UVa Falls To Purdue In ACC/Big Ten Challenge

Purdue's Tarrance Crump hit a running floater with one second remaining to break a 59-59 tie and lift the Boilermakers to a 61-59 victory (Nov. 29) over Virginia in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge in West Lafayette, Ind.

During the second half, Virginia turned a nine-point deficit into a five-point lead, only to see Purdue make three key three-pointers down the stretch to pull out the victory. The Boilermakers opened up a 39-30 lead with 15:42 remaining in the game, but UVa used a 15-4 run to take a 45-43 edge with 10:31 to play. The Cavaliers built their lead to five on two occasions, including 55-50 with 6:50 left in the game. Purdue then went on a 9-2 run on the strength of three three-point field goals to take a 59-57 lead with 1:32 to go.

Sean Singletary tied the game at 59-59 with 29 seconds left when he made a pair of free throws, but Crump answered with his game-winning shot with just one second remaining.

Virginia led by as many as seven points (17-10) midway through the first half, but Purdue rallied to take a 26-23 halftime advantage.

Singletary led all players with 21 points, including three three-point field goals, and he also made all eight of his free throw attempts. Singletary also had six rebounds, three assists and a steal. Mamadi Diane was the only other Cavalier to score in double figures as he had 17 points on 7-11 shooting from the field, including a 3-6 effort from beyond the arch. He also added three assists, three steals and two rebounds. Adrian Joseph pulled down a career-high 10 rebounds and tallied six points, while J.R. Reynolds also notched a career best in rebounds with nine. He also had five assists, but saw his 28-game double figure scoring streak end as he totaled only seven points.

Neither team shot the ball well from the field. UVa was 21-55 for 38.2 percent accuracy from the floor, while Purdue was 22-57 for 38.6 percent. The Cavaliers held a 39-36 advantage in rebounds, but committed 15 turnovers to Purdue's 11.

Carl Landry led the Boilermakers with 19 points and eight rebounds. David Teague added 14 points, including four three-pointers, and eight rebounds.

Virginia Defeats NC State in ACC Opener

Virginia snapped an 11-game losing streak in Atlantic Coast Conference openers by defeating NC State 67-62 (Dec. 3) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

J.R. Reynolds and Will Harris both scored 14 points to lead the Cavaliers with Reynolds scoring 13 of his 14 points in the second half. He added five rebounds and three assists, while Harris posted six rebounds. Sean Singletary tallied 11 points, nine rebounds, five assists and two steals. Jason Cain led all players with 10 rebounds.

UVa took a 27-26 lead at the intermission, but the Wolfpack opened the second half with an 8-1 run to take a 34-28 lead with 16:40 to play. It marked the first of 16 lead changes in the second half. Harris scored seven of UVa's next nine points to help the Cavaliers retake the lead, 37-35 with 14:09 to go. Neither team led by more than three points over the final 14 minutes until a pair of Singletary free throws with five seconds left made the final score 67-62. Reynolds scored all 13 of his second half points over the final 7:12 of the contest.

Reynolds' three-pointer with 1:40 to play gave UVa a 62-61 lead. After a NC State free throw tied the game, Singletary put the Cavaliers ahead for good 64-62 with a jumper with 1:03 remaining. Reynolds and Singletary combined to make 3-4 free throws in the final 20 seconds to make the final score 67-62.

UVa shot only 37.9 percent (25-66) from the field in the contest. The Wolfpack shot 41.8 percent (23-55) from the floor. The Cavaliers had a season-low nine turnovers, but forced only 10 NC State miscues. Virginia held a commanding 47-31 advantage in rebounds, including an 18-4 edge on the offensive glass. UVa held a 33-3 edge in scoring off the bench as well.

Brandon Costner led the Wolfpack with 17 points, seven rebounds and two blocked shots. Gavin Grant added 15 points, eight assists and six rebounds.

Virginia Notches 91-69 Win Over Hampton

Five Cavaliers scored in double figures and Mamadi Diane and Ryan Pettinella each had double-doubles as Virginia defeated Hampton 91-69 (Dec. 16) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

Sean Singletary led the way for Virginia with a season-high 27 points and was 14-16 from the free throw line. Singletary saw his streak of 39 consecutive made free throws snapped with 17:05 to go in the second half (after he made all 10 attempts in the first half).

Pettinella notched his first career double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds, including five offensive. He was a perfect 6-6 from the field. Diane set a career-high with 11 rebounds and contributed 10 points for his first career double-double. He also played a team-high 35 minutes. Jason Cain and Adrian Joseph rounded out UVa's double digit scorers with 12 points apiece.

The Cavaliers took a 42-36 lead at the intermission. Hampton was within six points with 18:34 remaining in the second half before a three-pointer by Joseph started a 19-8 Virginia run that gave the Cavaliers a 65-48 lead with 12:58 to go. The Pirates never got closer than 14 points the rest of the way.

Virginia head coach Dave Leitao was ejected from the game after picking up two technical fouls with 4:43 remaining in the first half and UVa leading 33-22.

The Pirates received 17 points apiece from Mike Freeman and Demario Mattox. Freeman also added seven rebounds.

The Cavaliers outrebounded Hampton 49-33, including 20-13 on the offensive glass. UVa forced 21 Pirate turnovers and had 20 points off those turnovers. Virginia attempted 44 free throws in the game and made 29 for 65.9 percent, while Hampton was only 8-13 (61.5 percent).

