OFFICIALS

THE GAME

Virginia enters tonight's game with a 2-0 record in the 2006-07 season. The Cavaliers are coming off an 85-66 win over Morgan State (Nov. 19) at John Paul Jones Arena. UVa finished the 2005-06 season with a 15-15 record and tied for seventh in the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 7-9 mark.

UNC Asheville is 1-2 on the season. The Bulldogs are coming off a 77-76 loss at Duquesne (Nov. 18). UNC Asheville was 9-19 overall and finished Big South play with a 6-10 mark last season.

A NEW ERA

A new era of Virginia basketball began on Nov. 12 when the Cavaliers christened the John Paul Jones Arena with a 93-90 victory over Arizona. The arena, which officially opened in August of 2006, seats 15,219 for basketball games.

CAVALIERS OPEN SEASON STRONG

Virginia has opened the 2006-07 season with a pair of victories, marking the eighth consecutive year UVa has started out the season 2-0. UVa won its season opener 93-90 over 10th-ranked Arizona (Nov. 12) and then registered an 85-66 victory over Morgan State (Nov. 19). Both wins came at the John Paul Jones Arena. The Cavaliers won their first three games five of the last six seasons.

The Cavaliers have won nine consecutive season openers (10 straight home openers) and 18 of the last 20. Overall, UVa is 82-20 (.804) all-time in season openers.

UVa's three-point margin of victory over Arizona is its smallest in a season opener since a 90-86 win over Long Island (Nov. 22) to open the 2002-03 season.

Then 10th-ranked Arizona is the second highest ranked team Virginia has ever opened a season against – and the first ranked team it has ever beaten in a season opener. In 1963-64, the Cavaliers opened up against ninth-ranked Kentucky and lost 75-64 on Nov. 30, 1963 in Lexington, Ky.

THE SERIES VS. UNC ASHEVILLE

Tonight's game is the first meeting between Virginia and UNC Asheville in men's basketball. The Bulldogs are the second of three opponents UVa will play for the first time this season. The Cavaliers defeated Morgan State 85-66 (Nov. 19) and play Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES) on Nov. 26. UVa could also meet the University of Central Florida, Tennessee Tech, or Puerto Rico-Mayaquez for the first time in the San Juan Shootout Dec. 19-21 in Carolina, Puerto Rico.

VIRGINIA VS. THE BIG SOUTH

Against the nine current members of the Big South Conference, the Cavaliers are 116-16 all-time for a .879 winning percentage. Virginia is 100-15 vs. VMI, 4-0 vs. Radford, 6-1 vs. Liberty, 2-0 vs. Winthrop and Coastal Carolina, and 1-0 vs. Charleston Southern and High Point. Of the Big South's current membership, Virginia has never faced Birmingham-Southern. UVa opened the 2005-06 season with a 79-44 victory over Liberty (Nov. 18) in its last meeting against a Big South foe.

There have been eight other schools that have been members of the Big South Conference at one time or another since 1986. Virginia is 21-1 against schools in the Big South at game time.

HEAD COACH DAVE LEITAO

Dave Leitao is in his second season as the Cavaliers' head coach and has a record of 17-15. In his first season at UVa in 2005-06, Virginia posted a 15-15 record and compiled a 7-9 mark in Atlantic Coast Conference play. Virginia tied for seventh in the ACC standings after being picked 12th in the ACC Preseason Media Poll.

UVa advanced to the 2006 National Invitation Tournament, but fell in the opening round to Stanford 65-49 (Mar. 14). Virginia's appearance in the NIT marked the fourth consecutive postseason appearance by a Leitao-coached team. Leitao led DePaul to three straight postseason bids, including the NCAA Tournament in 2004.

In six seasons as a head coach, Leitao has a career record of 97-84.

This is the first time Leitao has faced UNC Asheville as a head coach.

Leitao has coached in 29 games against AP ranked teams and is 8-21.

Against top 10 AP teams, Leitao is 1-9. He earned his first victory over an AP top 10 team when UVa posted a 93-90 win over Arizona (Nov. 12). Leitao was 0-4 against ranked teams in two seasons at Northeastern, 5-11 vs. ranked opponents in three years at DePaul, and is 3-6 against ranked foes at UVa. Virginia's 72-58 win over 11th-ranked Boston College (Feb. 21, 2006) marked the highest ranked opponent a Leitao coached team had defeated until the win over Arizona.

