb. 11. The Cavaliers' final win at University Hall was a 72-58 victory over 11th-ranked Boston College on Feb. 21.

THE EARLY DAYS

Prior to beginning play in University Hall in the 1965-66 season, the Cavaliers had two other home courts - Fayerweather Gymnasium and Memorial Gymnasium.

While Fayerweather Gymnasium was constructed in 1893, the basketball team would not call it home until the program's first season in 1905-06. Under the tutelage of Henry H. "Pop" Lannigan, the only head coach of the Fayerweather era, Virginia men's basketball experienced no losing records while Fayerweather Gymnasium housed the program. The 1914-15 season even saw the Cavaliers go a perfect 17-0, still the only undefeated season in team history. While not every game listed as a home game between the 1905-06 and 1923-24 seasons was played in Fayerweather Gymnasium, the program did manage to have an impressive 193-60-1 record while calling Fayerweather Gymnasium home. Unfortunately, the highly successful years played in Fayerweather came to a close with a 37-24 loss to Fordham on Feb. 21, 1924.

On Jan. 10, 1925, the story continued with Memorial Gymnasium's first victory over Lynchburg. This facility was the home to 42 Cavalier men's basketball teams and six different head coaches. During this time, Virginia earned its first postseason appearance in 1941 under Gus Tebell and also joined the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1953. Memorial Gymnasium, commonly referred to as Mem Gym, was also the home of Buzzy Wilkinson, still the UVa and the ACC record holder for career scoring average with 28.6 points per game. By the time Mem Gym was replaced in 1965, the Cavaliers had registered a home record of 279-155. On Feb. 27, 1965, Virginia men's basketball bid Memorial Gymnasium goodbye with a 69-67 victory over ACC foe Clemson.

RETURNING STARTERS

Seven players who started games for Virginia during the 2005-06 season are on the Cavaliers' roster for 2006-07. Those players include guard J.R. Reynolds (30), guard Sean Singletary (29), forward Jason Cain (24), center Tunji Soroye (23), forward Adrian Joseph (19), forward Laurynas Mikalauskas (12) and forward/guard Mamadi Diane (11). The only player not returning who started a game for the Cavaliers last season is guard Billy Campbell who started twice.

BILL COURTNEY JOINS COACHING STAFF

Bill Courtney joined the Virginia men's basketball coaching staff in July of 2006. Prior to joining the UVa staff, Courtney was an assistant coach at Providence for one year. He was a member of Jim Larranaga's (former Virginia assistant coach) coaching staff at George Mason for eight years (1997-2005). He was the associate head coach at George Mason from 2002 until his departure for Providence. Courtney served as an assistant coach on Larranaga's staff at Bowling Green for one year (1996-97) before moving to George Mason with Larranaga prior to the 1997-98 season. He began his collegiate coaching career at American University where he was an assistant coach in 1995-96.

Courtney joins Rob Lanier and Steve Seymour as assistant coaches on head coach Dave Leitao's staff. He is a native of Springfield, Va., and a 1992 graduate of Bucknell University.

VIRGINIA PLAYERS IN INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

Guard J.R. Reynolds and forward Laurynas Mikalauskas gained valuable experience playing against international competition during the spring and summer of 2006.

Reynolds averaged 12.7 points a game with a traveling team of college players during a trip to Nassau in the Bahamas in May. The team won all seven games on the trip, including two victories over the Bahamian National Team, and Reynolds led the team in scoring in two of the games. He led the team with 18 points in a victory over the Bahamian National Team in the final game of the trip. He scored 23 points to lead the team in another game, the most points he scored during the trip.

A benefit for Reynolds that should also turn out to be a benefit for the 2006-07 Virginia team was that he got to play a lot of point guard during the trip. That experience should improve his versatility in the Cavaliers' backcourt this season.

Mikalaukas played for the Lithuanian team that finished second to Russia in the Global Games at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Tex., in June. Among his top performances were a 19-point, five-rebound effort in a loss to Russia, and an 18-point, 11-rebound performance in a victory over Argentina.

All of Virginia's players will have the opportunity to play outside the continental United States when the Cavaliers compete in the San Juan Shootout (Dec. 19-21) in Puerto Rico.

CAVALIERS IN THE 2006 ACC STATISTICAL RANKINGS

Three UVa players were among the leaders in the final Atlantic Coast Conference statistical rankings for the 2005-06 season.

Guard Sean Singletary ranked third in the ACC in free throw percentage (.845, 125-148), fifth in scoring (17.7 ppg.), fifth in steals (54, 1.86 spg.), sixth in assists (121, 4.2 apg.) and eighth in minutes played (982, 33.86 mpg.).

Forward Jason Cain ranked tied for fifth in the conference in double figure rebound games (9), seventh in overall rebounding (229, 7.6 rpg.) and defensive rebounds (142, 4.73 drpg.), tied for eighth in offensive rebounds (87, 2.90 orgp.) and tied for ninth in double-doubles (6).

Guard J.R. Reynolds ranked eighth in the ACC in scoring (17.0 ppg.), and ninth in free throw percentage (.776, 128-165) and three-point field goals made per game (60, 2.00 pg).