Cavaliers Drop 94-70 Decision To Utah

Utah made 33-53 attempts from the floor for a sizzling 62.3 percent accuracy to post a 94-70 victory over Virginia (Dec. 20) in the San Juan Shootout.

The Utes were also hot from three-point range, connecting on 11-21 attempts (52.4 percent). Utah became the first team this season to out-rebound the Cavaliers as it held a 37-21 advantage on the boards.

J.R. Reynolds led UVa with 25 points, including a perfect 8-8 from the free throw line. Sean Singletary added 11 points and five assists, while Mamadi Diane contributed 10 points.

Virginia took a quick 4-1 lead, but Utah tied the game at 4-4 two minutes in the contest on the first of 11 three-pointers. The three-pointer by Johnnie Bryant began a 17-4 run which culminated in an 18-8 Utah lead. The Utes extended their lead to as many as 21 points during the opening stanza. The Cavaliers closed the first half with an 12-3 spurt over the final 4:11 to trim the halftime deficit to 40-28.

A three-pointer by Diane at the 19:11 mark of the second half pulled UVa within nine, 42-33, but that is as close as Virginia got. Utah scored the next two baskets and eventually extended its lead to 20 points, 61-41, at the 14:11 mark.

The Cavaliers shot 41.7 percent (20-48) from the field in the game and made 23-30 free throws (76.7 percent). UVa committed a season-low seven turnovers in the game while forcing 11.

Bryant and Luke Nevill led Utah with 26 points apiece. Bryant made seven three-pointers and was 9-15 from the field. Nevill was 10-12 from the floor and also grabbed 11 rebounds for a double-double.

Virginia Downs American 91-70

Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds combined to score 59 points and lead Virginia to a 91-70 win over American (Dec. 28) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

Singletary scored a season-high 33 points and set a career high with five three-point field goals. He was 9-16 from the floor and made all 10 free throw attempts. Singletary added a game-high six assists as well. Reynolds tallied 26 points on 9-15 shooting from the field and was 8-8 from the free throw line. He also contributed six rebounds and three assists. Jamil Tucker scored a career-best nine points, while Will Harris pulled down a game-high seven rebounds in his first career start.

The Cavaliers, who never trailed in the game, took a 15-9 lead with 12:59 left in the first half. After Tunji Soroye opened the game by making a pair of free throws, Singletary scored 13 consecutive UVa points to help Virginia take the early lead. UVa led by 25 points late in the first half before taking a 42-19 lead at the intermission.

American opened the second half with an 11-2 run to trim the Cavaliers' lead down to 14, 44-30, with 17:07 left to play. A layup by the Eagles' Brian Gilmore brought American within 13, 47-34, with 15:24 to play, but Reynolds scored the next eight points to push UVa's lead to 55-34 with 12:50 remaining in the game. American got no closer than 17 points the rest of the game.

Virginia shot 49.1 percent (28-57) from the field and made eight three-point field goals. The Eagles shot only 40.7 percent (24-59) from the floor. Both teams were automatic from the free throw line. UVa made 27-28 attempts for 96.4 percent accuracy and registered the best "non-perfect" performance from the free throw line in school history. American made 17-18 (94.4 percent) of its attempts from the charity stripe. The Cavaliers held a slim 33-30 edge in rebounds.

Andre Ingram led American with 14 points and five rebounds, while Paulius Jonelunas added 10 points.

Virginia Shoot Downs Gonzaga 108-87

Virginia drilled a school record 18 three-point field goals and Sean Singletary exploded for a career-high 37 points in UVa's 108-87 victory over Gonzaga (Jan. 3) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

The Cavaliers made 18-34 attempts from three-point range for 52.9 percent accuracy to break the former mark of 15 made three-pointers in a game. Singletary led the way with a career-best seven treys (on 12 attempts). His 37 points (in only 25 minutes) bettered his former best of 35 points, which also came against Gonzaga on Dec. 17, 2005. Singletary made 9-16 attempts from the floor and 12-14 free throws while adding five rebounds, three steals and two assists.

Mamadi Diane poured in 22 points on 8-13 shooting from the field, including a perfect 4-4 effort from three-point range. He also made both free throw attempts. J.R. Reynolds added 15 points and tied Solomon Tat for team-high honors in assists with five. Jamil Tucker scored a career-best 12 points, including three three-point field goals.

After Gonzaga opened the game with a basket, Singletary drained back-to-back three-pointers and answered a Bulldog basket with another three. Laurynas Mikalaukas followed with a dunk and Diane then drained a three and added a pair of free throws to give the Cavaliers a 16-4 lead 4:18 into the contest. Singletary's fourth and fifth three-pointers at the 10:30 and 10:07 marks increased Virginia's lead to 32-11. UVa made 12 threes and shot 59.4 percent (19-32) from the field in the first half, while taking a 60-26 lead.

UVa led by as many as 36 points on three occasions in the second half, including 87-51 with 9:42 to play. Gonzaga scored the last seven points of the game to make the final margin 21 points (108-87) — the smallest margin since the score was 41-20 with 5:49 left in the first half.

Virginia shot 50.8 percent (32-63) from the field in the game, including the 18-34 effort from long range. The Zags shot 40.0 percent (26-65) from the floor in the game and made 10 three-pointers. The Cavaliers were out-rebounded — 38-36 — for just the second time this season.