Leitao improved to 5-2 in season openers as a head coach with the win over Arizona. In addition to winning both openers at Virginia, Leitao won all three season openers while at DePaul. He lost both openers at Northeastern.

CAVALIERS DEFEAT MORGAN STATE 85-66

Virginia improved to 2-0 on the season with an 85-66 win over Morgan State (Nov. 19) at the John Paul Jones Arena. Four Cavaliers scored in double figures and seven different UVa players tallied seven or more points in the win.

J.R. Reynolds led UVa with 17 points, tied his career high with seven rebounds and had four assists, while Will Harris set career highs with 16 points and eight rebounds. Mamadi Diane tallied 15 points and five rebounds, while Sean Singletary added 12 points, eight assists and six boards. Diane continued his hot shooting as he made 6-8 field goal attempts, including 2-3 three-point tries.

The Cavaliers never trailed in the game as they opened up a 12-0 lead three minutes into the game. Virginia led by as many as 21 points (40-19) with 3:06 remaining in the first half, but Morgan State used an 11-2 run to pull within 42-30 at halftime.

Virginia opened the second half with an 11-4 run in the first five minutes to take a 19-point lead (53-34). The Bears never got closer than 13 points (73-60 with 4:41 left) the rest of the game.

The Cavaliers shot 50.9 percent (29-57) from the field in the contest, including 56.0 percent (14-25) in the second half. Morgan State shot only 35.4 percent (23-65) overall for the game, but did make 11-29 (37.9 percent) three-point attempts. UVa held a 48-30 edge in rebounds, but committed 19 turnovers. Morgan State had 17 miscues in the game.

Reggie Holmes and Karanvir Aujla led the Bears with 12 points apiece, while Joseph McLean added 11 points and seven assists.

PLAYING FOUR AT HOME

UVa plays its first four games of the 2006-07 season at home at the John Paul Jones Arena. It marks the third time in the last four years UVa is playing its first four games at home. The Cavaliers opened the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons with four consecutive home games and in both of those seasons Virginia won all four game.

CAVALIER GAME NOTES

DIANE NAMED ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Sophomore guard/forward Mamadi Diane was selected the Atlantic Coast Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week on Nov. 13 after scoring a career-high 25 points in UVa's 93-90 win over 10th-ranked Arizona (Nov. 12) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

Diane made 8-9 attempts from the field, including 5-6 three-point attempts, and all four free throws in registering the career-best 25 points. He also grabbed four rebounds and had two assists and two steals in 28 minutes of playing time.

Diane's previous career high was 18 points against Northwestern on Nov. 30, 2005. He snapped a streak of 17 consecutive games without scoring in double figures. It was the first time Diane has led UVa in scoring (Sean Singletary also had 25 points) since he tallied 17 points in his college debut on Nov. 18, 2005 against Liberty. Diane became the first men's basketball player to score a point in John Paul Jones Arena history when he made a three-point field goal at the 19:34 mark of the first half.

SINGLETARY AND REYNOLDS NAMED TEAM CAPTAINS AGAIN

Junior guard Sean Singletary and senior guard J.R. Reynolds are Virginia's co-captains for the second consecutive season. Singletary and Reynolds also served as UVa's captains last season.

SECOND BEST STREAK

Guard J.R. Reynolds has scored in double figures in his last 26 games. That's the second best current streak among ACC players. UNC's Tyler Hansbrough has scored in double figures in 28 consecutive games.

THREE-POINT FIELD GOALS

J.R. Reynolds has made 161 three-point field goals in his career and is tied with Devin Smith (2003-05) for fourth place on UVa's all-time three-point field goals list. John Crotty (1988-91) is third with 179 three-pointers.

SOROYE OUT

Junior center Tunji Soroye had surgery on Nov. 9 to correct groin area discomfort. He is expected to be out three weeks or longer.

"We are anxious to have Tunji back with us as soon as his rehabilitation process enables him to return," Virginia head coach Dave Leitao said. "We will miss his presence and look forward to having him back in action."

The 6-11 Soroye has lettered twice for UVa and started 23 games for the Cavaliers during the 2005-06 season. He averaged 1.8 points and 3.5 rebounds a game last season, and led the team in blocked shots with 37 (1.23 bpg.).

HOT SHOOTING

Mamadi Diane has been red-hot shooting the basketball in the first two games of the 2006-07 season. The sophomore has made 14-17 field goal attempts for 82.4 percent accuracy, including 7-9 three-point attempts (77.8 percent). Diane scored a career-high 25 points against Arizona (Nov. 12) and tallied 15 points vs. Morgan State (Nov. 19).