Derek Raivio led Gonzaga with 26 points, including six three-pointers. Sean Mallon added 16 points and eight rebounds.

UVa Drops Last Second Decision to Stanford

Stanford's Lawrence Hill hit a short jumper with one second remaining to lift the Cardinal to a 76-75 win over Virginia (Jan. 7) at the John Paul Jones Arena. The loss is the first for the Cavaliers at the JPJA.

J.R. Reynolds gave Virginia a 75-74 lead when he made one of two free throws with 9.4 seconds remaining, but Hill responded by making the game-winning shot.

Sean Singletary led the Cavaliers with a game-high 24 points and added four rebounds and two assists. Reynolds scored all 14 of his points in the final 12:03 of the game. Adrian Joseph tallied 12 points off the bench for UVA.

Stanford led by as many as six points, 30-24, with 2:30 left in the first half. Virginia closed out the first stanza with a 7-3 run to cut the deficit to two, 33-31, at the intermission.

The Cavaliers took their first lead since early in the first half with 14:41 to play when Singletary made a three-pointer to give UVA a 45-44 advantage. Stanford came back to take a 52-47 lead with 12:49 to go, but the Cavaliers responded with an 11-3 run to grab a 58-55 lead with 8:49 to go. Virginia took its biggest lead of the game, 63-59, with 6:58 to go when Reynolds made a pair of free throws.

The game was tied three times in the final 4:04, including 72-72 with 2:30 to play. Reynolds made two more free throws with 1:17 left to give UVA a 74-72 advantage. A tip-in by Stanford's Robin Lopez knotted the game at 74-74 with 42 seconds left.

Virginia shot 43.1 percent (22-51) from the field in the game, while the Cardinal were 27-59 for 45.8 percent from the floor. The Cavaliers had a season-low seven assists in the game. UVA held a 32-31 edge in rebounds.

All five Stanford starters scored in double figures with Robin Lopez leading the way with 15 points, six rebounds and two blocked shots. Hill added 13 points, including the game-winning basket.

UVa Falls to No. 1 North Carolina 79-69

Virginia led No. 1 North Carolina for much of the first half and in the opening minutes of the second half, but the Tar Heels rallied to post a 79-69 win (Jan. 10) at the Dean E. Smith Center in Chapel Hill. UVA falls to 1-26 all-time against top ranked teams.

The Cavaliers got off to a great start and led by as many as nine points, 27-18, midway through the first half. North Carolina used a 13-3 run to take its first lead of the contest, 31-30, with 6:45 remaining in the opening half. A jumper and then a three-pointer by Sean Singletary gave UVA a 35-31 edge, but the Tar Heels scored eight of the next 10 points to take a 39-37 halftime lead.

UVA opened the final stanza with a 9-2 flurry to grab a 46-41 lead with 18:18 to play. UNC tied the game at 47-47 and then again at 49-49 on a Danny Green jumper at the 15:10 mark that started a 16-3 run that pushed the Tar Heels' lead to 11, 63-52, with 9:23 to go. Mamadi Diane answered with back-to-back three-pointers that brought UVA within five, 63-58, at the 7:30 mark. North Carolina answered with a 9-0 spurt to take its largest lead of the game, 72-58, with 2:59 left. The Cavaliers got no closer than eight points the rest of the way.

J.R. Reynolds led UVA with 15 points and seven assists, while Singletary added 14 points and seven assists, but he also had eight turnovers. Diane also tallied 14 points, while Laurynas Mikalaukas scored a season-high 10 points. Jason Cain led UVA with eight rebounds and also scored eight points.

North Carolina outscored UVA 26-8 from the free throw line and held a 47-34 edge in rebounds, including a 21-8 margin on the offensive glass. UVA shot 44.1 percent (26-59) from the field in the contest and held UNC to 37.9 percent (25-66) shooting from the floor. Virginia was only 8-11 (72.7 percent) from the free throw line and the Tar Heels were 26-41 (63.4 percent). The Cavaliers committed 12 of their 18 turnovers in the second half. North Carolina had only 10 turnovers in the game.

Tyler Hansbrough led UNC with 18 points and seven rebounds, while Brandan Wright notched 16 points, nine rebounds and three steals.

Virginia Loses to Boston College 78-73

Virginia made six more field goals, including eight more three-pointers than Boston College, but the Eagles outscored UVA 35-10 from the free throw line to register a 78-73 victory (Jan. 13) over the Cavaliers at the Conte Forum in Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Boston College was an impressive 35-45 from the free throw line for 77.8 percent accuracy, while UVA made just 10-19 attempts from the stripe for 52.6 percent. The disparity from the free throw line more than offset the Cavaliers 26-20 edge in field goals made, including an 11-3 advantage in three-pointers. Virginia also outshot the Eagles 45.6 percent (26-57) to 38.5 percent (20-52) from the floor.

J.R. Reynolds paced the Cavaliers with 21 points, seven assists and four rebounds. Sean Singletary tallied 12 points, five rebounds and five assists, while Adrian Joseph added 11 points. The trio combined to make 10 of UVA's 11 three-point field goals.

Virginia got off to a great start, holding the Eagles scoreless for nearly six and a half minutes while building a 9-0 lead. Boston College scored the next nine points to tie the game at 9-9 at the 11:32 mark. UVA responded with a 7-0 run to take a 16-9 lead. Virginia never trailed in the first half and took a 33-29 halftime lead.

The Cavaliers held the lead for the first portion of the second half as well. UVA took a 39-33 lead with 17:29 to go on a jumper by Reynolds. The Eagles came back to tie the game at 39-39 and then again at 41-41 on a pair of free throws by Sean Williams at the 14:58 mark. The free throws began a 23-6 run that culminated in a 62-47 BC advantage with 7:30 left in the game. Williams' jumper with 14:06 to play gave BC its first lead as well as the lead for good, 43-41. The Cavaliers battled back to cut the deficit to five, 73-68, on a pair of Mamadi Diane free throws with 1:14 to go. Virginia had a chance to come within three with 53 seconds left, but Diane missed a pair of free throws.

Both teams had 36 rebounds in the contest. UVA committed 19 turnovers in the game while forcing only 11 BC miscues.

Virginia Runs Past Maryland 103-91

Mamadi Diane and Sean Singletary combined for 51 points to lead five Cavaliers in double figures in Virginia's 103-91 win over Maryland (Jan. 16) at the John Paul Jones Arena. The victory snapped a six-game slide to Maryland and is the first time UVA has scored 100 points in a game against the Terrapins. It also marked the first time Virginia has scored 100 points in an ACC game since a 104-76 win at Clemson on Jan. 27, 2001.

Diane tallied a career-high 26 points on 9-16 shooting from the field, including a pair of three-pointers, and a 6-7 effort from the free throw line. He also registered a career-high four steals. Singletary tallied 25 points, which included a 12-14 performance from the free throw line, seven assists, three rebounds and two steals. J.R. Reynolds posted 17 points, seven rebounds and four assists. He was 11-12 from the charity stripe. Jason Cain notched his second double-double of the season with 13 points and a career-high tying 16 rebounds, which is also a John Paul Jones Arena record. Jamil Tucker came off the bench to equal his career high with 12 points.

Maryland led only once and that was in the early stage of the game. UVA took the lead for good on a jumper by Diane that made the score 5-3 just 1:20 into the contest. At the 11:03 mark, Reynolds made a pair of free throws to start a 14-2 run that gave the Cavaliers a 38-20 lead. With UVA leading 50-30, Maryland closed out the half with a 13-0 run to make the halftime score 50-43.

The Terps trimmed UVA's lead to 56-53 and then 58-55 at the 14:36 mark, but Virginia responded with a 12-0 run to grab a 70-55 lead with 9:52 to play. Maryland got no closer than eight points the rest of the game.

Virginia shot 44.4 percent (28-63) from the field in the game. The Terrapins were 33-77 for 42.9 percent from the floor. The Cavaliers held a huge advantage at the free throw line as they converted 39-49 (79.6 percent) attempts, while Maryland was only 15-24 (62.5 percent). The Cavaliers also held a 48-36 advantage in rebounds.

Mike Jones scored 18 points to lead Maryland, while Ekene Ibekwe registered a double-double with 17 points and 14 rebounds.

Reynolds Leads UVA to 88-76 Win over Wake

J.R. Reynolds scored a career-high 40 points to lead Virginia to an 88-76 victory over Wake Forest (Jan. 21) at the John Paul Jones Arena. Reynolds connected on 12-18 field goal attempts, including 6-8 three-pointers, and made all 10 free throw attempts.

Reynolds' also established career highs with his 12 field goals made and six three-pointers. Sean Singletary added 19 points, while Mamadi Diane and Jason Cain both added 10 points.

After Cain opened the game with a jumper, Reynolds and Singletary combined to score the next 24 Cavalier points to help UVA build a 26-19 lead with 8:34 remaining in the first half. Wake Forest came back to take a 29-27 lead with 3:18 to go in the first stanza. Four free throws each by Reynolds and Singletary gave the Cavaliers the lead for good, 35-33, with 1:25 to go. A Reynolds three-pointer and a Singletary jumper gave UVA a 40-38 halftime lead. Reynolds and Singletary combined to score the final 13 points of the first half for Virginia and 37 of the Cavaliers' 40 first half points.

Virginia opened the second half with a 12-2 run to grab a 52-40 advantage with just under 18 minutes to play. The Demon Deacons then used a 7-2 spurt to pull within seven, 54-47 with 13:50 to go. UVA answered with a Reynolds layup and back-to-back jumpers by Diane and Adrian Joseph to extend the lead to 13, 60-47, with 12:32 remaining. Wake was only able to trim the deficit to single digits once, 71-63 with 5:04 left, but Reynolds immediately answered with a three-pointer.

UVA was an impressive 29-55 (52.7 percent) from the field in the game, including 58.6 percent (17-29) in the second half. The Cavaliers also connected on 11-22 three-point attempts and made 19-22 (86.4 percent) free throw attempts. Wake Forest shot only 39.4 percent (26-66) from the floor. Both teams had 17 turnovers in the contest and the Deacs held a 38-33 edge in rebounds.

Jamie Skeen came off the bench to lead Wake with 14 points and eight rebounds. Ishmael Smith added 13 points.

Virginia Collects Road Win over NC State

J.R. Reynolds and Sean Singletary combined to score 56 points to lead Virginia to a 71-58 victory over NC State (Jan. 24) at the RBC Center in Raleigh. The UVA duo scored only two less points than the entire Wolfpack team.