Diane's back-to-back double digit performance marks just the third time he has scored in double figures in back-to-back games. Diane did it twice last season (Northwestern - 18, Georgia Tech - 14 and Loyola (Md.) - 11, UMBC - 16).

UVa has made 10 more free throws (49) in the first two games than its two opponents (Arizona and Morgan State) have combined to take (39) in those two games. Virginia is 49-72 (68.1 percent) from the free throw line, while its two opponents are a combined 28-39 (71.8 percent).

UVA WINS EXHIBITION GAME

Virginia captured a 78-63 win over Augusta State in exhibition action on Nov. 4 in the team's first game at John Paul Jones Arena.

Junior Sean Singletary scored the first two buckets, helping the Cavaliers jump out to a quick 6-0 lead. After two Jaguar baskets, UVa went on a 12-0 run to go ahead 18-4. UVa built a 20-point advantage three times before closing out the stanza with a 21-point edge at halftime, 43-22.

In the second half, the 'Hoos built upon their lead, going ahead by as many as 28 points, 57-29. Augusta State didn't give up, closing out the game with a 16-10 run to come within 13 points, 76-63 during the final minute of play.

Junior Adrian Joseph came off the bench to pace UVa with 17 points, 12 of which he netted in the first half. He finished three-of-four from the line and notched a team-best four treys. Senior J.R. Reynolds followed with 16 points, while Singletary added 13 points and eight assists. Sophomore Mamadi Diane had 10 points, and senior Jason Cain grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds. Sophomore Laurynas Mikalauskas had 10 boards.

Daniel Dixon paced Augusta State with 16 points. Tyrekus Bowman was the only other Jaguar in double digits with 14 points.

Overall, Virginia out-rebounded Augusta State, 53-30.

THREE PLAYERS JOIN MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM

Head coach Dave Leitao has added three players to the 2006-07 men's basketball roster. Sophomores Damin Altizer and Bob McCormick, and freshman David Noel have joined the UVa team after going through a tryout process.

Altizer is a 5-11 guard from Millboro, Va. He lettered four times in basketball at Bath County High School and twice was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player. He was an All-Pioneer District selection three times, earned All-Region honors twice and was an All-State selection as a high school senior.

McCormick is a 6-5 forward from Chicago, Ill. He was an All-Conference selection and team captain in basketball, baseball and soccer at Francis W. Parker High School. He earned third-team All-State honors as a high school senior and was the conference Player of the Year.

Noel is a 6-3 guard from Houston, Texas. He lettered once in basketball at Lamar High School and once at St. John's High School where he was a team captain. He earned first-team All-Conference honors and was the team's Most Valuable Player as a senior at St. John's. He also lettered one year in football at Lamar.

THREE PLAYERS SIGN WITH UVA

Head coach Dave Leitao has announced the signing of three players to national letters of intent with the Cavaliers. The three players are 6-4 guard Mustapha Farrakhan of Harvey, Ill., 6-4 guard Jeff Jones of Wilmington, Del., and 6-1 guard Sam Zeglinski of Philadelphia, Pa.

Farrakhan averaged 17.1 points, 4.3 rebounds and 3.6 assists a game as a junior last season at Thornton Township High School. He earned all-conference and all-area honors, and was an honorable mention all-state selection.

"Mustapha will bring great skill to our backcourt," Leitao said. "He will be a factor because he's smart, tough and a fearless competitor. We look forward to him contributing from both guard spots. Along with his outstanding ability, he really loves Virginia and the ACC."

Jones averaged 21.9 points, five rebounds and three assists a game for Monsignor Bonner High School (Drexel Hill, Pa.) as a junior last season. He earned first-team AAA All-State honors and was the Pennsylvania AAA State Player of the Year for the 2005-06 season. He was a first-team all-conference selection each of the last two seasons and led the conference in scoring each of those seasons.

"To add a guy that has the skill level Jeff does is something that we really needed," Leitao said. "Just watching our team now, we're lacking enough skill guys in the backcourt. Mustapha, Jeff and Sammy will bring a significant amount of skill to our team."

Zeglinski averaged 19 points, five assists and three steals a game as a junior at the William Penn Charter School last season. He earned first-team All-Inter-Academic League, second-team all-state and second-team all-city honors for the 2005-06 season.