After a quiet first half, Reynolds exploded for 24 of his game-high 29 points. He was 9-15 from the field, including 5-8 from three-point range, and made all six free throws while adding six rebounds and three assists. Singletary scored 15 of his 27 points in the first half and also grabbed all nine of his rebounds in the first stanza. He also had four assists and a steal. Jason Cain led all players with 12 rebounds.

Singletary scored 12 of his 15 first half points in the first 10 minutes of the game while helping UVA take a 21-12 lead at the 9:57 mark. NC State whittled UVA's lead down to four points, but Singletary ended a 7:20 Cavalier scoring drought with a three-point basket with four ticks left in the first half to give UVA a 26-19 half-time lead.

Virginia built its lead to 12 points, 42-30, with 14:02 remaining on the clock when Singletary drained a three-pointer. The Wolfpack used an 11-0 run to trim the deficit to one point, 42-41, with 11:45 remaining in the game. Reynolds ended the NCSU run with a fadeaway jumper at the 10:57 mark. After a Lauryns Mikalaukas layup made the score 46-42, Reynolds scored UVA's next 18 points in a span of 8:16 to help seal the victory.

After shooting only 29.4 percent (10-34) in the first half, UVA heated up and shot 63.6 percent (14-22) in the second stanza for 42.9 percent (24-56) accuracy for the game. The Cavaliers held NC State to 31.7 percent (20-63) shooting from the floor. UVA also held a 44-38 edge in rebounds.

Brandon Costner led NC State with 14 points and seven rebounds, while Courtney Fells registered a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

UVa Registers Comeback Win Over Clemson

Virginia scored the final 15 points of the game capped off by a Jason Cain tip-in with 15.5 seconds remaining for a 64-63 victory over 19th-ranked Clemson (Jan. 28) at Littlejohn Coliseum.

The Cavaliers trailed by as many as 16 points (61-45) with 8:47 to play and held Clemson scoreless over the final five minutes in the come-from-behind victory.

Solomon Tat began UVa's comeback at the 8:01 mark by following up a missed shot. After a layup by Sean Singletary made the score 61-49, the Tigers scored what proved to be their final points of the game on two free throws by Trevor Booker with 5:05 to play. Adrian Joseph and J.R. Reynolds followed with back-to-back three-pointers to pull UVa within eight, 63-55, with 2:56 to play. A jumper by Reynolds and another three-pointer by Joseph at the 1:33 mark made the score 63-60. With 51.7 seconds left, Joseph drained a jumper to make it a one-point game. A Clemson turnover gave the ball back to the Cavaliers. UVa missed a three-pointer, but Singletary out-jumped everyone at the free throw line to come up with the rebound. While on the ground he found Joseph who drove to the basket and missed, but Cain followed up with the tip-in with 15.5 seconds left for his only field goal of the game. The Tigers missed a driving layup attempt on the ensuing possession.

Neither team led by more than four points in the first half with the Tigers holding a 34-30 lead at the intermission.

The Cavaliers shot 42.9 percent (24-56) from the field in the game, including 50 percent (14-28) in the decisive second half. Clemson shot 45.3 percent (24-53) from the floor in the game. UVa held a 39-29 edge in rebounds.

Reynolds led Virginia with 18 points. He made 8-12 attempts from the field. Singletary and Joseph both tallied 11 points, with Joseph scoring eight of his 11 in the second half. Singletary added seven rebounds to lead UVa. Mamadi Diane rounded out UVa's double digit scorers with 10 points.

Vernon Hamilton led Clemson with 16 points, while James Mays registered a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

UVa Rallies From 13 Down To Beat Duke In OT

Sean Singletary hit an off-balance baseline floater with one second remaining in overtime to lift Virginia to a 68-66 victory over Duke (Feb. 1) at the John Paul Jones Arena. The win extended UVa's winning streak to five games.

The Cavaliers trailed by as many as 13 points in the first half (34-21 with 3:29 to go) and were down eight, 59-51, with 3:42 play in regulation. J.R. Reynolds scored the next eight UVa points to pull the Cavaliers within two, 61-59, with 1:15 to play. With 26 seconds left, Singletary knotted the game at 61-61 with a jumper. Duke's Josh McRoberts missed a short jumper in the lane with three seconds remaining and the game went into overtime.

A pair of free throws by Singletary 14 seconds into overtime gave Virginia its first lead since 6-4 only 2:28 into the game. With the score tied at 65-65, Ryan Pettinella made one of two free throws with 2:57 left in the extra session to give UVa a 66-65 lead. Duke tied the game at 66-66 when Gerald Henderson made the first of two free throws with 1:56 to go. Both teams missed jumpers on their next two possessions before Singletary hit the game-winner with one second left. Duke's Greg Paulus had a good look at a three-pointer at the final buzzer, but it bounced off the back rim.

UVa closed out the first half with an 8-2 run to mix a 13-point deficit to seven points, 36-29, at halftime.

Reynolds, who battled cramps throughout the second half, scored a game-high 25 points and added four rebounds and two assists. Singletary tallied 17 points and four assists, while Mamadi Diane posted 14 points on 6-8 shooting from the floor, while making both three-point attempts. Jason Cain led all players with 10 rebounds.

The Cavaliers shot 41.4 percent (24-58) from the field in the game, but made 16-19 (84.2 percent) of their free throw attempts. Duke shot 44.1 percent (26-59) from the floor, but made only 10-30 (33.3 percent) of its attempts after shooting 55.2 percent (16-29) in the first half. Duke was 9-11 (81.8 percent) from the free throw line and held a slight 34-33 edge in rebounds. UVa committed only eight turnovers in the game.

McRoberts led Duke with 19 points and three blocked shots, while DeMarcus Nelson added 12 points and four rebounds.

Virginia Blows By Hurricanes 81-70

Sean Singletary and J.R. Reynolds combined for 40 points to lead Virginia to an 81-70 win over Miami (Feb. 3) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

Singletary led all players with 22 points and added five assists and four rebounds. Reynolds tallied 18 points, seven rebounds and five assists. The duo combined for seven three-point field goals with Singletary leading the way with four. Mamadi Diane added 14 points for his third consecutive double figure scoring game. Jason Cain led all players with nine rebounds and added eight points.

Miami scored the first basket of the game and led 4-2 1:05 into the contest. Reynolds gave UVa the lead for good with a three-pointer 1:26 into the game. The Hurricanes closed to 9-8, but consecutive three-pointers by Diane, Adrian Joseph and Reynolds staked Virginia to an 18-8 lead with 13:41 to play in the first half. Miami fought back to cut the deficit to three, 21-18, with 11:05 to play, but the Cavaliers held Miami scoreless for nearly seven minutes while scoring 13 straight points to open a 34-18 lead with 6:08 remaining in the first half. The Hurricanes' scoring drought ended at the 4:17 mark on a layup by Anthony Harris. UVa led 41-25 at the intermission.

Virginia's lead never shrunk below 11 points in the second half.

UVa shot 47.1 percent (24-51) from the field in the game, including 11-26 (42.3 percent) from three-point range. Miami made only 23-64 attempts from the floor for 35.9 percent accuracy, but the Hurricanes shot 37.5 percent (9-24) from three-point range. The Cavaliers held a 39-30 edge in rebounds. Virginia committed only nine turnovers in the game and Miami was even more stingy with the ball as it had just six turnovers in the contest.

Jack McClinton led Miami with 18 points, while Brian Asbury added 12.

UVa Holds on for 69-65 Win Over Maryland

J.R. Reynolds scored a game-high 23 points, but Tunji Soroye supplied the late-game heroics by nailing three free throws in the final 2:02 to lift Virginia to a 69-65 win over Maryland (Feb. 6) in College Park.

The Cavaliers led by as many as 15 points four times, including 59-44 with 12:16 to play. Maryland came charging back and used a 13-2 run to pull within four, 61-57, with 5:48 to play. With the lead down to three, 63-60, Soroye made two free throws with 2:02 to play to push the advantage up to five, 65-60. A three-pointer by Eric Hayes with 54 ticks left made the score 65-63. After Mamadi Diane made the second of two free throws with 23 seconds left, the Terrapins' James Gist sank two free throws to make it a one-point game, 66-65 with 13 seconds remaining. Two seconds later, Reynolds drained two foul shots to give the Cavaliers a 68-65 advantage. After a missed jumper, Soroye grabbed the rebound and was fouled with three seconds left. He made the first free throw to put the game out of reach.

Maryland's only lead of the contest was in the game's opening moments when Mike Jones hit a three-pointer 52 seconds in. Back-to-back layups by Laurynas Mikalaukas and Sean Singletary gave UVa the lead. The Cavaliers led the rest of the way after Diane's layup gave UVa a 10-8 lead at the 16:43 mark. Virginia led by as many as 14 points in the first half and took a 41-31 lead at the intermission.

In addition to his three key free throws, Soroye pulled down a game and career-high 11 rebounds and blocked a season-best four shots while adding an assist and a steal. Adrian Joseph came off the bench to tally 13 points, including three three-point field goals. Singletary rounded out UVa's double figure scorers with 10 points and he also added eight rebounds, three steals and two assists.

UVa shot 42.6 percent (26-61) from the field in the game after connecting on 51.5 percent (17-33) of its attempts in the first half. Maryland shot 40.6 percent (26-64) from the floor in the contest. Virginia made 11-13 (84.6 percent) of its free throws, while the Terps were only 8-15 (53.3 percent). The Cavaliers held a huge 45-32 edge in rebounds and pulled down 18 on the offensive glass. UVa matched its season high with 20 turnovers while forcing only 12.

Mike Jones led Maryland with 18 points, while Greivis Vasquez had 13.

UVa Stumbles 84-57 at Virginia Tech

Virginia saw its seven-game winning streak come to an end with an 84-57 loss to Virginia Tech (Feb. 10) at Cassell Coliseum in Blacksburg. The loss snapped UVa's four-game winning streak over the Hokies.

J.R. Reynolds led the Cavaliers with 21 points, while Sean Singletary added 13. Solomon Tat tallied career highs of eight points and six rebounds. His six rebounds led the team.

Virginia took what proved to be its only lead of the game when Reynolds scored the opening basket 26 seconds into the contest. The Hokies then went on a 21-4 run to open up a 21-6 lead with 13:16 to play in the first half. Virginia Tech's lead grew to as many as 23, 36-13, with 7:23 to go in the opening stanza. UVa trailed 38-22 at the half, marking its lowest point total in an opening half this season.