Zeglinski has started for the William Penn Charter School each of the last three seasons. Current Virginia player Sean Singletary is a graduate of the William Penn Charter School and as a high school freshman Zeglinski played on the same team with Singletary.

"Sammy is the consummate floor general," Leitao said. "He's a guy that combines a high level of basketball skill with probably as unique a mind for the game as you'll ever see."

CURTIS STAPLES' JERSEY RETIRED

The jersey of former Virginia standout Curtis Staples was retired during halftime ceremonies of UVa's game against Arizona (Nov. 12).

Staples, a guard from Roanoke, Va., finished his Virginia career in 1998 as the NCAA's career leader in three-point field goals made with 413. His mark held until Duke's J.J. Redick established a new NCAA record for three-point field goals made (457) last season. Staples currently ranks third on the NCAA's career three-point field goals made list.

Jersey retirement is a new level of recognition at Virginia to honor players who have significantly impacted the program and Staples is the first player to be honored in this way. Individuals recognized in this way will have their jerseys retired, but their number will remain active.

Six Virginia players have had their uniform numbers

retired and those numbers will not be worn again. Those numbers honor the most decorated players in the program's history, including Jeff Lamp (3), Barry Parkhill (40), Ralph Sampson (50), Bryant Stith (20), Wally Walker (41) and Buzzy Wilkinson (14).

In addition to being Virginia's career leader in three-point field goals made, Staples holds UVa records for three-point field goals made in a season (130) and in a game (9). He also holds Virginia records for most three-point field goals made by a senior (130), junior (98), sophomore (82) and freshman (103). He led the Atlantic Coast Conference in three-point field goals made per game during each of his four seasons at Virginia.

Staples ranks ninth on Virginia's career scoring list with 1,757 points. He lettered four times for the Cavaliers and was a team captain as a senior during the 1997-98 season. Staples averaged a career-high 18.1 points a game during the 1997-98 season and earned third-team All-ACC honors.

ACC/BIG TEN CHALLENGE

Virginia hopes to assist the Atlantic Coast Conference in winning the Commissioner's Cup for an eighth consecutive year when it plays at Purdue on Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m. in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

The Cavaliers have played six games in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge and have compiled a 4-2 record. UVa defeated Northwestern 72-57 in Charlottesville last season.

THE JOHN PAUL JONES ARENA

The 2006-07 season ushers in a new era for the Cavaliers as they play in their new basketball arena for the first time. The John Paul Jones Arena, which seats 15,219 fans, is located across the street from historic University Hall. The arena features an academic center and dining facility for all student-athletes, and practice courts, coaches office complexes, locker rooms, a weight room, training room, and equipment room for the men's and women's basketball programs.

PRESEASON HONORS

Guards Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds were selected to preseason All-Atlantic Coast Conference teams by media attending the ACC's Operation Basketball event in Greensboro, N.C., in October. Singletary was a first-team selection and Reynolds was named to the second team. In addition, Singletary has been named a third-team All-America selection by Street & Smith's College Basketball 2006-07 Yearbook, Rivals.com, and Collegehoops.net. Collegeinsider.com also named Singletary to its 16-player All-America team.

REMEMBERING U-HALL

While University Hall is no longer home to Virginia basketball, the memories of outstanding games in the building and the players who participated in them will remain forever.

The Cavaliers played Kentucky in the first game at U-

Hall on Dec. 4, 1965 and lost to the Wildcats 99-73.

On March 5, 2006, the UVa men's team played its final game in U-Hall after 41 seasons - a 71-70 loss to Maryland. During those 41 seasons, Virginia compiled an overall record of 402-143 in University Hall and a record of 179-112 against ACC opponents in the building. Last season, UVa won its 400th game in U-Hall by defeating in-state rival Virginia Tech 81-77 in overtime on Feb. 11. The Cavaliers' final win at University Hall was a 72-58 victory over 11th-ranked Boston College on Feb. 21.

THE EARLY DAYS

Prior to beginning play in University Hall in the 1965-66 season, the Cavaliers had two other home courts - Fayerweather Gymnasium and Memorial Gymnasium.

While Fayerweather Gymnasium was constructed in 1893, the basketball team would not call it home until the program's first season in 1905-06. Under the tutelage of Henry H. "Pop" Lannigan, the only head coach of the Fayerweather era, Virginia men's basketball experienced no losing records while Fayerweather Gymnasium housed the program. The 1914-15 season even saw the Cavaliers go a perfect 17-0, still the only undefeated season in team history. While not every game listed as a home game between the 1905-06 and 1923-24 seasons was played in Fayerweather Gymnasium, the program did manage to have an impressive 193-60-1 record while calling Fayerweather Gymnasium home. Unfortunately, the highly successful years played in Fayerweather came to a close with a 37-24 loss to Fordham on Feb. 21, 1924.