UVa began the second half with a 5-0 run to pull within 11, 38-27, but the Hokies answered with a 13-2 run to go ahead 51-29 with 13:38 remaining. Virginia never got closer than 20 points the rest of the game.

UVa shot only 32.8 percent (21-64) from the field, while Virginia Tech converted 30-52 field goal attempts for an impressive 57.7 percent accuracy. The Cavaliers made only 4-18 (22.2 percent) three-point attempts. The Hokies were 7-18 (38.9 percent) from three-point range. Virginia held a slight 36-35 edge in rebounds and had an impressive 21 offensive rebounds.

Deron Washington and A.D. Vassallo had game-high totals of 22 points apiece to lead Virginia Tech. Washington also added 10 rebounds for a double-double.

UVa earns Tough 73-70 Win Over Florida State

Sean Singletary contributed a team-high 19 points, but Adrian Joseph's five three-point field goals provided the spark when the Cavaliers needed it in a hard-fought 73-70 win over Florida State (Feb. 17) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

While the Cavaliers only trailed once in the game, after Al Thornton's opening basket 1:18 into the contest, they could never quite put the Seminoles away until the very end of the game. UVa managed to build a 12-point lead, 44-32, with 16:57 left in the game. Florida State then held the Cavaliers to only two points over the next five minutes as it closed the gap to 46-45 with 12:31 to play. The Seminoles also pulled within one point, 48-47, with 10:58 to go, and 58-57, with 6:32 to play.

J.R. Reynolds buried a three 15 seconds after FSU pulled with 48-47 and Joseph responded with a three at the 6:18 mark to make the score 61-57. Joseph's three-pointer with 4:07 to play began a mini 5-0 run to help the Cavaliers take a 67-60 edge with 2:01 on the clock. UVa made all six free throws down the stretch to help the Cavaliers register the victory, despite 10 points from FSU's Al Thornton in the final 1:42 of the contest.

Joseph and Reynolds both scored 17 points with Joseph setting a season high for points. Joseph also equaled his career high with five three-point field goals. He was 6-9 from the floor, including 5-7 from three-point range. Reynolds added eight rebounds and six assists, while Singletary contributed six rebounds, six assists and four steals in addition to his 19 points. Tunji Soroye led UVa with nine rebounds, including seven offensive.

Virginia shot only 25-67 (37.3 percent) from the field in the game, but did manage to make 12-26 three-point attempts for 46.2 percent accuracy. The Seminoles converted 25-62 attempts from the field for 40.3 percent, including 10-29 (34.5 percent) three-pointers. Florida State held a slight 41-40 edge in rebounds, but UVa committed only eight turnovers in the game.

Thornton led Florida State with 30 points and 16 rebounds, while Isaiah Swann added 13 points.

Cavaliers Drop 68-60 Decision to Miami

Virginia led by as many as 12 points early in the second half, but Miami outscored UVa by 17 points in the final stanza to earn a 68-60 victory (Feb. 21) over the Cavaliers at the BankUnited Center in Coral Gables, Fla.

The Hurricanes only led twice during the first 38 minutes of the game, but Miami took the lead for good, 61-58, on a three-pointer by Jack McClinton with 1:06 to play. UVa pulled within 61-60 with 51 seconds left on a pair of free throws by J.R. Reynolds, which proved to be the Cavaliers' final points of the game. McClinton answered with another three with 25 seconds left and the Hurricanes made four free throws in the closing seconds to make the final score 68-60.

The Cavaliers led by as many as 12 points during the first half, including 34-22 on a three-pointer by Adrian Joseph with 2:02 remaining. Virginia settled for a 35-26 halftime lead.

Sean Singletary opened the second half with a three-pointer to give UVa its third 12-point lead of the contest. Miami then went on an 8-0 run to pull within 38-34 with 16:46 left in the game. The Hurricanes tied the game at 49-49 with 9:32 to play before taking a 53-51 edge on Anthony Harris' layup with 7:51 to go.

Singletary led the Cavaliers with a game-high 17 points. Reynolds added 13 points and eight rebounds, while Jamil Tucker came off the bench to tally 11 points.

The Cavaliers shot only 39.1 percent (18-46) from the field in the game, including 27.3 percent (6-22) in the second half. UVa Rallies For 75-69 Win Over Georgia Tech

Virginia held Georgia Tech scoreless for the final 3:40 of the game while outscoring the Yellow Jackets 13-0 for a 75-69 come-from-behind victory (Feb. 24) at the John Paul Jones Arena.

The Cavaliers trailed by seven, 69-62, with 3:41 left to play after Javaris Crittenton made a pair of free throws. Georgia Tech missed all five of its field goal attempts and turned the ball over four times in the final 3:08. Sean Singletary began the comeback with a pair of free throws with 3:32 left to play. A three-point play by J.R. Reynolds at the 2:45 mark brought UVa within 69-67. An offensive rebound and putback by Jason Cain tied the contest at 69-69 with 2:23 to go. A putback by Tunji Soroye with 32 seconds remaining gave Virginia the lead for good, 71-69. Singletary and Cain closed out the contest by making two free throws apiece.