On Jan. 10, 1925, the story continued in Memorial Gymnasium with Virginia's first victory in the building over Lynchburg. This facility was the home to 42 Cavalier men's basketball teams and six different head coaches. During this time, Virginia earned its first postseason appearance in 1941 under Gus Tebell and also joined the Atlantic Coast Conference in 1953. Memorial Gymnasium, commonly referred to as Mem Gym, was also the home of Buzzy Wilkinson, still the UVa and the ACC record holder for career scoring average with 28.6 points per game. By the time Mem Gym was replaced in 1965, the Cavaliers had registered a home record of 279-155. On Feb. 27, 1965, Virginia men's basketball bid Memorial Gymnasium goodbye with a 69-67 victory over ACC foe Clemson.

RETURNING STARTERS

Seven players who started games for Virginia during the 2005-06 season are on the Cavaliers' roster for 2006-07. Those players include guard J.R. Reynolds (30), guard Sean Singletary (29), forward Jason Cain (24), center Tunji Soroye (23), forward Adrian Joseph (19), forward Laurynas Mikalauskas (12) and forward/guard Mamadi Diane (11). The only player not returning who started a game for the Cavaliers last season is guard Billy Campbell who started twice.

BILL COURTNEY JOINS COACHING STAFF

Bill Courtney joined the Virginia men's basketball coaching staff in July of 2006. Prior to joining the UVa staff, Courtney was an assistant coach at Providence for one year. He was a member of Jim Larranaga's (former Virginia assistant coach) coaching staff at George Mason for eight years (1997-2005). He was the associate head coach at George Mason from 2002 until his departure for Providence. Courtney served as an assistant coach on Larranaga's staff at Bowling Green for one year (1996-97) before moving to George Mason with Larranaga prior to the 1997-98 season. He began his collegiate coaching career at American University where he was an assistant coach in 1995-96.

Courtney joins Rob Lanier and Steve Seymour as assistant coaches on head coach Dave Leitao's staff. He is a native of Springfield, Va., and a 1992 graduate of Bucknell University.

VIRGINIA PLAYERS IN INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

Guard J.R. Reynolds and forward Laurynas Mikalauskas gained valuable experience playing against international competition during the spring and summer of 2006.

Reynolds averaged 12.7 points a game with a traveling team of college players during a trip to Nassau in the Bahamas in May. The team won all seven games on the trip, including two victories over the Bahamian National Team, and Reynolds led the team in scoring in two of the games. He led the team with 18 points in a victory over the Bahamian National Team in the final game of the trip. He scored 23 points to lead the team in another game, the most points he scored during the trip.

A benefit for Reynolds that should also turn out to be a benefit for the 2006-07 Virginia team was that he got to play a lot of point guard during the trip. That experience should improve his versatility in the Cavaliers' backcourt this season.

Mikaluskas played for the Lithuanian team that finished second to Russia in the Global Games at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Tex., in June. Among his top performances were a 19-point, five-rebound effort in a loss to Russia, and an 18-point, 11-rebound performance in a victory over Argentina.

All of Virginia's players will have the opportunity to play outside the continental United States when the Cavaliers compete in the San Juan Shootout (Dec. 19-21) in Puerto Rico.

CAVALIERS IN THE 2006 ACC STATISTICAL RANKINGS

Three UVa players were among the leaders in the final Atlantic Coast Conference statistical rankings for the 2005-06 season.

Guard Sean Singletary ranked third in the ACC in free throw percentage (.845, 125-148), fifth in scoring (17.7 ppg.), fifth in steals (54, 1.86 spg.), sixth in assists (121, 4.2 apg.) and eighth in minutes played (982, 33.86 mpg.).

Forward Jason Cain ranked tied for fifth in the conference in double figure rebound games (9), seventh in overall rebounding (229, 7.6 rpg.) and defensive rebounds (142, 4.73 drpg.), tied for eighth in offensive rebounds (87, 2.90 oprg.) and tied for ninth in double-doubles (6).

Guard J.R. Reynolds ranked eighth in the ACC in scoring

(17.0 ppg.), and ninth in free throw percentage (.776, 128-165) and three-point field goals made per game (60, 2.00 pg).