The Cavaliers got off to a great start, building a 22-6 lead just 7:31 into the contest. Georgia Tech slowly trimmed the deficit and used a 16-0 run to turn a 12-point deficit into a four-point lead, 33-29 with 2:06 to play in the first half. The Cavaliers went nearly seven minutes without scoring until Singletary made two free throws with 1:55 left to pull UVa within 33-31. The Yellow Jackets went on to take a 38-34 lead at halftime thanks in part to 53.6 percent (15-28) shooting from the field.

Georgia Tech didn't trail again until the 12 minute mark when Singletary converted a three-point play to give Virginia a 50-49 lead. The Yellow Jackets regained the lead with 10:50 to play and held it until UVa tied the game at 69-69 with 2:23 left.

Reynolds scored a game-high 25 points and Singletary contributed 24. Reynolds added four rebounds and four steals, while Singletary tied for game-high honors in rebounds with seven and had four assists.

Virginia shot 43.6 percent (24-55) from the field in the game and made nine three-point field goals. The Cavaliers were an impressive 18-19 (94.7 percent) from the free throw line. Georgia Tech connected on 26-56 (46.4 percent) attempts from the floor, but made only four three-point field goals. UVa committed 11 turnovers in the contest while forcing 16. The Jackets held a 35-27 edge in rebounds.

Thaddeus Young led Georgia Tech with 15 points and six rebounds. Ra'Sean Dickey tallied 14 points and five boards.

UVa Rolls To 69-56 Win Over Virginia Tech

Virginia closed out an incredible inaugural season at the John Paul Jones Arena with a 69-56 victory (March 1) over in-state rival and 21st-ranked Virginia Tech. The win marked the final home appearance for seniors J.R. Reynolds and Jason Cain.

UVa used accurate long-range shooting and excellent defense to earn a season split and a point in the Commonwealth Challenge competition. The Cavaliers shot an impressive 62.5 percent (10-16) from three-point range while holding Virginia Tech to 36.2 percent (21-58) accuracy from the field. The Hokies made only 2-15 (13.3 percent) three-point attempts and were 0-10 in the second half.

Sean Singletary led Virginia with 17 points, six assists and five rebounds, while Reynolds and Mamadi Diane both tallied 13 points. Reynolds added six assists and four rebounds. He also played solid defense on Zabian Dowdell in the second half to hold him to four points (Dowdell had 13 in the first half). Cain led all players with nine rebounds and also scored eight points.

The Cavaliers got off to a great start, scoring 13 of the first 16 points in the game. UVa led by as many as 12 points, 17-5, in the opening half. The Hokies used a 13-0 run to turn an 11-point deficit into a two-point lead, 21-19, with 6:48 to play in the opening half. Virginia Tech took its biggest lead of the game, 23-20, with 5:37 left in the first half. UVa responded with a 10-1 spurt to grab a 30-24 edge with 2:44 left in the first half and led 36-28 at halftime.

Cain and Diane opened the second stanza with baskets to push UVa's advantage to 40-28. The Hokies pulled within 43-38 with 14:54 to play, but a Singletary jumper and a Diane three put UVa up 10, 48-38, with 13:20 left. Virginia Tech answered with four straight points to make the score 48-42, but Diane and Singletary responded with back-to-back threes and Singletary added two free throws to push the advantage to 56-42 with 11:01 left. Tech never got closer than seven points the rest of the game.

UVa shot 43.6 percent (24-55) from the field in the game and held a 38-35 edge in rebounds. Virginia Tech had only one steal in the contest and that came with only 2:57 remaining.

Dowdell was the only Virginia Tech player to reach double figures in scoring as he had 17 points, but only four in the second half.

Virginia Suffers 78-72 Loss To Wake in ACC Finale

Virginia fell short in capturing its first outright ACC regular season title since 1981 when it lost to Wake Forest 78-72 (Mar. 3) in its conference finale at Lawrence Joel Coliseum in Winston-Salem, N.C.

The Cavaliers shot only 35.9 percent (23-64) from the field in the game, including 29.0 percent (9-31) in the second half. UVa made only 5-20 (25.0 percent) three-point attempts in suffering its fifth ACC loss of the season.

Sean Singletary led all scorers with 25 points and added seven rebounds. J.R. Reynolds tallied 11 points, while Jamil Tucker came off the bench to score 10 points.

The Cavaliers led 39-35 at the half after trailing for much of the opening stanza. With the score tied at 27-27, Will Harris and Singletary drained back-to-back three-pointers to give UVa a 33-27 lead with 3:47 to go. Virginia also led 35-29 with 3:08 left in the opening half, which proved to be its largest lead of the game.

Wake Forest scored the first five points of the second half to take a 40-39 lead. With 11:06 to play, UVa took its final lead of the contest, 52-51, on a tip-in by Ryan Pettinella. UVa went on to tie the game three times after taking its final lead, including 62-62 with 5:05 left. The Demon Deacons built their lead to six, 74-68, with 1:26 to go, but a three by Tucker and a free throw by Jason Cain made the score 74-72 with 21 seconds left. On Cain's miss on the second free throw attempt, Singletary's tip attempt just missed. Wake made four free throws in the final 18 seconds to seal the victory.

Wake Forest was barely better than UVa from the field as it shot 36.7 percent (22-60) from the floor. The Deacs made 27-43 (62.8 percent) free throw attempts while Virginia was 21-28 (75.0 percent) from the charity stripe. Wake held a 47-44 edge in rebounds.

Kyle Visser led the Demon Deacons with 17 points and 10 rebounds, while Michael Drum added 16 points.
